The Rev. Charles William Squires, DD, 75, of 40 Winter Street, pastor of the Baptist Church in Limerick since 1934, died late this forenoon in the Mercy Hospital.

A heart ailment with which he had been ill several months was the cause of death. He had been hospitalized five weeks.

Dr. Squires was born Dec. 30, 1872, at Harbor Grace, N. F., and studied at Princeton University and Harvard, graduating from Harvard Divinity School. He held pastorates in New Brunswick and Lehigh, Pa., and 12 years as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Lynn, Mass., before becoming pastor of the Free Baptist Church, Limerick. For several years he also served as pastor of the Baptist Church at East Limerick in connection with his Limerick pastorate.

He was particularly interested in the rural church and had written on its problems and also addressed church conferences on this subject. In 1928 he made a study of the survey of rural life, relative to phases of the subject affecting the rural church.

His observations and studies in this respect were included in the Nationwide Five-Year Program of survey and adjustment initiated at the National Church Comity Conference held in Cleveland, O., that year. He was also the author of two books, Is God a Personality? and Muensterburg and Militarism.

He was a member of the M^asons and Odd Fellows.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ethel May Squires, Portland; three daughters, Mrs. Virginia Lord Goss, Lynn, Mass., and the Misses Arlene and Eveyln Gloria Squires, both of Portland; a son, Cedric Squires of Chicago; and a granddaughter, Virginia Goss of Lynn, Mass.

FORMER YORK MAN WINS HIGH MASONIC HONORS, WASHINGTON

(By Thomas S. Forsyth)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Harry A. Stacy, formerly of York, Me., was elected and installed as eminent commander of Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar, Washington, at the last stated conclave of the commandery. He was raised in St. Aspinquid Lodge, No. 198, York, Me., in 1902, affiliated with Takoma Lodge, No. 29, in 1909, and served as worshipful master in 1916. He was elected to receive the capitular degree by Winthrop Royal Arch Chapter, Winthrop, Mass., in 1904, and was exalted by Island Chapter, No. 21, of Key West, Fla., with which chapter he affiliated in 1904, and served as high priest in 1906. He is a member of the High Priests Association of Jacksonville, Fla. He was knighted in Baron Commandery, No. 3, Key West, in 1905, and affiliated with Columbia Commandery in 1909.

Mr. Stacy is well-known in York, as well as at Kittery where he served for three years at the Kittery navy yard. He is one of the most popular men of his commandery and stands high in the estimation of all of the members of the order. His advancement to high degrees show that other and greater honors will eventually be bestowed upon him.

His mother and brother continue to live at the old homestead at York and Mr. Stacy enjoys nothing better than to go to Maine and visit the old folks at home.
