Remarks

Frederick William Humphreys, 69, for many years active in the insurance business established by his late father, died Thursday at Bath Memorial Hospital after an illness of eight months. A graduate of the old Bath High school in the class of 1901, he had given most of his adult life to the D. M. Humphreys Co., since associating with his father 48 years ago.

Mr. Humphreys was born in Bath Aug. 11, 1880, a son of Capt. Denny M. Humphreys, a well known shipmaster, and Caroline Augusta Owen Humphreys. Among Capt. Humphreys commands was the Bath ship

Eclipse, which went to Wisconsin to load ice for her maiden voyage and carried to that town several passengers including Emma Eames, the renowned opera singer of later years. Mr. Humphreys' mother sailed for a number of years with Capt. Humphreys and had rounded Cape Horn five times.

Mr. Humphreys was a charter member of the Colonial club, a past secretary of Bath lodge of Elks, a member of Polar Star lodge of Masons, and a member of West Bath grange. He had served as a member of prudential committee of Central Congregational church.

During World War One he was employed by the Texas Steamship Company. He was for five years one of the staff of the Bath Area Rent Office, established early in the recent war.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Doris Dyer Humphreys; a sister, Miss Agnes W. Humphreys; two nephews, John Ballard of Portland and Willis Ballard of Southwest Harbor; and a niece, Mrs. Robert Harrington of Schenectady, N. Y. Funeral services will be at 2.30 p.m. Sunday at the Curtis funeral residence. Rev. Laforest E. Hodgkins will officiate. Burial will be in the family lot in Oak Grove cemetery.
