Remarks

Born 9-27-1917

Angelo Vacca Sr., 83, who served several generations of Portland families from his West Bayside pharmacy, died Oct. 6, 2000, at Maine Medical Center after a brief illness.

Along with his brother, John, Mr. Vacca ran the Corner Pharmacy on Portland Street for 43 years before retiring

After his military service, he returned to the pharmacy where he worked for the next 26 years. In 1951 he married Helen Irene Cross, and they had seven children.

In 1967, Mrs. Vacca died of a heart attack, leaving her husband to take care of the children as well as support them financially. He managed to do both jobs by putting his family first.

"His family was everything to him," his son said. "He was the typical Italian father. He didn't have much of a life outside the house. He was quite a man."

He was born here, a son of Diamante and Teresa Valuzzi Vacca, both immigrants from Italy. He attended local schools, graduating from Portland High School in 1936, and the Massachusetts School of Pharmacy in 1940. He was treasurer of the Kappa Psi fraternity there.

Mr. Vacca was a member of the Triangle Lodge of Masons, Scottish Rite Bodies, Kora Temple Shrine, York Rite and Kora Legion of Honor. He served as past president of the Cumberland County Pharmaceutical Association.

Mr. Vacca was also a member of the Chestnut Street United Methodist Church.

He is survived by five sons, James E. and Dennis R., both of New Hampshire, and Thomas, Angelo Jr., and John W., all of Portland; two daughters, Teresa M. Craig of Portland and Margaret L. Robinson of Rhode Island; a sister, Lucy Vacca Brown of Lebanon; nine grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

Visiting hours will be from 4 to 6 p.m. Monday at Jones, Rich and Hutchins Funeral Home, 199 Woodford St. A funeral service will be held at noon Tuesday at Clark Memorial United Methodist Church, Pleasant Avenue, with the Rev. Garvin Warden officiating. Burial will be private.

William L. VanBlarcom, 56, a lifelong resident of Greater Portland, for the past 16 years employed in the merchant marine, died suddenly Thursday night in his home at 603 Preble Street, South Portland. He returned last week from a voyage to Antwerp, Belgium.

Born in Portland Nov. 13, 1890, the son of the late Herman L. and Ella Dimmock VanBlarcom, he received his education in the Portland schools. He was for many years engaged in the grocery business in this city before entering the U. S. Marine Service, in which he was a cook for a long period.

During the recent war a tanker on which he was serving was torpedoed by an Italian submarine as the tanker was making its way in the Caribbean Sea to a Canadian port, 35 shells being sent into the ship which was set on fire but remained afloat. The fire in oil tanks burned itself out in 24 hours. VanBlarcom and other members of the crew were taken off three days later by a destroyer, which was summoned by a plane which got the vessel's SOS. This was his second experience at sea with a submarine, but it failed to diminish his eagerness to follow the sea, and after being hospitalized some weeks he returned to duty.

He was a member of Ancient Land Mark Lodge, AF&AM, Portland.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Bessie Partridge VanBlarcom, South Portland; two sons, William L., jr., Augusta, and John Church VanBlarcom, South Portland; two sisters, Mrs. Inez Maxfield, Portland; and Mrs. Hazel Van der Moort, Lynn, Mass.; and four brothers, Earle, Lynn, Mass.; Herman, New York City; Richard, Portland, and Ernest VanBlarcom, Great Falls, Mont.

OLD TOWN and SACO — Lee A. Vandez, 65, died peacefully, Feb. 16, 2003 at a Bangor hospital after a brief illness.

"Wandering Lee"

He was born in Greenbush, July 8, 1937, a son of Milton and Frances (Rollins) Vandez. He was a graduate of Old Town High School, class of 1956.

Over the past 11 years, "Wandering Lee" found his way into the hearts of recovering alcoholics across the state of Maine. His hope and faith were an inspiration to all whom he touched. He was an employee and a volunteer with the Milestone Foundation of Portland.

Lee was a retired member of Local Union 1253 and a past president of Local Union 1334, both of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. He was a member of Mystic Lodge #65 of Hampden; Scottish Rite Bodies; Maine Consistory 32nd degree; and Anah Shriners, where he was an active member of the Provost Guard. Lee was also a longtime member of both the Fraternal Order of Eagles #3177 of Brewer and the Old Town Lodge of Elks #1287.

Lee enjoyed traveling in his motor-home, NASCAR racing, and especially his time in Bangor at the Eastern Maine high school basketball tournaments and the Anah Shrine Circus.

Surviving are his companion and mate, Patricia Chaples of Saco; his children, Stephen Vandez and his wife, Gina of Orono, Brian Hilt and his wife, Tammy of Union, Melissa Winflow and her husband, Jason of Cushing, and John Vandez of Orono; his sister, Sylvia Fish of Eddington; grandchildren Steven, Chris, Becka, Kurt, Keagan, Rebeckah and Devin; uncle Frank Rollins of Old Town; sister-in-law, Charlene Vandez of Milford; several nieces and nephews; as well as his "little buddy", his dog and companion, Jake.
