STONEHAM — Daniel Elford "Mac" McAllister, 73, retired postmaster of Denmark, died Tuesday in a Norway hospital after a long illness.

Mr. McAllister worked for the U.S. Postal Service for 25 years, retiring in 1980.

PASSAGES

Each day the Press

Herald selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Southern Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

"He was the first letter carrier in Fryeburg," said Charlie Lewis, the retired postmaster there. "It was in the mid-1960s, when the town instituted city delivery." Before that, mail was delivered to post office boxes and through rural delivery.

A skilled handcraftsman, Mr. McAllister made clocks out of horseshoes and made birdfeeders that looked like covered bridges.

"If you needed anything, he was right there," said Stanley

Brown, a longtime friend. "His clocks were very popular. He made quite a few lawn ornaments and things, too. He was very handy."

Born in Lovell, a son of Henry and Martha Bryant McAllister, he graduated from Fryeburg Academy in 1937. He served in the Army in France during World War II and received a Purple Heart as well as a French Citation award for his outfit's participation in action at the "Colmar pocket" on the Rhine River.

D.E. McAllister

He lived many years on Stuart Street in Fryeburg before moving to Echo Acres on Five Kezars Pond in 1978. He worked in the woods for a while and had a bread route for Cushman's Baking Co. before joining the post office. In his retirement, he worked as a handyman.

He was the first commander of the Lovell Veterans of Foreign War Post, a past scoutmaster and a member of the Masons. He was a past president of the Interstate Snowgoers snowmobile club and the Crazy 8 Square Dance Club and was recordkeeper and treasurer of the Five Kezars Pond Association.

An avid fisherman, he was a member of the One-That-Didn't-Get-Away Club.

A son, Terrence, died in 1978.

He is survived by his wife of 53 years, Doris Gilman McAllister of Stoneham; two sons, Daniel E. Jr. of Hampden; and Conrad "Butch" of Norway; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
