Brother Mason D. Shaw, for the Committee on Credentials presented a verbal report which was accepted. There were 194 Lodges represented, 10 not represented, 282 delegates, 54 Grand Officers, 47 Permanent Members and 63 Grand Representatives. It was voted that the Committee have authority to add and amend during the morning session.

GREENLEAF MEDAL

Brother Shaw was asked to remain in the East and the Grand Master presented him with a Simon Greenleaf Medal. Brother Shaw responded with appropriate remarks, thanking Grand Master Small for the honor conferred upon him.

MASON DUSTAN SHAW

Mason Dustan Shaw was born on March 6, 1905 in Eddington, Maine. He was educated in the schools of Eddington and was graduated from Kents Hill Seminary in 1926. He then attended Washington State Normal School in 1932 and received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Education at the University of Maine in Orono in 1933. Following this he taught for seven years at Holden, Plymouth and Hartland, Maine.

In 1938, on September 4th, Mason and Lillian Leighton were united in marriage and this marriage brought them three children, Vernon, Carolyn and Allan. In the mundane field of business, Mason was employed by the Coca Cola Bottling Company in the Advertising and Sign Painting Division, from which he retired in 1970 after serving the company for 25 years.

In Eddington, where the Shaws still live, Mason is a member and Past Master of the East Eddington Grange. He joined the Grange when he was 14 years old and has been an active member for 62 years. He is also active on the Eddington Cemetery Board and is currently serving as Sexton of the Pine Tree Cemetery. He has always been active in Town affairs.

Brother Shaw was raised to the Sublime Degree of a Master Mason in Rising Virtue Lodge No. 10 in Bangor on May 8, 1928 and received his 50-year Veteran's Medal in 1978. He started in the line in 1945 and became Master in 1952. Records show that the biggest Masonic event in the history of Rising Virtue Lodge occurred while Mason was the Master. The Royal Canadian Mounted Police Degree Team presented the Master Mason Degree to an audience of several hundred brethren in the old Bangor Auditorium. Mason is a Past High Priest of Mount Moriah Chapter No. 6 of Bangor and has been Treasurer since 1972. He is a member of the Order of High Priesthood. He is a Past Illustrious Master of Bangor Council No. 5 and received the "Man-of-my-Choice" Award on May 5, 1976 for his outstanding work in the Super Excellent Degree. He is also a member of the Thrice Illustrious Masters (Order of the Silver Trowel).

He was Knighted in St. John's Commandery #3 of Bangor on November 18, 1948; was Commander in 1966 and Recorder from 1968 to 1979. He was appointed Prelate in 1980 and is still serving the Commandery in that capacity. He is also a member of the Past Commanders Association.

He was Knighted in Tamerlane Conclave #4, Knights of the Red Cross of Constantine in 1952 and was its Sovereign in 1963 and served as Grand Sovereign for the State of Maine in 1978. He is also a member of the Past Officers Association of Maine and has been Secretary for many years. He is now Vice President of that Organization.

In the Scottish Rite, Mason is a member of Eastern Star Lodge of Perfection, Palestine Council, Princes of Jerusalem, Bangor Chapter of Rose Croix and Maine Consistory. He is also a member of Anah Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S.

For his dedication to Masonry and his unstinted service to every branch of the Craft, it is with great pleasure indeed we award him with this Simon Greenleaf Medal for Distinguished Service.

ANNUAL ADDRESS GRAND MASTER, HARLAN F. SMALL

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Maine:

Brethren:

It has been a most pleasant privilege to have had the honor to represent you as your Grand Master during the past year. The many opportunities to share fellowship and masonic communion together, the wonderful hospitality extended to me on all occasions, and the warm, sincere welcomes of which I have been the recipient, are all experiences which will form the basis of happy memories in time to come. As we now participate in this One Hundred and Sixty-second Annual Communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine, it is my hope and prayer that the Supreme Architect of the Universe will lead and guide our deliberations, and bless us with that Harmony and Unity which ought ever to characterize our Fraternity.

Guests

On behalf of myself and the Brethren of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine may I extend a most cordial welcome to our Distinguished Guests from other Grand Jurisdictions and from the concordant bodies within this State who honor us with their presence today. It is a real joy to have the opportunity to reciprocate the sincere fraternal friendship and gracious hospitality which they have all extended to this Grand Master and his representatives on the occasions of our visitations with them. Relationships such as these add deeper meaning and wider dimensions to the experiences through which we pass as we strive to serve the best interests of this great fraternity of which we are a part. My Distinguished Brothers, we hope that you will thoroughly enjoy your time with us, and please know that when you depart, the best wishes and kindest regards of all the brethren of this Grand Lodge go with you.

District - Area Meetings

During the past year eleven Area Meetings and two District Meetings were held in which all districts participated. Because of the long distances involved, the First and the Twenty-fourth Districts asked for, and received, permission to hold individual district meetings. On the suggestion of your Grand Master, the formats of these meetings were varied and contained entertainment as well as educational material. Many of the programs included presentations by Rainbow Assemblies and DeMolay Chapters; and many brethren, for the first time, witnessed work by these youth groups. It was the pleasure and privilege of the Grand Master to attend all of these meetings with one exception. Because of an emergency situation, of a personal nature, I was unable to be present at the meeting in the First District. On that occasion I was represented by the Deputy Grand Master and other Grand Lodge Officers. It is my feeling that our District Deputy Grand Masters, and all others involved in the organization and planning of these meetings, have done an outstanding job, and I am most appreciative of their excellent work.

The concept of the area meeting, as opposed to the district meeting, has been tried in this Grand Jurisdiction as an effort to conserve energy and expense. However, the attendance records of the past year have generally indicated that, while the lodges of the host districts have been reasonably well represented at the meetings, the representation from the lodges of the guest districts has been poor. Therefore, in the year that is before us, we will return to the system of holding the individual District Meeting.

Masonic Education Committee

In 1973 M. W. Charles R. Glassmire, then Grand Master, appointed the Grand Lecturer as Chairman of the Masonic Education Committee. This proved to be a wise and successful move. Since that time the activities and functions of that Committee have grown and developed to the point where it is now an impossibility for one man, the Grand Lecturer, to assume the entire responsibility. In order to continue our progress and to realize the tremendous potential of which this Committee is susceptible, it has seemed feasible to separate its functions from the Office of the Grand Lecturer. This change in administrative procedure was implemented at the beginning of the year.

In addition to other duties, each committee member was assigned a special area of responsibility and those are as follows:

The Maine Mason Liaison - R. W. Peter C. Schmidt
Speakers Bureau Coordinator - R. W. John E. Anagnostis
Educational Materials - R. W. Walter M. Macdougall
DeMolay and Rainbow - R. W. Wilbur F. Loveitt
Masonigram Editor - R. W. Ernest H. Curtis

Outreach Programs, Caring & Sharing, Widows Program - R. W. Edwin V. George, R. W. Robert N. Walker, R. W. Royce G. Wheeler

Statewide Seminars - R. W. Royce G. Wheeler & R. W. Walter M. Macdougall

District Educational Meetings - R. W. N. James Coolong

Each of these brothers has responded to the challenges and opportunities of his special assignment with excellent leadership and significant contributions. The committee has met a number of times throughout the year and put in many hours of hard work, particularly on the matter of candidate instruction which was entrusted to them at the last Annual Communication. The results of this labor will be apparent to you when you hear the report of the Committee Chairman, R. W. Ernest H. Curtis, later on in this session. I would now express my thanks to these dedicated brethren for all they have done.

District Representatives

These are the brothers who have had the responsibility, under the direction of the District Deputy Grand Masters, of implementing in each district the plans and programs of the Masonic Education Committee. The success of those plans, in large measure, depends upon the activity and effort of the District Representative. In evaluating our work, I feel that it is necessary to be realistic. The experiences of the past year have demonstrated, beyond the shadow of a doubt, that in those districts where the Representative has taken his job seriously, dramatic results have been achieved. In those districts where there has been less done, little has been accomplished. It continues to be a problem, in some parts of this Grand Jurisdiction, to find qualified brethren who can be motivated to work for the Craft.

At the District Deputy Grand Master's School last June specific suggestions were presented to the Representatives to assist them in carrying out their duties. Some of these were as follows:

- a. To utilize the Grand Lodge Speaker's Bureau in the educational programs of the district lodges;
- b. To use the services of R. W. Brother Macdougall in securing appropriate educational materials;
- c. To assist our youth groups in every way possible; to organize visits by the brethren to the nearest Assemblies of Rainbow and DeMolay Chapters; to help in securing qualified adult leadership where needed; and to assist in forming new units where none exist.
- d. To assist the lodges in broadening and expanding the work of their Caring and Sharing Outreach.
- e. To promote Fellowship Nights in the lodges of the district.

- f. To work for 100% participation in the Widows Program, and to promote Widows Nights and programs.
- g. To report twice during the year to the Chairman of the Masonic Education Committee on progress and plans.

Twelve of our District Representatives submitted written reports as they had been requested to do, and those documents were most encouraging and inspirational. It is my hope that in the coming year the percentage of dedicated workers will grow considerably.

District Deputy Grand Masters

It has been my good fortune, during the past year, to have had the support and assistance of a most excellent staff of District Deputy Grand Masters. Fifteen of these brethren were new appointments and ten were re-appointed for their second year of service. I wish to express my appreciation to all of them for their fine work and outstanding leadership in the various districts.

Schools of Instruction

Our Grand Lecturer and his very capable staff have held the required number of District Schools of Instruction during the past year with one exception. From what I have seen in my visitations, I believe that the results of their hard work are easily discernible. However, it still seems to be the case that a number of lodges are not availing themselves of this opportunity to learn and to improve their ritualistic work. In checking with the Grand Lecturer in December on the two fall Schools of Instruction, I found that his attendance records showed that 25 lodges had had no attendance of any of their officers at either of these schools. I wrote to each of these lodges calling this fact to their attention, and asking for the return of my letter with the signatures of the Master, both Wardens and the Secretary, to indicate that they had seen the message. As of this writing, 18 of them have responded. Brethren, these schools cost your Grand Lodge money. Your Grand Officers expend a lot of time and effort in bringing them to you. They are a means of implementing a part to the avowed purpose of all of us "to improve myself in Masonry". We all recognize that perfect attendance is not possible. However, I do feel that some representation from every lodge at each school is not unrealistic in most cases. There are of course some unusual situations. In the case of Moses Webster Lodge #145 in Vinalhaven, an officer there is faced with a ferry trip and a motel bill to attend a school on the mainland. This situation is the exception rather than the rule. Let us all resolve to support our Schools of Instructions more fully in the months to come.

Dispensations

I have signed and granted approximately 47 Dispensations during the past year. The majority have been for the holding of table lodges and for exchanges of work within and without this Grand Jurisdiction. I believe that these activities have greatly enhanced the fellowship and activity of our lodges. Several have been for the holding of outdoor degrees. These were granted only after the inspection and approval of the District Deputy Grand Master.

By-Law Changes

About 46 By-Law changes have been approved and have dealt mostly with changes in fees and dues. A list of both dispensations and by-law changes is appended to this report.

Visitations

Your Grand Master, or his personal representative, has responded to all invitations from outside our Grand Jurisdiction with very few exceptions. These exceptions occurred because of various circumstances beyond our control. In all cases we have been received courteously and accorded the greatest hospitality. The Deputy Grand Master and both Wardens have assisted me in this matter as well as the Grand Secretary.

Our Togus Visitation last fall was very well attended, and I believe you have all seen the picture of that group which was used on the cover of the next issue of the Maine Mason.

It was a very real pleasure to be received in the Annual Sessions of the Grand York Rite Bodies and to enjoy the privilege of addressing the joint Banquet of the Grand Chapter and Grand Council.

The warm fraternal welcome extended to me by Ill. Franklin G. Hinckley, 33°, Deputy for Maine and the members of The Maine Council of Deliberation on the occasion of my visit with them was a heart-warming experience indeed. At this writing I am looking forward with pleasure to the visitation with Rt. Em. Kenneth Petch and the Grand Commandery of Maine at Ellsworth on May 4th at the Annual Conclave.

It has been a real joy for me to attend a number of receptions tendered to the Heads of Grand Bodies and to Grand Lodge Officers, as well as other special events and recognition nights. These happy occasions form the basis of many pleasant memories.

Discipline

It has been the unpleasant duty of your Grand Master to suspend from the rights and privileges of Masonry two men who were found guilty by the courts of offenses against the law of the land. These cases have been referred to the Committee on Grievances and Appeals.

District Deputy School of Instruction

Our District Deputy Grand Masters set some kind of a record on June 21st, 1980 when they achieved 100% attendance at this school. Our Grand Secretary was heard to remark that this was the first time in many years that such an accomplishment had been recorded. Most of the other Grand Officers and many of the District Representatives were also present. The tenor of this meeting was positive and productive and a high level of enthusiasm was much in evidence. The Grand Lodge Charity Program was interestingly presented by M. W. Charles E. Crossland, Chairman; plans and programs for the work of the year were introduced and discussed, and the schedule of area meetings was finalized. At the close of the session, everyone, including this Grand Master, seemed to be well satisfied with what had been accomplished.

Necrology

As we meet here today, we are saddened by the realization that some 976 of our brethren have finished their journey upon the level of time and have entered "that undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns". Among their number are four of our beloved Past Grand Officers:

R. W. Philip D. Tingley, Past Senior Grand Warden
R. W. Earle D. Webster, Grand Secretary Emeritus
R. W. Andrew M. Lund, Past Senior Grand Warden
M. W. Carroll W. Keene, Past Grand Master

Although we mourn the loss of these brethren, and although we will sorely miss their fellowship, their wise counsel and their leadership, it is our solemn duty to press onward in the strength of the example they have set, and in the beautiful light of the great inspiration which is their indestructible spiritual legacy to us. A more complete and fitting tribute will be presented by our Committee on Memorials.

Conferences of Grand Masters

Because of a serious conflict in my schedule, I was unable to attend the Northeast Conference of Grand Masters last summer; but, as in the past, I thoroughly enjoyed the sessions of the Conference of Grand Masters of North America which was held in Orlando, Florida last February. Although it is impossible here to cover this conference in any depth, I do feel that the brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction will be interested to know that the report of the President of The George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, M. W. Stanley F. Maxwell, disclosed that much of the necessary repair work to the Memorial has already been completed and plans to finish the job are well advanced.

Another point of interest was a recommendation of the committee, on which it was my pleasure to serve, at the meeting of the Masonic Services Association. This recommendation was that each member Grand Jurisdiction consider appointing a qualified brother to act as Special Liaison to the M.S.A.; the idea being to focus the responsibility of more fully utilizing the services and materials of the Association in his Grand Lodge.

To me, the exchange of ideas between Grand Masters and the sharing of mutual problems in the discussion groups is one of the more valuable aspects of this conference.

Charity Fund

Once again, this year, your Distribution Chairman, M. W. Charles E. Crossland, has been a very busy individual at his difficult job. I never cease to feel how fortunate we are to have so competent and capable a man at the helm of this most important work. Many needy people have received financial relief and peace of mind through the judicious application of these charity funds; however, further detail will be furnished to you in the report of that committee.

Grand Lodge Tours

I am happy to report that both of our Grand Lodge Trips this year were reasonably successful from a financial standpoint, and most successful from the standpoint of the participants who thoroughly enjoyed them. The feedback from satisfied travelers has been most encouraging.

Grand Representatives

There have been a number of changes in our staff of Grand Representatives. I have appointed several to fill vacancies which have occurred, and have approved several recommendations from other Grand Jurisdictions. It is a pleasure to report that a number of our Grand Representatives have shared their correspondence with the Grand Master.

Games of Chance

In 1947 M. W. Carroll W. Keene, then Grand Master, made a decision that all games of chance are strictly prohibited. This decision was approved by the Jurisprudence Committee and accepted by vote of Grand Lodge in that year. At that time this decision was in accordance with our state law. In 1973 our State Legislature provided for certain exceptions to the law, with particular regulations to govern the same, by enacting The Maine Revised Statutes Annotated Title 17, Section 330. This list of exceptions includes fraternal organizations.

These changes in the law of the land, the gradual changes which seem to be taking place in the thinking and mores of our society, and the tightening of economic pressures all appear to be contributing factors in the number of infractions of our Masonic Law in the past few years by various organizations in our Masonic Family.

In view of this situation, it has seemed to me that this matter should be brought before Grand Lodge. A number of brethren have expressed this idea to me, and it was also touched upon in the address of M. W. Roger P. Snelling of a year ago, when he stated, and I quote, “. . . it may be that it is appropriate for Grand Lodge to reconsider its position”. In order to bring this matter before Grand Lodge, and for that purpose only, I have suggested to M. W. Leon Sanborn, Chairman of the Committee on Amendments, that he frame and present legislation at this Grand Session which will determine, by vote of this Grand Body, whether our Masonic Law relative to games of chance shall remain as it is, or whether it shall be altered in the manner suggested by the proposed legislation. This question will come before you later in this Session.

Youth Groups

One of the major thrusts of our Grand Lodge Program this year has been to be of greater practical and material assistance to our youth groups. An expression of interest on the part of the Masonic Fraternity through visitations at their meetings, by participating in Advisory Board Activity, and by general support of their programs is a most encouraging thing for them. I might also mention that these are most beneficial and educational experiences for us. I am happy to report that this has been one of our more successful programs, and the feedback which I have heard from the leadership of these youth Organizations has been most positive. I am most grateful for the leadership of R. W. Wilbur F. Loveitt in this area and for the wonderful support and co-operation of the District Deputy Grand Masters and District Representatives in implementing this program throughout this Grand Jurisdiction. Considering all of the ramifications of the social, political and economic climate in which our youth are developing, they stand in need of every wholesome moral and spiritual influence that can be made available to them. DeMolay and Rainbow can certainly provide this. Let us be resolved, in the coming year, to redouble our efforts on their behalf.

The Maine Mason

This publication of the M. W. Grand Lodge of Maine continues to be an outstanding piece of work, and our sincere congratulations and thanks go to M. W. Charles R. Glassmire for his tireless work and superior craftsmanship.

Recommendations

In the year that has just passed it would appear from our records that some eight lodges have had significant anniversary dates. To the best of my knowledge, only two of them have held observances. It is possible that there may have been others of which I was not informed. It is my recommendation to the lodges of this Grand Jurisdiction that these anniversary dates should not pass unnoticed. They are important to the lodge, its members and to the community.

Because of economic conditions now prevailing, and because of the extent of inflationary forces which exist in our land, many lodges are having difficulty with finances and particularly with regard to heating and maintaining their buildings and temples. In order to provide sound guidance and advice to them, when requested, I recommend that a Grand Lodge Committee be appointed to act in that capacity. Its membership should be composed of at least five brothers who have a background of experience in finance and real estate.

Conclusion

In grateful acknowledgment of all they have done, I now wish to render my tribute of deepest appreciation to all the Grand Lodge Officers who have worked together as a team, with what result you may be the judges. The Grand Secretary and the two ladies in his office have been towers of strength. The Grand Treasurer has always been ready with assistance, and the Past Grand Masters with counsel and advice, when solicited, and with encouragement. The Permanent Members have been very active with their presence and support.

It is not possible to name all who have contributed materially to the work of this past year; but as 1980-1981 passes into history with the close of this One Hundred and Sixty-second Annual Communication, I would covet the prayers of all brethren for the continued blessing and guidance of The Supreme Architect of the Universe for the year that lies before us. May God bless you all.

Fraternally submitted,

HARLAN F. SMALL
Grand Master

REPORT OF ACCOUNTANTS AND AUDITORS

May One

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Harlan F. Small, of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.:

We have examined the statements of assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M. at March 31, 1981 and the related statements of operating receipts, disbursements and changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As is more fully described in Note 1 to these statements, the Grand Lodge's policy is to prepare the aforementioned statements on the basis of cash revenue and cash expenditures. Accordingly, these statements are not intended to and do not present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly the assets and liabilities of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M. at March 31, 1981, arising from cash transactions, and the operating receipts, disbursements and changes in fund balances for the year then ended on a consistent basis.

BERRY, FOWLES & CO.
Certified Public Accountants

The report was referred to the Committee on Finance.

GRAND SECRETARY

The Grand Secretary's report was presented, accepted and referred to the Committee on Doings of Grand Officers.

In Grand Lodge
Bangor, Maine

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Another year has gone by and much water has run under the bridge! In concluding my sixth year as your Grand Secretary, I look back and find that the years have passed all too rapidly. Hundreds of Brethren have visited my office and the number of phone calls we have received and the letters we have answered are too numerous to mention. Needless to say, we welcome all. It is amazing to find how many problems can be solved by sitting down and talking them out. Since the Masonic Temple in Portland has been closed on Mondays, I listed my home phone on the back cover of the 1980 Proceedings and on the outside door of the Temple. This has helped those who needed answers on a Monday, and hardly a Monday has passed without receiving at least one call at home and usually several. This is as it should be. I plan to be available to my Brethren at any hour of the day or night, but I would prefer not being called at three in the morning unless it is a real emergency!

We try not to make mistakes in our office, but one did occur in the 1980 Proceedings which should be brought to your attention. The index, on page 752 lists "Amendments Proposed" for page 602 and 618. The Amendment proposed on page 618 should have been listed under "Amendments Rejected" instead of "Amendments Proposed". If, however, you will read the Amendment carefully, you will find at the conclusion of the report these words "The report was accepted and the amendment was not adopted". Also, on the Grand Lodge Circular which was sent to all Lodges, Grand Officers and Permanent Members within two weeks after the one hundred and sixty-first Annual Communication, listed under "Legislation Rejected" on page three we find "No. 1, To allow Statewide Jurisdiction for each Lodge", so there should be no doubt in anyone's mind about the outcome of this proposed amendment. We do, however, regret the error and will try not to let it happen again.

Secretaries' Seminars were held this year in conjunction with Area meetings. Thirteen of these were held in various parts of the State with attendance ranging from a low of two (2) to a high of fifteen (15). The total attendance was ninety-six (96) or 47% of Lodge Secretaries. This is good, but the time we had to consider problems was too short. Also, we did miss many good programs which were prepared for the area meetings. This Fall we will return to the regular Seminars not in conjunction with the District Meetings. Four such Seminars have already been planned, in Winterport, New Gloucester, South Portland and Fairfield. If you would like on in your area, let me know.

One of our biggest problems today is the steady loss in membership. We have attended several conferences where this question has been raised, but to date no workable answer has been found. Strangely enough, the net loss last year of 563 is exactly equal to the total of NPD's, Demits granted, 2 Suspensions for other reasons. The same thing happened two years ago and the thought struck me that maybe we should be paying more attention to our brethren who are about to be suspended for non-payment of dues. Some Lodges have a committee who investigates the circumstances surrounding an approaching suspension and in many cases it can be avoided. If a Brother is in financial straits and is too proud to ask for help, this is the time Masonic Charity can do what it is supposed to.

Your Grand Secretary is still travelling extensively throughout the State, attending table Lodges, speaking at various programs, widow's nights, installing the officers of Lodges and Chapters, or just visiting for the sake of Brotherhood and good fellowship. My vacation last year took me to Hawaii to visit my daughter and her husband in Honolulu. Luckily for me, I picked the two coldest weeks of the year. While there I visited the Shriner's Hospital in Honolulu and attended several Lodge meetings. These meetings always remind me that wherever you may meet a Mason, be he white or yellow, the fellowship is always the same. I well remember my trip to Costa Rica where I was so royally treated by my Spanish brethren. Masonry is universal.

The Grand Masters and Grand Secretaries Conference this year was held in Orlando and was fully covered in my article in the Maine Mason's latest issue. Even though Florida is called the Sunshine State, we failed to see the Sun until the day we left. The Conference, however, was well worthwhile, as were the Northeast Conference on Masonic Education and Libraries and the Northeast Conference of Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Masters and Grand Secretaries.

The Grand Lodge of Maine is indeed fortunate to have Grace Field and Elizabeth Tupper as my assistants in the office. Their dedication, industry and tireless efforts to fill orders, answer correspondence, telephone inquiries and remain cheerful is one of the many blessings I have to be thankful for in my work. I am eternally grateful to them both and would be unable to carry on the work of the Grand Secretary without their cheerful assistance. Your Grand Treasurer, Bruce Tornquist is also one in a million. His counsel in financial matters and his all-around common sense are a big help to me. Finally, without the love, patience and understanding of my wife, truly a Masonic widow, I would be unable to perform the duties of my office as I feel they should be done.

Fraternally and sincerely,

PETER C. SCHMIDT

GRAND LECTURER

In Grand Lodge
Bangor, Maine
May 5, 1981

To the M. W. Grand Master and Brethren of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

It is with pleasure that I submit my first report as Grand Lecturer, and relate to the members of this Grand Lodge some of the efforts made to transmit a more nearly correct knowledge of the ritual among the officers and members of the 204 lodges of this Grand Jurisdiction during the Masonic year.

Seventy-five ritualistic schools of instruction were conducted this past year by your Grand Lecturer and the six Assistants: R. W. Robert N. Walker, R. W. Wilbur F. Loveitt, R. W. Clayton E. Smith, R. W. William A. Oliver, R. W. Reginald W. Wing, and V. W. John E. Gray. This Grand Lodge is indeed fortunate to have the benefit of the dedication and high degree of professionalism which these brethren bring to their offices.

In early fall Brother Gray sustained a serious back injury and was not able to conduct his first schools of instruction. Two of our former Assistant Grand Lecturers stepped forward to the assistance of the Craft. Our Grand Secretary, R. W. Peter C. Schmidt, and R. W. Bro. John E. Anagnostis, Junior Grand Warden, conducted the first schools in Bro. Gray's districts. To these dedicated Masons we extend our most sincere thanks for the assistance they have so freely given.

Carl H. Claudy, a great Masonic scholar, has written these words about the Masonic Ritual:

"Truth may be taught without ritual, but truth by ritual is always taught as the original teachers desired and makes a lasting impression upon the mind of the learner.

"A ritual which becomes sacrosanct in human belief tends to stabilize truth and keep it uncontaminated by modern ideas. Many a man has thought that he has succeeded in making better that which was already best, since its content was and is living, breathing, sentient truth, conveyed in words, action, and symbols, which by their very antiquity prove that they are best for the purpose."

I strongly agree with our most distinguished Brother as well as with our honored predecessors, who have always taught and continually emphasized a rigid adherence to the ritual and ancient ceremonies of the Craft, together with unyielding resistance to innovations; I can only state that our efforts during the past year have been in accordance with those convictions.

In accordance with the wish of the Most Worshipful Grand Master, three ritualistic schools of instruction were scheduled and held in each of the twenty-five Masonic Districts of Maine.

Percentage of officer attendance at all schools ranged from 17.8 in the Seventh District to a high of 52.2 in District 17B. The Fourteenth District had excellent attendance by its officers, having an average of 44 percent of them present at all schools. For District 17B we commend the Deputy, R. W. Walter E. Webber, for most effectively promoting the schools in his District.

Your Grand Lecturer and Assistant Grand Lecturers have conducted twenty-four District Educational Schools this year. These are intended for officers and members alike. The Program this year included the following topics: (a) Caring and Sharing - our outreach to the elder brethren, those shut-in, hospitalized, and of course, the widows of deceased brethren; (b) The Committee of Inquiry - its duties, responsibilities, and great importance to the Lodge, and the Craft in general; (c) A presentation of the "Supplement to the Pollard Plan of Candidate Instruction." This presentation was made at Educational Schools, the objective being to encourage constituent lodges to adopt it as a pilot program and to assist The Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service to perfect and promote its use. We are mindful of that great responsibility we have as Masons to provide "Good and Wholesome Instruction" to our candidates.

Table Lodges are becoming more popular each year with several Lodges holding a Table Lodge for the first time. In accordance with the Dispensations issued by the Grand Master, your Grand Lecturer has appointed a Grand Lodge Representative to be present at each Table Lodge. Their reports indicate to me that the Table Lodges are being conducted according to the Ritual and that the brethren enjoy "good fellowship" at the festive board.

Degree Team activity has increased during the year, with three new Teams being organized and several of the existing teams having been quite active. Their attendance at Schools of Instruction is excellent, in fact the new Air National Guard Degree Team at Bangor had twenty-eight of its members present at the Master Masons school. Their enthusiasm and excellence in the rendition of the Ritual sets a high standard for many of the Lodges. We commend the Teams for their excellence of work and for promoting the spirit and benefit of visitation.

Your Grand Lecturer has met with the Assistants three times to coordinate instruction, and insure that our presentation is consistent state wide. The staff works very much as a team unit, and these meetings have proven to be very interesting and helpful.

It is a real pleasure for me to express my sincere appreciation to all who have contributed so much to the success of our schools of instruction. To my Assistant Grand Lecturers for their excellent work, dedication to the Craft, and total cooperation, my sincere thanks.

I am particularly grateful to our Most Worshipful Grand Master for his support, faith, encouragement, and for the privilege of serving my brethren and the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine.

Respectfully submitted,

N. JAMES COOLONG
Grand Lecturer

GEORGE WASHINGTON MEMORIAL

R. W. Brother Bruce S. Tornquist presented the following report, which was accepted.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.:

The Seventy-first Annual Convention of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association was held in the Sheraton-Twin Towers Hotel in Orlando, Florida on Monday, February 16, 1981.

Maine was represented by M. W. Bro. Harlan F. Small, Grand Master; R. W. Bro. C. Ross Buzzell, Deputy Grand Master; R. W. Bro. Peter C. Schmidt, Grand Secretary; M. W. Bro. Charles R. Glassmire, Past Grand Master; and R. W. Bro. B. Glen McGee, Past Senior Grand Warden.

Maine contributed $2,392.00 to the Operations Fund and $122.00 to the Endowment Fund bringing our total calculated contributions to $103,096.54 for Operations and $48,212.17 for the Endowment Fund. The substantially higher contribution for Operations is a result of the increase from $1.00 to $5.00 in the contribution that each new candidate has been paying since the adoption of the increased fee at the last Grand Lodge session.

Progress was made again this past year in donations for the Endowment Fund. Completing their payments and reaching 100% status were Unity Lodge No. 58, which gave the Twelfth District 100% participation, and Moses Webster Lodge No. 145. Dunlap Lodge No. 47 made a partial payment. King Hiram Lodge No. 57 made an additional contribution. We now have two lodges with small balances left and one lodge that has never made any payment.

Continued efforts will be made during the next year.

WIDOWS' PROGRAM

M. W. Aubrey L. Burbank, speaking in behalf of the Wor. Grand Chaplains, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Bangor, Maine
May 5, 1981

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

It is with a great measure of satisfaction that, speaking in behalf of the Wor. Grand Chaplains, we are privileged to report on the increasing effectiveness of the "Widows' Program."

Insofar as information has been made available to us, 467 letters have been written by the Grand Chaplains to the widows of our deceased brethren. When this is compared with our Grand Secretary's statistical report citing the number of deaths reported, it may seem that we have reached only a fraction of the total, and this is true, but we are dependent upon three major factors, viz., detailed reports from the Lodges to the Grand Secretary AT THE TIME OF DEATH; awareness through newspaper obituaries, and the information afforded us by the Grand Secretary's office through the dedicated service of his assistants. Obviously, we cannot await the Annual statistical reports of Lodge Secretaries. This is why we urge the Lodges to get involved in the program, this being but one facet of the possibilities resulting therefrom. The greater scope of the total program will be presented by the report of R. W. Bro. Edwin V. George.

I must make mention of the reward of our humble efforts, it being the many return notes which we receive from those widows to whom we have written, expressing their gratitude and the comfort of knowing that "somebody cares."

