James W. Eastman

FRYEBURG, April 21. (Special) — Col. James W. Eastman, 56, veteran of the Spanish-American and the World Wars, and associated with his father, the late Tobias Eastman in the general store business here, died last night at St. Petersburg, Fla., where he was spending part of the Winter. His son, Robert B. Eastman, left immediately upon receiving word today to fly to Florida to make arrangements for bringing the body of his father North. His father died about Christmas time.

Mr. Eastman was born in Fryeburg and received his education in the schools of the town and at Fryeburg Academy, from which he was graduated. As a young man he entered the store of his father, and was later admitted to partnership, conducting the business alone since the latter's death. He served in the U. S. Navy during the Spanish-American War and enlisted in the 56th Pioneer Infantry, organized as the Milliken Regiment, upon the United States entering the World War. He was promoted to Captain in June, 1917, and saw service overseas. He was appointed Colonel on the staff of Governor William Tudor Gardiner.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ina Sawtelle Eastman; three sons, Tobias Clifford, Robert B. and Harold B. Eastman, and a sister, Mrs. Reba Craig, all of Fryeburg.

Dick enjoyed many years of fishing all over the state of Maine. His favorite spots were Moosehead Lake and Cobbossee Lake; with an occasional visit to Pemaquid Point to catch bluefish or mackerel. He loved fishing with friends and family. His best times were at the family camp at Welch's Point in East Winthrop. His other hobbies included fly-tying, cribbage, hunting, trapping and ice fishing.

Mr. Eastman was predeceased by an infant son, Jeffrey Walter Eastman.

He is survived by his mother, Emma Eastman of North Adams, Mass.; his wife of 48 years, of Coopers Mills; a son, Lorenzo D. Skowhegan, Nov. 19—A telegram received here today announced that Bernard L. Eaton, 32, of this town, a selectee inducted into the service last March, and a member of the 118th Engineers engaged in maneuvers of the 43rd Division in North Carolina, had been killed by the accidental discharge of a rifle which drove a charge of black wadding into his head.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard C. Eaton, had left for Boston to pass the holiday with their daughter, Miss Doris Eaton, when the message was received here.

Eaton, who expected his discharge in December on account of age, was a native of this town and a graduate of Skowhegan High School in 1928. He was a carpenter by trade and worked with his father. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge.
