Remarks

Nelson R. Davis, 65, of 22 Waltham Street, Westbrook, former superintendent of the S. D. Warren Paper Company, died Wednesday night in a Portland Hospital. Mr. Davis had been in ill health several months.

He was born at Sanford and as a young boy moved with his parents to Watertown, Mass. He attended the public schools of Watertown and later entered Harvard College and was graduated in the Class of 1901, receiving the bachelor of arts degree. He went to Westbrook in July, 1901, and entered the employ of the S. D. Warren Paper Mill, and had charge of the Chemical Department two years. Mr. Davis had been considered one of the foremost production men in the paper-making industry and was a past president of the American Pulp and Paper Mill Superintendents' Association and first president of the Northeastern Division of the association.

In 1925 Mr. Davis was elected president of the Haskell Silk Mill in Westbrook which is no longer in business. He played an important part in the convention of the American Pulp and Paper Mill Superintendents' Association in Dayton, O., in 1924, being presiding officer and principal speaker.

He retired as superintendent of the S. D. Warren Company in 1932, and was advisor on investments to the treasurer of Bowdoin College several years.

Mr. Davis was a director of the Westbrook Trust Company many years and also was a director of the Fidelity Trust Company when the Westbrook Trust was part of the Fidelity Trust. He was president of the Warren Congregational Church and was a member of several parish committees. He was a director and officer of the Falmouth Building and Loan Association of Portland. He was a former member of the Westbrook Rotary Club, of Warren Phillips Lodge, F and AM, and the Boylston Chemical Society of Cambridge, Mass.

Surviving are three daughters, the Misses Margaret, Dorothy and Barbara Davis, all of Westbrook.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday at the Warren Congregational Church. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Westbrook.

Born 7-20-1911

Paul S. Davis, 70, of 10 Abbott St. died Tuesday at a local hospital following a brief illness.

He was born in Cornish, a son of Charles H. and Minnie Seekins Davis. He attended Cornish schools and Deering High School.

Mr. Davis was a veteran of World War II, serving in the U.S. Army, and was a movie projectionist for more than 50 years in the Portland area.

He was also employed by Communication Engineering Co., retiring in 1974. Since his retirement, he was projectionist at Cinema City, Westbrook.

He was a member and past master of the Atlantic Masonic Lodge and a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. He attended the North Deering Christian and Missionary Alliance Church.

Besides his wife, the former Pearl Plaisted, he is survived by two daughters, Roberta P. Official Record

Roy A. Davis

Roy A. Davis, 65, a resident of Portland 44 years and widely known as a sportsman, died Tuesday night in his camp at Naples.

Born in 1883 at Limestone, Aroostook County, Mr. Davis came to Portland at the age of 21 and had resided here since. He was for many years associated with the glass business in this city, earlier as foreman for the Shaw-Thompson Company and later in business under the name of the Davis Auto Glass Company until he retired a few years ago.

He was an ardent sportsman and for many years was active in the Cumberland County Fish and Game Association and the Biddeford and Saco Fish and Game Association.

He was a member of Atlantic Lodge, AF&AM, and of other branches of the order.

Surviving is his widow, Mrs. Harriet B. Davis, also of Portland.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Friday at 749 Congress Street, and interment will be in Forest City Cemetery.