Lastly, I must express my gratitude to the other six Grand Chaplains for their time-consuming efforts, and the response to my every request.

Finally, to our Grand Secretary and his staff in making our part in the total program an effective one; with special thanks to Mrs. Tupper who labors in this particular phase of information.

Respectfully submitted,

AUBREY L. BURBANK
Grand Chaplain

R. W. Edwin V. George, State Coordinator for the Widows' Program presented the following report, which was accepted.

The Committee on Masonic Widows' Program submits the following report:

At its inception, the proposed organized program for the reactivation and/or revitalization of the concerns for our "special ladies" appeared to be questionable. The scope and implementation created doubts even in the minds of many dedicated Masons.

Today our "special ladies," comprise an integral part of our Masonic Family. We could conceivably have several thousand "reborn" advocates of our Masonic principles, and certainly an enhancement of our public image.

Yet realistically, we have many "fences to mend" but our concerned brethren are mending those fences to our everlasting credit and esteem. One hundred and fifty-two (152) lodges have identified their "special ladies" and continue to update and maintain current their lists. The information and responses from lodge secretaries and program chairmen have been outstanding. Index cards and lists contain the names, addresses and many birthdays of 5716 of our "special ladies." We have (2100) additional names of deceased brethren who may have left widows, with a probable estimate of 1000 more names to add to our total list.

Most Wor. Aubrey L. Burbank's report will have attested to the effectiveness of our Grand Chaplains' performances. May God bless and guide them always.

Many lodges have conducted "Special Ladies Nights," and many are scheduled for May and June wherein the "Broken Column" lapel pin will be presented. We have ordered our second one thousand.

The policy of utilizing our elected Grand Lodge Wardens as regional directors has provided essential continuity, as well as lasting testimony to the dedication of R. W.'s N. James Coolong, Wilbur Loveitt, Royce Wheeler and Alfred Neff. Further, R. W. Ernest Curtis, many D.D.G. Masters, District Representatives and area coordinators have performed vital services. One of our most valuable is that of "Clipper #2," Mrs. Elizabeth Tupper of the Grand Lodge Office staff.

Last November we were deeply honored and proud of the opportunity to accept the invitation of Most Wor. Carroll M. Fogg, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire, to address their Annual Communication as to the formation of their Widows' Program.

Adoption of their approved program could conceivably provide a valuable communication interface with our neighboring New Hampshire brethren, focusing on both of our "special ladies" groups, as well as our Masonic brethren residing within each other's jurisdictions.

Proud! We're very proud of Maine Masons.

The Care and Share Program

Last June our Grand Master initiated a proposed plan of action relative to an area in which we continue to be indicted as Masons. Specifically, our inadvertent neglect of sick and ailing and distressed "shut-ins" confined to their own residences or in convalescent or boarding homes.

Thus, the Masonic "Care and Share" program was initiated and authorized. It was developed to revitalize and reinforce our existing programs, sufficiently to ensure the continuing effective operation of this segment of lodge "outreach." The program is endorsed but not regulated by the Grand Lodge of Maine. It is a voluntary project which the local lodges may adapt to fit their individual needs.

A comprehensive, yet lodge oriented manual has been prepared, submitted and approved for implementation. Copies are available at the Grand Lodge office. It includes: procedures to identify and locate all Masonic shut-ins, etc., wherever they may be located; a state wide organization chart with detailed functions and responsibilities; an interlodge communication network (one that will provide visiting services to a brother wherever he may be confined, be it Kittery or Fort Kent); detailed instructions for the Master Mason's family; the art of visiting sick and ailing (a function to be reviewed by Grand Chaplains and members of the clergy).

Copies of this manual have been distributed to D.D. Grand Masters and District Representatives. Our primary thrust will be the identification and location of shut-ins, etc. Lodges are urged to identify their shut-ins be they in their homes, convalescent facilities, boarding homes, etc., within their jurisdiction. The manual contains the names and locations of each one of the above named facilities. They are listed in community sequence.

Brethren: as in the Widows' Program, we have many "fences to mend." We know of the heartache, disillusion and yes, the anguish of many of our shut-ins. We may never be able to eradicate these experiences. That may be true, but we have faced and have acknowledged this, one of our most significant problems facing our fraternity today.

We may not be able to eliminate the aforementioned scars but we sure are on our way to attempt to reduce, if not prevent, it from happening again.

When? Right now! How? Identify your shut-ins, forward the names to the Grand Lodge office.

Respectfully submitted,

E. V. GEORGE
Chairman

Most Wor. Sir, I move the acceptance of this report.

Brother George was asked to remain in the East and the Grand Master presented him with a Josiah Hayden Drummond Medal. Brother George responded with appropriate remarks thanking Grand Master Small for the honor conferred upon him.

EDWIN V. GEORGE

Edwin V. George was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason on November 16, 1959 in St. John's Lodge No. 51 in South Berwick, Maine. This was not quite 22 years ago, but in that relatively short space of time he has done much for Masonry and his brother Masons in the State of Maine.

Immediately after he was raised he started through the line in his Lodge. From Junior Steward to Master without skipping a single station. Ed was Master in 1969, Chaplain in 1970, and Secretary in 1971. As Secretary he issued the monthly meeting notices and included a series of Masonic Information Bulletins. These bits of Masonica have continued since then and are now used by many Lodges in his District. He also instituted a program of Masonic Education in his Lodge which eventually earned them the prized Raymond Rideout Award for four years in a row and is now in their possession permanently. This is a beautiful Paul Revere Silver Bowl, suitably engraved.

Brother George was appointed District Deputy Grand Master of the 19th Masonic District in May, 1976 and has performed an outstanding service for his District and for the Grand Master. He has also aided Brother Masons and relatives of Masons who needed help and had been largely overlooked. His service has been outstanding, and in 1977 he was awarded the Simon Greenleaf Medal.

Ed is also a member of the Portland Valley of Scottish Rite and a member of Kora Shrine in Lewiston. He is an Ambassador of Kora Temple, a member of York County Shrine Club and of its Blue Lodge Degree Team.

He was married to the former Gertrude Eccleston at Fairhaven, Massachusetts on October 25, 1941. They have two daughters.

He was in the U.S. Navy for two years and employed at the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard, Kittery, Maine for 32 years, retiring in June, 1973 as a Management Analyst. He is a member of the United Methodist Church of Berwick and is Chairman of several of the Church Committees, the Memorial Fund and Gifts Committee, the Steering Committee and the Committee on Social Concerns, as well as a member of the Nominating Committee.

Brother George has been the master mind and the spark plug behind the "Widows' Program" for several years and is the State Chairman of the Program. He has also been promoting the Grand Master's program on "Caring and Sharing" or "Outreach", and has prepared a comprehensive manual which clearly details the implementation of this program and offers operational guidelines for each constituent lodge.

For his dedication and service to his Brethren and to Masonry as a whole, we are most pleased to award him this Josiah Hayden Drummond Medal for Distinguished Service.

HOSPITAL VISITATION PROGRAM

Wor. Bro. Rodney A. Pearl gave a verbal report on the Hospital Visitation Program at Togus and commended the Lodges for their assistance with the Sunday Services.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION - ADOPTED

In Grand Lodge
May 5, 1981

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution has considered the amendment proposed on page 603 of the 1980 proceedings to amend Section 114 by adding the following:

"m. Nollesemeic Lodge Number 206 of Millinocket and Pine Tree Lodge Number 172 of Mattawamkeag shall have concurrent jurisdiction over the town of Medway."

Both lodges have voted in favor of the concurrent jurisdiction over the town of Medway.

The Committee recommends that the amendment be adopted.

I move that the report be accepted and the recommendation adopted.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution has considered the amendment to Section 84 proposed on page 602 of the 1980 proceedings to add a third paragraph to read as follows:

"Each constituent lodge shall submit once in every four years a complete list of its members to the Grand Secretary, on numbered sheets provided by Grand Lodge, before the first day of February 1984 and each four years thereafter. If such a list is not received by the above date, a fine of $10.00 will be imposed upon that lodge and a fine of $1.00 for each day the list is not received following the date of February 1st."

In the report of the Grand Secretary in 1923, pages 406-407, the Grand Secretary recommended that the lodge secretaries be required to submit to him at least once in five years, a typewritten list of their membership so that he could check their roll by his cards. The Grand Lodge accepted his report and adopted his recommendation which gave his recommendation the effect of law but an amendment to the Constitution was never adopted. This amendment will make the reference much easier than researching the proceedings.

The Committee recommends that the amendment be adopted.

I move that the report be accepted and the recommendation adopted.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution has considered the amendment proposed on page 603 of the 1980 proceedings to amend Sec. 90 by adding a new Section 90.2A to read as follows:

"2A. Fifty cents (.50) per year shall be levied on each member of the constituted lodges of this Grand Lodge for the purpose of preparing, printing and mailing The Maine Mason to each member of the constituted lodges.

"These funds for The Maine Mason are mentioned primarily for The Maine Mason, but shall not be considered dedicated funds. These funds shall be subject to Section 35 of the Constitution as any other Grand Lodge Funds."

In the past, the cost for The Maine Mason has been paid for by the money the Grand Lodge received for sponsoring trips.

The amount of money the Grand Lodge has received from these trips has declined to the point where it is not enough to pay the cost of The Maine Mason.

If the Brethren wish to continue The Maine Mason and have it sent to every member as has been done in the past, additional funds must be provided.

This amendment was presented for The Maine Mason Committee to give the Brethren an opportunity to think this over until the Annual Communication in 1981, when it is now presented for a vote.

The Committee believes that The Maine Mason is a very worthwhile endeavor and should be continued. The Editor of The Maine Mason and The Maine Mason Committee receive many letters from Brethren throughout the country praising The Maine Mason for letting them know about Masonry in Maine. The Maine Mason is also read by many members of the families of Masons.

The Committee recommends that the amendment be adopted.

I move that the report be received and the recommendation adopted.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

In 1947, M. W. Bro. Carroll W. Keene made a decision that, under Masonic Law, "all games of chance are strictly prohibited." This decision was approved by the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence. Thus, the Masonic Law of this jurisdiction was established.

It must be recognized that the law as then established was in harmony with the laws of the State of Maine. Games of chance were not prohibited because they were bad in and of themselves but because prohibited by State Law.

Society has since changed and practices which were once sinful of themselves or perhaps difficult to regulate have since become acceptable, if not in the eyes of all persons, yet in the eyes of the law.

The State Legislature in its "wisdom" in 1973 determined that games of chance are not all bad. So it enacted Maine Revised Statutes Annotated, Title 17, Section 330, which provides certain exceptions to the law which prohibits games of chance and prescribes certain regulations to govern the same.

In view of the fact that the Maine Legislature has removed, at least partially, the prohibition against games of chance, it may be that it is appropriate for the Grand Lodge to reconsider its position.

Therefore, the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution presents the following Standing Regulation:

"Standing Regulation No. 61.

Masonic Lodges themselves may not conduct enterprises such as raffles, beano, bingo and any game of chance. However, Masons who are members of any club or other organization whose membership is conditioned in whole or part, upon membership in or affiliation with, the Masonic Craft may conduct the abovementioned enterprises.

These enterprises may be conducted in a Masonic Building but may not be conducted in the lodge room or rooms. The District Deputy Grand Master must inspect each Masonic Building in his District and certify to the Grand Master that he considers a part of the building suitable in which to conduct the above enterprises. No public advertising of the above activities may be made on or about the outside of the Masonic Building or on or about the premises outside the building."

The Committee believes that this Standing Regulation will help lodges to meet lodge expenses that are increasing due to inflation.

The Committee recommends that this Standing Regulation be adopted.

I move the report be received and the recommendation adopted.

"Each lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction shall prepare its history for the preceding year, and furnish two copies to the Grand Lodge Committee on History of Masonry in Maine. Each year the Master of each lodge shall appoint a Lodge Historian whose duty shall be to prepare the history of the Lodge once each year for the preceding year and present the same to the Lodge Secretary.

"Each lodge that has not completed its history and furnished it to the Grand Lodge as specified above by March 1, 1983 shall be fined $10.00 for each year in arrears. Also, each year thereafter on March 1st each lodge shall be fined an additional $10.00 for each year in arrears."

In the 1980 proceedings there were thirty-seven lodges in arrears. The greatest number of years in arrears was twenty-one. The least number was eleven. Something must be done other than persuasion. We hope the above accomplishes the desired results.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION - REJECTED

In Grand Lodge
May 5, 1981

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution has considered the amendment proposed on page 604 of the 1980 proceedings to amend Section 2 of the Constitution and Standing Regulation No. 1 as follows:

"Right Worshipful Past District Deputy Grand Masters, except that they shall not receive per diem or travel pay to and from Grand Lodge at its Annual Communications"

Also, to amend Standing Regulation No. 1 by removing the period in line 15 after the word "members," substituting therefor a comma, followed by the words "with the exception of Past District Deputy Grand Masters."

This same amendment was presented at the Annual Grand Lodge Session in May 1977. It was voted on at the Annual Session in 1978 and soundly defeated. Here it is again. There are now 204 lodges with three votes each, making 612 votes. There are 61 Grand Officers with one vote each. There are 66 Permanent Members with one vote each. Total possible votes 739. There are approximately 300 Past District Deputies. If the Past District Deputies are given permanent member status, it would reduce the voting power of the constituent lodges by approximately 50%. "I ask you Masters and Wardens of the constituent lodges, do you want to turn 50% of your voting power over to the Past District Deputies?"

The proposed amendment to Standing Regulation No. 1 states that Past District Deputies shall not be paid per diem and mileage.

If the Past District Deputies are given permanent status, how long will it be before they come in with an amendment to be paid per diem and mileage? This would cost Grand Lodge approximately $10,000 and would require an increase in Grand Lodge dues.

At the present time, in order to become a permanent member of Grand Lodge, a brother must be elected a Grand Master, a Deputy Grand Master or a Grand Warden. If Past District Deputies are made permanent members, what incentive will there be for one to run for elective office?

If this amendment should be adopted, it would give the Grand Master the power to appoint 25 permanent members each year. The Committee does not believe that any one brother should be given the power to appoint 25 permanent members each year.

The Committee on Amendments recommends strongly that these proposed amendments be rejected.

I move that the report be accepted and the recommendations adopted.

MASONIC EDUCATION AND LODGE SERVICE

R. W. Ernest H. Curtis, for the Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Bangor, Maine
May 6, 1981

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

I once referred to the Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service as the working Committee of Grand Lodge and this past year has been no exception. Our Grand Master charged this Committee with some very specific responsibilities with very definite goals and assigned special responsibilities to each member of the Committee. He had several priorities including further development and support of the Widows' program, the Care and Share program, more active support of DeMolay and Rainbow as well as developing further our program on Masonic Education for candidates and members.

THE WIDOWS' PROGRAM

Excellent progress has been made in the development of the Widows' Program under the direction of R. W. Edwin V. George. It has been under way for only two years yet 152 Lodges are participating and most of them have held at least one meeting to recognize these distinguished Ladies. Many Lodges have held two or more meetings already and have presented these Ladies with a Widows' pin (a broken column). There have been many fine responses, reactions and letters from these Ladies indicating that this program was long overdue.

THE CARE AND SHARE PROGRAM

Of equal importance is the introduction of the Grand Masters Care and Share program which is also being developed by R. W. Edwin V. George. This program is intended to develop more awareness of the unfortunate situations and circumstances of some of our Brethren and procedures for setting up visitation committees to call upon our Brethren who are ill or shut in. Brother George has developed a suggested program for the use of our Lodges and will be available for distribution this summer which includes a directory of every known hospital and nursing home in the State. Once again many of our Lodges have already reassessed their own visitation programs and are working hard on improving them through the assistance of this Committee. This is truly a great and noble undertaking.

DeMOLAY AND RAINBOW

This Committee was charged with the development of a program to encourage our Lodges to visit at least one DeMolay Chapter and one Rainbow Assembly and to invite a DeMolay Chapter and a Rainbow Assembly to return the visit sometime during the year. This program was under the direction of R. W. Wilbur F. Loveitt. While we were developing this program we found out that although the Rainbow for Girls in Maine was in a healthy condition, the DeMolay for Boys in Maine was in a serious situation with a great number of defunct Chapters. This was contrary to our understanding of DeMolay in recent years. We knew that they needed and deserved our moral and physical support but were not aware of the eroding situation as being as bad as it was. To counteract this situation this Committee set up action Committees across the State to assist in reactivating inactive DeMolay Chapters and strengthening existing Chapters. Some progress has been made, Bath Chapter was reactivated, Rumford Chapter has been reactivated by King Hiram Lodge in Dixfield and efforts are under way in several other Chapters. The future of DeMolay looks much better today than it did a year ago in Maine and we trust this trend will continue. DeMolay Chapters and Rainbow Assemblies exemplified their Degrees at several of the District meetings this past year which were very well received. It has been said that more Masons witnessed DeMolay and Rainbow work this past year than all other years put together. This was an excellent response to the call from our Grand Master.

SPEAKERS BUREAU AND PROGRAMMING

A new speakers bureau was organized under the direction of R. W. John E. Anagnostis to provide speakers on several subjects for the benefit of our Lodges. Many Lodges took advantage of this bureau and invited speakers to their meetings. There was more active use made of the several Masonic films available during the past year. An expanded list of speakers will be available this summer along with at least one new film entitled "Symbol of Pride", courtesy of the Imperial Shrine. We trust that more of our Lodges will make better use of our speakers and other program material.

SUPPLEMENTAL CANDIDATE INSTRUCTION

After many hours of discussion, research and hard thinking, this committee is now developing a revised program of candidate instruction which follows very closely, "The Pollard Plan" using features of the Ashlar Plan and others. It is a more detailed step by step procedure which incorporates the Pollard Plan booklets for study purposes. The text and outlines are being prepared by R. W. Walter M. Macdougall.

The program was presented at the recent District Educational meetings and several Lodges have volunteered to act as pilot Lodges by working with this program during the next few months. Our plan is to field test it and make whatever revisions that are needed. Our aim is to have a program that all Lodges can work with to provide our candidates with the vital basic instruction that they need to be a well informed Mason. The Fourth Night concept presented to this Grand Lodge in 1980 is being considered as an optional part of the program.

SEMINARS AND EDUCATIONAL MEETINGS

Two statewide seminars for Grand Lodge Officers, District Deputies, District Representatives and Lodge Officers were held again this year, one in Bangor and one in Auburn. The highlight of this year's meetings were workshop sessions that covered the programs that we were involved in. All members present participated with each session being led by a member of this Committee. District Educational meetings were held again this year under the direction of the Grand Lecturer and his Assistants.

DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVES

District Representatives were appointed in all Districts this year and they report varying activities. Some Representatives have been very active and have had great response from the Lodges in their Districts. Others have reported little or no response from the Lodges of their Districts. Representatives have provided programs at Master and Wardens meetings, District meetings and Lodge meetings. Many have conducted Lodge Educational meetings and have been speakers on Masonic subjects. They have arranged for other speakers and Masonic film. Some Representatives have been outstanding, so much so that our Grand Master has chosen to appoint them as District Deputies next year. What a wonderful opportunity for a new District Deputy to have the experience of a District Representative.

THE RAYMOND RIDEOUT TROPHY AWARD

Many Lodges have established a program of Masonic Education by setting apart a meeting or part of a meeting for instructional purposes for the membership and are also providing additional candidate instruction. This Committee desires to recognize those Lodges whose programs have been brought to our attention by presenting them with a certificate of appreciation. We know that there are many other Lodges that deserve recognition but have not been brought to our attention.

We wish to recognize the following Lodges:

York Lodge #22 - Kennebunk

King Hiram Lodge #57 - Dixfield

Narraguagus Lodge #88 - Cherryfield

Ashlar Lodge #105 - Auburn

Pleiades Lodge #173 - Milbridge

However one Lodge stands way out in front of all the others in activities this past year. It has an ongoing program of Masonic Education. It is using the Ashlar Plan of candidate instruction. The members themselves provide a banquet at almost every meeting. A small Lodge, but it sends out its Trestle Board to many others to exceed the minimum for bulk mailing. This is good thinking. Excellent attendance at Schools of Instruction and District meetings. All of this plus — they have organized a cast and presented a Masonic play at the 20th District meeting last Fall while hosting the meeting. They presented the play again in Auburn last February and at least one other time. And if this is not enough — they are in process of reactivating the Rumford Chapter of DeMolay for Boys.

King Hiram Lodge #57 has had a busy year and is most deserving of receiving the Raymond Rideout Sr. Trophy Award.

CONCLUSION

This Committee has had another busy and successful year. Each member has worked hard, spent many hours in developing our programs and have been most cooperative to work with. Yet we have only scratched the surface in our work. I wish to thank each member of this Committee, District Deputies and Representatives and all others who have helped and supported our endeavors.

DOINGS OF GRAND OFFICERS

M. W. Roger I. White, for the Committee on Doings of Grand Officers, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Bangor, Maine
May 6, 1981

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Your Committee of Doings of Grand Officers has carefully reviewed the address of the Grand Master and other reports submitted by Grand Officers.

The Grand Master's address includes a report of his activities of the year; consisting of Area meetings, meetings within our Grand Jurisdiction as well as other outstanding Masonic occasions.

We recommend that the portions of his address dealing with these matters and the section entitled "Dispensations" be referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence.

We agree with our Grand Master, that a District Meeting in each Masonic District encourages a better attendance of officers and members at the meetings, and are much more beneficial to all concerned.

The encouragement of the support of our Youth Groups, the Order of Rainbow for girls and DeMolay for boys, is as important now as it ever has been in our Grand Lodge.

The reports of other Grand Lodge Officers show a busy and productive year in the support of our Grand Masters program.

GREENLEAF MEDAL

LOUIS E. PETERS

For the first time since the Simon Greenleaf Medal was initially presented in 1956, an award was made outside the State of Maine by one other than the Grand Master.

Brother Louis E. Peters was raised in Benevolent Lodge No. 87, in Carmel, Maine on June 15, 1955. In 1972, after moving to California, he affiliated with Lodi Lodge No. 256. Several years later, Brother Peters took two years out of his life to become an undercover agent for the F.B.I. and, to protect his family, divorced his wife. His work enabled the F.B.I. to convict Mafia leader Joseph Bonanno of conspiring to interfere with the Federal Grand Jury probe of his family's business operations, and his nephew, Jack DiFilippi, of conspiracy to obstruct justice and perjury. The Peters' were remarried after the trial.

Grand Master Harlan F. Small expressed the sentiment of the Masons in Maine in his communication accompanying the medal presentation, writing: "Probably no one other than yourself and family members can comprehend the full magnitude of your personal sacrifices, but we are all very cognizant of the great contribution that you have made to society and the tremendous value of your service to your Country. You have given practical effect in your life to the highest precepts and most valuable teachings of our Craft, and in so doing have acted in complete compatibility with the highest traditions of this great Fraternity. The example which you have set has and will continue to provide inspiration and courage to your Brethren across the length and breadth of our Nation.

"In grateful appreciation of your great personal sacrifices and in recognition of your most valuable contributions to your Country, both of which reflect the greatest credit on the Fraternity to which you belong, I have designated you as a most worthy recipient of the Simon Greenleaf Medal for unusual and exceptional contribution to Masonry."

On November 22, 1980, the Simon Greenleaf Medal was presented to Brother Peters in Lodi Lodge No. 256 by R. W. William R. Reeder, Inspector for District No. 222 of California.

MAINE MASONIC BLOOD BANK

R. W. Peter C. Schmidt, for the Committee on Masonic Blood Bank, reported that the Red Cross donates all blood free of charge, so there is no Blood Bank Program. All Brethren are urged to give blood as much as possible. If Brethren outside of the State need blood, contact Frank Barclay who will release same.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE CHARITY FUND

M. W. Charles E. Crossland, for the Committee on Distribution of the Charity Fund, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Bangor, Maine
May 6, 1981

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Your Grand Lodge Charity Fund was pleased to grant $86,050. to 49 Masons or their families from 38 Lodges. This is the third largest amount ever granted by our Charity Fund though the number of applications was somewhat less than in recent years.

Twenty-five or 51% of the applications came from Brethren; 29 or 60% of the requests were "first time" applications. This is an unusually high proportion of new applications.

In addition to the above our Grand Lodge Charity Fund contributed $6,450. to the Masonic Service Hospital Visitation program which is doing a great service throughout the nation including our Maine Veterans Hospital in Togus where an M.S.A. is located.

Also we contributed $5,000. to the DeMolay and Pine Tree Youth Foundation. The income from this together with other gifts is used to send DeMolay members to the national Leadership Training Conference.

Requests were received from five lodges to pay the dues for seven members who are U.S. War Veterans and who in the opinion of the Lodge of which they are members are worthy and merit such assistance. The amount involved was $195. in dues.

Every Maine Mason may take much satisfaction that he has shared in these activities through the per capita payment of one dollar each that is included in their Lodge dues payment.

Funds are available to grant even more assistance. It is hoped that there will be an increased number of applications in the future. Our Charity Committee welcomes every application to be of assistance where the information and data presented in the application clearly indicate that there is need.

While we are pleased to grant financial assistance let us not forget that personal interest and help sometimes means as much, if not more, than the dollars involved ever remembering that we should always be ready "to go on foot and out of our way to help a worthy Brother."

Respectfully submitted,

Commemorative Plate of Eureka Lodge #84, celebrating their 125th Anniversary - loaned to the Museum by R. W. Peter C. Schmidt.

A new film has been added to our collection. This is called "Symbol of Pride" and was produced by the International Shrine. A copy was given free of charge to all Grand Jurisdictions. It explains the basic goals and beliefs of Masonry through the eyes of a modern day Mason. It is 16 mm, sound and full color and runs for 22 minutes. It can and should be shown to non-Masonic as well as Masonic groups in an effort to increase and reinforce a belief in the true meaning and values of Masonry.

In addition to this film we have available for use of our Lodges the following:

George Washington Memorial - 16 mm - sound - 15 mins.

Brotherhood of Man - 16 mm - sound - color - 28 mins.

In the Hearts of Men - 16 mm - sound - color - 30 mins.

Slides of George Washington Memorial

The Library is open four days a week, Tuesdays through Fridays, from 9:00 to 4:30. Each year we seem to see fewer and fewer brethren who use these facilities. It does seem too bad that we have all this information available and so few to use it. Remember, if you want us to send you information or books on a particular subject, just tell us and we will send what we have available. If you are researching a subject, plan to come to Portland and spend the day in the Library. We also have a most interesting museum. It isn't large and can't compare with many we have seen in the larger Masonic jurisdictions, but it does contain many items of interest, particularly our collection of old Masonic Aprons, which is well worth seeing.

CONDITION OF THE FRATERNITY

R. W. Lewis E. Newell, for the Committee on Condition of the Fraternity, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Bangor, Maine
May 6, 1981

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Your standing committee on the "Condition of the Fraternity" has reviewed the reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters, as provided in Section 36, Par. 9 of the Grand Lodge Constitution.

District Deputies:

We have received all of the inspection reports of the individual lodges and the annual reports of the District Deputies with the exception of District 17A (this district was also delinquent last year). All reports have been reviewed. The information contained and the recommendations made have been considered in this report. Twenty-three of the reports received included the information needed to review the condition in each district, one was lacking in basic information and one was not received by this committee.

The District Deputies' recommendations were as follows:

1. That a uniform dress code be established in lodges for Officers, especially when degree work is scheduled.
2. That fines be established for late lodge histories.
3. Consideration of concurrent jurisdiction of two lodges in the 3rd District.
4. That suggested topics for the District Deputies Annual report and that a Guide similar to the one provided for Secretaries should be included in the District Deputies Kits at the beginning of his term.
5. That Schools of Instruction in adjoining districts be alternated to provide more opportunity of attending either type of school in the fall or in the spring.
6. That long hand copies of coded work be available to District Deputies to help in correcting word errors that persist in some lodges.
7. That the duties of the "Committee on Inquiry" be reviewed at the Educational School of Instruction.
8. That all Lodge Inspections be scheduled before Jan. 1st.
9. That District Meetings be held in each district on alternate years.

10. The District Deputy of the Ninth District calls attention to the suggestions that he made in his 1980 report that were directed to the Ritual Committee and would like to see consideration given to those suggestions.
11. That all Districts have a Masters & Wardens Association, as it is one of the best tools of a District Deputy.
12. That the lodge rating in ritual work reflect the type of work observed throughout the year.
13. That separate Secretaries and District Meetings be held.
14. That a place be provided on the Inspection Form for Officer attendance at Ritual Schools.
15. That Portland Lodge #1 consolidate with other Portland Lodges.
16. That all Masonic Bodies require their members to produce an up-to-date Blue Lodge dues card. (Note there are cases where membership has been dropped in the Blue Lodge.)
17. That the present "Schools of Instruction" be termed "Lodges of Instruction" as this term seems to be more appealing to some members.
18. That lodges be required to have a "Committee of Education" for the proper instruction of their candidates.

Footnote: There are conflicting recommendations pertaining to Standing Regulation #25. Some Deputies would like to see it strictly enforced, while others would not.

Financial Conditions:

Seventy-two lodge reports indicate outstanding dues of less than $200.00. Four lodges report no outstanding dues, one of these lodges has 389 members. The largest amount of outstanding dues was $5544.00. One lodge with 97 members had $1150.00. One with 67 members had $931.00 and one with 78 members had $1200.00.

Charity Funds:

Each lodge in the 2nd, 14th, 17A, 17B and 23rd Districts report Charity Funds. The lodge inspection reports of forty-seven lodges did not indicate regular Charity Funds.

DeMolay and Rainbow:

Active work in promoting and assisting DeMolay and Rainbow Chapters was evident in the review of a large percentage of the reports.

Masonic Instruction and Educational Programs:

Sixteen districts reported very successful District Meetings and we are sure that others were held that were not reported.

All districts, with one exception, reported very successful Schools of Instruction, however many Deputies were disappointed with attendance. They also report that in many cases, the Officers of lodges that really need the instruction do not attend.

The efforts of the Assistant Grand Lecturers, Educational Representatives and Grand Lodge Officers are highly praised by the District Deputies.

Masters and Wardens or Officer Associations:

Eleven districts report active associations. The Deputies in those areas find that these associations are very valuable in coordinating Masonic Education, Schools of Instruction, Special Programs and promotion of Masonry in their districts.

Four districts reported inactive associations, and the remaining did not indicate any associations.

Ritual:

Forty-seven lodge inspection reports indicated "Good" rendition of the ritual at the time of inspection, six were reported as "Fair", ninety reported "Very Good" and fifty-eight reported "Excellent".

Masonic Widows' Program:

Considerable progress is being made in many of the districts with this program and several very fine programs were reported.

Sharing and Caring Program:

Several of the Deputies reported activity in their lodges with this program.

Summary:

The Condition of the Fraternity as a whole is reported as good. Three districts report problems with individual lodges. Much work has been done in the last year on energy improvements and physical condition of lodge properties. The very active efforts of Grand Lodge Officers and their Representatives in the Districts, appears to be keeping Masonry in a healthy condition in the State of Maine.

Recommendations:

- A. The suggestions and recommendations of the District Deputies should be reviewed by the appropriate Grand Lodge Committees.
- B. We strongly recommend that Charity Funds be established in lodges that do not maintain such funds.
- C. The establishment of Officer Associations is highly recommended.

Conclusion:

We would like to commend the District Deputies for their improved reporting of the general conditions of the fraternity in their respective districts.

HISTORY

Wor. Bro. Edwin E. Cummings, for the Committee on History, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Bangor, Maine
May 6, 1981

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.:

Your Committee on Grand Lodge History is happy to report that we have reduced the number of delinquent lodges from 42 to 37, and that fifteen of the lodges listed in last year's report have complied with Standing Regulation #2 and are now in good standing.

