Fred E. Stanley

Gorham, Nov. 11—Funeral services for Fred E. Stanley, 71, of 87 Portland Street, Rochester, N. H., a former resident of Standish, who died in Rochester this morning of injuries suffered Sunday night in an automobile accident, will be held at the Neal funeral home, Friday at 1.30 p. m., and burial will be in Buxton Lower Corner Cemetery.

Mr. Stanley was driving on Union Street, Rochester, when the accident occurred. Blinded by the lights of a car coming out of the municipal parking lot, he drove his car into a telephone pole, badly damaging it. A police patrol car arrived at the scene soon after and Mr. Stanley informed the officer that he was not hurt. He was taken to his home and late that night he was seized with severe pains and was rushed to the Frisbie Memorial Hospital, where it was found that he had suffered a rupture of the spleen. An operation was performed, but he failed to rally.

Mr. Stanley, who was employed in a Rochester mill, was born at Newfield, the son of George and Julia Welch Stanley, and at one time was employed by the Chaplin Motor Company of Portland. He was a member of Standish Lodge of Masons.

Surviving are three sons, Leon K. of Standish, Irving of Waterville and V. Leslie of West Bridgewater, Mass.; two brothers, Everett G. and Percy C., both of Kezar Falls, five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
