Harold W. Morse

Harold W. Morse, about 66, of 684 Main Street, South Portland, proprietor of an automobile repair business in that city, and a member of the South Portland Zoning Committee, died suddenly this morning in his home from a heart attack. He had apparently been well up to the time he was stricken.

Born at Bluehill, Mr. Morse was a cabinet-maker by trade and after coming to South Portland in 1917 was employed several years by the Smith & Rumery Company of Portland. He afterwards engaged in the automobile repair business.

A 32nd degree Mason, he was a member of Hiram Lodge of South Portland, Greenleaf Chapter and other branches of the order; a past president of the South Portland Lions Club, and of the former Thornton Heights Community Club.

He was unmarried and is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Lenora Sweet of Bluehill, and two in Massachusetts, where a brother also lives; and a nephew, Dr. Edwin Leach, USN, now stationed in Portland.