During the year, however, 10 new lodges are delinquent for the first time. Many letters and telephone calls have been made by your Committee in an effort to get all Histories up to date. Several of the lodges have compiled partial Histories and are thus not delinquent. We regret that some of the lodges make little effort to write their Histories.

Your Committee reluctantly concludes that some sort of a financial penalty for delinquent lodges is the answer. Only by this means will we have all lodges up to date. Your Committee urges any lodge to consult any member of the Committee if they have any questions. We stand ready to serve.

The following lodges are delinquent according to our records:

DEMOLAY

May 6, 1981

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

This, my second report as Executive Officer for DeMolay in Maine, is a positive one. DeMolay is alive and well in our jurisdiction. During calendar year 1980, the number of new initiates was up substantially and we won easily over Rhode Island in our Jurisdictional Membership Pairing contest. During 1981 we have already seen the reactivation of two DeMolay Chapters and others are likely before the end of the year. Active Chapters are now working in Auburn, Augusta, Bangor, Bath, Caribou, Dixfield, Dover-Foxcroft, Kittery, Skowhegan, South Portland and Wells. I credit much of our success this last year to the enthusiastic support Most Worshipful Grand Master Small has shown for DeMolay. A number of District Representatives have done much to promote DeMolay in their districts, and we thank them for their effort.

A fund to ensure leadership training was established during the past year through the efforts of friends of Dr. Harold L. Chute and the generosity of many Masons and Masonic Bodies. The fund part of the DeMolay and Pine Tree Youth Foundation will provide scholarships to leadership training camps.

The real DeMolay action is at the Chapter level where DeMolay principles are taught by DeMolays. It also provides an opportunity for Master Mason fathers to work with their sons in a way which should help to strengthen the father-son relationship. At the State level we provide programs to reinforce the local programs and provide activities of State-wide interest that could not be done by a single Chapter.

A major State event is the annual DeMolay Conclave which was held this last year in June at Colby College. State Officers for 1980-81 were elected at Conclave as follows: State Master Councilor, Ronald C. Cogswell; Deputy State Master Councilor, Peter C. Grant; State Senior Councilor, Steven K. Ferris; and State Junior Councilor, A. Scot Perkins.

Summer fun was provided in July by the softball tournament and the Kora Temple Field Day which was well attended.

October 11th, the 9th Annual Honors and Awards Night was held in South Portland. Franklin G. Hinckley received the Honorary Legion of Honor with the work performed by T. Nelson Harmon and his team. The Chevalier Degree was conferred on Ronald C. Cogswell, Peter C. Grant and Tony L. Wardwell by John P. Mosley and his suite. Two advisors, Frank A. Dennett and Robert E. Pushard, were invested with the Cross of Honor.

The Dr. Harold L. Chute DeMolay Class was held on February 7 in Orrington. Many DeMolay Chapters were represented with Candidates to honor Dr. Chute, our Past Executive Officer.

The Annual DeMolay State Basketball Tournament was held in March at UMO with the following winners: Class A, Bangor Chapter; Class B, North Star Chapter from Caribou; Class C and D, Highpine Chapter from Wells.

The social highlight of the year was the Maine DeMolay Sweetheart Pageant on May 2 where Brigitte Emmons was crowned State Sweetheart. The pageant and a dance were held at Kora Temple.

During the last year I have had the continued help of Dr. Harold Chute, Active Member of the International Supreme Council and of a very active Southern Governor, Clyde L. Ferris. To them and all the many other DeMolay workers and supporters at all levels, I give my sincere thanks.

Fraternally submitted,
BRUCE S. TORNQUIST,
Grand Treasurer.

Voted—That the report of the Grand Treasurer be accepted, subject to the report of the Auditor.

Voted—To accept the gifts to the Charity Fund of $1546.00.

Voted—To authorize the Grand Treasurer to sign Proxies of securities owned by the Foundation, to sign stock certificates, resolutions and other documents pertaining to the sale of securities.

(3) Chairman Charles Crossland of the Committee on Investments again gave his excellent report. He elaborated to some extent and explained the suggestion made by our Investment Counsel. More below.

Voted—To accept the report.

John M. Wood, Jr., representing Standish, Ayer and Wood, our Investment Counsel, then took the floor and explained his plan to have the Trustees give permission to complete sales and purchases of securities without immediately contacting all the members of the Investment Committee; for instance, a Bond market has to be found and most transactions must take place by phone and on the spot. All such actions would, of course, be ratified by the Committee at a later date. Mr. Wood also recommended setting up an Income Stabilization Fund of $10,000.00 a year, for a period of five years.

Securities will always be in the keeping of the Grand Treasurer. It was the consensus of the Trustees that the recommendation of the Investment Committee be adopted and that an amendment to Sec. 63 be presented to Grand Lodge to grant to the Investment Counsel selected by the Investment Committee of the Grand Lodge Charity Fund the powers granted to the Investment Committee, by a vote of not less than $\frac{2}{3}$ of its members. John Wood further stated that about half of his other clients have accepted the new plan and that their earnings have actually increased.

Voted—To confirm and ratify all actions of the Investment Committee for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1981.

(4) Chairman Charles Crossland of the Committee on Distribution again gave his excellent report on the relief cases granted during the year, and was again commended by the Trustees for an outstanding job.

Voted—To accept the report with appreciation.

The consensus of the Trustees was that all policies as set up by Brother Crossland was acceptable to them.

(5) Voted—That the expense of carrying out the Charity Fund and handling the Distribution, including the salary of the Chairman of the Committee on Distribution, be paid out of the income of the fund, and that his salary be $4,000.00 plus travel and other expenses, for the year ending March 31, 1981. The vote was unanimous.

(6) Voted—To authorize payments to the Grand Lodge for services rendered as follows:

- Toward the salary of the Grand Secretary - 5%
- Toward the salary of the Grand Treasurer - 70%
- Toward the salaries of the Office Staff - $500.00
- Toward the auditor's Fee 75% of Cost
- Toward the cost of office supplies - $250.00

(7) Voted—To donate $5,500.00 to the Masonic Service Association.
To donate $750.00 to the M.S.A. Agent at Togus.
To donate up to $500.00 to the Masters and Wardens Associations for Sunday Services at Togus.

(8) Voted—To donate $5,000.00 to the DeMolay and Pine Tree Youth Foundation.

(9) Voted—That the $40,000.00 in the Fidelity Daily Income Trust be designated the "Income Stabilization Fund."

Voted—That the Investment Committee be authorized to transfer up to $50,000.00 to the Charity Fund from the Relief Fund as demands for Relief dictate.

(10) The Committee on Investment was elected as follows:

Chairman - Charles E. Crossland
Leon M. Sanborn
Harold L. Chute
Harlan F. Small (Ex-officio)

The Committee on Distribution was appointed as follows:

Charles E. Crossland, Chairman
Harlan F. Small, Grand Master
Peter C. Schmidt, Grand Secretary

(11) Under "Other Business," the Grand Secretary read a letter from Goodwill of Maine, asking for assistance in purchasing a new copier. The consensus of the Trustees was that the request be courteously rejected, since the funds of the Grand Lodge Charitable Foundation are committed to Masonic Relief. The Grand Secretary was requested to convey this information to Goodwill of Maine.

(12) A discussion concerning the need of an updated Charity Brochure in 1982 resulted in:

Voted—That the Trustees undertake the publication of a new Charity Brochure under the direction of Charles E. Crossland.

(13) The meeting was adjourned at 5:37 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER C. SCHMIDT
Grand Secretary

APPENDIX

Appendix 1981

To the Most Worshipful, the Grand Lodge of Maine, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons:

We submit, herewith, our Annual Report on Fraternal Relations, consisting of a FOREWORD, Special Reports, Recommendations, and Reviews.

FOREWORD

In presenting this report, we acknowledge that it is in humble retrospect of that which might have been presented by our Illustrious predecessor, our late M. W. Bro. Ralph J. Pollard, whose philosophy and insight was recognized by prominent brethren throughout the Masonic World. Your correspondent will, therefore, with humility, assess his findings as our venerable brother might have seen them in this 81st year of the 20th Century.

Within these United States, Freemasonry is still capable of bringing a strong moral influence upon a decaying social environment. Despite continued losses in many Grand Jurisdictions, our membership is still in a sufficiently healthy state that, by practicing our teachings in daily life-style, there is no cause to despair. The challenge before us today is comparable to that of the early 19th century, a time when Freemasonry must, in the opinion of your writer, be more recognizable in the public eye as a force for good and an enemy of immoral practice at every level. Such a challenge becomes an individual and personal one as well as a Lodge function. No longer can Masonry bask in the glory of the past, nor be confined within the four walls of a lodge-room. As has been observed many times, Masonry is not a secret society. Its teachings are (or should be) made manifest in the character and behavior of its members, most especially in the community in which they reside.

Our Grand Lodge, together with many others, has endeavored, through its publications and the news media, to re-inform its members, and alert the general public in the purposes, goals and objectives of the fraternity. There is increasing activity in broadening fields of concern in education, greater support of youth groups, concern for the aging and needy, and recognition of the on-going life of our Masonic Widows. These are but a few of the possibilities opening up in this ever-changing society, without endangering our traditional conservative stance.

While, in the so-called "Free World" countries, Freemasonry continues to carry on in a generally healthy state, our Mother Grand Lodge of England still leading and inspiring the lesser Grand Lodges, there are other areas of the world where political pressures are so great as to impair the prosperity, and in some instances, complete inability to maintain stability. Our Iranian brethren (Lodges) have been driven underground, and cease to exist as public Bodies. Persecution and death of prominent Masons is not uncommon on the political scene. Several other Grand Jurisdictions fear for the future as the result of infiltrating political forces. In the midst of this turmoil there are yet spurious and unrecognized Grand Lodges still operating under the guise of legitimacy. Because of these circumstances, our brethren engaged in widespread travel or military assignment must be alerted as to the legitimacy of lodges in the foreign field as recognized by this Grand Jurisdiction.

However, Masonry has experienced depressing and threatening conditions in many parts of the world, including our own "New World," and has not only survived, but has rekindled the flame of Masonry with an even greater zest and prosperity. We must face the challenge with unflinching tenacity to keep alive the torch of freedom and brotherhood which has characterized our great fraternity for more than two centuries.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,
For the Committee,

AUBREY L. BURBANK, P.G.M.

SPECIAL REPORTS

We have had but one new request for recognition this year, and we are pleased to report upon this request and make our recommendation accordingly.

ALASKA

Of the nineteen lodges chartered by the Grand Lodge of Washington in the State of Alaska, twelve of those so chartered petitioned and received the consent of their Mother Grand Lodge of Washington to organize a new Grand Lodge of Alaska, and held their first Special Grand Communication on February 7th of this year.

The Grand Master and Grand Secretary appeared before the Commission on Information for Recognition, at the Conference of Grand Masters of North America, meeting at Orlando, Florida, resulting in a favorable report from said Commission.

Under date of February 23, 1981, a letter outlining the above procedures, and the standards of operation which govern this Grand Body, was received by this Committee, including a request for consideration, approval and recognition by the Grand Lodge of Maine.

Inasmuch as they meet all requirements for such recognition as traditionally practiced by this Grand Jurisdiction, we, therefore, recommend that, waiving the usual waiting period, this Grand Lodge of Maine grant Recognition of the Grand Lodge of Alaska, and exchange of Representatives if such exchange be so requested.

No action regarding the Grand Orient of Italy is recommended at this time, nor are we prepared at this point in time to make any recommendation regarding the Grand Lodge of Cuba. We continue to hold our Cuban brethren in sincere respect and admiration, but until the political climate is more affable toward Freemasonry, we prefer to withhold any action that might result in embarrassment to them or ourselves.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

CHARLES R. GLASSMIRE
ROGER I. WHITE
AUBREY L. BURBANK

ALABAMA, 1980

The One Hundred Sixtieth Annual Communication.

The Date, Nov. 18-19, 1980

The Place, Montgomery

Lodges, 418 Members, 67,137 Loss, 927

The Annual Communication was opened in form by M. W. Bro. James G. Macon, Grand Master, with 18 Past Grand Masters in attendance, together with nine Distinguished Guests from six Grand Jurisdictions, plus presiding Officers of 4 Concordant and Appendant Orders, each of whom was welcomed in due form. Honorary Life Membership was granted each Distinguished Guest from outside the State visiting the Grand Lodge of Alabama for the first time.

The Grand Master noted at the beginning of his Address the gift of a new Ford LTD automobile which he had used in traveling approximately 49,000 miles in behalf of Masonry. His visitations outside the State included seven Grand Jurisdictions, plus the Conference of Grand Masters and the Southeastern Masonic Conference.

Thirteen Cornerstone-Laying and Dedication Ceremonies were held during the year. The only Decision rendered provided that only one Bible be on the Altar at any one time as "the furniture of the Lodge . . ." Sixty Dispensations of the usual nature were granted, 23 of which dealt with conferral of Degrees upon maimed candidates, and one to mortgage Real Estate. Additional references dealt with Trials, 50-yr. Awards, and Masonic Home.

In closing, he emphasized the necessity of positive action in reducing losses by suspension.

The Necrology Report noted the deaths of the Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Chaplain, and M. W. Bro. William H. Norris, P.G.M.

Five Amendments were proposed and carried; one having to do with returns and fees to be reported to the Grand Secretary - one having to do with residency of petitioner and proper inquiry thereof - another dealing with relocation of Lodges and forbidding voluntary surrender of charter - the fourth requiring written report of proper evidence in cases of trial, and, lastly, the accompaniment of fee (at least the E.A.) with petition.

A Resolution presented to permit Masonic funeral service at Funeral Home was rejected. A further Resolution providing for necessary paid-up life or burial policy for each Home resident was adopted. Lastly, a Resolution designating M. W. Bro. E. E. Jackson, former Treasurer as Grand Treasurer Emeritus was pronounced without action. Further Amendments were proposed providing exemption for residents of Masonic Homes, and another deleting free admission of ministerial candidates. Several Resolutions of Respect were presented and adopted. A Resolution to amend Edict 378 which would, in effect, prohibit raffles, etc., was rejected, which, if interpreted correctly, means that the practice may continue.

Following the several Reports, Brother James P. Glasgow was elected as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and Brother Robert M. Savage was continued as R. W. Grand Secretary.

ARIZONA, 1980

The Ninety-eighth Annual Communication.

The Date, May 19-20, 1980

The Place, Tucson

Lodges, 71

Members, 16,164

Gain, 94

Immediately following the formal ritualistic opening of Grand Lodge, the Grand Master proceeded to render his Address. He noted that the increase in membership is attributed to affiliation from other states. It was a less pleasant duty for him to report that for several years the Grand Lodge has been unable to operate within its income and the deficit has grown each year. He, consequently, recommends an increase in per capita. His visitations were many, including the Southwestern Masonic Conference and the Conference of Grand Masters held in Washington, D.C. One Special Communication was held for Constituting and Dedicating Research Lodge, No. 2, and three Specials were called for Cornerstone Laying Ceremonies. Seven Decisions were rendered, of which four were deemed favorable, two denied, and one advisory. The two denied were considered in violation of the Code. Sixteen recommendations were made and referred to proper committees for further consideration and action. It was interesting to note that those involving finances were in the spirit of "holding the line."

Seventeen Past Grand Masters were presented and accorded Grand Honors.

Distinguished Guests from 10 Sister Jurisdictions, plus the President of High Twelve International, were introduced and accorded proper honors.

The Grand Secretary reported, among other matters, the favorable response to the "Widow's Program," having had requests from 34 lodges for a total of 578 Pins, cards and certificates.

A Centennial Committee is actively engaged in planning a series of programs to celebrate this momentous occasion in the history of this Grand Lodge.

Representatives of eleven concordant and appendant bodies were presented and permitted to address Grand Lodge.

Reports of the Committees on General Policy and Jurisprudence made their recommendations on the Grand Master's several proposed Resolutions, Recommendations, etc., most of which are practiced in part or in whole by most Grand Jurisdictions. One which would be contrary to our (Maine) Constitution provides for Masonic Burial of "Every Mason (whether Entered Apprentice, Fellowcraft, or Master) . . . in good standing is entitled to be buried with Masonic Honors." Another, not provided for in our Constitution or Standing Regulations, provides for reversal by Grand Lodge and restoration of all rights and privileges . . . without loss of continuity of membership in acts of judgment of suspension or expulsion of a brother by a lodge when such judgment is inconsistent with Masonic charity and brotherly love.

We wish to commend this Grand Lodge in its Scholarship, H. S. Assistance, Public Relationship programs.

Brother L. W. White was elected and installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and Brother James M. King was reelected as V. W. Grand Secretary.

CONNECTICUT, 1980

The One Hundred Ninety-second Annual Communication.

The Date, March 26-27, 1980

The Place, Hartford

Lodges, 134 Members, 34,550 Loss, 749

The above membership number includes Dual membership. The Taxable membership is 30,854, as of Dec. 31, 1979.

The Annual Communication being opened in due and Ancient Form, M. W. Carl J. Anderson, Grand Master, proceeded to receive Distinguished Guests from Concordant and Appendant Bodies, followed by reception of Distinguished Guests from 15 Grand Jurisdictions, including our own M. W. Bro. Roger P. Snelling and R. W. Bro. N. James Coolong, S.G.W. The Colors were then presented and the usual tribute paid, after which the Grand Worthy Advisor addressed the Grand Lodge and presented a check to the Grand Master to be used for the Acute Care Center at the Masonic Home and Hospital. The State Master Councilor was introduced and also addressed the Grand Lodge. Following their retirement, the Grand Lodge was called to Labor, whereupon the Past Grand Masters were presented and accorded Private Grand Honors.

The Grand Master then delivered his Address, welcoming all in the name of the S.A.O.T.U. His Necrology report noted the loss of 910 brethren, including one Past Grand Master, M. W. Bro. Harry E. Bellini.

Among his early remarks, he expressed his gratitude to the Several Grand Lodge Officers, Committees and the work of the Appendant Bodies.

His visitations, which were many, included the Northeast Conference and the Conference of Grand Masters in No. America.

Recognition of the Grand Lodge of Belgium was withdrawn by the Grand Master. It was later voted to recognize the "Grande Loge Reguliere de Belgique," and the "Gran Logia de la Masoneria Del Uruguay."

Dispensations granted by the Grand Master were approved by the Committee on Jurisprudence. Recommendations made by the Grand Master were referred to the incoming Grand Master. Further recommendations proposed for changes in the Rules and Regulations were considered of such a nature as to require further study and feasibility. One such would eliminate territorial jurisdiction. After hearing pros and cons from the Lodges, this, together with another changing the requirement as to date of election of Officers, will be held over for further consideration for recommendation at the next Annual Communication.

The Grand Master is to be commended for his edict calling for "Retention Committees" in each Lodge to combat losses through N.P.D.

The usual Committee and Statistical Reports presented and to be printed in the Proceedings were accepted.

R. W. Bro. Morris I. Budkofsky was elected as Most Worshipful Grand Master. M. W. Bro. William Campbell was reelected as Grand Secretary.

DELAWARE, 1979

The One Hundred Seventy-fourth Annual Communication.

The Date, Oct. 3-4, 1979

The Place, Dover

Lodges, 31

Members, 8,967

Loss, 141

The Annual Communication was opened in Ample Form by the R. W. Deputy Grand Master, after which the M. W. Grand Master, Bro. James H. Hutchins was received with Grand Honors. Distinguished Guests from 12 Grand Jurisdictions, plus the M.S.A. and the Conference of Grand Masters of North America. Maine was represented by M. W. Roger P. Snelling and Wor. Bro. Ephraim S. Jillson. Our Grand Representative in Delaware, M. W. Bro. Elmer W. Randall, Jr., P.G.M. was also present.

The Grand Master's Address indicated a busy year with some 165 visitations within and without the Grand Jurisdiction, including the Conference of Grand Masters and the N. E. Conference.

The Grand Master's theme for the year was "Fiat Lux," through which he emphasized training in leadership in subordinate lodges.

A Semi-Annual Conference had been held in March of 1979, at which pending matters were further considered and recommendations made.

One Cornerstone Laying Ceremony and one Constituting Ceremony were held in 1978, the latter being a "Day-light Lodge."

The Grand Master spoke of the 175th Anniversary Celebration to be held June 7, 1981.

Decisions and Dispensations were granted in accordance with wise judgment and within the powers of the Grand Master. An Edict was issued permitting the existing regulation in reference to Dual Membership be continued until the issue is further clarified. Several recommendations were made for consideration. Plural membership has been proposed and laid over to the 175th Annual Communication.

R. W. Bro. William J. Littel was elected Most Worshipful Grand Master, and R. W. Bro. Walter F. Lokey was continued in the office of Grand Secretary.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, 1979

The One Hundred Sixty-ninth Annual Communication.

The Date, Dec. 19, 1979

The Place, A.A.S.R. Temple

Lodges, 40

Members, 11,712

Loss, 493

The Annual Communication was preceded by the Semi-Annual Communication in May, both of which were presided over by M. W. Bro. George F. Moyer, Grand Master.

Thirteen of the 17 living Past Grand Masters were in attendance at the May Meeting.

The first order of business was a report of the Committee on Jurisprudence, dealing with two amendments to the Masonic Code; the first of which would raise the candidate's contribution to the George Washington Masonic National Memorial from $1.00 to $5.00. The second would require that Lodges holding special activities on Sunday in Maryland shall comply with an earlier decision so as not to violate a Standing Regulation of the Grand Lodge of Maryland. It was further recommended, and later approved, that the Grand Lodge purchase six Past Grand Master's Jewels at an available price of $700 ($1500 at jewelry stores) in view of a probable increase in the foreseeable future.

Following routine Reports, the Grand Master made remarks (Address) including a plea to each member present to work diligently at assessing and attacking the problem of decline in membership, being mindful of the Ancient Landmarks regarding the same, in an effort toward resurgence of Masonry in the District of Columbia. He also stressed the requirement of a Certificate of Proficiency before a Warden may be installed as Worshipful Master. Announcement was made of the merger of two Lodges, effective in May, '79. Lastly, the Grand Master strongly admonished the lodges regarding undue and excessive roughness in the M. M. Degree.

An amendment was proposed permitting the Worshipful Master to call off a Stated or Special Communication when conditions warrant such action by reason of storms, fire, travel conditions, etc., immediately notifying the Grand Secretary of such action. The proposal was referred to the Jurisprudence Committee, and was subsequently approved at the December Communication.

At the Annual Communication in December, Distinguished Guests from 14 Sister Jurisdictions were presented, including our own Grand Secretary, R. W. Bro. Peter C. Schmidt and V. W. Bro. Wilbur F. Loveitt, Asst. Grand Lecturer. Among reports submitted, the Blood Bank Program noted the donation of 1507 pints of blood (14.2% above their quota). Special speakers during the year included Wor. Bro. C. D. Howell, P. M. of Alexandria-Washington Lodge #22, M. W. Bro. Roy H. Stetler, Jr., P.G.M. of Maryland, and our own R. W. Bro. Stewart M. L. Pollard, Exec. Sec'y of the Masonic Service Association.

The Grand Master's Address consisted of expressions of gratitude for the privilege afforded him to serve Grand Lodge, together with reports on waivers, dispensations, etc. A request from a F. C. Mason in a Lodge not recognized by the Jurisdiction of the District of Columbia resulted in a decision by the Grand Master that said petitioner must withdraw membership from the unrecognized Grand Lodge, and having provided satisfactory evidence in writing, might petition a Lodge in the District of Columbia, and, if elected, each of the three degrees in said Lodge.

The Grand Master reported on several Committee activities, including Youth, Masonic and Eastern Star Home, visitations within and without the Jurisdiction. In conclusion, he again emphasized the decline in membership (4% net loss in past year), and his recommendations for correcting this situation, viz: greater emphasis in averting losses by N.P.D. through an investigating process of circumstances, better communication through Lodge Bulletins, and more public exposure. He noted, in a more positive view, the increase in membership and office-holding by younger brethren.

Before closing the Annual Communication, several amendments were proposed and adopted, among which were those permitting semi-public Installations, the adoption of a coded cipher, and a "question and answer" pamphlet for each degree to be memorized by each candidate as he progresses through the degrees, one of which to be given in "open lodge."

The Grand Master then proceeded to close in Ample Form.

Brother Perry A. Lester was elected and installed as M. W. Grand Master.

Brother William H. Minnick was re-elected and installed as R. W. Grand Secretary.

FLORIDA, 1980

The One Hundred Fifty-first Annual Communication.

The Date, April 28-30

The Place, Orlando

Lodges, 329 Members, 83,448 Net Gain, 97

(The above figures include 1518 Dual Members and 3 Memorial Lodges)

Preceding the formal opening of the Grand Lodge a most impressive skit was presented portraying a Reenactment of the Organization of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Florida as it occurred in Tallahassee, July 5, 1830.

The Grand Lodge was then opened in Ample Form by Most Worshipful Brother Franklin C. Smith, Grand Master. Distinguished Guests from Allied and Appendant Bodies were received, followed by present and past Grand Officers from nine Jurisdictions. All were welcomed in due and ancient form. Fifteen Past Grand Masters were likewise received and welcomed.

The Grand Lodge having been called from Labor to Refreshment, the ladies of the present and past Grand Officers were welcomed to the Lodge Room where, after suitable responses, they were privileged to hear Addresses from the leaders of several bodies, and the Memorial Service for deceased brethren.

The non-Masons having retired, the Grand Master called the Grand Lodge from Refreshment to Labor and proceeded with his Annual Address, consisting of introductory remarks of Masonic propriety, example, faith and hope through leadership; reporting then on Committee Activities, Allied and Appendant Bodies, etc., expressing in each instance his gratitude for work well done. He then listed several recommendations, one of which was to accept an offer from the International Order of the Rainbow for Girls for the full financing for construction and maintenance of a Youth Chapel on the Masonic Home Grounds, to be known as the MacMinn Youth Chapel in honor of Mama Leita MacMinn and her late husband, Mr. Harry MacMinn, donors.

Dispensations refused by the Grand Master included one pertaining to a totally blind petitioner, pointing out that persons totally lacking in the powers of sight, speech and hearing would be ineligible. Dispensations granted were of the usual nature and in compliance with existing laws.

Eight Cornerstone Ceremonies and six Dedication Ceremonies were held during the year. It was a busy year for the Grand Master, his having listed 140-odd visitations, including the South Eastern Masonic Conference and the Conference of Grand Masters of North America. He became the recipient of 161 Honorary Memberships, plus 14 other honors.

The remainder of the Proceedings consisted largely of Committee Reports and Statistics.

Brother Lynn Pierce Blich was elected Most Worshipful Grand Master for the ensuing year, and Brother William A. Whitcomb was reelected R. W. Grand Secretary.

IOWA, 1980

The One Hundred Thirty-sixth Annual Communication.

The Date, Sept. 19, 1980

The Place, Des Moines

Lodges, 485 Members, 65,357 Loss, 1,825

The Annual Communication was opened in Ample and traditional Form with Most Worshipful Laverne R. Clay, Grand Master, presiding. Seventeen Past Grand Masters were present, together with representatives from nine Sister Jurisdictions and seven allied or appendant Bodies.

Following the usual preliminary procedures, the Grand Master presented his written report, and read his Supplemental Report, in which he cited the improvements made to their Nursing Home in Bettendorf and the Rowley Memorial Home in Perry, plus 46 scholarships to graduating seniors in the amount of $500 each.

The Grand Master reviewed and listed his many visitations within and without the Grand Jurisdiction, including the Conference of Grand Masters. Emergent Communications were held to constitute one new Lodge, Cornerstone Laying, Dedications and Funerals. Relief was granted in the amount of $1000 to assist the Dominican Republic Lodges as a result of hurricane and tropical storm devastation. Three consolidations took place during the year involving six Lodges.

The Grand Master denied requests of two Lodges; one to rent the first floor of its building to the Liquor Commission for a package store, and the other to appear in regalia in celebrating its town's 125th Anniversary, while granting Dispensations to five Lodges to have floats in parades.

A startling quote from the Grand Master's Address pertained to the beautiful and famous George Washington Masonic Memorial in Alexandria. He quotes a Washington, D.C. newspaper article as depicting the Memorial as "a crumbling heap of marble . . . falling apart just like the Masonic Fraternity." His point in quoting the article was to emphasize the need for greater contribution to restore and maintain the beauty of the Memorial. In so doing, he submitted an amendment to the Masonic Code to raise the Initiation fee by an additional $5.00 as requested by the Executive Commission. The amendment was adopted.

There are six Lodges in Iowa with under 25 members, the smallest being seventeen (17). The largest Lodge has 1,237 members; the second largest has 1,153, both being located in Des Moines, totaling 2,390 in that city. The lowest fee is $50 and the highest $150. A proposed amendment for State-wide Territorial jurisdiction for each lodge was rejected.

Brother Charles T. Jackson was elected and proclaimed as Most Worshipful Grand Master. Brother Tom Eggleston was reelected as R. W. Grand Secretary.

IRELAND, 1979-1980

The Annual Report of the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. Masons of Ireland.

At the Annual St. John's Day Meeting, 1979, due to the absence of the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Rt. Hon. THE EARL OF DONOUGHMORE, his report was read by the R. W. Deputy Grand Master, Major George M. Malone.

The Address of the Grand Master began with a fitting tribute to the former Deputy Grand Master, R. W. Dr. Maurice Redmond O'Connell who passed away on August 27, 1979. Likewise, he announced the passing of the R. W. Brother Justice Kingsmill Moore who had retired from the office of Grand Registrar last year after 23 years of faithful service, and further, the loss of V. W. Brother Patrick Carney, Past Grand Deacon, a real artisan in the restoration of pictures and portraits, having restored the portraits in Grand Lodge on the occasion of their 250th Anniversary.

The Grand Master announced the appointment and installation of Major George M. Malone as Deputy Grand Master.

Also included in his Address, the Grand Master spoke of the R. W. Grand Secretary, Bro. J. O. Harte's having been struck down by a serious illness about the end of May, reporting upon his slow recovery and necessity to take it easy for a time. R. W. Bro. Sydney Brown was appointed as Acting Grand Secretary, and the Grand Master congratulated him for his splendid efforts.

In March, the Grand Master was advised of the great deterioration of finances at the Boy's School, whereupon he summoned a meeting of the Provincial Grand Masters, the School's Management Committee, the Girl's Benefit Fund Committee, and the G. M.'s Special Committee, resulting in the calling upon three Financial experts and two Education experts to report upon the situation as soon as possible. The result of their study prompted the reconvening of the original committees who unanimously recommended the closing of the School in July, 1980. However, at a meeting of the Governors in December, an amendment was proposed and carried to postpone further discussion, thereby creating a delay which the Grand Master deemed to be possibly damaging in resolving the issue. He consequently called upon the "whole Craft for really generous subscriptions" for the next year or so, in order to pay off the overdraft and meet current expenses.

A year ago, the Grand Lodge legislated the creation of a Grand Lodge Benevolent Fund, and the Grand Master expressed pleasure in the efforts to develop and implement this Charitable aim of the Order.

The remainder of the Annual Report consisted of the conferring of Grand Rank upon several worthy brethren, the issue of warrants to four new Lodges, appointment of Foreign Representatives, By-law alterations, and Reports from the several Provincial Grand Lodges.

An enclosure accompanying the bound Report (an official note from the Grand Secretary), indicated that at the March, 1980 Stated Quarterly Communication, the [New] REGULAR GRAND LODGE OF BELGIUM was granted recognition.

