LEWISTON - Donald G. Hotham, 78, of 740 Hancock Street in Rumford, passed away on Sunday, July 20, 2003 at Central Maine Medical Center in Lewiston, surrounded by the family that he considered to be his greatest blessing. Donald Hotham was born in Rumford on Aug. 12, 1924, a son of Rupert and Thelma (Wyman) Hotham. He attended Rumford schools, and spent one year at The Hinkley School for Children before obtaining his diploma from Stephens High School of Rumford. After school, Don enlisted in the U.S. Marines, and spent three years fighting for his beloved America in the Pacific Theater. Corporal Hotham was seriously wounded in the battle for Guam on Aug. 1, 1944, and was honorably discharged from the Marines in 1945. Don was very proud of his service to his Country, and his entire life was a reflection of the principles and values that he learned and shared with his comrades in arms. After his discharge from the Marines, Don married his sweetheart, the former Jacqueline A. Fournier of Mexico. The marriage took place in Waukeshau, Wisconsin on June 30, 1945, and the couple moved back to Rumford where they would spend the next 58 years. Don and Jackie raised three sons in the Rumford area, and they were very proud of all three. To Don, Jackie and the boys were the centerpiece of his life, and all his hard work and accomplishments were dedicated to his family. Don spent almost 40 years working for the paper companies of Rumford, retiring in 1985 from Boise Cascade. Don was a member of the United Methodist Church of Rumford, and many of his family members are still active with the church. Don allowed himself just one small diversion in life, and that was golf. In recent years, he spent many happy hours playing golf with his youngest son, Randy. Don was a member of the American Legion, and the Disabled American Veterans of America. He was a Past Master and former secretary of Blazing Star Masonic Lodge # 30 of Rumford, and a member of the Kora Temple Shrine of Lewiston. Don is survived by his loving wife Jackie of Rumford; a son, Ted of Randolph; a son Randy and wife, Trish of Dixfield. He is
