CAPE ELIZABETH — Clifton Edward Curtis, 91, of Fowler Road, a tireless correspondent who "never lost touch with a soul," died June 26, 2001, at a Portland hospital.

Mr. Curtis' love of communicating may have been fostered during 35 years of employment at New England Telephone & Telegraph, said a son, Roger.

Clifton Curtis

"He made connections with people and was extremely loyal" to them, said another son, Philip. "He continued the relationship as long as the person reciprocated."

Mr. Curtis wrote to near and distant relatives, childhood friends, friends from his years at the University of Maine and former coworkers at New England Telephone.

He was born in Dorchester, Mass., a son of Clifton Judson and Mary Buchan Urquhart Curtis, and graduated from Quincy (Mass.) High School. In 1931 he graduated from the University of Maine, where he was a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity and played football and ran indoor and outdoor track.

On Feb. 13, 1937, he married Barbara Louise Wildes in Bangor. The Curtises raised their family in Melrose, Mass., Manchester, N.H., Bangor and Portland.

He was a member of the Maine "M" Club, the Maine Historical Society, the Cape Elizabeth Historical Preservation Society, the Masons and the Maine Association of Engineers. He was also a member of the First Congregational Church, UCC, in South Portland and served on several Cape Elizabeth town committees.

"It's only been one day (since his death) and already we've received cards from doctors who thought he was an extra-special person," Philip Curtis said of his father. "He would make a connection because he was the kind of person who really cared about people."

Surviving are his wife of 64 years, Barbara Louise Wildes Curtis of Cape Elizabeth; two sons, Philip B. of Biddeford and Roger W. of Tolland, Conn.; a daughter, Linda C. Maguire of South Portland; a brother, Robert Andrews Curtis of Colchester, Vt.; seven grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

There will be no visiting hours. A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at Hobbs Funeral Home, 230 Cottage Road, South Portland. Burial will be at a later date.