The EARL OF DONOUGHMORE continues as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and Brother J. O. Harte continues as R. W. Grand Secretary.

MARYLAND, 1979

The One Hundred Ninety-third Annual Communication.

The Date, Nov. 19, 1979

The Place, Baltimore

Lodges, 129 Members, 41,522 Loss, 796

The Annual Communication was presided over by M. W. Bro. William M. Koenig after its having been opened in form by the Deputy Grand Master. Eight Past Grand Masters were present and were formally introduced and accorded Grand Honors. The Grand Organist, Bro. Edward O'Dell, was introduced and cited for his over 30 years service to Grand Lodge, and some 48 years service to Baltimore Lodge, No. 210. Distinguished Guests from 16 Grand Jurisdictions, including our own Grand Master and Grand Secretary, were then presented, together with the Executive Secretary of The Masonic Service Association and the Sec'y-Treas. of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, and accorded Grand Honors.

The Grand Master, in his Annual Address, paid tribute to the several Boards which comprise the Grand Lodge, and made particular reference to Special Events, with rightful pride in citing the raising of his own son, assisted by his Grand Officers. At this session of the Grand Lodge, he ruled that an Edict of the Grand Master in 1970 be reversed, thus permitting Life Membership(s), under prescribed provisions.

It became necessary for the Grand Master to make mid-year appointments due to the death of the Grand Treasurer, and the resignation of a Board Member and a Grand Officer.

He listed his visitations, numbering some 217, including Regional Meetings, Conferences and Sister Jurisdictions.

A Revision of the Constitution which was essentially an updating and changing of words and/or Titles was presented and adopted.

The Semi-Annual Communication held in May consisted largely of Reports and proposals to be acted upon at the Annual Communication reported above.

He closed his address with a note of optimism in meeting the challenge of changing times.

He (M. W. Bro. William M. Koenig), was reelected as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and R. W. Bro. Stanley R. Uppercue was reelected as R. W. Grand Secretary.

MONTANA, 1980

The One Hundred and Fourteenth Annual Communication.

The Date, June 27-28, 1980

The Place, Lewistown

Lodges, 132 Members, 16,653 Loss, 489

The Annual Communication having been called to order by M. W. Francis D. Hess, Grand Master, the Colors were posted by Dennis L. Casey Chapter, Order of DeMolay, with tribute being given to each: the American Flag, the Canadian Flag, and the State Flag, followed by the singing of the National and State Anthems.

Following a very inspirational Oration by M. W. John B. Davis, P.G.M., entitled "Our Obligation," Distinguished Guests from 14 Grand Jurisdictions were received and accorded appropriate Grand Honors. Seventeen Past Grand Masters were then presented and accorded Public Grand Honors. Interestingly, Honorary Membership is traditionally conferred upon "first-time" Distinguished Guests.

The Grand Master has traveled the length and breadth of the State on Masonic Visitations, not once, but many times, driving 33,674 miles by automobile, and flying 10,295 miles by plane. In his travels and through other sources, he has learned of several infractions in ritualistic work, using lectures, etc. not approved by Grand Lodge.

Among other recommendations, he called attention to a Decision of 1973 providing that the "Common Gavel" remain in the East rather than be carried by the Worshipful Master about the lodge in floor-work. This recommendation would mean a revision in the next printing of the "Handbook."

He also recommended a minimum fee of $150 for the degrees in all lodges.

Among Resolutions presented by the Grand Master, one would call for the recessing of all constituent lodges during the months of June, July and August, and another permitting 18-year-olds to petition for the degrees.

Three Special Communications were held during the years '79-'80, one for installation of a Grand Chaplain, and two for funerals of Past Grand Masters.

Dispensations granted were of common usage in accordance with the Grand Lodge Code. A hospitalized E. A. suffering terminal cancer was made a Master Mason on sight.

Among Resolutions referred and reported upon, the following action ensued: Dual Membership, rejected; the design and practice of presenting Past Master's pins for 25-yr. and 50-yr. service was carried over until 1981; Grand Master's recommendation of $150 fee was rejected; the appointment of a Parliamentarian was rejected; "Common Gavel" remain in the East, adopted; Trial notices to include name of accused, rejected.

R. W. Bro. Donald Schenck was conferred the rank of Honorary Past Grand Master.

A Lodge of Master Masons having been opened by Craftsman Lodge, No. 314 of Lincoln, the Grand Master, M. W. Bro. Warren D. Lichty, Jr., was introduced and accorded Grand Honors, after which he declared Grand Lodge opened in ample form. The American Flag was presented and the Pledge of Allegiance given. Nineteen of the 21 living Past Grand Masters were then presented, welcomed and accorded Grand Honors, following which Distinguished Guests from seven Grand Jurisdictions, plus Representatives of Concordant and Appendant Bodies were presented in due form. Seventy-four Grand Representatives (not listed) were presented and welcomed.

The Grand Master then presented his Address opening with appropriate remarks of welcome and gratitude. In his report on Necrology he noted the loss of 846 Brethren, including M. W. Bro. Charles F. Adams, a Past Grand Master of National renown and achievement. It was also a sad moment for the Grand Master to note the passing of his Dad in December, and his Mother in January, both of whom had looked forward to being present on this occasion.

Two Cornerstone-Laying and Dedication Ceremonies were held during the year, while two Centennial Celebrations were observed.

Several Dispensations of the usual nature were granted, and By-Law Amendments approved. Three Consolidations, involving six Lodges were regretfully approved, one Lodge lacking only three years of Centennial observance. Seventy visitations were listed, including the Conference of Grand Masters, the Supreme Council, A.& A.S.R., and Grand Lodge Tour of England and Scotland.

While more than one-half of the Lodges reported no raisings during the year, and 486 were suspended N.P.D., yet the Grand Master expressed optimism in that more and more lodges are "coming to life."

Sixteen Decisions were made, all of which were approved by the Committee on Jurisprudence with one exception involving a technicality. Fifteen Recommendations were made by the Grand Master, nine of which were Disapproved by the Committee on Jurisprudence for reasons of violation of Landmarks, "Ancient Usage" or contrary to the best interests of Masonry.

Like many other Grand Jurisdictions, recognition was granted the new "Grande Loge Reguliere de Belgique."

Following Reports of several committees, the public Installation of Officers was held with Brother Byron C. Jenkins installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and M. W. Bro. Norris W. Lallman re-installed as Grand Secretary.

Five Special Communications were held in 1979-80; One for the Annual Divine Worship Service at the Cathedral of the Pines, one Special Visitation, and three Dedications.

The Semi-Annual Communication was held on Nov. 17, 1979, at which time the Grand Secretary, M. W. Bro. Danelson was presented a new Past Grand Master's Apron to replace that which he had "worn out" through long and frequent usage. The Major General John Sullivan Distinguished Service Medal was presented to R. W. Bro. Mayland H. Morse, J.G.W., for his long and dedicated service to the Masonic Home. Routine business was transacted, after which the Officers of the Grand Lodge of Vermont exemplified the second section of the M. M. Degree on their own candidate according to Vermont Ritual. The Grand Lodge was then closed in ample form.

The Annual Communication in May was declared open in ample form by M. W. Bro. David L. Batchelder, Grand Master, with five Past Grand Masters in attendance. One of the Grand Master's first acts was to receive Distinguished Guests from 16 Grand Jurisdictions, including our own M.W.G.M. Bro. Harlan F. Small, R. W. Bro. Royce Wheeler, S.G.W., and M. W. Roger P. Snelling, P.G.M., in addition to representatives of 9 Concordant and Appendant Bodies.

Following the presentation of the Colors and preliminary motions, the Grand Representatives were presented, including M. W. Bro. Herbert E. Kimball, representative of the G. L. of Maine.

Brother Robert M. Argel was presented the Major General John Sullivan Distinguished Service Medal for his outstanding service to his lodge and to Freemasonry.

The Address of the Grand Master noted the death of six Grand Officers, four of whom were D.D.G.M.'s. He reported on his attendance at the Northeast Conference of Grand Masters and the Conference of Grand Masters of No. America, as being among the 119 visitations within and without the Grand Jurisdiction of New Hampshire.

Three Dedication Ceremonies were held during the year. Twenty-seven Dispensations were granted, all of which were approved by the Jurisprudence Committee, except those five granted to work the E.A. Degree in less than the statutory time. One of those approved provided for Memorial Services to be performed for an E.A. Mason.

At the close of his Address, recommendations made therein were adopted, changing the titles of Assoc. Grand Secretary, Assoc. Grand Lecturer, and Assoc. Grand Tyler, to be designated as Deputy Grand . . . ; that the Bicentennial Coins be sold with the proceeds therefrom to be applied to a fund for the 200th Anniversary in 1989.

An Amendment proposed at the semiannual Communication which would, in effect, permit gambling (raffles, lotteries, etc.) was defeated.

Recognition of the former Grand Lodge of Belgium was withdrawn, and recognition of the new "Grande Loge de Belgique" was granted.

The usual Reports were presented and accepted, and after a period of Refreshment, the Grand Lodge resumed Labor for the purpose of Installation.

Brother Carroll M. Fogg was installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and Brother Robert H. Danelson was again installed as Grand Secretary.

Most significantly, Brothers Robert B. and Richard D. Peppler, blood brothers of the Grand Master, announced that the Grand Master was prepared to enter the Lodge Room, and the Grand Lodge was forthwith opened in Ample Form. The Distinguished Guests were present to witness the opening ceremony, after which they retired to be received in due form. Twenty Grand Jurisdictions were represented, including our own M. W. Bro. Roger P. Snelling, Grand Master, accompanied by Wor. Bro. Ephraim Jillson, G.S.D. Distinguished Brethren of the Scottish and York Rites, together with representatives of affiliated bodies were received in traditional form. Sixteen Past Grand Masters were then presented and properly received.

The Grand Master presented his Address, consisting of expressions of gratitude to his present and past Grand Officers, paying respect to several affiliated bodies. His visitations within and without the Grand Jurisdiction totalled some 230, including the Northeast Conference and the Conference of Grand Masters of North America. In some instances he visited two or more occasions on one given date.

Among other matters of concern, he called attention to the loss of approximately 12,000 members over a period of fifteen years for N.P.D.'s, recommending a supplementary section to the General Regulations providing for a special committee to investigate each case within one month prior to consideration of suspension, and like action on demits. [The first recommendation was laid over for another year, while the second was defeated.]

A further recommendation providing for a "Grand Master's Distinguished Service White Apron Award," of special design, was adopted.

Reports of the several Committees, Masonic Home, etc. were then heard. The Report of the Fraternal Relations Committee was pleased to report that in February of 1980, the Grand Lodge of Mississippi had renewed relations with the Grand Lodge of New Jersey. Fraternal relations with the Grand Lodge of Belgium having been withdrawn in May of 1979 as a result of a statement of atheistic nature attributed to the then Grand Master of Belgium, on recommendation of the Grand Master relations with Belgium were renewed.

One merger, and three consolidations were approved.

During the period beginning in April and continuing over several weeks, a petition by 105 Cuban brethren, meeting informally at Elizabeth Masonic Temple, was examined and considered by a special committee appointed for that purpose, resulting in a motion that the Grand Master grant them a Dispensation of recognition as "Jose Marti Lodge, U.D." (Jose Marti being referred to as the "George Washington of Cuba"). Said motion was adopted.

Brother Carl O. Brodin was elected and installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and M. W. Brother Edward Rainey was reelected as Grand Secretary.

The Annual Communication having been called to order, the Grand Lodge Officers were received and Grand Lodge was opened by M. W. Brother William B. Bellois, Grand Master. Distinguished Guests from 15 Grand Jurisdictions and 6 Appendant Bodies were presented and accorded Private Grand Honors. Seventeen Past Grand Masters were then welcomed and likewise accorded Private Grand Honors.

Following some 29 preliminary Reports of the several Committees, the Grand Master addressed the assemblage extending his warm welcome to the brethren and guests. He expressed the regrets of the Grand Lodge in the loss of two Past Grand Masters during the year. Tribute was paid for the excellent work of the Directors of the Oxford Orphanage. Referring to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, he expressed the dissatisfaction of the Directors in the construction of the individual apartments, and the withholding of payment until the construction meets the satisfaction of the Board.

The Grand Master's visitations included the Conference of Grand Masters in Washington, D. C., the Southeastern Masonic Conference and four sister Grand Jurisdictions. Emergent Communications were held for two Cornerstone Layings, two Dedications and one Masonic Burial Service. One new Lodge was Constituted, and another Instituted.

Like so many other Grand Lodges during that period of time, as a result of the statement of the then Grand Master of Belgium renouncing belief in God as a prerequisite, the Grand Master of No. Carolina directed that recognition be withdrawn. [Recognition was later granted the Grande Loge de Belgique upon recommendation of Fraternal Correspondent.]

The reception of 39 physically handicapped applicants were accepted, and 5 disapproved.

One Lodge was granted permission to erect a one-story building.

The Grand Master recommended that the usual appropriations be continued in several instances; that the name Oxford Orphanage be changed to North Carolina Masonic Home for Children; that appropriate funds be set aside for the 1987 Bicentennial, and that the Board of Directors of the Oxford Orphanage seriously consider implementing an Aphasic and Dyslexic Program.

Several amendments were submitted and reported upon by the Committee on Jurisprudence - one providing for non-appointment of more than one Grand Officer within a given city and/or county (Except Grand Secretary and/or Grand Treasurer) which was rejected, as was another dealing with limiting certain procedures in terms of Schools of Instruction. Four, having to do with required reading of minutes were also rejected. All others were adopted as submitted.

Brother Everette S. Aldridge was elected and Installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and Bro. Robert P. Dudley was continued as Grand Secretary.

Most Worshipful Brother Roy M. Rauenhurst, Grand Master, opened this Annual Communication in Ample Form, after which Distinguished Guests from 10 Grand Jurisdictions, including Past Grand Masters from China and Japan, followed by representatives of the Concordant Bodies and 16 Past Grand Masters of Oregon were received and welcomed in regular Masonic procedure. Brother Delbert E. Atkins, Representative of the Grand Lodge of Maine was among those recognized. A group of Brethren from England were introduced and welcomed as special visitors.

The Grand Master stated, in his Address, that his primary goals for the year were to promote brotherly love, support the youth groups and stress the need of the Home Endowment Fund for the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, a review of the Ritual, all of which he advanced to the best of his ability.

He attended the Tri-State Conference in Ohio, and the Conference of Grand Masters at Washington, D.C.

It was interesting to note that among the dispensations granted, eight were granted as a result of inclement weather on Jan. 14-15, 1980. In addition, three were granted regarding physical qualifications, including one blind applicant. Contrary to Maine's regulation, the situation requires dispensation, whereas ours is at the discretion of the Master of the Lodge.

One Occasional Communication was held to dedicate a new Lodge Room in the Scottish Rite Annex in Portland.

The loss of one Past Grand Master was reported, viz, M. W. Brother William D. E. Sharpe, the same having given M. W. Brother Rauenhorst his first appointment in Grand Lodge.

The Grand Secretary's Statistical Report indicated that while new or reinstated members amounted to 687, the number of deceased members numbered 985.

Four Hundred Twenty-five units of blood were donated to the Red Cross by members of the Masonic fraternity.

Educational Assistance Allowance was granted 44 children in an amount totaling $42,645.

The Grand Secretary reported that the expenditures for the year were UNDER the Budget adopted a year ago.

The Lodges were urged to place more emphasis on publicity, and to forward clippings of the same to the Grand Lodge Committee on Publicity.

The Committee on Recognition saw fit NOT to recommend recognition of the Grand Lodge of Belgium at this time.

Brother John F. Erwin was elected as Grand Master for 1980-81, and Brother Elwin E. Phillips was returned as Grand Secretary.

The Annual Report consists of the Special Communication in July, '78 and Quarterly Communications in June, September, December and March, each of which was presided over by Most Worshipful Bro. Alphonso Jean Gardiner Nicholson, Grand Master. Visitors included representatives from England, Vermont, and the several Grand Lodges of Australia.

The Office of Grand Master appears to be, for the most part, a ceremonial one, while not neglecting his responsibility in overseeing the affairs of the Grand Lodge. He makes many visitations, including Dedications, Anniversaries and special events, and presides over certain social events. He is elected, together with other Grand Officers, at each Quarterly Communication, and PROCLAIMED Grand Master at the Special Communication in July. There being no other nominations for the office, he is declared 'elected' by the Deputy Grand Master at each Quarterly, at which time he addresses the Grand Lodge with words of inspiration and direction. At the June Quarterly Communication of 1978, he expressed his concern for Freemasonry as follows: "Ours should be a never ending search for more knowledge and improvement; for only when we have a well informed membership will we have an interested one and only when we have an interested membership will Masonry assume its rightful place as a sphere of influence in our Society." At the September Quarterly, he paid tribute to Pope Paul VI in a message of sympathy to the Catholic Community of Queensland on the occasion of the Pope's death. At the December Quarterly, he stressed the necessity of greater publicity in making more visible the image of Masonry to the general populace.

The business of Grand Lodge is formulated and administered largely by the Board of General Purposes. Amendments, proposals, jurisprudence and such are presented by this Board, while the Grand Lodge is free to agree or disagree as they deem best for the Order. A case in point centered about a heated discussion in reference to "Raffles." The Board has ruled that raffles in compliance with "Minor Art Unions" and the Justice Department Regulations were acceptable. Several brethren favored a complete restriction on raffles of any kind, but the final outcome favored the Board interpretation, recognizing that some Lodges have been and intend to continue in defiance of regulations. The Board receives applications for the degrees and Membership and then rules on the Lodge's "Right to Ballot" on Initiation and Joining Brethren.

At the December Quarterly, recognition was granted the Grand Lodge of Guatemala.

M. W. Bro. Nicholson continues as Grand Master, and Bro. E. E. Dunning as Grand Secretary.

The Semi-Annual Communication was held on Nov. 17, 1979 with 13 Past Grand Masters in attendance. Following the presentation of the Colors, the Grand Lodge was opened by M. W. Bro. Paul A. Burkhardt, Jr., Grand Master, after which he read his Report, consisting of brief accounts of the first six months and to introduce action to be taken at this Communication.

The Report of the Jurisprudence Committee, containing only favorable remarks was accepted, after which the Committee on Finance reported upon their study of the recommendations of the last Annual Communication which would raise the per capita tax to $5.00, and moved adoption of the same. The motion was carried.

A Resolution providing for a six-month period of subordinate lodge membership before application to a concordant body was defeated. Resolution No. 2, providing for three additional Standing Committees was approved. The Committee on Charters and By-Laws reported on their study of the mechanics for Mergers or Consolidations was referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence. Resolution No. 3, providing for revision and up-dating the Constitution and General Regulations, etc., was approved. This semi-annual Communication was then declared closed.

Eight "Occasional Communications" were held; one for "Thanksgiving Church Service", and the others for District Meetings.

The Annual Communication of May 19 being declared open, the Grand Master's first act was to propose the conferring the rank of Honorary Past Grand Master on R. W. Bro. Norris G. Abbott, Jr. The proposal was unanimously acclaimed, after which the Grand Master received Distinguished Guests from 14 Grand Jurisdictions, and 10 representatives of Concordant Bodies. Our own M.W.G.M. Harlan F. Small, accompanied by R. W. Royce G. Wheeler, S.G.W., and M. W. Bro. Roger P. Snelling, P.G.M. were among those so received. Seventeen Past Grand Masters of R.I. were then received in due and ancient form.

Having then received R. W. Bro. Abbott in the East, the Grand Master conferred upon him the above mentioned rank of Honorary Past Grand Master.

The Grand Master then addressed the Grand Lodge, reporting on the accomplishments of the several Committees and Grand Lodge activities. His recommendations dealt with furthering the interests of new members by putting their names on the mailing list for the "R.I. Freemason" and the "Short Talk Bulletins," plus two additional recommendations having to do with energy-saving procedures. His visitations, numbering some 130, included the Northeast Conference and the Conference of Grand Masters in No. America.

The Committee on Jurisprudence concurred with the Grand Master's Recommendations, and moved the referral of the Amendment on Merger or Consolidation to the next semi-annual Communication.

The Committee on Status of the Craft, after several recommendations, spent a considerable portion of their report on the subject of the presence and/or use of spirituous liquors in Masonic Temple and apartments thereof, and regulations pertaining to the same, and recommended that every Mason in the Grand Jurisdiction be afforded the opportunity to provide input on the subject, thus providing information to be used as a basis for written guidance which is presently nonexistent in their Regulations. Their recommendations were referred to the Jurisprudence Committee, to be reported upon at a later date.

Following reports of further Standing Committees, the election of Grand Officers was held.

R. W. Bro. Charles M. Menge was elected as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and M. W. Bro. Arthur R. Medley was reelected as Grand Secretary.

The Annual Communication, followed by the traditional Festival of St. Andrew, was held in Freemason's Hall, Edinburgh, on November 29, 1979, with Brother Captain Robert Wolrige Gordon of Esslemont, Most Worshipful Grand Master Mason on the Throne. At this Communication, Brother Sir James Wilson McKay, K. B., D. Litt., D. L., J. P., was installed as Grand Master Mason. At the Festival of St. Andrew, our Maine Representatives, Brother Douglas A. Aitken, R. W. Substitute Grand Master, and Chairman of the Overseas and External Affairs Committee was privileged in proposing the toast to the Provincial and District Grand Lodges.

During the year, five new Lodges were chartered in Ghana, Korea and in Scotland. The Lodge in Songtan-Eup, Kyonggi-Do, Korea, is entitled the Harry S. Truman Lodge, No. 1727. Its initiation fee is to be $100.

Grand Master Mason McKay commented on the decline of Intrants over the past decade, there being but 7,902 in the year just past, as compared to 8,595 in 1978.

Recognition of the Grand Lodge of Belgium was withdrawn, while recognition of the new Grande Loge Reguliere de Belgique was granted.

Cyclone Relief was granted to alleviate distress in Sri Lanka in the amount of 15,000 rupees (approx. $2,000 in U. S. Currency).

The Benevolent Fund of the combined categories of Scottish Rite Masonic Benevolence, the General Annuity Fund, the Orphan Annuity Fund, General Relief Fund, Special Benevolence Fund and Scottish Masonic Homes Fund, totalled 1,720,113 pounds ($3,305,823 in U.S. Currency).

The Festival of St. Andrew held on this date was one of the highlights of the year, attended by a capacity crowd. Interestingly, the notice for advance reservation, indicated the proposed cost per person at "6.50 pounds (approx. $12.50), including V A T, exclusive of wines."

In addition to the five new Lodges chartered in '79, two more were proposed and referred for action in 1980.

Brother E. Stuart Falconer, K. St. J., J. P., M. A., was reelected as R. W. Grand Secretary.

At the Half-yearly Communication in October, following the usual preliminary reports and procedures, the Grand Master, M. W. Brother, The Hon. Mr. Justice Jacobs, presented his first Address to the Grand Lodge since taking office, which he entitled, "The Road Ahead." He began by citing his activities and plans for the future, including advance plans for their forthcoming Centenary celebration. He then proceeded to emphasize successes and failures of the Craft as a whole, posing the oft-repeated questions, "What of the future? - How is the Craft going to withstand the rigours of the road ahead?" He responded to these questions optimistically "UNLESS you have lost your faith in God, and in the ultimate triumph of good over evil." He acknowledged that some of the younger generation see the structure of the Craft as hierarchical and undemocratic, . . . and under public scrutiny. "How then," he asks, "are we to guard the cargo as we travel this road (ahead)?" . . . "If we are to deliver the goods, we must look carefully to the packaging, to the vehicle, and to ourselves as the drivers - in short, we must look to the quality of Freemasonry in our Lodges and in our own lives." He calls upon the Masters, Wardens, and Past Masters to provide and stimulate interest among the membership through greater involvement in a community or charitable project, not to overlook the fact that the Lodge room is the base from which Freemasonry must advance. In an intent and effort to be constructive, not critical, he yet admonished the brethren not to get so involved in their own lodge or too numerous visitations (five nights a week) as to neglect their responsibility to family life. Lastly, he addressed the Past Masters, advising them that "it is the Master who is the Pilot, . . . give him room to manuevre, to change course as may be necessary, . . . to assist, educate and inspire each and every brother . . . to assist the Master by demonstrating (to all members, new members in particular) that the Lodge is interested in them and their progress in Freemasonry."

The Annual Communication in April was opened in Ample Form by M. W. Bro. Jacobs with the usual procedures and reports of the several Boards and Committees. Among those reports was that of two consolidations involving four Lodges.

The Grand Master, having been duly elected at the Half-yearly Communication, was proclaimed and saluted with Grand Honours.

Following the procedural proposal of amendments, elections and appointments, the Grand Master proceeded with his Annual Address. He expressed his gratitude to his official staff, committees and Past Grand Masters, and prioritized both his own personal gratitude and that of his officers and members to the Ladies of the Grand Lodge without whose oft-times sacrificial support, the labors of their mates would be futile. He reemphasized his remarks at the Half-yearly Communication, and commended the various committees for their efforts, especially in their plans for the Centenary in '84. He proposed a carefully devised program of Masonic Education, citing that 90% or more of the brethren, including himself, really know very little about Freemasonry.

The Grand Lodge concluded its Annual Communication with Honorary Conferments and Promotions.

M. W. Bro. The Hon. Mr. Justice Jacobs continues as Grand Master, and R. W. Bro. J. M. Ward, P. G. W. as Grand Secretary.

Grand Lodge was convened and opened in ample form by M. W. Brother Ernest R. McDonald, Grand Master, at the Ramada Inn, on June 13, the Annual Banquet having been held on the eve of Grand Lodge.

Seven of the nine living Past Grand Masters were presented, followed by Distinguished Guests from 15 Grand Jurisdictions, and 9 representatives of Concordant and Appendant Bodies, all of whom were welcomed and accorded Grand Honors.

After the presentation of the Colors, the Grand Master addressed the Grand Lodge, first welcoming all and expressing his gratitude for the warmth of his reception upon visiting the several Grand Jurisdictions. His Necrology report noted the passing of 344 Brethren, including that of M. W. Bro. Milton S. Czatt, dean of Past Grand Masters. He then cited visitations within and without the Grand Jurisdiction, the granting of 23 Dispensations and several recommendations. Under the category of "Observations", he expressed regret in not getting the Masonic Newspaper, "Green Mountain Freemason", off the ground this year, and recommended that the sale of Bicentennial Coins might provide funds for such a project. He also recommended a contribution of 10c per member for the bicentennial celebration of 1994. These were included among 20 Recommendations, all but two of which dealt with financial matters. Upon recommendation of the Finance Committee, accepted and adopted, the per capita tax was set at $4.35, the same being $4.00 for the General Fund, 25c for DeMolay, and 10c for Bicentennial Celebration in 1994.

Following the Address of the Grand Master, and the report of the Grand Lecturer, Honorary Awards were presented to four worthy brethren.

The Grand Secretary's Report included an interesting list of "Long Service Secretaries" of subordinate lodges, three having served more than 40 years, (one 49 years).

Brother Welland S. Horn was elected and installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master. Brother Cecil R. Brown was continued as R. W. Grand Secretary.

He was educated in the China public schools and graduated from Erskine Academy in 1938. He served as a Machinist Apprentice with the Maine Central Railroad in 1941, entered the U.S. Navy in August, 1942 and discharged in August of 1948 when he returned to the Maine Central Railroad until retirement on December 14, 1980. ANNUAL ADDRESS

GRAND MASTER, HARLAN F. SMALL

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Maine:

It is my very pleasant privilege to welcome all of you to this 163rd Annual Communication of your Grand Lodge. Many of you have been here before. For others this will be the first time you have participated in the sessions of this Sovereign Body. As we consider and act together on the various items of business which are to come before us, may it be with unity of purpose, and in that spirit of perfect fellowship which is the result of Brotherly Love in action. May we be endowed with a portion of that wisdom and understanding which was the gift of the Supreme Architect to the mighty Solomon in the days of old, to the end that harmony and unity shall prevail in all of our deliberations.

Distinguished Guests

We are deeply honored today by the presence with us of our distinguished visitors from other Grand Jurisdictions and the leaders of our Appendant Bodies in this Grand Jurisdiction. Your Grand Master and his representatives have been most graciously received and royally entertained in our visits with them and it gives us all sincere pleasure to be able to reciprocate. Distinguished Brethren, please accept our heartiest welcome, and know that when you leave, there goes with you the best wishes of the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Maine.

Fellowship Night

On March 29, 1982 at the Masonic Hall in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, there occurred an event which, I believe, was the first of its kind to take place in New England. For some months prior to this date, the Grand Masters of the six New England Grand Lodges were formulating plans for a joint fellowship night. This occasion would bring together the Grand Lodge Officers, Past Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Masters and Permanent Members of all six Grand Jurisdictions for a banquet, fellowship, entertainment and a speaker. As a result of this planning, approximately 130 brethren were present in Portsmouth on that date to partake of a sumptuous banquet, to share ideas and fellowship, and to hear a most inspiring address by Rev. and W. Brother Oscar Guinn, Grand Chaplain of Massachusetts. The Grand Jurisdiction of Maine was represented by the Grand Master and 17 other brethren. The Grand Lodge of Connecticut was unable to participate because of the conflict with their Annual Communication, but M. W. John C. Sturges indicated that Connecticut would be most interested in participating in future events of this nature. All reports which I have had from those who attended this function have been very positive, and I would strongly recommend our participation if this event is continued in the future.

Necrology

It has been said that "in the midst of life we are in death" and the truth of that statement is obvious to us today as we mourn the loss of some 951 of our brethren who have relinquished their grasp upon the "working tools" since last we met. Among that number is our Past Senior Grand Warden, R. W. Judson P. Lord; our Grand Organist, W. Ernest E. Bates; and two of our Past Grand Masters, M. W. John M. Littlefield and M. W. George E. Pushard. As we bow in humble submission before the Divine Will and Eternal Designs of the Supreme Architect, we also have cause to rejoice and give thanks for the lives of these brethren which have held so much meaning and inspiration for us. Shall we stand in a moment of silent prayer. . . . Amen.

Washington's Birthday Observances

Early in December, 1981, a letter was mailed to every lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction calling attention to the fact that a most important Masonic Anniversary was rapidly approaching - the 250th anniversary of the birthday of Brother George Washington. The letter also set forth the suggestion and request of the Grand Master that each lodge hold a special observance of this important anniversary. At the same time letters went to each D.D.G.M. asking them, with the assistance of the District Representative, to promote this activity in every lodge in the district, and to offer help in planning programs. Each district received a package of materials from the Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Services containing ideas and material which would be appropriate for such programs. From reports that I have subsequently received, this project has been well implemented across our State, and many lodges have been most innovative and creative in their observances. In order that we might have a specific and statistical report of this project, on March 11th, I mailed a report form to each D.D.G.M. asking for the number of lodges in the district participating, the number of lodges in darkness, the number of lodge with definite plans for observances that had not as yet taken place, and a few other facts concerning the activity. This information was to have been in my hands by April 1, 1982. It had occurred to me that, as a doctor takes the vital signs of his patient in the course of an examination, such as blood pressure, pulse, temperature, etc., as a means of determining his condition, we might consider the results of such a voluntary program as an indication of the vitality of our lodges in Maine. I will now share this information with you. As of the date of this writing, 5 D.D.G.M.s had not reported. This means that there are 39 lodges which we do not know about. Many of them may have participated, but we do not have any figures. Of the remainder, 103 lodges have held meaningful observances and 25 more have made plans and set dates for their programs. 35 lodges chose not to participate. It would appear from these figures that, if the same percentage of lodges in the unreported districts actually participated as those in reported districts, we then have achieved exactly 70% response in this important activity.

Consolidations

For the first time in the history of the Grand Lodge of Maine, three lodges were consolidated in a single ceremony, under special dispensation. On August 7, 1981, Portland Lodge #1, Ancient Land-Mark Lodge #17 and Atlantic Lodge #81 were united as Triangle Lodge #1 in the presence of approximately 150 interested brethren. The Grand Master presided at the Consolidation ceremony, the election of officers and the ceremony of installation. Many of the Grand Lodge Officers and one Permanent Member participated in the Installation.

During the past twelve months three halls have been dedicated in well attended ceremonies. On October 13, 1981, the new Masonic Temple of Rising Sun Lodge #71 in Orland was solemnly dedicated with well over 100 people in attendance. On November 20, 1981 the Hall of Greenleaf Lodge #117 in Cornish was dedicated with 110 persons on hand to witness the ceremony; and on the 12th day of last December, 136 people shared the evening with us as we dedicated the Hall of Mt. Kineo Lodge No. 109 in Guilford. It has been a source of great satisfaction to this Grand Master to note the excellent attendance and support of these functions, as well as the enthusiasm and increased interest of the brethren of the lodges involved in these projects.

Dispensations and Bylaw Changes

I was quite interested to note, in reviewing these items, that the number of Dispensations granted and the number of bylaw changes approved, very closely approximated the number of each for the previous year. It would also appear that the lodges are increasing their activity in holding Table Lodges. All reports that have come to me in this area have been most positive.

District Meetings

The change from the area meeting concept to a meeting in each district was implemented this year. Whether or not this change was responsible for a modest increase in over-all attendance is hard to say; but it is a fact that over 1400 brethren were present at the district meetings. On each occasion a special attendance sheet was filled out listing the lodges, lodge officers, and Brethren who were present. The 1400 figure may be conservative by reason of the fact that in reviewing these attendance sheets for purposes of this report, I discovered that in many cases the Grand Master's Suite had not been included.

The format of our meetings was much the same as last year, and in nearly every case the D.D.G.M. had prepared an interesting program. In addition to the Grand Master's address, our elective Grand Lodge Officers took turns in sharing their thoughts and ideas with the brethren; and R. W. Ed George was there on most of the occasions to bring us up to date with an informative and inspirational message on our Grand Lodge Outreach Program. It was my privilege to be present at 21 of the 24 District Meetings, and I enjoyed immensely the opportunities for fellowship with the brethren.

Grand Masters' Conferences

Both the New England Conference of Grand Masters held in New Jersey last summer and the Conference of Grand Masters of North America held in Washington last February were productive and informative gatherings from my standpoint. The opportunity to share ideas and fellowship with one's peer group can be a valuable asset and a tremendously useful experience to any Grand Master. Of course, the benefits to be derived depend greatly upon the individual desire to contribute and to participate. It was the privilege of your Grand Master to serve as Conference Chaplain at the Washington, D.C. meeting; and also to act as Chairman of the Hospital Visitation Committee of the Masonic Service Association. I am happy to be able to report to you that the work of this department, under the inspired leadership of M. W. Thomas R. Dougherty, Director of Hospital Visitation, is constantly expanding. Many letters have been received at the M.S.A. Headquarters from nationally known leaders, among them President Reagan, expressing deep appreciation for the work that is being done.

The expansion of this program to include institutions other than Veterans Hospitals will necessitate a broader base of assistance from the member Grand Jurisdiction in terms of manpower. The Hospital Visitation Committee felt that this could best be done by the fuller implementation of the Liaison Man Program in each Jurisdiction. This approach is still new and the Chairman felt that a set of guidelines was necessary for the use of such Liaison Individuals to give them proper direction for the organizing and execution of their responsibilities. With the approval of M. W. Brother Dougherty, the Committee is now working on these guidelines.

Grand Lodge Tours

The Grand Lodge has once again sponsored two Tours this year, both of which were reasonably successful. Although the Grand Master and Elaine were unable to join the Ireland-Scotland-England trip, they were most ably represented by the Grand Marshal, R. W. Royce G. Wheeler and his lovely wife, Joyce. On the return of this group, Royce and Joyce furnished the Grand Master with a very complete and vivid report of the tour which contained a number of photos and a beautiful gift. Elaine and I expressed our deep appreciation to the Wheelers for their kindness in discharging this responsibility on our behalf.

On March 20th a happy and joyous group of 124 people boarded our DC-8 Jet at the Bangor International Airport for the charter flight to the beautiful island of Aruba for one week of rest and relaxation. We touched down at New York to pick up enough additional vacationers to fill the aircraft completely, and proceeded to our destination with all dispatch. This expedition was pronounced a real success by all who participated, and I am sure that the credit rests with our Tour Guide, Brother Torben K. Andersen, whose genial disposition and unfailing good humor contributed so much to our pleasure and well being. To Tobey I would now extend my sincere thanks.

Decisions

Nearly all questions submitted to me during the last twelve months were answerable in terms of our Grand Constitution, Standing Regulations and Past Decisions. However, there was one matter presented for which there seemed to be no specific rule or precedent. The question was asked, "Can a Consolidation of lodges be reversed or rescinded?" My decision was "No". The Consolidation of lodges is not a rescindable or reversible procedure. It is an action taken by lodges only after careful consideration and legal vote of the lodges concerned. It is assumed that all ramifications of such action have been carefully weighed. Once the action has been approved by the Grand Master, the charters properly endorsed and retired, the ceremony and installation of the duly elected officers of the new lodge completed, the former members of the now defunct old lodges have no Masonic standing before the Grand Lodge other than that as members of the new lodge.

Charity Fund

You will be pleased and interested to learn that your Grand Lodge Charity Fund has had the largest year on record in this Grand Jurisdiction with a total expenditure for all charity of over $106,000.00. The amount used for individual cases was $93,900.00. These figures help us to realize the debt of gratitude which we owe to our Distribution Chairman, M. W. Charles E. Crossland, whose painstaking and conscientious labor assures us that every dollar of charity money is applied to a genuine need. My sincere and heartfelt thanks go to M. W. Brother Crossland for the outstanding job he has done.

Togus Visitation

On October 11, 1981 the M. W. Grand Lodge of Maine was represented at the Togus visitation by the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, both Grand Wardens, the Grand Secretary, 6 of the appointive Grand Officers, 8 District Deputy Grand Masters, 4 Permanent Members, and several of the brethren and lodge officers from that area. In company with the representatives of the Knights of Columbus we attended the early Catholic Services and the later Protestant Worship. It was my pleasure to participate along with the State Deputy of the K. of C., Mr. Richard Blanchard, with whom I have enjoyed a fine relationship during my term in office. Following the hospital visit, our people were royally entertained for lunch at the new Council House of the local Council in Augusta. Next year it will be the pleasure of this Grand Lodge to entertain the K. of C. at this visitation in like manner.

Schools of Instruction

Our Grand Lecturer and his very capable assistants have held the required number of schools during the past year and have acquitted themselves in the most excellent fashion. The inspection reports of the lodges indicate a higher level of performance in degree work, and when you listen to the Grand Lecturer's Report later in this session, you will find that the attendance at the schools has been better in the last 12 months. These facts reflect much credit on the work of our Grand Lecturer and his staff, and I offer to them my congratulations. I would also thank the officers of the constituent lodges for their cooperation, and trust that the knowledge of their success in improving the attendance records will inspire them to ever greater heights in the year before us.

Masonic Education Committee

Approximately 2 months ago the Masonic Education Committee placed in my hands a copy of the Instructors Manual for the Pollard Plan. This manual represents two years of planning, some experimentation, and many, many long hours of work by members of the Committee. It combines many ideas and suggestions of qualified brethren, and when used by the Lodge Instructors of our Constituent Lodges, it should greatly increase the efficiency and effectiveness of the Pollard Plan. It is the fulfillment of the commission that was given to this Committee two years ago relative to the education of our candidates in Masonry. It is the duty of every Master to see that this valuable tool for Masonic Education is used in his lodge. On behalf of the Grand Lodge, I thank the members of the Committee for this monumental piece of work, as well as for their many other contributions.

Youth Groups

As my term in office comes to its close, I feel that, although we have made some progress in our support of DeMolay and Rainbow, we have as yet only scratched the surface of the vast area in which we have opportunities for usefulness. I have no doubt that we all realize that support of our young people represents a sound investment, not only in the future of Masonry, but in the future of our nation as well. Unfortunately, this realization amounts to nothing unless it is given practical effect in the programs of our lodges and the lives of the members thereof. I trust and pray that the future programs of our Grand Lodge will contain an effective outreach to our Youth Groups.

Outreach Programs

As these words are being written, it is my understanding that our Widows Program is nearly complete with some 96 or 97% of the lodges now registered and active. After 4 years of hard work our goal is almost at hand. When you hear the report of our chairman, you will have a full update. My greatest respect and admiration, along with my sincere thanks, go to R. W. Ed George for his "labor of love" and his wonderful achievement.

Our Care and Share program is off to a fine start, and I would hope for its speedy growth in the days ahead as the brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction actively demonstrate their interest and concern for others. Many lodges have sent me copies of their Trestleboards during the past two years, for which I thank them, and in these I have been very pleased to note a steadily increasing activity in the Care and Share Department.

Grand Lodge Team

It is only appropriate that I should express my gratitude to the Grand Lodge Officers, the District Deputy Grand Masters and the District Representatives who have worked together as a team. In my opinion they have had a winning season, and I have valued most highly their support and assistance. I would also be remiss if I did not mention at this time the fact that this Grand Jurisdiction was honored recently when our Grand Secretary, R. W. Peter C. Schmidt, was awarded the Pierpont Edwards Medal of the Grand Lodge of Connecticut for distinguished Masonic service. Our congratulations to R. W. Brother Schmidt. And, speaking of the Grand Lodge Team, I would herewith acknowledge the wonderful assistance, help and cooperation of the two kind and gracious ladies in the Grand Lodge Office, Mrs. Elizabeth Tupper and Mrs. Grace Field.

Reception

One of the most memorable experiences of our life came on March 13, 1982 when my own lodge, St. Andrew's No. 83 of Bangor, gave a reception for Elaine and me. We were both most deeply touched when we realized that well over 500 brethren and ladies had assembled to share the evening with us; and that in this group were the leaders of all Grand York Rite Bodies, the Scottish Rite, the Order of the Eastern Star, both Shrine Temples, DeMolay and Rainbow, and many other friends and associates. Such an experience tends to make one humbly grateful for the deeper meaning of fraternal relationships.

Conclusion

At this time, my brethren, I find that it is impossible to adequately express all that is in my heart. I can only say that the wonderful relationships that I have had with all of you, with the entire Grand Lodge Team and staff, with the Past Grand Masters and Permanent Members have been most meaningful and rewarding experiences. On the basis of these, I can look to the future of our Grand Lodge with optimism and with faith. May the richest blessing of The Supreme Architect abide with all of you and with this Grand Lodge throughout the days to come.

Fraternally submitted,
HARLAN F. SMALL
Grand Master

The reading of the Annual Address was followed by applause, the Communication standing.

At the conclusion of the reading of the Address, the Deputy Grand Master assumed the East and the Grand Secretary moved that the Address of the Grand Master be referred to the Committee on Doings of Grand Officers, and it was so voted. It was also voted that the reports of the Deputy Grand Master, Grand Wardens and Grand Lecturer be referred to the same Committee without reading.

GREENLEAF MEDAL

Grand Senior Deacon, Leon Carpenter, was asked to present Wor. Bro. Miles Brookes to the East where the Grand Master presented him with a Simon Greenleaf Medal. Brother Brookes responded with appropriate remarks, thanking Grand Master Small for the honor conferred upon him.

MILES BROOKES

Miles Brookes was born in Gorham, Maine, September 19, 1899. He was educated in the Public Schools of that town and spent most of his life as a Building Contractor.

He has two children from his first marriage and several stepchildren and grandchildren from his second marriage. Miles took care of his parents for many years and was known in the area as an excellent cook. His friends say that many go to him with their problems because he usually has an answer for just about any problem they have.

Some years ago Miles has severe injuries from an accident and was told he would never walk or talk out loud again, but with courage and determination, Miles now talks and walks with a cane.

On March 4, 1925, Miles was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason in Harmony Lodge No. 38 in Gorham, Maine, and after serving offices in that lodge for six years, he became its Master in 1958. He has served as Chaplain off and on for several years since that time. He holds the Grand Lodge of Maine Fifty-year Veteran's Medal with one five year star.

He is a member and Past High Priest of Eagle Chapter No. 11 in No. Windham; member and Past Ill. Master of Westbrook Council No. 15 in No. Windham; member of Portland Commandery of Portland, Maine. He is a former member of Portland Consistory; a member and Past Patron of Beulah Chapter, O.E.S. of Westbrook; former member and Dad Advisor of Cumberland Chapter of DeMolay of Westbrook; member Oxford Lodge No. 1 Ark Mariners of Norway, Maine; member of Maine Lodge of Research; member Colonial Council #19 Knight Masons of New England; member "What Cheer" York Rite College #43 of R.I.; member Maine Order of High Priesthood; member Maine Council of Thrice Illustrious Masters; Past Grand Principal Sojourner of Grand Chapter of Maine, R.A.M.; Grand Chaplain of Grand Council of Maine R. & S.M.

Brother Miles received the "Mason of the Year" award of the 17th Masonic District; has been a promoter of the "Widows' Program" and the "Care and Share Program" idea for at least 25 years and has lived to see them instituted by Past Grand Master, Roger P. Snelling and Grand Master Harlan F. Small.

Even at the advanced age of 82 years, he readily accepts invitations to take almost any part in ritualistic work in any of the degrees of Blue Lodge, Chapter or Council at his own or other meetings, and frequently with no advance warning. Miles is a constant visitor to the sick and shut-ins whenever he hears about them and to our minds he is a living example of what a good Mason should be. It is only fitting that this unsung worker in the vineyards should receive the Simon Greenleaf Medal as a token of the appreciation of the Grand Lodge of Maine and the thirty-eight thousand plus members of that august body.

GRAND TREASURER

The Grand Treasurer presented his annual report which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

REPORT OF ACCOUNTANTS AND AUDITORS

May Four
1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Harlan F. Small, of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.:

We have examined the statements of assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M. at March 31, 1982 and the related statements of operating receipts, disbursements and changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As is more fully described in Note 1 to these statements, the Grand Lodge's policy is to prepare the aforementioned statements on the basis of cash revenue and cash expenditures. Accordingly, these statements are not intended to and do not present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly the assets and liabilities of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M. at March 31, 1982, arising from cash transactions, and the operating receipts, disbursements and changes in fund balances for the year then ended on a consistent basis.

GRAND SECRETARY

The Grand Secretary's report was presented, accepted and referred to the Committee on Doings of Grand Officers.

In Grand Lodge
May 4, 1982
Portland, Maine

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

This will probably be the most difficult report I will ever have to write. Since it will be my last report as your Grand Secretary I feel I must give a report of my stewardship for the past seven years, seven years which have proved to be the best seven years in my professional life. When I was first elected as your Grand Secretary, I had many goals. Most of these have come to fruition and some of them have not. The years have passed so rapidly that I can hardly believe it has been seven years since I was first elected. I have tried to make this office an office of service and from what you tell me, this has been accomplished. Many of you have come to me for help and I hope I have been able to help you. I sincerely feel that I have been able to bring all my Brethren and the Grand Lodge closer together. Time alone will tell. Whenever one of you comes up to me, shakes my hand and says "Hi! Pete, I'm glad to see you!" you have made my day. This is as it should be.

The office of Grand Secretary is an important one and carries a great responsibility. I found a description of a Grand Secretary's duties in the Proceedings of a sister grand jurisdiction and since it so aptly describes my duties, I will give it to you with a few minor changes to fit the Grand Lodge of Maine.

The office demands 24 hours of a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year. It is a full time job and requires the Brother to be a Mason in good standing in his Lodge of this jurisdiction, elected and installed at the Annual Communication and charged with the duties outlined in our Constitution, Standing Regulations and Digest of Decisions. In addition to the prescribed sections as outlined on pages 11 and 12 of the Constitution, many and varied questions are proposed morning, noon and night which are sincere in nature and most deserving of an intelligent answer, using words softened with kindness and warmth and yet complying with the law. The Grand Secretary is considered to be a coordinator as well as a Public and Fraternal Relations officer in matters not only pertaining to the office, but the Grand Lodge in general. He must be very knowledgeable and well-versed in the Digest of Decisions, Masonic Jurisprudence, know the basic principles of parliamentary law, Masonic Protocol and in a position to speak on all Masonic matters. He should be able to counsel and advise (when called upon) all Grand Lodge officers, giving them the benefit of his years of experience and opinions, also to the officers and members of the subordinate Lodges. He should be sympathetic, understanding, congenial, and a tower of strength for those who need someone in time of trouble to listen to their problems. He should, when necessary, whisper words of encouragement and good counsel into the ear of a discouraged brother.

Snap judgment and hasty decisions are to be avoided at all times and errors and omissions should be readily, voluntarily, and without solicitation sincerely admitted. The Grand Secretary's office is most rewarding in more ways than one, because, over a period of years I have gained much knowledge studying our Digest of Decisions and our Constitution and Standing Regulations so that when a question is asked pertaining to a certain subject, I am familiar with the Section pertaining to it. Over the same period of years I have gained much enjoyment and satisfaction by meeting and working with you, Brethren, my peers. It has always been my hope and prayer to stimulate and motivate interest among you.

Complying with the above adds up to one goal, one aim of your Grand Secretary, namely, to improve his administrative knowledge daily, never to think that he has reached that state of perfection to which we all aspire and bearing in mind that the office of Grand Secretary should not be one of bureaucracy, but an office of service to his Brethren. I am honored to have the respect and trust you have in me.

Secretaries Seminars were held in ten different locations this year and proved to be very successful. We have traveled all over the State, from Kittery to Caribou, spoken at many meetings, widow's nights, table lodges and just informational meetings. Installing Lodges and Chapters is still one of my joys and it gives our wives and families a chance to see some of the things we enjoy as Masons. Our film library has been very busy, particularly since this is the 250th anniversary of the birth of George Washington. The slides of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial have been given much exposure for the first time in years. Keep up the good work!

You will note in a later report that the net loss for this year is larger than it has been since the depression days. Loss of membership is a serious problem and must be faced in the near future.

I face my future in Masonry with mixed emotions. I am 72 years old and in excellent health, and, the Lord willing, I will be able to devote the next four years to the Grand Lodge of Maine with the same dedication and energy with which I have fulfilled the duties of Grand Secretary for the past seven. Nothing, however, can be accomplished without your support. I have had this support in the past and sincerely hope to have it in the future.

One of my joys for the past two years has been traveling with our Grand Master. We have worked closely together and his ready wit, his outstanding vocabulary, and his genuine friendship have meant much to me. My sincere thanks to you, Most Worshipful Sir, for your many kindnesses to me. On our recent trip to the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Connecticut I received the honor of being awarded the Pierpont Edwards Medal in Bronze for Distinguished Service to Masonry, by M. W. John C. Sturges, the Grand Master.

I cannot praise my two faithful secretaries, Gracie Field and Lib Tupper, enough. Without their support and untiring efforts the work of my office would go down the drain. I don't have to tell you that the efficiency of the office rests with them. My sincere thanks to Bruce Tornquist also, his dry humor and genuine helpfulness has carried us through many a trying day. I am grateful also to the many secretaries who perform their duties so ably. I have always felt that the Southeast Corner is the most important corner of the Lodge, and although the Secretary does not run the Lodge, he does help to keep it on an even keel.

Finally, without the love, patience and understanding of my good wife, one who has spent many an evening by herself while I am with my Brethren, truly a Masonic widow, I could never have accomplished the things I have, nor fulfilled the duties of my office as they have been. And to you, my Brethren, who have basically made all this happen, I say "God Bless you all".

Sincerely and fraternally submitted,

PETER C. SCHMIDT
Grand Secretary

GRAND LECTURER

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Spring is viewed as the season for new beginnings: new plants for the garden, new fertilizer for the lawn, a time to renew our faith, a time to renew our hopes, and a time to revitalize our goals and objectives. It is also an appropriate time to review and relate to the members of this Grand Lodge some of the efforts made to transmit a more nearly correct knowledge of the ritual among the officers and members of the 202 lodges of this Grand Jurisdiction during the Masonic year.

Seventy-five ritualistic schools of instruction were conducted this past year by your Grand Lecturer and the six Assistants: V. W. John E. Gray, R. W. Wilbur F. Loveitt, R. W. William A. Oliver, R. W. S. Clyde Ross, R. W. Clayton E. Smith, and R. W. Reginald W. Wing. This Grand Lodge is fortunate to have the benefit of the dedication which these brethren bring to their office. They have traveled far and given much for the Craft.

An eminent masonic scholar has written these words about the masonic ritual:

"Truth may be taught without ritual, but truth by ritual is always taught as the original teachers desired, and makes a lasting impression upon the mind of the learner."

If we are to make a deep, lasting impression on the minds of our candidates, it is important - yes, essential, that the ritual be learned accurately, and that we as officers of our lodges develop an expertise with its rendition.

Brother W. H. McNairn wrote many years ago in an article in the great masonic magazine "The Builder", with reference to the Masonic ritual:

"Wherein does Masonic eminence consist? It is not in the accumulation of degrees, interesting as these may be. It is not in the receipt of honors, nor the holding of exalted rank, though to serve the Craft with distinction is a privilege to be coveted by all good men. It is not even the attainment of scholarship, though a knowledge of Masonic philosophy cannot fail to have its effect in up-building character. It is not in any of these that can place a man in the proud position of being a Mason in the fullest and complete sense. It is to exemplify in one's dealings with mankind those virtues of charity, of kindness, of tolerance which the ritual so forcefully inculcates by precept and by symbol. It is to be a brother, not only to the household of the faithful, but to every man, irrespective of color, or creed or race, whom economic conditions, or ignorance, or unfavorable heredity and environment have reduced to those depths from whence he can be rescued only by the fraternal assistance of those more favorably situated."

"Which the Ritual so forcefully inculcates by precept and by symbol" is the phrase which leaps from the page upon which this great thought was expressed. It brings to our attention still another great objective that can and will be attained through the study and use of our Masonic Ritual.

Under the direction and in accordance with the wishes of our Most Worshipful Grand Master, three ritualistic schools of instruction, one in each of the three degrees, were scheduled and held in each of the twenty-five Districts of this Grand Jurisdiction.

General Summary

Total Registration	2888
Total Number of Officers in attendance	2113
Percentage of Officer attendance at schools	31.3
Total number of members present (non-officers)	775
Number of Lodges represented at schools of instruction	199
Number of Lodges represented at E.A. ° schools	168
Number of Lodges represented at F.C. ° schools	178
Number of Lodges represented at M.M. ° schools	176
Number of Lodges not represented by its officers at any school of instruction	3

Last year we had six lodges which failed to be represented by a single officer. This year we are down to only three. With our total attendance up by more than two hundred, we have reason to be encouraged by the gradual but steady progress. The following lodges failed to be represented by any officers at any of the ritualistic schools this year:

Star in the West No. 85, 12th District

Island Falls No. 206, 24th District

The percentage of officer attendance at all schools ranges from 20.4 and 20.8 in Districts 12 and 21 to 49.1 in District 17A. Far better than average attendance is recorded by the officers of the following Districts: 1, 5, 6, 13, 14, 17B and 20. We would commend the officers of Districts 6 and 17A on their excellent representation at the Entered Apprentice schools with 50 and 58 percent of their officers in attendance at that school respectively.

The success of these schools depends upon the work, interest, and effort of many brethren. We express our special thanks to the Deputies who send the cards notifying the officers of the schools, and to all those who have helped in many ways to make them successful.

Your Grand Lecturer and Assistant Grand Lecturers have conducted District Educational Meetings in each District this year. These are intended for all the brethren and are devoted to topics of general Masonic interest and information. The Program this year included the following topics: (a) Preparation for Office - A mini-seminar for Lodge officers; (b) Candidate Instruction - a presentation; (c) A question-answer form of a Masonic lecture. A standard lecture from the ritual in the question and answer format was given by two officers; (d) A Masonic talk - History, Philosophy or Symbolism. There were some variations in this agenda in various districts due to special request and the availability of personnel for the program. These Masonic Educational Meetings were well received and provide the opportunity for the officers and members alike to learn more about Freemasonry. Hopefully they were of interest and provided "good and wholesome instruction".

Our Grand Master issued eleven dispensations during the year for holding Table Lodges which certainly continue to be popular. In accordance with those dispensations I have appointed a Grand Lodge Representative to attend each Table Lodge. Their reports indicate that the Table Lodges are being conducted according to the ritual and the brethren enjoy good fellowship.

This year we had twelve authorized Degree Teams operating in this Grand Jurisdiction. It has not been possible for me to observe each of the Degree Teams in action, but it has been my pleasure to be present at several. I would in particular commend Worshipful Brother Hollis G. Dixon, Master of the Maine State Police Degree Team. His reports to me have been excellent, and he does an excellent job coordinating a Team of Maine State Police Officers who are spread over much of the state. The Teams provide a model of excellence for many lodges. For their dedication, enthusiasm, and excellence in the rendition of the ritual, we offer our appreciation and special thanks. Each of these Teams does much to promote the spirit and benefit of visitation.

Your Grand Lecturer has met with the Assistants in two work sessions during the year. These sessions prove very helpful and insure that our presentation is consistent statewide.

It is a real pleasure for me to express my sincere appreciation to all who have contributed to the success of our schools of instruction. To my Assistant Grand Lecturers for their excellent work, dedication to the Craft, and total cooperation and helpfulness to me, my sincere thanks.

I am particularly grateful to our Most Worshipful Grand Master for the faith and trust he has placed with me. It has been an honor and a privilege to serve my brethren and the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine.

DOINGS OF GRAND OFFICERS

M. W. Roger I. White, for the Committee on Doings of Grand Officers, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Your Committee on Doings of Grand Officers has carefully reviewed the address of the Grand Master and such other reports as have been submitted to it.

The Grand Master is completing two years of dedicated service to our Craft. His address includes visitations within and without this Grand Jurisdiction and a report of the programs he has promoted during his term as Grand Master.

A District Meeting in each of the twenty-four Districts has contributed much toward strengthening the bonds of brotherhood between the officers and members of the lodges, and our Grand Lodge.

The dedication of three temples this year is an indication of the interest for Masonry that is still manifest in some areas.

The consolidation of Portland Lodge #1, Ancient Land-Mark Lodge #17, and Atlantic Lodge #81 of Portland into Triangle Lodge #1, Portland appears to have been accomplished in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of this Grand Lodge. No further action is needed.

Freemasonry in Maine has made itself known in several ways this year, and the actions of our Grand Officers have touched the lives of many people. We look forward with confidence to the future.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE WASHINGTON MEMORIAL

R. W. Brother Bruce S. Tornquist presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.:

The Seventy-second Annual Convention of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association was held in the Auditorium of the Memorial Building in Alexandria, Virginia on Monday, February 22, 1982. Maine was represented by M. W. Brother Harlan F. Small, Grand Master; R. W. Brother C. Ross Buzzell, Deputy Grand Master; R. W. Brother Peter C. Schmidt, Grand Secretary; M. W. Brother Charles R. Glassmire, Past Grand Master; and R. W. Brother B. Glen McGee, Past Senior Grand Warden.

Maine contributed $3,495.00 to the Operations Fund and $57.00 to the Endowment Fund bringing our total calculated contributions to $106,591.54 for Operations and $48,269.17 for the Endowment Fund. In his acknowledgment of our gifts, Marvin E. Fowler, Secretary-Treasurer of the Association indicated that Maine was one of the first states to adopt the legislation requiring each candidate to contribute $5.00 to the Memorial. Twenty-eight other jurisdictions have now joined the ranks, and this has greatly increased the income to the Association.

Only three lodges remained with an unpaid balance for the Endowment Fund at the beginning of the year. Dunlap Lodge No. 47 completed their payment which gave the Eighteenth District 100% participation.

Efforts will continue to give our jurisdiction a 100% participation.

WIDOWS' PROGRAM

M. W. Aubrey L. Burbank, speaking in behalf of the Wor. Grand Chaplains, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Reporting on the labors of the Grand Chaplains in their efforts to enhance the "Widows' Program," I am pleased to advise that we have, collectively, written 523 letters of comfort and condolence to the widows of our deceased brethren, endeavoring in each instance, to lift up the concern of the Grand Lodge of Maine.

Our reward is in the many beautiful return notes received from these brave and gracious ladies.

This rewarding facet of the program could not be accomplished without the weekly listings afforded us by Mrs. Tupper ("Clipper II") of the Grand Secretary's office, together with notices sent us from several dedicated Lodge Secretaries.

It appears obvious that more and more Lodge Secretaries are getting involved in promptly notifying the Grand Secretary upon learning of the death of one of their brethren. It is only through such coordinated effort that the program has evolved so rapidly and successfully.

The Grand Chaplains have reported 16 speaking engagements (collectively). Please be advised that they are ready and waiting to serve you in this capacity insofar as their busy schedules permit.

I, personally, take this opportunity to thank my fellow Chaplains for their cooperation and off-time sacrificial use of time in carrying out this labor of love.

Once again we express our gratitude to our Grand Secretary and his staff for their unceasing attention to detail and promptness.

This program has proved to be one of the most rewarding in recent years, and will, we feel confident, reap the harvest of good will for years to come. Who knows how many of these gracious ladies' sons will follow in their fathers' footsteps and become your Brother in days to come, largely by reason of the Grand Lodge's recognition of their father's death and the consequent kindness afforded their mother?

While love is among the least expensive gifts that we can give, it can yet prove to be one of the most valuable in its effectiveness. Let us love one another as we are loved of God.

Respectfully submitted,
For the Grand Chaplains,

AUBREY L. BURBANK,
P.G.M.
Grand Chaplain

WIDOWS' PROGRAM AND CARING AND SHARING

R. W. Edwin V. George, State Coordinator for the Widows' Program presented the following report, which was accepted.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine A.F. & A.M.:

The Committee on Masonic Outreach programs submits the following report:

Last evening we were inspired, by the address from our distinguished speaker, M. W. Jerry Rasor. Brother Rasor has no inkling of the prominent part he has played in our Masonic Widows' Program.

His address of March 1978 entitled "Enthusiasm Is the Keynote" provided inspirational wordage and common sense. He stated then, and it behooves us now to listen to what he said, specifically that "enthusiasm is the key to our success," further, that it has rubbed off on many Masons in this Grand Jurisdiction.

Brethren, we still have many fences to mend, due to our unintentional neglect, but to our everlasting credit we are mending them and we have the letters to prove it.

As to program status to date, every one of our original 204 lodges has forwarded its list of Special Ladies to the Grand Secretary. We now have on file the names, addresses and many birthdays of 7,154 members of this vital segment of our Masonic family. Further, we have 1800 names yet to be determined.

Our special ladies nights and the broken column lapel pin presentations are flourishing throughout the state. Nearly 3000 pins have been presented. Again the program is not a once a year dinner and evening of entertainment. It is a defined, documented and lodge-oriented program of everyday concern. Complete documentation, organizational structure, responsibilities and guidelines are available from the Grand Secretary.

To provide continuity, infusion of new ideas, and enthusiasm our Grand Lodge Team will be chaired by the elected Deputy Grand Master, supported by the elected Senior and Junior Grand Wardens and the appointed Grand Senior Deacon.

Our Grand Chaplain M. W. Aubrey L. Burbank and his assistants continue to provide their personalized letters of condolence to our "Special Ladies". Truly an outstanding example of compassion and concern and one not unnoticed by our neighbors and friends.

This entire jurisdiction—lodge officers, secretaries, Masters and Wardens associations, District Deputies, District Representatives, Grand Lodge officers, Grand Lodge office staff, Past Masters Association—has collectively demonstrated that we can make things happen and the proof has been recorded. Our own Masonic "sleeping giant" is awakening and we have just scratched the surface of our potential capabilities.

Caring and Sharing Program

Our Grand Lodge and lodge teams are now setting their sights on the total registration requirements of this program. District Deputy reports are swelling with accounts of lodge accomplishments of their increased involvement in this area of assistance and concern for our confined Masonic brethren.

Many dedicated brothers (we honored two this morning) are now heartened by the revitalization effort being expended on the Caring and Sharing program. Our Grand Master's program of identifying our inadvertently neglected confined brethren is beginning to roll. We now have 158 lodge chairmen assigned (78%).

19 Districts (76%) have all their lodges registered.

98 Lodges (48%) have identified their shut-ins.

10 Districts (40%) have completed both requirements.

Total shut-ins identified equal (225).

To indicate progress in the last 50 days, we have added 43 chairmen, 61 lodges have identified shut-ins and have added 80 additional shut-ins.

The Grand Lodge Outreach Team has been initiated, tried and proven and we can now provide the continuity, infusion of new ideas, and Brother Rasor's enthusiasm so necessary for a viable program.

To our Masonic brethren here in Maine, our team stands proud and humble before you. So mote it be.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN V. GEORGE
Chairman

HOSPITAL VISITATION PROGRAM

R. W. Peter C. Schmidt, for Brother Rodney A. Pearl, our Togus Representative, read the following report, which was accepted.

May 4, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

To give you an idea of the activities at Togus for the past year:

April 23 and 24 the Shrine Circus at Augusta. The Masonic Service Association furnished tickets for 40 patients from the V. A. to go to the circus.

The Patients Christmas Party the Sunday before the holiday was well attended by several Lodges in the area. This past December was one of the best Holiday parties we have had. Annual visit by the Grand Master and Grand Lodge Officers and their ladies the 10th of October, with a lunch together with the Knights of Columbus following the church services. The Patients Carnival the third Saturday in September which is well supported by all organizations who do volunteer work at the V. A. Patients had a very pleasant day.

Special event was done by a Member of Gardiner Lodge who has been doing volunteer work by assisting a patient from Portland who has been at the V. A. for 5 years (not a Mason) to secure his amateur radio license, and will be able to communicate with many folks outside. Brother Lennox Bodman who did this for a man who has not been able to talk for a long, long time, spent many hours to make this plan work.

THE MAINE MASON

M. W. Charles R. Glassmire, Editor of The Maine Mason, gave a verbal report as follows:

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 1982

Most Worshipful Grand Master:

I was asked to give a report on some of the activities of The Maine Mason during the past year and share with you some of the problems we have experienced. One of the problems we have experienced is not getting enough information. I had one letter sent to me this year accusing me of being callous in regard to a very excellent program. The unfortunate part of it was I had never been informed of that program and when told I should have been present not only could I not have been because I did not know of it, but I was out of the State at the time. If there are programs going on which are of interest to everyone in the State of Maine I would certainly hope that someone would make note of it, send me the material in writing and also pictures, if possible.

Speaking of pictures, newspaper pictures are totally worthless. The best picture we can have is an ordinary glossy print. A polaroid print is perfectly all right, provided it is sharp and not too dull. We frequently get prints that we'd love to use, but they are like washed-out things that you just could not change from a color picture to a black and white print.

Might I point out that any material which is sent to The Maine Mason for possible inclusion, must meet with the group that goes over this material before it is published. We occasionally get material that is totally unacceptable, and I lean only to a point of view that the writing involved is not something that we would want to print. And that poses problems. If I edit that material to make it readable, the individual submitting it does not recognize his own material and sometimes is quite upset that we tampered with this material as we had. We have, therefore, in the past, been forced to return some of this material with the suggestion that it be reworded.

The other criticism I have had this year was that someone had the audacity to say that I was callous about DeMolay. For one who has been such a supporter of DeMolay, I took great exception to this, but what had happened was a piece of material had been submitted. It was such that it could not be included and it was returned for editing. Eight months went by after that was returned to the Author, and we never did have it resubmitted, but we had telephone calls wanting to know why we had not been including DeMolay material. I assure you that, as one of the great supporters of DeMolay in this State, any of the material we can use we will certainly do it. As you look over the last issue of The Maine Mason, you will see on one page an article having to do with DeMolay and Pine Tree Youth Foundation with pictures of the State Master Councillor and the State Worthy Advisor of Rainbow. That material came in to me after the entire Maine Mason was ready to go to press, and in deference to these organizations, I pulled a whole page for reprinting so that I could have this material included. So bear in mind, we have dates we have set which amounted to one month prior to the date this magazine was expected to be printed. You are expected to have the magazine reach you about the first of January, the first of May and the first of September. In the case of the issue for the first of May, instead of saying the first of April is the cutoff date, we are going to have to make it the fifteenth of March. That is the only way we have of being sure of getting the press time, so that the May issue will reach each of you before the Grand Lodge Session, and it would be rather ridiculous to have material about the upcoming session in the magazine if you didn't get it until after you returned to your homes.

Now, although I said all the material submitted to us becomes the property of The Maine Mason, I say that simply because we cannot be responsible for photographs that are handled by the printer. Occasionally a print is destroyed in changing it from the shape it was in when we received it until it is printed in The Maine Mason. However, we do try to return all pictures, and if there are any of you here who have submitted pictures, they are probably in the Grand Secretary's Office right now and if you stop down there sometime before you go home, many of you will be able to retrieve some of these pictures some of you value so highly, but if you must have them back, make sure it's not the only copy you have.

I thank you very much, Most Worshipful Grand Master. I move the acceptance of this verbal report.

The report was accepted.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION - ADOPTED

R. W. Millard A. Whitney, for the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, presented the following reports, which were accepted and the recommendations adopted.

In Grand Lodge
May 4, 1982

To The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge:

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution has considered the proposed amendment to Section 63 as reported on page 46 of the 1981 Proceedings as follows:

Amend Section 63 after the third sentence in the second paragraph by adding the following:

"Provided further, that the Trustees by a vote of not less than two-thirds of its members may delegate to an investment counsel of their selection the powers granted above to the Investment Committee."

The Committee recommends that the amendment be adopted. I move the report be accepted and the amendment be adopted.

In Grand Lodge
May 4, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution has considered the amendment to Section 74 proposed on page 45 of the 1981 Proceedings to read as follows:

In the first line of the third paragraph after the word "two" add the words "or more".

In the second line of the paragraph marked III after the word "lodge" add the words "or lodges".

In the first line of the paragraph marked IV change the word "both" to the word "said".

In the first line of the paragraph marked VII add the two words "or charters" after the word "charter". In the second line add "or they" after the word "it" and change the word "is" to "are".

In the third line of the paragraph marked VIII change the word "both" to "said".

In the first line of the paragraph marked IX change the second "the" to "these".

The present wording allows only two lodges to consolidate. This amendment will allow two or more lodges to consolidate. In 1981, Portland Lodge No. 1, Ancient Land-Mark No. 17 and Atlantic No. 81 voted to consolidate. With the present wording of Section 74, it could not be done so the Grand Master issued a dispensation and the consolidation was done. This proposed amendment will approve what was done under dispensation and allow more than two lodges to consolidate in the future.

The Committee recommends that the proposed amendment be adopted.

I move that the report be accepted and the recommendation adopted.

RITUAL

R. W. Ernest H. Curtis, for the Committee on Ritual, recommended that the use of the Wayfaring Man NOT be reinstated in the Ritual. By vote of the Grand Lodge, the report was not adopted.

A motion was made, seconded and passed that the Optional use of the Wayfaring Man be reinstated in the Second Section of the Master Mason Degree and that the Committee on Ritual prepare a suitable dialogue to be used and a set of controls for its proper use. A suggestion was made that this be done at once.

In Grand Lodge
May 4, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Regarding the "Wayfaring Man" The Ritual Committee has been polled and although we do not have a unanimous decision, the majority of the Committee is opposed to the use of a "Wayfaring Man". Therefore it is the recommendation of this Committee that the use of the "Wayfaring Man" not be allowed in this Grand Jurisdiction. I move the acceptance of this report and the adoption of the recommendation.

Fraternally submitted,

ERNEST H. CURTIS
Chairman

There was a call for Amendments from the floor but there were none proposed.

JURISPRUDENCE

M. W. M. Donald Gardner, for the Jurisprudence Committee, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge

May 4, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge:

The Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence has had referred to it for consideration the many dispensations granted by the Grand Master, together with the one decision that a consolidation of two lodges once accomplished cannot be reversed nor rescinded.

The Committee approves all dispensations, granted they being within the prerogatives of the Grand Master.

We concur with the Grand Master in his decision that once consolidation of two lodges has been fully effected, it cannot be rescinded.

DeMOLAY

Brother Melvin W. Morgan, Executive Officer in Maine for DeMolay, presented the following report which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
May 4, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The Order of DeMolay is moving ahead in Maine. We have some very strong Chapters and some that are weak and need help. Overall in Maine the number of new initiates was up in 1981 for the second straight year and we are off to a good start in 1982.

We continue to need Master Masons to work with our DeMolay boys and help guide them. Anyone who would like to help should contact me at 36 Beecher Park, Bangor, 04401.

The annual DeMolay Conclave was held this last year on June 25, 26 and 27 in Gorham on the campus of the University of Southern Maine. State Officers for 1981-1982 were elected as follows: State Master Councilor, Peter C. Grant; Deputy State Master Councilor, Steven K. Ferris; State Senior Councilor, Ralph T. Hyson; and State Junior Councilor, Wayne A. Lobley.

October 10th, the 10th Annual Honors and Awards Night was held in Freeport. M. W. Harlan F. Small, Clyde L. Ferris and Thomas A. Greenquist received the Legion of Honor with the work performed by T. Nelson Harmon and his team. The Chevalier Degree was conferred on Steven K. Ferris and Patrick J. Fleming by Wayne Manson and his suite. Three advisors, Myles E. Grant, Jr., Albert E. Moore and Gordon L. Wilson, were invested with the Cross of Honor.

A State membership class was held in honor of M. W. Harlan F. Small on April 17th to recognize his outstanding support of DeMolay. A class of 38 boys received the degrees of DeMolay. Seventeen of the 25 Masonic Districts were represented with candidates. I thank each Grand Lodge Officer and Lodge that sponsored a boy in the class.

Other State events that took place during the year were a softball tournament, Shrine field day, congress, fall membership class, sweetheart pageant, basketball tournament and Rainbow-DeMolay night.

M. W. Harold L. Chute and Clyde L. Ferris have continued to provide special help and support during the last year. To them and to the many dedicated DeMolay workers and supporters at both the State and Chapter level I give my sincere thanks.

MASONIC EDUCATION AND LODGE SERVICE

R. W. Ernest H. Curtis, for the Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service, presented the following report which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service has had another busy year improving and expanding on the several programs that this Committee has been charged with overseeing. The Widows' Program and the Care and Share Programs under the direction of R. W. Edwin V. George are making great progress. A detailed report of these activities will be made by Brother George.

DeMOLAY AND RAINBOW

These programs under the direction of R. W. Wilbur F. Loveitt have progressed nicely this past year. All DeMolay Chapters and Rainbow Assemblies have had opportunities to work their Degrees in Blue Lodges and at District meetings. Many Lodges have also organized visitations to the Chapters and Assemblies. Although no new DeMolay Chapters and Rainbow Assemblies have been started this past year, there is interest in starting up new Chapters and Assemblies in some areas. Through the support of our Lodges all Chapters and Assemblies are showing greater strength.

SPEAKERS BUREAU

Our Speakers Bureau under the direction of R. W. John E. Anagnostis has had a busy year. Brethren have reported a total of 72 speaking engagements and we know that many speakers have been busy but did not report their activities. A special thanks to the four who reported the largest number of speaking engagements: R. W. Peter C. Schmidt (16); R. W. Edwin V. George (16); R. W. John E. Anagnostis (15); Wor. Wallace M. Gage (11). We trust that more Lodges will make more use of this special service next year.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

There has been more activity in the use of Masonic films this past year than we have ever had before. This is due in most part to the new film entitled "The Symbol of Pride", provided by the Imperial Shrine of North America. There are three copies available in Maine, one from the Grand Lodge, one from Kora Temple and one from Anah Temple. This film tells the Masonic story very nicely and in a very professional manner. It has been very popular and has been viewed throughout the State. As this is the 250th anniversary year of the birth of Brother George Washington, the film on the George Washington National Masonic Memorial has been very busy. The most outstanding program this year has been the observance of the 250th birthday anniversary of Brother George Washington. At the direction of our Most Worshipful Grand Master this Committee provided all District Representatives with a George Washington kit with enough information and material, so that they could present a very worthwhile program to the Lodges in their Districts. We also provided the Representatives with a short Patriotic presentation entitled, "A little bit of Flag wavin' " by R. W. Stewart M. L. Pollard and which proved to be very popular with the Lodges.

SEMINARS AND EDUCATIONAL MEETINGS

Statewide seminars were held in Auburn and Bangor this year. Each seminar was opened with a Leadership film entitled "You Pack Your Own Chute". This was a very enthusiastic presentation which set the pace for the seminars. Many subjects were covered of mutual interest to those present by the several members of this Committee. Another film, "The Symbol of Pride" was shown after lunch which proved to be so interesting that many Masters reserved it for showing their own Lodges. Over 150 Brethren, combined attendance were present at these two meetings which appeared to be good turnout but when you consider that these were statewide meetings, then the attendance was not all that good. We trust that more Brethren will take advantage of these meetings next year because it is the one time during the year that our Lodge Officers have an opportunity to meet with the full Educational Committee and the Grand Lodge Officers. District Educational meetings were held in each District this year under the direction of our Grand Lecturer and his Assistants.

POLLARD PLAN INSTRUCTORS MANUAL

A new Instructors manual for the Pollard Plan of Candidate Instruction has been prepared by this Committee. This has taken a great deal of time to prepare and represents a tremendous amount of work for R. W. Walter M. Macdougall. While it is an excellent and well prepared manual, we are mindful that our biggest task lies ahead in teaching our Lodge Instructors in the proper use of this manual. We will be working with our District Representatives and a few pilot Lodges this summer.

DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVES

Our District Representatives have been very active this year working with our District Deputies and the Lodges in their Districts. They have attended annual inspections, installations, assisted in Masters and Wardens Association programs, helped organize and have taken part in Widows' programs, worked very closely with the DeMolay Chapters and Rainbow Assemblies in their areas and did an outstanding and commendable job in arranging and taking part in the George Washington observance in the Lodges of their Districts. They have been very helpful in providing special educational programs, films and speakers to their Lodges. They are performing a great service to our Lodges and have been of valuable assistance to our District Deputies and this Committee.

THE RAYMOND RIDEOUT TROPHY AWARD

Several Lodges have now established an on-going program of Masonic Education usually as a part of their monthly stated meeting. However, two Lodges have been reported as having had outstanding educational programs this year. King Hiram Lodge #57 of Dixfield, winner of the Raymond Rideout Trophy last year, have continued their excellent program of Masonic Education resulting in increasing attendance and greater participation of the Brethren. A real healthy situation. Deering Lodge #183 has had an unusually busy year. They have had 8 special educational programs held on their stated meetings including the following subjects: The 17th Problem of Euclid - The ultimate lessons in Freemasonry - The badge of a Mason - English Masonry - Biblical characters in Masonry - Organizations allied with Freemasonry - Masonic symbolism - Geometry, the first and noblest of sciences. Other special programs included: Pack the Hall night - St. John's Sunday - (2) Ladies nights and a Widows Banquet. Both these Lodges are setting an example for all Lodges to follow and are worthy of special recognition from this Grand Lodge and we are pleased to present them with a certificate for outstanding service. It is also a pleasure to present this Raymond Rideout Trophy Award to Most Worshipful Raymond Rideout's own Lodge, Deering Lodge #183 of Portland. This Committee would also like to recognize 2 of its District Representatives who have performed in an outstanding manner this past year in their respective Districts: 6th District Representative - Wor. Sherwood S. McGlinchey (33 visitations); 19th District Representative - Wor. Laurent J. Young (37 visitations).

CONCLUSION

Brethren, the Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service is more than a Committee, it is a department of Grand Lodge with great responsibilities and challenges. Each member has done his job well and I am confident that we are making great progress. I wish to express my appreciation once again to each member of the Committee, to the District Representatives, District Deputies and Assistant Grand Lecturers for their complete cooperation and hard work. Most Worshipful Grand Master, we trust that we have accomplished the goals to your satisfaction set for us two years ago. On behalf of the Committee I would say only that it has been a pleasure to work with and for you during these past two years.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE CHARITY FUND

M. W. Charles E. Crossland, for the Committee on Distribution of the Charity Fund, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.:

The assistance given by the Grand Lodge Charity Fund to individuals and Masonically related organizations for the year ended March 31st totalled $106,147. This is the largest amount for any year in the history of our Grand Lodge. It is a record of which we can all be proud. A total of $94,410, including the usual Christmas card and gift, was granted to 23 members and 21 Masonic widows or families through 44 applications received from 32 lodges.

The ages of those given assistance ranged from 25 to 85 with about one half of them over 60 years. The amount of relief given to individuals varied from $200 to $6,000 Twenty-seven, or 61%, of the applicants had not requested relief before from Grand Lodge Charity. This unusually large percentage may be an indication of a larger number needing relief next year.

Five lodges requested assistance for the payment of dues for ten U.S. War Veterans in the amount of $287. These applications were based upon the fact that the interest of the Veterans involved is such as to merit financial aid to meet the cost of dues.

Once again it was a pleasure for the Trustees to vote to contribute $5,500 to the Masonic Service Association Hospital Visitation Program which includes 120 U.S. Veterans Hospitals in which the M. S. A. has a voluntary agent. This includes our Togus Hospital in Maine. For this excellent program the Trustees also contributed $750 to help meet the needs of patients as determined by the M. S. A. agent, Rodney Pearl. Also, for the program at Togus, $500 was made available to the Masters and Wardens Associations of the 11th, 12th, 14th and 17th Districts, but only $200 was used. These Districts are to be commended for their faithful participation in serving at these Sunday services.

To assist youth activities in Maine, the Trustees of the Charity Fund voted $5,000 to the DeMolay and Pine Tree Youth Foundation. The Foundation used $1,800 for scholarships awarded without restriction to graduating seniors who plan to continue their education. The money was used also to promote and strengthen the DeMolay activities program in Maine.

This report presents only the financial aspects of our Grand Lodge Charity. However, there is another equally, if not more, important phase of this great tenet of our Fraternity. We refer to the great value and significance of the personal element which can be provided only through visitations and thoughtful deeds expressing our fraternal feeling and desire to be helpful to those who are ill, disabled or aged. Such kind deeds not only show the depth of our Masonry but also give pleasure, encouragement and inspiration to those upon whom a visit is made. That is Masonry at its best in action.

LIBRARY AND MUSEUM

R. W. Peter C. Schmidt, for the Committee on Library and Museum, presented the following report, which was accepted.

Peter Schmidt has loaned several Brass Medallions depicting Benjamin Franklin and William Penn - received from the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania during their Tricentennial Celebration. Also a silver Trowel and the seal of the Grand Lodge of New York from the Grand Lodge of New York at their Bicentennial.

We have also added several cannons from various table Lodges held this past year.

This year we have received two very old Masonic Aprons as an addition to our Museum. One was presented by Bros. Ken Black and Lendon C. Jackson for Mrs. Mark Chetwynd, the granddaughter of Willis B. Hoar, who was raised by Lewy's Island Lodge #138 on Oct. 6, 1886. Brother Hoar was 96 years old when he died on May 1, 1956, a seventy year Master Mason. We also received an apron believed to belong to Brother Henry B. Waide, a member of Harwood Lodge #91 in Machias. This was presented by Brother Richard Bagley for Mrs. Lucy Flynn of Machias, who inherited it with a houseful of goods from her uncle, George Waide of Eastport. These have been added to our Masonic Apron Collection and can be seen any time during the day. These aprons are similar to ones listed in the new book published by the Museum of Our National Heritage in Lexington, Mass. The book is called Bespangled, Painted and Embroidered and we have a copy of it in our Library. Toward the last half of the 18th Century, aprons became fancier and more elaborately decorated. A Mason was allowed to do his own decorating and this gave rise to the many variations and designs we see on these old aprons.

The film, "Symbol of Pride" which we received last year, has had a lot of use, which is good. That's what the films and slides are for. Your only cost is return postage and this at the Library rate. Following is a list of films and slides available:

Symbol of Pride - 16 mm - sound - 22 mins.

George Washington Masonic Memorial - 16 mm - sound - 15 mins.

Brotherhood of Man - 16 mm - sound - 28 mins.

In the Hearts of Men - 16 mm - sound - 30 mins.

Grand Lodge of Virginia - 16 mm - sound - 30 mins.

Slides of George Washington Memorial

The Library is still open four days a week, Tuesday through Friday, but few Brethren avail themselves of this opportunity to increase their knowledge of Masonry. If you cannot get to Portland conveniently drop us a line and tell us what you want. If we don't have the particular book you want, just name the subject and we will send you what we have on that subject. Also, come and see our Museum. It will be worth your while.

Respectfully submitted,
PETER C. SCHMIDT
EDWIN V. GEORGE
JOHN E. ANAGNOSTIS

CONDITION OF THE FRATERNITY

R. W. Lewis E. Newell, for the Committee on Condition of the Fraternity, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 5, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Your Standing Committee on the "Condition of the Fraternity" has reviewed the reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters, as provided in Section 36, Par. 9 of the Grand Lodge Constitution.

District Deputies:

We have received all of the inspection reports of the individual lodges and the annual reports of the District Deputy in each of the Twenty-five Districts. All reports have been reviewed. The information contained and recommendations made have been considered in this report.

We will take this opportunity to express our appreciation to all District Deputies for the exceptional job done in the preparation of their annual reports.

The District Deputies' recommendations were as follows:

1. That each lodge have a Publicity Chairman to see that awarding of Veteran's Medals and other lodge activities come before the public.
2. That action be taken against lodges that are not attempting to comply with Standing Regulation #25.
3. That some provision be made to pay mileage to Deputies, when they have been requested to Install Officers of a lodge.
4. That copies of coded work be available to District Deputies for their personal use during inspections.
5. That S.R. #25 be reworded to allow for summer and winter recesses of lodges.
6. That continued emphasis be placed on program development particularly for stated meetings and also to complement the Pollard Plan.
7. That some means be developed to assist lodges in determining ways to make their buildings more energy efficient.
8. That each lodge give a short educational program annually on examination procedures to be expected when visiting other lodges or jurisdictions.
9. That a pamphlet be made available that covers the Widows' and Care and Share Programs, to be given especially to new members.
10. That Grand Lodge attempt to invigorate good sound financial planning for all lodges.
11. That a new approach be developed to improve attendance at Schools of Instruction.
12. That a form be developed and adopted for use in following each Candidate's progress through the Degrees and Educational sessions.

13. That some modification of the present regulation regarding presentation of Diplomas to newly raised Candidates be adopted.

Financial Conditions:

Seventy Lodges' reports indicate outstanding dues of less than $250.00, ten of these were less than fifty dollars and four had no outstanding dues at the time of the lodge inspection. One lodge with 169 members had outstanding dues of $2,340.00, one with 212 members had unpaid dues of $2,200.00 and one lodge had a total of $5,580.00 and $3,500.00 of this amount over one year in arrears.

Charity Funds:

The reports from the 2nd, 6th, 14th, 17A, 17B, 19th and 23rd Districts indicated Charity Funds in all lodges. Almost every lodge practices Charity in some form, even though no balance of Charity Funds are shown on the reports.

DeMolay and Rainbow:

Several Deputies reported increased activity in supporting DeMolay and Rainbow. This is a good indication of the accumulative efforts of recent Grand Masters and their Officers.

Masonic Instruction and Educational Programs:

The work of the Asst. Grand Lecturers is highly praised. The help of Educational Representatives and Past Grand Officers in planning of very successful programs was evident in all of the District Deputies' reports. Many outstanding meetings were held throughout the State.

Masters and Wardens or Officer Associations:

Thirteen Districts reported active Associations, two were inactive and two districts were trying to get their associations going again. Some of the Deputies report that travel and areas where considerable degree work is being performed make it difficult to get attendance at Association meetings in their Districts.

Another District Deputy made the following comments: The M. and W. Association meetings have been the most effective method of communication and accomplishment of district business. The members develop many friendships and feeling of closeness and co-operation that carries over throughout the year. These meetings have provided an opportunity to show several Masonic films, and furnish information as to their availability. The meetings also provide an opportune time to distribute copies of "Masters and Wardens Guides" and "Think Tanks for Junior Wardens". Samples of Masonic Books, Greeting Cards, and Masonic Publications have been displayed. The monthly district letter, along with information concerning Outreach Programs and of a general interest are also distributed.

Ritual:

Forty-six lodge inspection reports indicated "Excellent" rendition of the ritual at the time of inspection, eighty-five were reported as "Very Good", fifty-eight as "Good", seven as "Fair" and none were reported as "Poor".

Masonic Widows' Program:

There were many very successful programs reported and many more in the planning stage. Over-all, it appears that nearly ninety percent of all lodges have had activity in this area.

Caring and Sharing Program:

This program also appears to have been well accepted and is being practiced by a large percentage of the lodges.

General Conditions:

Marine Lodge #122 was lost by fire. The lodges in the fourth Masonic District and other lodges throughout the state have offered their assistance and have replaced the Regalia which was destroyed. At present, the lodge is meeting in the Church Parish House and are formulating plans to build a new Masonic Temple later this year. On August 7, 1981 the consolidation of Portland Lodge #1, Ancient Land-Mark #17, and Atlantic #81, took place at a Special Communication. One lodge in the 14th District is faced with a building problem. All other lodge properties or meeting places received favorable comments from the District Deputies. Considerable fixing up, painting and other improvements are on-going.

Summary:

The condition of the Fraternity as a whole is reported as good. Two districts report problems with individual lodges. The very active efforts of Grand Lodge Officers and their Representatives in the Districts appear to be keeping Masonry healthy in the State of Maine.

Recommendations:

- A. The suggestions and recommendations of the District Deputies should be reviewed by the appropriate Grand Lodge Committees.
- B. The District Deputies should be commended for the excellent reports that were made this year.

LEWIS E. NEWELL, Chairman
MALCOLM R. HOLTS

DRUMMOND MEDAL

R. W. Bro. Royce G. Wheeler was called to the East and the Grand Master presented him with a Josiah Hayden Drummond Distinguished Service Medal. Brother Wheeler responded with appropriate remarks and thanked Grand Master Small for the honor conferred upon him.

ROYCE GREENE WHEELER

Royce Greene Wheeler was born in Bangor, Maine, on September 1, 1926, the second of three sons to Ernest D. and Helen (Hanson) Wheeler. He was educated in the public schools of Greenbush and was graduated from Higgins Classical Institute in 1944, after which he served two years in the United States Navy, Pacific Theatre.

His marriage to Joyce Arline Trasker in May, 1948, was blessed with the advent of three children, two boys and a girl, and they now have a granddaughter, Julie Lynn Blanchard.

February 16, 1951, he was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason in St. Andrew's Lodge No. 83 in Bangor, Maine, and after serving offices in that Lodge for eight years, he became its Master in 1965. He was a District Deputy Grand Master in 1967 and 1968 and Assistant Grand Lecturer from 1975 to 1979, inclusive. He is the Grand Representative for the Grand Lodge of Nebraska near the Grand Lodge of Maine. Tuesday, May 2, 1978, Royce was awarded the Simon Greenleaf Medal for Distinguished Service by M. W. Donald S. Smith, Grand Master. This medal is awarded by the Grand Master, in his discretion, to Freemasons who have contributed their time, thought and services to Masonry beyond the usual line of duty, which contributions have rendered them worthy to receive this Medal. On May 6, 1980, Royce was elected Senior Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of Maine and on May 5, 1981 he was appointed Grand Marshal.

In the Bangor Valley of the A.A.S.R., Brother Wheeler is a member of the Eastern Star Lodge of Perfection, Palestine Council, Princes of Jerusalem and Bangor Chapter of Rose Croix. In 1960 he received the 32nd Degree in Maine Consistory of Portland and in 1979 he was coroneted a 33rd Degree Honorary member of the Supreme Council. Among his other Masonic accomplishments, Royce is a member of Jonathan Hunt Chapter, O.E.S. in Hermon, Anah Temple Shrine in Bangor, an honorary member of Lynde Lodge #174 in Hermon and Past President of the District Deputies Association. For many years Royce has been chairman of the Payroll Committee for Grand Lodge.

Royce is also active in his Community. He is a member of and attends the Hermon Baptist Church, president of the Hermon Development Corporation, has been on the Hermon School Board, Board of Assessors, Charter Commission and the Hermon Planning Board. He has served as Treasurer of the Hermon Peewee Basketball and Baseball Leagues.

His career in the Maine Central Railroad could have come out of one of Horatio Alger's books. He joined the railroad in 1946 after finishing his stint in the Navy as a Radioman, and appropriately enough, started as a student Telegrapher-Station Agent. From this he progressed to Agent in Bangor. His latest promotion brought him to the position of Assistant Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the railroad with headquarters in Bangor.

Brother Wheeler has been active on the Committee for Masonic Education and Lodge Services as well as in the new Maine Lodge of Research.

FIFTY-YEAR VETERAN'S MEDAL

R. W. Bro. Ralph E. Bayliss was asked to escort R. W. Bro. Glendon R. Ayer to the East, where the Grand Master presented Glen with his Fifty-year Veteran's Medal.

HISTORY

Wor. Bro. Edwin E. Cummings, for the Committee on History, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 5, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.:

Your Committee on Grand Lodge History has had a busy year, and we are happy to report that the total number of delinquent Lodges has been reduced from 37 to 28 this past year. Fifteen of the Lodges listed in last year's report are now up to date and 9 Lodges are listed for the first time. Your attention is directed to Amended Standing Regulation #2 adopted by Grand Lodge last May, which states, and I quote:

"Each lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction shall prepare its history for the preceding year, and furnish two copies to the Grand Lodge Committee on History of Masonry in Maine. Each year the Master of each lodge shall appoint a Lodge Historian whose duty shall be to prepare the history of the Lodge once each year for the preceding year and present the same to the Lodge Secretary.

"Each lodge that has not completed its history and furnished it to the Grand Lodge as specified above by March 1, 1983 shall be fined $10.00 for each year in arrears. Also, each year thereafter on March 1st each lodge shall be fined an additional $10.00 for each year in arrears."

Remember, Grand Lodge is interested in Histories, not fines. Shortly after Grand Lodge a letter will be sent to all Secretaries giving the date of the last History received and on file in the Grand Secretary's office. It then becomes the responsibility of each Lodge to submit its History from the date of the most recent history on file up to and including the year 1982 to avoid being fined. Once this new policy is fully implemented, it should be much more satisfactory to all parties.

The following Lodges are now delinquent:

DISPENSATIONS AND CHARTERS

M. W. Roger I. White, for the Committee on Dispensations and Charters, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 5, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The Committee on Dispensations and Charters has before it a petition for granting of a charter to The Maine Lodge of Research which was organized April 21, 1979 in accordance with a letter of permission from Most Worshipful Roger P. Snelling, Grand Master, to Right Worshipful Ernest H. Curtis, Chairman of the Committee on Masonic Education and Service. Since August 14, 1981, the lodge has operated under Dispensation granted by Most Worshipful Harlan F. Small, Grand Master.

The Committee have examined all the records, papers and documents pertaining to The Maine Lodge of Research U. D., and have carefully considered all evidence presented.

From the information presented to the Committee, it appears that the lodge has made good progress during the past three years, with a constant increase in membership, and its financial condition is satisfactory.

Our Committee believe that the establishment of The Maine Lodge of Research will prove very beneficial, not only to the brethren of our Grand Jurisdiction, but to all who may become associated with it.

We therefore recommend that a charter be granted to The Maine Lodge of Research.

Respectfully submitted,

ROGER I. WHITE
DONALD S. SMITH
ROGER P. SNELLING

and Charters

R. W. Bruce S. Tornquist, for the Committee on Insurance, reported that the Committee had no formal report as there was nothing to report. The report was accepted.

GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS

M. W. Charles R. Glassmire, for the Committee on Grievances and Appeals and the Commissioners of Trials, gave the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 5, 1982

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

STEVEN R. PINKHAM of Madison, Maine, a Fellowcraft, member of Euclid Lodge #194, was convicted in Somerset County Superior Court on two counts of violation of Title 17A M.R.S.A., Section 253(A) and two counts of violation of Title 17A M.R.S.A., Section 255(C), and sentenced to four years at the Maine Correctional Center at Windham, Maine.

On November 21, 1981, the Commissioners of Trials held a meeting at the Masonic Temple in Augusta, Maine. They heard charges against Brother Steven R. Pinkham who was not present in person, or represented by counsel. Brother Pinkham was found guilty as charged, and the Commissioners recommended that he be expelled from all the rights and privileges of Freemasonry.

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals has met and reviewed the findings of the Trial Commission. We unanimously agree with the findings of the verdict.

Most worshipful sir, I move that Steven R. Pinkham be expelled from all the rights and privileges of Freemasonry.

Most worshipful sir, I move the acceptance of this report.

Fraternally submitted,

HAROLD BLAISDELL
STANLEY F. SAMPSON
CHARLES R. GLASSMIRE, Chairman

Your Committee has carefully scrutinized every account. We are very conscious of the need to exercise fiscal responsibility. But, we need the cooperation of all committees and members of Grand Lodge. Committee chairmen should not commit Grand Lodge to expenses without prior approval of the Committee on Finance. We urge each of you, whether a Committee Chairman, member of a committee, District Deputy, District Representative or an officer, elective or appointed, to ask yourselves whether or not the expense is justifiable in the furtherance of the work of Ancient Craft Masonry.

While we project a potential deficit in the recommendations for appropriations, your Finance Committee is confident, that if each of us is sensitive to the source of our revenues, we can end the year in the black.

Your Committee on Finance will meet on a quarterly basis to examine and pass upon all bills against the Grand Lodge. We ask your cooperation.

Fraternally submitted,

ADDRESS OF M. W. JERRY C. RASOR, P.G.M. OF OHIO

Thank you very much. Thank you very much, Grand Master. I am delighted to be here in the State of Maine. I tried to get here last year and Mother Nature took a hand, decided I would not make the trip and I was forced at the last minute to cancel out, so I am really happy to be able at last to arrive here in a State I have heard so much about. I was here once on vacation many years ago, but this is the first time I have spoken to a Masonic group in the State of Maine and I would like to start off by telling a story that might take the hair right off the head of our Chaplain, but I see he's already heard that particular story. (laughter) You know, it takes a man of special talent and special ability to be a Grand Master. They say, to be an excellent Grand Master, when you're a baby, if your mother kisses you on the lips, you are going to be a Grand Master with a tremendous speaking ability; if your mother kisses you on the throat at that particular moment, you're going to become a great singer. Now I don't know where the Grand Master of Maine was kissed when he was born, but he has made an excellent chairman of a number of events. (laughter)

You know, I asked the Grand Master earlier, I said "If I were to take a poll of this audience tonight, what religious preference do you think would be the number one choice?" He said it would probably be a tossup between the Congregationalists and the Methodists. And you know they had a meeting in Columbus, Ohio, my home, not too long ago, one was for the ladies who were active in the churches in the area, and the other was for the Junior Chamber of Commerce and they were serving spiked punch to the Junior Chamber of Commerce and of course, straight punch to the ladies of the Church, but they mixed them up and at the last minute the ladies got the punch with the booze and the Jaycees got the straight punch, so when it was over they said to the lady who was in charge, "Did you see any particular thing happen to those ladies after they were served that punch?" and she said, "Yes, I did, the Catholics kept asking for seconds." It was Watermelon punch, by the way. I could destroy this story by not telling you it was Watermelon punch - The Baptists, they said, were gnawing on the rind of the watermelon after the particular event was ended, but she said "the Methodists, the Methodists, I love their way of doing things," she said, "the Methodists were saving the seeds." (laughter - Also applause)

And you know, I speak all over the Country I guess and I enjoy each and every time I'm invited to speak in whatever part of the Country. I was talking to Phil (Berquist-Grand Master of Massachusetts) my good friend here from Massachusetts, and we were discussing that I spoke in Boston a couple of years ago and flew from Boston and spoke in Seattle the very next day, which was a bit of a chore, but I do enjoy the opportunity to speak to groups of Masons. Masonry has been extremely important in my life and I like to try to convey the good things that Masonry has done for me. I like to convey that to the audiences to which I speak, and one of my dearest friends is a Catholic. In fact, he's a Monseigneur in a Catholic Church in Columbus, Rector of the largest Cathedral that we have in Columbus and we both belong to Kiwanis and he said "I understand you speak to a lot of Masonic groups," and I said, "Oh yes, I do Father, I do indeed." He said, "I can give you some tremendous Catholic stories, but you've got to give me credit if you tell them." And I said, "Father, lay it on me, I'll tell them if you give me the stories," so he said he heard one about the two Nuns who were driving the Rectory automobile, ran out of gas, looked in the car, but they couldn't find a thing in the car they could put gas in, looked in the trunk and there was a bed pan in the trunk, so they walked back to the nearest gasoline station, brought the gas back to the car in the bed pan and were pouring it in the car when a big truck went by. Driver turned to his buddy in the truck and he said, "Man, those Catholics got faith, ain't they?" That's great. (laughter) And how about the one about the two Nuns who were pushing the shopping cart through the large store and they stopped where the beer was being displayed. And there was a gentleman in the store and he was watching them, and he noticed they stopped there and they put a couple of six-packs of beer in the shopping cart and they covered them with other goodies, but he saw and he was a good Catholic, so he walked up to them and said "Sisters, I don't mean to bring this up, but did I see you put beer in the shopping cart." Well, this one older Sister pulled herself up and said, "Young man, I'll have you know at the Convent we Sisters wash our hair in beer." So he threw in a bag of pretzels, he said "Here, you might like some curlers to go along with it." (laughter)

You know, I do travel, travel all over the country and I look for a sign, there are often very interesting signs and the most interesting signs are often on the billboard or whatever you call it, in front of churches. You know, years ago, the only thing the sign said in front of the churches was "Sunday School at 9:30; Church at 10:30" or whatever. Today churches have become very, very public relations-minded. So those signs often tell a little story. It's a little message to try to get you to come to church on Sunday, and one I saw up in northern Ohio not too long ago was the best one I've ever seen. It said, "If you've given up sin, come right in," and someone had written underneath, "If you haven't, call 224-4408." (laughter)

I live in a very small town called Commercial Point, Ohio. 250 hardy souls live in this little town. I've lived there all my life and the most exciting thing that has ever happened is happening right now in Commercial Point, we are getting sewage in Commercial Point after all these years. Fact, the first truckload came in yesterday. (laughter) Couldn't resist that line, I couldn't resist it, no, no, we are getting a sewage system in this little town. The Grand Master was telling me that in one of the lodges, I believe in this State, somewhere, there was an outhouse in the Lodge that was two stories high. Is that right, Grand Master? Two stories? Three stories?? I've heard of a two-story three holer, but never a three-story two holer - and I've heard of a draft, but I bet that was ridiculous. (laughter)

Anyway, in our little town, we have one little church, a United Methodist Church. We all go to that Church, of course; it's the only church in town. But we have a delightful, new, young minister. I mean, he is something else. You know, you get a young fellow involved in a church of that kind and if he's really energetic and enthusiastic he can pull it up and he has certainly done that with our little Church in Commercial Point. The only problem is, in a small church, as you know, the preacher does everything. He gives the sermon, he runs off the bulletin, and I think he sweeps it out when it's over, he has to do everything. Well, sometimes he's in a rush and he gets mixed up in some things, but he doesn't have time to change them. One is the bulletin. I've kept a couple of bulletins in which there were errors that were classics. One of the best ones is, we have a little Mother's Club, young married gals in our Church and he was trying to help them enhance the membership in that particular group, so he ran this little blurb in the latest bulletin. It went "The Little Mothers Club will meet right after Church. All wishing to become Little Mothers, meet the Minister in his study right after the Service. (laughter) I could say they were lined up, but I wouldn't go that far. However, one of our parishioners gave us a brand new electronic organ. It is beautiful. We've never had anything of that kind in this little Church, and it's great, except, our little Church is only a few miles from one of the largest air force bases in Ohio, Paul Rickenbacker Air Force Base, named after the late great Eddie Rickenbacker. Well, on Sunday morning, for some reason or other, the tower feeds into that electronic organ. It is wild, it is almost like the CB's feeding into your TV at home. It's the same principle, I guess. It's a little strange, a couple of Sundays ago, when the organist was playing "Nearer My God to Thee" when a voice came through and said "Prepare to take off"; and three people did, as a matter of fact. (laughter)

I do a lot of flying, of course, from one city to the other, and I'm always intrigued by the different air lines. I do a lot of flying on U.S. Air, which formerly was Allegheny Air Lines, and there's a lot of concern on the part of people who fly U.S. Air, but it's really a rather nice Air Line, but I did become concerned not too long ago when I was flying U.S. Air and we came in close to the tower and I could hear that they were calling the time in and the passenger next to me said, "Jerry, you know how it works" and I said "NO", and he said, "If this was Pan Am, the very Elite Pan Am, the tower would say, if it's three o'clock, they would say 'It's fifteen hundred hours'." I said "Oh", he said, "If it's TWA, they would say 'TWA, it's three o'clock'." But he said, "Now when we come in on this plane, U.S. Air, the tower will say 'The big hand is on the 12 and the little hand is on 3'." But he said, "If it's Ozark, they would say, 'It's Thursday'." (laughter)

I was talking to - these DeMolay boys reminded me of this - a good friend of mine, Pat King, he's a past State Master Councilor in Ohio, and a heck of a nice guy and he's become a United Methodist preacher, and doing an excellent job as a minister, but he was telling me about when he went to school, Grand Master, and studied to be a minister. He said it really was tough, really tough. I said "How tough was it?" Using a Johnny Carson line, "How tough was it?" He said, "Well, when I gave my first sermon, my instructor sat in the Congregation and took notes and he said, 'Boy, that's what you call putting the pressure on'." I said, "Did he really?" and he said "Yes." But he said, "He was nice to me. Before the sermon, he said 'Now Pat, I know you're nervous. Here's what you do. Take a water glass, like this, fill it with gin and take it with you into the pulpit. Now just sip it and it will make you settle down and you will be as cool as a cucumber'." So he did. And after the sermon, he said to his instructor, "How did I do?" And the instructor said, "I made three comments. No. 1, don't put an olive in the drink. No. 2, don't smack your lips after every sip, and No. 3, David slew Goliath, he did not beat hell out of him, now remember that." (laughter) And I love this one about the husband who came home early, found his wife sitting in the bedroom in a filmy negligee in the middle of the afternoon and there was cigar smoke throughout the room. He looked all around, the window was up, ran to the window, looked out, and there was a man running in his shorts. So the only thing he could see to pick up was a little portable refrigerator, so he picked it up and threw it on the man out the window and killed him, but in throwing the refrigerator out the window, the man had a heart attack and died. Next scene, Saint Peter greeting this man, he said, "Sir, what did you do to get here?" He said, "Well, came home, found my wife in a smoke filled room, I picked up the closest thing, a portable refrigerator, I threw it out the window, I had a heart attack and I died." St. Peter said, "Next man." The next man came along, St. Peter said, "How did you die?" He said, "Well, I'm a jogger. I was jogging in my shorts and the next thing I knew, something hit me on the head and I guess I died, and here I am." This little guy appeared next. St. Peter said, "How about you Sir?" He said, "Well, I was sitting in this refrigerator, smoking this cigar". (laughter)

Well, I could tell these stories all night long, and you're a good audience, but I would like to get a message to you, if I may. As the Grand Master told you, I was Grand Master of Ohio in 1978, and I guess one of the youngest Grand Masters in our history, but that makes no difference, because I was appointed to that position by the oldest Grand Master in our history ever to serve in the position. And he said to me, "Jerry, I'm proving a point. I believe in you and I trust you. I know that you can serve, or I wouldn't appoint you." Well, I took a lot of heat. A lot of pressure was put on me, but by golly, I was determined that Masonry would be better, if at all possible, because I had served. And I guess that's the message that we all need to take with us. Is Masonry going to be a better institution because I served in whatever position? I read an article not long ago that really got my dander up. I want to read you a line or two from what I read. It was in a West Coast newspaper and here's what it said: "Masonry, like all fraternal organizations is confronted with declining and steadily aging membership, which is symbolic of the present state of most organizations of this kind, and the Masons, a secret, fraternal society, steeped in ritual and tradition, which was flourishing and influential as recently as twenty years ago. Today, the problem is that the group's emphasis is on a quasi-religious ceremony, an esoteric mumbo-jumbo in what today is a largely anti-doctrinaire age." In other words, this West Coast newspaper is telling us that Freemasonry is out of step. We're out of focus, we're too old. We can't keep up. We're not modern. We're not thinking in the terms that are popular today. I say "Hogwash!" This Fraternity can be as strong today, or a hundred years from today as it was in the very beginning. But it's up to us! I was thinking the other day that this Fraternity is like life itself. There is a cycle, the young come in and begin to take over, and the old move out. And that's the way life is and that's the way Freemasonry must be if we are to be successful. We've got to take that wonderful combination of youth and age and put it together, and come up with a successful enterprise. These young men who are sitting down here who are members of DeMolay are the youth that is the life blood of this Fraternity. And the older members who are sitting here this evening have that knowledge that we so desperately need. We've got to combine the two. So often, and this happened to me in Columbus, a good friend of mine, a young man joined a lodge. At my behest, he went to Lodge regularly, took part in everything he could take part in and finally one night he dared to say to one of the old Past Masters, "What do I have to do to learn one of those beautiful lectures? I want to learn one." And the old boy said, "Don't try too hard, we'll let you know when we think you're ready." He never went back. I can't get him to go back. He absolutely refuses to have any part of a fraternity who treats its young in that manner. We can't do that! We haven't time to do that. Time is running out, unless we are willing and able to take our young and work with them, and nurture them. They are the life blood of this Fraternity. They are our future. It's as simple as that. They have the perseverance that is necessary and I think about a friend of mine, Jack Nicklaus, you all know Jack Nicklaus. I think he's the greatest golfer who ever lived. He comes back to Columbus regularly. You know what he does when he comes home? He plays a little golf, of course, but he also goes to the blind school in Columbus and sees those kids who can't see him. He went back not long ago and one of those young men had learned to play golf and there is a blind golfer's association, maybe you've heard about it. This kid got to be real good, so he said to Jack, "I want to challenge you to nine holes of golf at fifty bucks a hole." And Nicklaus said, "Kid, I'm a pretty good player, I've made my - this is my life's vocation, playing golf." The kid said, "I don't care, I've practiced and practiced, waiting for you to come back. I want to challenge you to nine holes of golf at fifty bucks a hole," and finally Nicklaus said, "All right, when do you want to play?" And the kid said, "How about 11:30 tonight?" (laughter)

That's what it takes on the part of all of us, young or old. Perseverance, that's a good old Masonic word, isn't it? Let's persevere! Not long ago I went to a rock concert. Now, I don't always go to rock concerts, very seldom do I go, but sometimes I'm intrigued by audience reaction. I like to see what happens to a young audience at a concert of this kind, so I went. And I found out. But you know, the thing that really got me, as a part of this show, they brought a man over from England, who I guess was a big star a few years ago. His name was Donovan, I couldn't recall, but I guess he had been quite a big star. Anyway, he came on stage with a guitar and sat cross-legged at a gooseneck mike and started to sing without any amplification of any kind. Now this is unheard of. You could have heard a pin drop. Those kids got deathly quiet. He sang a couple of songs and then he stopped. And I've told this story, but I love it because it's true! I saw it happen. I was there. He said, "You know, I've been in this country some time now" and he said, "You young people are attempting to emulate the wrong hero." He said, "You see on Television and in the movies the John Waynes and the tough guys of the movies and you try to emulate them, but they're playing a part. They're acting. They're acting the role of someone who is terribly strong on the outside. Boy, they maim and they kill and they wound and you love it, but," he said, "On the inside they have nothing for you, nothing!" And then he gave the key phrase. He said, "The man you should be emulating, you young people, is the man from Nazareth, who was gentle on the outside, but strong on the inside, where - it - counts!" I tell you, I don't know, I could have cried, because that audience was taking in every single word he said. And that's the key to our success, my Brethren. It sounded like he was describing a Mason. Wouldn't it be great if we could emulate the man from Nazareth in our everyday contacts and be gentle on the outside and strong on the inside where - it - counts? I want to be known as a Mason, and I want it to be known by the manner in which I make contact with my fellow human beings. I don't want it to be known that I'm a Mason because I wear a particular ring or a particular pin, or a particular jewel, or have a particular title. I want it to be known that I'm a Mason by the way I act, and talk and walk. You know in England they wear no outside adornments of any kind. They don't want to be known they're a Mason by any adornments, they want to be known they're a Mason by the manner in which they do act.

I remember the story about the two bulls. The old bull and the young bull. They're out in the field. A big truck drove up. A Brahma bull got off, must have weighed two tons. Boy, the old bull backed off but the young bull started pawing the earth and snorting and carrying on and the old bull said, "Son, be careful, you don't want to fight that bull, do you?" And the young bull said, "Uh-uh, I just want to make sure he knows I'm a bull! (laughter) That's what I want to be sure of. I want to be sure that everybody knows I'm a Mason. I'm not ashamed of it. I'm not going to hide it.

When I was Grand Master we drove all over the State and we flew a lot. I guess I was the first Grand Master to do much flying and I really enjoyed it. I went to a little town in the northern part of the State. Now this is a true story. I want the World to know I'm a Mason. Now how many outside the Fraternity know anything about us? Stopped a well dressed young man on the street. We were looking for the Masonic Temple and in this particular town I didn't know where it was. We rolled down the window and my friend in the car said, "Pardon me, we're looking for the Masonic Temple" and I never saw such a blank expression come over anyone's face in my life. And he said, "Is that a church?" And I said, "No, no, it's a Fraternal organization, a Lodge, and the building in which we meet is called a Temple. It's the Masonic Temple, and it may have on the outside a square and compasses," and I could tell he didn't know what that was either. And you know he could not, and he thought and thought and he said, "I'm sorry, I don't know." So we thought O.K., so we drove up the street about three blocks, pulled into a filling station and asked the man and he said, "Yes, it's right over there, right across the street." We were within three blocks of the Masonic Temple and this young man had no idea what it was or where it was or if it even existed. You see, that's part of our problem. In the old days we were willing to keep our light under a bushel and to keep hidden from society and be content not to let anyone know who we were and what we were doing. That day is gone! We've got to start telling the story of Freemasonry. We have a beautiful story to tell and we're not a secret society. Did you know that even Webster says that we're a secret society and we're not. We're a society with a few secrets of identification and that's it. We are not a secret society by any means! We've got to use a little old, I suppose, common sense and public relations to get our light out from under the bushel and let people know what we're doing. If we don't, the jig is up, as they say. I'm a member of the United Methodist Church. Friend of mine sent me this from Dayton, says do you realize that if our Church continues to lose members in the numbers we have in the past ten years, there will not be a single United Methodist in our district thirty years from today. Many years ago the Old Fellows were the biggest Fraternal organization in Ohio. Today you can't find a Temple. They're gone, they've vanished. Is that our plight? It could be, you know! How do we remedy that? I'll tell you how—we nurture these guys right down here at this front table. That's the only way we're going to do it. They interviewed the Grand Master of the Odd Fellows here in Ohio. There are still, I guess, a few of them left. He said, "I like to believe we've reached the low point and things will start getting better." He said, "Six or seven years ago, only four or five people attended our lodge meetings, today we usually have eight, and sometimes as many as eleven or twelve." He says, "I don't see the end of the Odd Fellows, what we need now is young blood. They finally caught on. In the past, the older members kind of discouraged the younger ones," and then the prophetic sentence, "We can't do that any more!"

Amen! We can't do that any more. We don't have time. Young people. We need them. We need them desperately. We need to commit ourselves to that. It has to be a complete and total commitment, like the chicken and the pig walking down the street and they saw a sign on the church "Ham and Egg Breakfast". Chicken said, "Boy, that's great." Pig says,

"Well, it's all in how you look at it. For you it's a contribution, for me it's a complete and total commitment." (laughter) We need leadership, don't we? - at all levels, and I see it wherever I go. We need leadership. We've got to have it. We've got to have men with ideas, with goals, who will set those goals and then strive for them. I set so many goals when I was Grand Master, they said, "Rasor, you're crazy, you'll never do it." Well, we didn't make them all, but we made a lot of them, but we set them and we tried awfully hard to achieve the goals we had set.

Leadership! A group of American sailors were on a ship and they docked in Norway for the weekend. Ten American sailors, couldn't speak a word of Norwegian, decided to go to church on Sunday, can you believe that? They did. Sat down in a pew and the one kid said to his buddies, "Now the only way we can get by is to watch that man in front of us who is obviously a native. Whatever he does, we'll do and it'll be all right." So during the sermon, he stood up and they all stood up and the congregation went crazy, just laughed like crazy and the guys were embarrassed to death and sat down. After the sermon, they were leaving the church and the Norwegian minister could speak a little bit of English and the boys said, "Sir, what did we do wrong when we stood up?" and the minister said "Well, I was announcing a baptism, and I said in Norwegian, 'Would the father of the baby please stand up'." (laughter)

And you know, you've gotta be sharp if you're a young man today and make it, you've gotta be sharp. And in my little home town I told you about, we've got a kid that is so sharp, he's gonna make it. Even though he's from a little rural village, he's going to make it. I predict it. He works in the little grocery store, the only one we have. He works there after school. One day a gentleman came in, walked up to him and said, "Young man, I want a half length of stove pipe." Well, the kid couldn't believe what he heard. He went back to the manager of the store and said, "There's some idiot out here wants a half length of stove pipe!" and he turned around and the man is standing right behind him and heard everything he said. The kid, being very quick said, "And this gentleman would like the other half." And the store manager said, "Kid, you are really sharp, you are so sharp, where are you from?" The kid said, "I'm from Scranton, Pennsylvania." He said, "You have to be sharp when you're from Scranton, everyone there is either a football player or a prostitute." And the store owner said, "My wife is from Scranton, Pennsylvania" and the kid said, "What team did she play for?" (laughter)

When I was Grand Master, I said, "We've got to think of public relations, we've got to get our message across. If you have a meeting of some kind or a program, put it in the newspaper. Let people know what you're doing." So by golly, they did and I got this from the Finley, Ohio Courier when I went up there to celebrate a hundredth anniversary. By golly, they put it in the paper and they got headlines "Lodge observes a hundredth year" and this is exactly how it came out in the paper. I was giving plaques that year to the Lodges celebrating anniversaries. When I visited I left a little plaque, and this said, in the newspaper, "Jerry Rasor, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, was present for the reconsecration ceremony and he gave a plaque to the lodge in honor of the occasion." (laughter) And I got a great letter from Frank Crane, who was then Grand Sentinel of the Grand Commandery of Ohio, and Frank said, "Dear Grand Master, as the Grand Master of Masons in Ohio, it is hard to imagine that you would inflict such a hardship upon this little Lodge in Mount Blanchard, Ohio. Of course, since the Lord brought seven plagues down upon Egypt, I suppose the Grand Master could invoke one little one in Mount Blanchard, Ohio."

People say to me, "Jerry, why are you so interested in Masonry, why do you devote so much time to it?" You're in a lot of organizations. You're a busy man." Well, I'll tell you why. My Dad, that's why. I like to say that my Dad was a common man and yet he wasn't a common man as far as I was concerned. He was a very uncommon man because he was my Dad. He drove a truck, delivered farm produce, worked hard. During the depression, didn't have any money, but you know, when I was a kid, I used to ride with him on the

the truck. I used to love to do that, and there was a little black book that he was continually reading. Finally one day I said, "Dad, what is that book!" He said, "Son, I have joined the Masons. It's a fraternal organization and this is the ritual. I'm an officer and I'm learning what we call a lecture." Boy, did he study. He had that book all the time. And one day he said to me, "Jerry, my fondest wish is this. I have discovered that when I become Master of our little Lodge, you will reach twenty-one years of age, that same year. I hope the Lord grants me the time to raise you." I remember he used the word "raise" and I really didn't know what that word meant. Well, he became Master of that little lodge, the same one I became Master of much later, but he died while he was in the East and his wish never came true. But my mother said, "Jerry, you must join that Lodge, as difficult as it will be, you must do it." And so I did - because of my Dad. And who would have thought that that kid from Commercial Point, Ohio, would rise to become Grand Master of the largest grand jurisdiction in North America. Why, because I believed in my Dad, and I emulated my Dad and I wanted to be like my Dad. Do you know what these DeMolays call us? Their Dads. They want to emulate their Dad. They want to be like their Dad. They want to join the organization if it means enough to their Dad. Think about that! It's worthy of your thought.

You know, today we see a lot of young people on Television doing a lot of unsavory things, but we also see a lot of older people doing a lot of unsavory things, don't we? Youth is a state of mind. I lost my Mom just a couple of years ago, and she was young at heart. In fact, she loved to play Bridge and she went to a Bridge Club every week and she'd play Bridge with these same three ladies. I think they did it for years. And, remember when the people on college campuses were streaking, taking off their clothes and running around? One of the old ladies at the Bridge Club one day decided to streak the other three. I'll never forget, my Mother came home and told me this. I couldn't believe it. She said, "Do you know what Ethel did today?" And I said, "No, what did Ethel do?" "Well, she took off all her clothes and ran through the room, and Helen turned to me and said, "Was that who I think it was who just ran through the room?" And my Mother said, "Yes, I think it was." And she said, "What did she have on?" And my Mother said, "I don't know, but it needed pressing badly." (laughter)

You know, I went to see a movie not long ago. I won't tell you what it was because I'm embarrassed that I went to see it. I tell you, I can't believe the language that is used in the movies today, I just can't fathom it. You know, I'm not a stick-in-the-mud by any stretch of the imagination, but, so many four letter words! Do we have to use four letter words to explain ourselves? I can't really understand why we seem to want to do this. So I say, "All right, if you can't beat 'em, join 'em." If we're going to use four letter words, let's do it. So I'm going to give you some four letters words that I think we ought to start using. You know what I mean! - How about words like "L-o-r-d". That's not a bad four letter word. Lord, Soul, Love, Work, Hope, Good, Free, Life, - you can think of others. These are the kinds of four letter words we as Masons ought to start using, and putting some meaning into them for our young people. We've got our work cut out for us. If we're going to make it, we've got our work cut out for us, but we can do it. My theme, or motto, when I was Grand Master was the motto of the great Buck-eye State of Ohio and it is "With God all things are possible." I believe that. With God all things are possible. He's the answer. When we joined this Fraternity, that's the only thing we were asked. You know that and I know that. Let's never forget it! I'd like to close this little talk with a prayer that Bobby Richardson, who used to play ball for the Yankees, stood up at a Christian Athlete's meeting and didn't know what to say, didn't have a prayer prepared, but he gave one of the finest, I think, ever uttered. It's so short in its content and yet so deep in its meaning. He looked out at that audience and he said, "Dear God, your will, nothing more, nothing less, nothing else, Amen." That says it all, doesn't it? And I've said all that I dare say here tonight and I really appreciate the opportunity to be here with you in Maine and I hope our paths cross again.

God bless each of you and thank you very much. (Great applause, the Brethren rising to a standing ovation.)

Grand Master Small - Most Worshipful Brother Rasor, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts for your message to us tonight. I know, and you can tell from what I have heard and from what I have seen that your wisdom has fallen upon fertile soil. We all appreciate your coming so much.

Fraternally submitted,
 BRUCE S. TORNQUIST,
Grand Treasurer.

Voted—That the report of the Grand Treasurer be accepted, subject to the report of the Auditor.

Voted—To accept the gifts to the Charity Fund of $3,531.05.

In recent years the Grand Lodge Charity Fund has been the recipient of donations from Brethren and organizations within the Fraternity interested in the well being of members and their families who might be in need of some assistance. No recognition has ever been formally given beyond a letter of appreciation from the Grand Lodge Office. It is now felt that it might be in order to include an acknowledgment in the Annual Report of this meeting and to have this published in the Proceedings. In accordance with this, we are pleased to report that donations were received during the past year from the following for our charitable work:

Colonial Craftsman's Club of Colonial, Mass.

Ray W. Sherman, Rising Virtue Lodge #10

Leon J. Diggs, Waterville Lodge #33

Masters and Wardens Association of 6th Masonic District

Keystone Lodge #80

Charles E. Crossland

In addition to the above, a donation of $2,500.00 was received from M. W. and Mrs. Paul L. Powers with the request that it be used for relief purposes. This donation was in addition to a previous contribution made in May, 1980, of $1,500.00. Both payments were most gratefully received.

Voted—To authorize the Grand Treasurer to sign Proxies of Securities owned by the Foundation, to sign Stock Certificates, Resolutions and other documents pertaining to the sale of securities.

Charles Crossland also informed us that the Collins Bequest, which has been a long time arriving, would soon be received and that it amounted to a little more than $33,000.00.

(3) Charles Crossland, Chairman of the Committee on Investments, again gave his excellent report. He explained that the small name funds could not be invested to good advantage and suggested that the interest accumulated by each should be added to the principal until such time that they were large enough to invest to good advantage. The consensus of the Trustees was that he should do so.

Voted—To accept the Report.

Voted—That the proposed Amendment authorizing Investment Counsel to buy and sell Foundation Securities without immediately contacting all the members of the Investment Committee (all such actions would, of course, be ratified by the Committee at a later date) be adopted immediately if approved by Grand Lodge at the next annual communication on May 4, 1982.

Voted—To confirm and ratify all actions of the Investment Committee for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1982.

(4) Charles Crossland, Chairman of the Committee on Distribution, gave his usual fine report on the relief cases granted during the year, and was again commended by the Trustees for an outstanding job.

Voted—To accept the Report with appreciation.

(5) Voted—That the expense of carrying out the Charity Fund and handling the Distribution, including the salary of the Chairman of the Committee on Distribution, be paid out of the income of the fund, and that the salary of the Chairman be $3,000.00 plus travel and other expenses for the year ending March 31, 1982. The vote was unanimous.

(6) Voted—To authorize payments to the Grand Lodge for services rendered as follows:

- Toward the salary of the Grand Secretary - 5%
- Toward the salary of the Grand Treasurer - 70%
- Toward the salaries of the Office Staff - $500.00
- Toward the auditor's fee - 75% of Cost
- Toward the cost of Office Supplies - $300.00

(7) Voted—To donate $5,500.00 to the Masonic Service Association.

To donate $750.00 to the M.S.A. Agent at Togus.

To donate up to $500.00 to the Masters and Wardens Associations

To donate up to $750.00 for intervisitation at Togus with the Knights of Columbus.

(8) Voted—To donate $5,000.00 to the DeMolay and Pine Tree Youth Foundation.

(9) Voted—That the Investment Committee be authorized to transfer up to $75,000.00 to the Charity Fund from the Relief Fund as demands for Relief dictate.

(10) The Committee on Investment was elected as follows:

Chairman - Charles E. Crossland
Leon M. Sanborn
Harold L. Chute
Grand Master (Ex-officio)

(11) The Committee on Distribution was appointed as follows:

Chairman - Charles E. Crossland
Grand Master
Grand Secretary

(12) Charles E. Crossland brought the Trustees up to date on the preparation of the new Charity Brochure and suggested several methods of producing the Brochure. The consensus of the Trustees was to allow Charles to pick the method which he deemed best.

(13) No other business appearing, the meeting was adjourned at 5:45 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER C. SCHMIDT
Grand Secretary

MASONIC CALENDAR

Ancient Craft Masons commence this era with the creation of the world, calling it Anno Lucis (A.D.), "in the year of light."

Scottish Rite, same as Ancient Craft, except the Jewish chronology is used, Anno Mundi (A.M.), "in the year of the world."

Royal Arch Masons date from the year the second temple was commenced by Zerubbabel, Anno Inventionis (A.I.), "in the year of the discovery."

APPENDIX

Appendix 1982

To the Most Worshipful, the Grand Lodge of Maine, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons:

We submit, herewith, our Annual Report on Fraternal Relations, consisting of a FOREWORD, Special Reports, Recommendations, and Reviews.

FOREWORD

The "hue and cry" of today's Masonic World bemoans the decline in membership, and more particularly, the lack of interest and attendance at meetings - that we are competing with television and the many other distractions that occupy our time and priorities in this busy and troubled world. While all of these may have a measure of influence, the heart of Masonry has not ceased to continue its relentless efforts. It may require a temporary "pace-maker" at times, but it is not dead or dying. Our greatest cause for concern lies within the body of Masonry itself. We must re-examine and re-evaluate our own efforts to attract men to our lodges. What are we offering that will revitalize the spirit of Masonry - to give it the magnetic power and strength that it once had?

Freemasonry has withstood many a challenge over the centuries, but has survived because "it is founded upon eternal truths - its teachings are timeless and relevant to every age, and because it satisfies some of the deepest of human needs." It IS adaptable to changing times and conditions and can weather the storms of this latter 20th Century as it has on many other occasions, including peace and war, prosperity and depression. But this cannot be accomplished by resting upon the laurels of past generations. Like all institutions, it must re-sell itself over and over again if it is to maintain the respect and confidence of each new age, and this can be done without violating any of the traditional restrictions which characterize its uniqueness.

Leaders of the Craft, at every level, must recognize their responsibility to so impart the tenets of Masonry in such a way as to enrich the lives of men and contribute to their personal reward. This results from major factors within and without the lodge. First, it is imperative that the lessons of the three degrees be presented in a dignified and meaningful manner (reflecting the pride and singular purpose of the person so doing) - by availing ourselves of the several programs afforded by Grand Lodge, and, further, by following through, in conduct and character in daily living, as to be an example and inspiration worthy of emulation.

We must remember always that, notwithstanding the beauty and worthiness of further enlightenment and embellishment provided through advanced degrees and Orders, the foundation of Masonry is contained in the first three degrees commonly designated as the "Blue Lodge." Without an understanding of these basics, further advancement is but "building upon sand."

To quote our illustrious predecessor, M. W. Bro. Pollard: "So long as Freemasonry remains true to its own teachings, so long as it adheres with unflinching tenacity to the Ancient Landmarks of the Craft, so long as it maintains those high moral standards which have characterized it in the past, and so long as its members continue to shape their lives according to its teachings, so long and no longer will it continue to enjoy the respect and confidence of society as a whole. While it continues to enjoy such respect and confidence, there will be no shortage of candidates and no decline in the strength and influence of our great Fraternity." - to which this writer would add: "Let us emphasize 'quality' above 'quantity' and the quantity will take care of itself."

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,
For the Committee,

AUBREY L. BURBANK, P.G.M.
Chairman

Special ReportsSPECIAL REPORTS(a) BRAZIL

During the past year we have received requests for recognition from two Grand Lodges in Brazil, viz:

The Grand Lodge of the State of Goias, and The Grand Lodge of the State of Espirito Santo.

A thorough study, together with correspondence and particulars from both of these Grand Lodges, convinces your Committee that each of them are of legitimate origin - that they are in compliance with the traditional requirements of the Grand Lodge of Maine, and, in the opinion of your committee warrant recognition, and we so recommend.

A very recent and further request has been received from the Grand Lodge of Pernambuco, Brazil.

Time has not permitted the Committee to consider this request at this Annual Communication. It will thus lay over until the next Annual Communication.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

CHARLES R. GLASSMIRE
AUBREY L. BURBANK

CALIFORNIA, 1981

The One Hundred Thirty-second Annual Communication.

The Date: Oct. 12-15, 1981

The Place: San Francisco

Lodges, 635 Members, 193,134 Loss, 4,740

Research Lodges, 4 Members, 1,017 Gain, 96

The Grand Lodge having been raised by the Master and Wardens of Bixby Knolls Neptune Lodge, No. 699, and the roll of elected and appointed Officers having been called, the M. W. Douglas Lemons, Grand Master, opened the Grand Lodge in Ample form. A total attendance count revealed the presence of 2,764 Master Masons, consisting of 1,181 officers and representatives from 577 Lodges, 1,176 Past Masters, 334 Master Masons not members of the Grand Lodge, and 29 Distinguished Guests from other Grand Jurisdictions. All 28 Grand Lodge Officers were in attendance together with 15 Past Grand Masters and one Past Grand Officer.

Several of the 46 Gavels presented to the Grand Master during the year were used during the Communication. These gavels were presented at functions attended by the Grand Master, such as Cornerstone Ceremonies, Receptions, Anniversaries and various other occasions.

The traditional Memorial Service, Devotional and Necrology were the first order of this Annual Communication with the Grand Chaplain and other brethren officiating.

Distinguished Guests from 14 Grand Jurisdictions, including Italy and Czechoslovakia were received, welcomed and accorded appropriate honors, following which - the Grand Lodge being called on - Youth Group Representatives were received and invited to address the assemblage. Bro. Gene Autry was among those received and invited to address the brethren, as was the State Deputy, Knights of Columbus.

The tribute to the American Flag was delivered by the Junior Grand Deacon.

The Grand Master then delivered an eloquent message covering a record of his stewardship, together with Recommendations, Decisions, Visitations, etc., highlighting the "Widow's Program," the "Warden's Workshop" program, and involvement with Masonic Youth Groups. He noted the appointment of Bro. Robert A. Klinger to the office of Grand Secretary vacated by Bro. Verne Hendrix as announced last year.

Acting upon the Recommendations of the Grand Master, the first being that of a Committee to create and implement a program of Masonic education FOR NON-MASONS, the recommendation, with or without the creation of a new committee was adopted. The second recommendation dealt with advertising in Masonic Publications. Detailing possible legal ramifications and the maintenance of good will in the community, the Committee on Policy and General Purposes recommended a "NO" vote, but its having received a majority favorable vote, it is held over to the 1982 Communication. A 5/6 affirmative vote is required for passage. A third recommendation would establish a policy permitting future Grand Masters to arrange and sponsor self-supporting trips overseas such as was carried out this past year by their pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Since this would amend the law of Grand Lodge it would only require a majority vote. The Committee on Policy and General Purposes took the position that there are indeed risks involved to the Grand Lodge, citing the necessity of liability insurance, and the possibility of "grave consequences to the Grand Lodge in the event of disasters, injury, taking of hostages, or other events which could result in legal actions being taken against Grand Lodge, ending in financial disaster," that "This recommendation is fraught with grave responsibilities and for the future security of the Grand Lodge of California." Stating that "this type of activity is not consistent with the long established policies and general purposes of this Grand Lodge," and recommends non-approval. However, despite this Committee's admonition, the Recommendation was approved.

In the matter of Decisions, the Grand Master had ruled that "a lodge may pay the registration fee of a Masonic Advisor to a Chapter of the Order of DeMolay." Again, the Committee on Policy and General Purposes disagreed. Citing the authority for a Lodge's expenditure of funds, they interpreted this as unlawful, further citing the example that "a salary for a Lodge Treasurer has been held as improper" and similar restrictions, and thus recommended a "NO" vote. As in the previous instance, the Decision was approved. A second Decision had to do with the sale of Fireworks to the Public under the sponsorship of a Masonic Lodge. The Grand Master ruled against this practice, and his decision was upheld.

This Correspondent wishes to express his personal commendation to the Committee on Policy and General Purposes for their undaunted and prudent appraisal of Recommendations and Decisions, thus exemplifying their deep concern for preservation of law and policy in the future of California Masonry.

A long list of Ceremonial Communications and visitations by the Grand Master are listed as an appendix to his address, attesting to his dedication to the responsibility invested in him as Grand Master.

Dispensations issued or denied by the Grand Master, and Life Membership resolutions granted were approved with but 12 exceptions. The usual By-Law changes were submitted and approved with few exceptions of a technical nature. Trial records were reviewed and acted upon in the usual manner in compliance with Masonic Conduct.

It is interesting to note that to date, 31,713 Fifty-year Buttons have been issued, and 28 Seventy-five Year Buttons.

This Grand Lodge is to be commended for its fine work in the operation of its Masonic Home and its Home for Children.

A Special Commission to examine the Organizational Structure of the Grand Lodge submitted its Report in 1980, all but one of the proposals being now adopted. The one not having received a 5/6 affirmative vote, but a majority vote is thus held over for 1982, having to do with tenure of office of Committee, Board Members and Inspectors. A Proposal that would provide for a District Coach to be selected as "District Funeral Coach" failed to carry, while emphasis was retained in having the Officer's Coach and Inspector continue to certify capable brethren to conduct Funeral Services. A Proposal requiring proficiency examination in the M.M. Degree before signing the By-Laws failed to pass.

Bro. Robert O. West was installed as Grand Master, while Bro. Robert Klinger continues as Grand Secretary.

ENGLAND, 1981

The Date: April 29, 1981

The Place: Freemasons' Hall, London

ANNUAL INVESTITURE

Our Mother Grand Lodge continues to be an inspiration to us and to all the Masonic World.

Attendance at the above-mentioned "Investiture" included 1,046 Masters, Wardens and Past Masters, plus 431 Grand Officers (Grand Officers include Past Grand Officers of various Ranks) totaling 1,477 brethren from London and its Provincial and District Lodges.

The Grand Director of Ceremonies impressively proclaimed M. W. Bro. His Royal Highness Prince Edward, Duke of Kent, G.C.M.G., A.D.C., G.C.V.O., as Grand Master, by his several styles and titles.

In his Address, the M. W. Grand Master again made reference to the severe inflation of the past ten years, together with the sharp fall in living standards, despite which the Craft was able to give some 6¼ million pounds toward masonic charities. Speaking further on economics, he expressed great concern about the costs which the individual mason has to bear, other than lodge and charitable subscriptions, alluding to the non-necessity for "lavish wining and dining after every meeting," adding further that "brethren of limited means should not feel obliged to strain their family budgets in order to keep up this high level of conviviality." While emphasizing the continuance of high standards in their very extensive programs of masonic charitable institutions, the Grand Master states that such high standards "do not imply extravagance" reminding Grand Lodge that "there is a need to be on guard against waste" - in that the neglect of such principle could lead to running the "risk of having to curtail our charitable activities in the future -"

The returns of March 1981 showed 8,074 Lodges in 1980, including London, Provincial, District and Abroad, and that 17,640 Certificates were issued, 33 Warrants granted, and 2 erasures (Warrants surrendered) made.

R. W. Bro. Sir James Stubbs, having served as Grand Secretary with world-wide recognition and respect for more than 22 years, feeling the need to retire (on his 70th birthday), was replaced by V. W. Bro. Commander M. B. S. Higham. R. W. Bro. Sir John Stebbings, P.J.G.W. was congratulated on having received the honour of knighthood from H. M. The Queen.

Eleven distinguished guests were listed during the year, including three from Connecticut.

The Board of General Purposes reported that while so-called "small lotteries" are not objectionable, they still believe that objection to lottery tickets for Masonic charities for sale to general public remains, and that no form of lottery to supplement the income of the lodge be used.

Much emphasis is placed upon various avenues of assistance, including the elderly and youth.

We offer our congratulations to our Mother Grand Lodge for its accomplishments, and for the guidance and direction afforded us.

GEORGIA, 1981

The One Hundred Ninety-fifth Annual Communication.

The Date: October 27, 28, 1981

The Place: Macon

Lodges, 468 Members, 91,783 Loss, 1,532

The Grand Lodge was opened informally by M. W. Bro. William E. Hargraves for the purpose of receiving representatives of the City and County, together with the heads of DeMolay, Rainbow, Amaranth and Eastern Star, after which the Grand Master proceeded to convene the 195th Annual Communication in formal opening. Distinguished guests from 8 sister jurisdictions were then received, followed by recognition of Concordant Bodies. Thirteen Past Grand Masters were received, including our own Grand Representative of Maine, M. W. Bro. Dunaway.

In his message, the Grand Master lifts up the challenge for renewal and change, changing "what needs to be changed for the good of the Craft, and wherever it does destroy the fundamental tenets of our institution." He likewise lifts up the Masonic Home of Georgia as "The Heart of Georgia Masonry."

Twenty-five Emergent Communications were called for Cornerstone-Laying, Dedications, Installations and one funeral.

The Grand Master's visitations were many, including the usual National and Area Conferences.

The Grand Master issued 229 Dispensations and made six "Rulings", all of which were of a general nature and were approved by the Committee on Jurisprudence.

The statistical report of the Grand Secretary was of particular interest showing the largest lodge as having 1,106 members, and the smallest as having but 11 members. Of the three smallest lodges with memberships of 11, 13 and 17 respectively, the first two showed no change, while the third lost 3 members. The total loss this year of 1,532 was the largest since 1940, if not the largest ever. However, deaths exceeded the net loss by nearly 450 members, while suspensions exceeded net loss by 267 members.

Brother Horace L. Whitlock was elected and installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master. Bro. Carl F. Lester, Jr. was re-elected and installed as R. W. Grand Secretary.

IDAHO, 1981

The One Hundred Fourteenth Annual Communication.

The Date: September 17-19, 1981

The Place: Pocatello

Lodges, 83 Members, 11,193 Loss, 240

The Annual Communication having been opened in ceremonial form, previous to which the Mayor of the City had been introduced for the purpose of welcoming the assemblage, the first order of business was the reception and welcoming of thirteen Past Grand Masters with appropriate Grand Honors.

Following the reception of Grand Representatives, 50-yr. Masons, Worshipful Masters, and D.D.G.M.'s, the Grand Master proceeded to deliver his Report of stewardship and activity, first welcoming the brethren and Distinguished Guests from eleven Sister Jurisdictions and five Concordant Bodies, including the Sovereign Grand Inspector General of the Supreme Councils 33°, A.A.S.R. of Scotland.

The Grand Master listed his many visitations, including seven Grand Jurisdictions and the usual Conferences. Seventeen Dispensations of the usual nature were granted, while two were denied, both having to do with postponing or dispensing with Stated Meetings. Twenty-six By-Laws changes were approved, most relating to dues and fees. Three changes were disapproved, being in violation of the "Code." The "Code and Digest" requiring a Worshipful Master's Certificate of Proficiency in order for one to be elected to the office of Worshipful Master having been violated in one instance, it was the Grand Master's unpleasant duty to remove him from office and to hold a Special Communication to elect a qualified brother. Recommendations were made to effect continuation of current practices and to up-date informative files to be forwarded to the Grand Secretary's office. In his comments on the "State of the Craft," the Grand Master emphasized that one of the greatest problems within our lodges stems from our own ranks, being "apathy, indifference, lack of pride, lack of enthusiasm and leadership on the part of officers, and in some cases, even a disregard for our laws and principles -" He challenged the dissident lodges to attack and correct these deficiencies, and for those lodges which are unsalvageable to consider consolidation. He also reprimanded several Lodges for failure to be represented at Grand Lodge for periods of three to nine years.

The Committee on Jurisprudence approved all acts of the Grand Master.

Honorary Membership was conferred on the Distinguished Guests from Sister Jurisdictions.

Brother Lynn E. Cannon was elected as Grand Master for the year 1981-82. Brother Gifford R. Shaffer was continued as Grand Secretary.

NEW BRUNSWICK, 1980

The One Hundred Thirteenth Annual Communication.

The Date: May 9, 10, 1980

The Place: St. John

Lodges, 49 Members, 7,594 Loss, 59

Prior to the date of the Annual Communication, an Especial Communication had been called on September 29, 1979 for the purpose of acting upon a motion to revise the Per Capita Tax from two to five dollars, the motion being carried by a large majority. What makes this meeting noteworthy is that it, being called at mid-year, yet attracted 150 voting members from 37 lodges, 31 of which were outside the city of St. John.

The Annual Communication was opened by the M. W. Clarence F. Carter, Grand Master, with 23 Grand Officers, 11 Distinguished Guests from nine sister Jurisdictions, including our own Grand Master of Maine, plus 7 Concordant Bodies, and officers from 46 Lodges in New Brunswick.

The Service of Worship and Thanksgiving was conducted by the Grand Chaplain, after which the Grand Lodge was recessed until the following morning.

The morning session began with the Grand Master's Address, giving account of his stewardship. 109 visitations were made including each of the Lodges in New Brunswick, and eight sister Jurisdictions, plus the Conference of Grand Masters of North America.

The Grand Master's Address and those of the D.D.G.M.'s reflect the State of the Order to be active and productive despite losses by suspensions (N.P.D.) and demits.

The appointed hour having arrived, the Annual election of Grand Officers was held with M. W. Bro. Carter being re-elected as Grand Master.

M. W. Bro. M. W. Dalton continues as Grand Secretary.

VIRGINIA, 1981

The Two Hundred Third Grand Annual Communication.

The Date: February 9-11, 1981

The Place: Richmond

The Grand Lodge being called up by the Worshipful Master of Mount Vernon Lodge, No. 219, the Most Worshipful Brother Charles E. Wallace, Grand Master, and the R. W. Deputy Grand Master were escorted to the Grand East, after which the Colors were presented by the Legion of Honor of Kena Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S., escorted by the Scottish Pipers of Kena Temple. Following the Pledge of Allegiance and singing of our National Anthem, the Grand Master extended a generous welcome to his distinguished guests and brethren. Eight leaders of 5 Appendant Bodies were recognized and greeted. Approximately 30 members of the Youth Organizations were asked to stand and be recognized. The Award of Excellence was awarded to Non-Mason, Mr. John J. Bannister, Grand Lodge Headquarters Building Superintendent after which the non-Mason guests were retired, and Grand Lodge opened in Ample Form.

The first order of business was the Grand Master's Address. Acknowledging the support and many kindnesses afforded him during the past year, he made three references to the "Clarion call to service," using the initials "P.M.A.", the first reference being Precious Minutes Accumulated, alluding to brevity in word and action; secondly, Progressive Masonic Accomplishments, outlined as Promotion of Charity, Motivating the Craft toward Self-Improvement, Attracting Others to Freemasonry by example, and lastly, Positive Masonic Action in many areas of endeavor.

Speaking of the State of the Craft, he described it as alive and thriving, accentuating the involvement of the many young men in accepting the responsibility of holding office in their several lodges.

A clarification of the tax-exempt status of the Scholarship fund was issued in accordance with Resolution 80-20.

A special plaque was prepared recognizing a Brother who was numbered among the hostages held in Iran for 444 days.

The remainder of the Address dealt with visitations, Dedications and Consecrations, Certificates of Merit and Appreciation, Dispensations and Decisions and Reports of the several Committees. The Past Grand Masters, having reviewed the Grand Master's Address, concurred with his actions, closing their Report by interpolating one letter in his slogan (P.M.A.); that being the letter "G" so that it would be P."G."M.A. signifying "Past Grand Masters Agree" that his service has been a credit to the fraternity.

Two lodges surrendered their charters, while 4 were listed as presently operating under dispensation (U.D.).

The passing of one Past Grand Master, M. W. Bro. Julian C. Roden, was noted and memorialized.

Upon opening the second session on Monday evening, the Distinguished Guests from 16 Grand Jurisdictions, plus six Appendant Bodies were received and accorded the customary Grand Honors. Eighteen Past Grand Masters were presented and welcomed accordingly, as were the D.D.G.M.'s, W.M.'s, and visiting brethren. Responses were made in each instance.

The appointed hour having arrived, the election of Grand Lodge Officers was held with R. W. Bro. Spencer M. Rogers being elected Most Worshippful Grand Master and M. W. Bro. John P. Stokes reelected Grand Secretary.

Resolutions acted upon:

- 81-01 Requirement of proficiency Examination or waiting period of one year before petitioning any appendant body in Freemasonry - REJECTED

ANNUAL ADDRESS

GRAND MASTER, C. ROSS BUZZELL

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Maine:

A complete year has passed since you showed your confidence in me by electing me Grand Master of this Grand Jurisdiction. It is my sincere hope that your trust has not been betrayed. If ever a Grand Master has had reason to believe that the Grand Architect above has led him through the year, it is this one and you can realize just how thankful and humble I truly feel.

It is indeed a pleasure to welcome all the Brethren to this 164th Annual Communication of your Grand Lodge. Many are participating with us for the first time and we are grateful for your presence. Others are old pros and it is a privilege to enjoy renewed acquaintances and good fellowship. May this Annual Communication be endowed with wisdom and understanding that grants us that spirit of Brotherly Love and Peace, carrying us through with Harmony prevailing.

Distinguished Guests

I extend a most cordial welcome to all our Guests from Sister Jurisdictions and the leaders of our Appendant Bodies in this Grand Jurisdiction. Your Grand Master and his representatives have received the finest hospitality and have been entertained most graciously by them and now take great pleasure in being able to reciprocate. Distinguished Brethren, you will do us much honor by accepting our hearty welcome and when you must leave us to return to your own jurisdictions, take with you the sincere best wishes of the Brethren of the Grand Lodge of Maine.

Fellowship Night

On March 26, 1983, fourteen brave and faithful brethren traveled to Worcester, Massachusetts to enjoy the second Annual Fellowship Night of New England, in the beautiful Masonic Temple of that city. Though many Masonic events were taking place that evening, we felt lucky to have the representation that this worthwhile event deserves. If the Grand Masters in other jurisdictions had the encouraging comments presented to them that I received, I am sure that the prospects of future New England Fellowships will be cemented. The Grand Master of the State of Connecticut will host the meeting in 1984, and many of our brethren are talking about plans for that delightful evening of Fellowship.

Necrology

As it has been since time began, many of our brethren have laid down their working tools and we mourn their loss. The past year has seen 897 of our Brethren depart from our midst and join the Eternal Lodge governed by the Supreme Architect of the Universe. Among that number is our Past Senior Grand Warden, R. W. William Arden Levensalor; our Past Junior Grand Wardens, R. W. John Stanton Turner and R. W. Clarence L. Todd and our present District Deputy Grand Master, R. W. George W. Terry. Though we mourn the loss of these dedicated Brethren, we also rejoice and give thanks for the lives of these Brethren, who have given so much inspiration in our daily labors. Shall we stand in a moment of silent prayer . . . Amen.

District Meetings

24 District Meetings were set up this year and with the assistance of the Grand Architect, I was able to attend them all. Several Districts which had shown a lack of interest and spirit have rebounded and are indeed a credit to this Grand Lodge. The attendance at nearly all District meetings have proven the hard work and dedication of the District Deputies. Many of these meetings have produced much interest in the educational field as presented by our Grand Secretary and the District Representatives. Each elected Grand Lodge Officer has had the opportunity to speak on related Masonic subjects at these meetings and it is my belief that the Districts have benefited by the visitations of Grand Lodge Officers. The Grand Marshal has been in charge of attendance sheets, listing lodges, lodge officers, Brethren and Grand Lodge Suite; also listing the percentage of Lodge Brethren and District Brethren actively present. As it has been my contention that we have a nucleus of ten percent Masons and ninety percent members, it has been interesting to note these percentages. Three percent would come closer to the actual figure.

Masonic Education Committee

As our Masonic Education so closely ties in with the District Meetings, they could very easily be mistaken as one. As this statement certainly needs clarification, I will start by saying that the ten percent Masons referred to could very well become a much higher figure if the endeavors of the Chairman, R. W. Bro. Walter Macdougall are endorsed by all the Districts. At the start of this year, I maintained that a lack of education on the candidates and newly made Master Masons were the main reasons for the sagging interest in all our Lodges. As this program is starting to take root, those Lodges which have acted as Pilot Lodges show an increase in interest and a desire for advanced education. The Committee has worked diligently and faithfully determined to sell this program, which they believe in, to the Brethren and Lodge Officers. I thank the members of this Committee and ask them to pledge themselves to renewed efforts the coming year.

Grand Master's Conference

It has been my privilege to attend both the Northeast Conference of Grand Masters, held at Massachusetts, and the Conference of Grand Masters of North America at Dallas, Texas. As these conferences differ in many aspects, it is difficult to associate them as the same thing. It is a tremendously great thrill to meet Grand Masters from every state in the Union except Hawaii, but it does not have the personal closeness that we here in the Northeast have. What may be good in the West, does not necessarily mean will be good in the East, or what may work in the North may not work in the South. Still I would hesitate to not attend the North American Conference as we still learn the many ills of Masonry and the many assets each Grand Jurisdiction enjoys. Next year the North American Conference will be held at Seattle, Washington. A great expense to all Grand Lodges on the East and Southeastern shores, but the Western States maintain it is only fair that we should share the expense. It makes one wonder how much longer any of our Jurisdictions will be able to afford the luxury of sending representatives all over the United States.

Grand Lodge Tours

The Grand Lodge has sponsored two Tours this year, both of which the Grand Master was able to accompany. The September Tour to the beautiful Hawaiian Island of Oahu saw fifty strong enjoying the trade winds and natural beauty of our fiftieth State. The comments of the Hotel management, employees and the Tour Guides, on the quality and friendliness of the Maine people, were most certainly heartwarming to this Grand Master and filled him with much pride for his State. March 16th saw our good Masonic Tour Agent, Brother Tobey Andersen, depart for Rio de Janeiro with 110 vacationers and though this is the fall season in Brazil, the first day saw 102° in the shade, then it rained for 5 days. A side trip to the New City and Capital Brasilia was enjoyed by eighteen, including two of our Past Grand Masters, where we saw what we considered much of our American money at work. The cleanest city perhaps in the entire world and composed of two million people. I was extremely pleased to see a Masonic Lodge of which I went in and inspected and came home with a story to tell of its beauty only to learn it is not a Maine recognized Lodge. One would never know by viewing its interior as it had all the working tools and did have the Holy Bible on the Altar. The Master happened to be there and acted as though he was entertaining American Dignitaries.

Grand Lodge Charity

Once again, through the leadership of our compassionate Past Grand Master and Chairman of the Charity Committee, M. W. Charles E. Crossland, we have set a new record with the expenditure for all charity of over $130,000.00. It would seem that through the good advice and the will of the Grand Lodge, our Investment Brokers have increased the charity fund to the point where more deserving Brethren and Masonic Families have received assistance whereby they may maintain their independence and pride. If ever a Mason deserves to meet and sit down with the Grand Architect, it will be M. W. Brother Crossland.

Dispensations and Bylaw Changes

Many dispensations and bylaw changes have been submitted, some of which have been sent back for revision, others are routine. These will be listed under separate headings and printed in the proceedings.

Togus Visitation

On October 10, 1982, the Grand Lodge of Maine was represented at the Annual Togus Visitation by the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Junior Grand Warden, Grand Secretary, one Past Junior Grand Warden, 7 District Deputies and 3 Past District Deputies; the Worshipful Grand Marshal, one Grand Steward, two Brothers, and Rev. and Bro. Robert Burbank, Togus Protestant Chaplain. We were met by Brother Rodney Pearl, the Masonic Service Association Hospital Visitor, and conducted to the hospital wards to visit with Brethren who were unable to attend the Chapel Service. The Brethren from the 11th and 14th Districts assist Brother Pearl in the wheel chair brigade the entire year.

Schools of Instruction

Under the supervision of our very capable Grand Lecturer, R. W. N. James Coolong, and his assistant Grand Lecturers, we have once again acquitted ourselves with honor. My congratulations go out to these distinguished, hard-working Grand Officers who have traveled many miles to bring instruction to all the Districts in Maine. Several have had to hold special classes under the directions of the Grand Master to upgrade areas that have shown a particular need for Lodge and Degree instruction. Experience has shown that without Grand Lecturers and Schools of Instruction our Lodges and our Ritual would suffer indignities that years could not efface. With this thought in mind, we owe much to our dedicated educators.

Outreach Program

This program is so closely interwoven with our Special Ladies Night it could well be considered one. Our Junior Grand Warden had used this theme at all our District Meetings the past year and has been well received from one end of the State to the other. It is so important that we do not forget our elderly Brethren or our shutins or the sick and hospitalized. An example of this philosophy was demonstrated at the visitation at Togus where Brethren lay in bed for days seeing only the Masonic Hospital Representative. Our obligation demands that we stretch forth a helping hand and it is the will of this Grand Lodge that we live up to our Moral Obligations.

Youth Groups

Enough cannot be said about our youth groups who, through their respect for the Masonic Fraternity, Fathers, Mothers, Family and Mankind in general, have proven to us that they are ready to take their place in this world and in the tomorrows ready to be the leaders of our communities and our country. I had the privilege to attend a joint Assembly of Maine Rainbow Girls and Connecticut Rainbow Girls and was highly impressed with the companionship shown between these two Jurisdictions. It has been my pleasure to attend several DeMolay meetings the past year and feel that I am accepted as one of them. The fellowship is really no different than in your own Lodges and it is a delight to visit with them. I pray that we may ever continue our support for these wonderful youth groups.

Grand Lodge Team

Masonry in Maine should be proud of the Team which has worked so well this past year and I for one am proud to be one of them. They were instructed at the beginning of the year that there were no easy honorary jobs in Grand Lodge. All officers from the Grand Master to the Tyler were working officers and they have labored well. Special mention must go to the Office of Grand Secretary where we have two of the most dedicated Ladies one could hope to have. Without these girls this Grand Master would not have gotten half way through the year. It would be unthinkable to not mention our Grand Secretary who has brought new methods into our Office and has things organized so that they may be found at a moment's notice. He has sent out notices that the Secretary's Office is your office and you are welcome to come in and use it.

The Elected Grand Lodge Officers have been very much a credit to Maine Masonry, many of them traveling from Caribou to Kittery in support of their Grand Master and for this I am truly grateful. It has long been known that our District Deputies have been the work horses so to speak and take a back seat in the credit department. My thanks to those who have finished their term and to those who have another year, you have just started, and yet I am equally proud of you.

Conclusion

This report sums up the stewardship of my first year. If there has been a portion of this year when Masonry may have suffered for the need of attention, I apologize, and vow that the next year will see a healthy and vigorous leader. On many occasions during the past year I have called on our distinguished Past Grand Masters for their counsel and have readily received it and thus shall it be in the future.

I guess I would be remiss if I did not thank the one person, my wife, Ruth, who many times drove me to meetings when I was not able to.

Fraternally submitted,

C. ROSS BUZZELL
Grand Master

REPORT OF ACCOUNTANTS AND AUDITORS

April Twenty Nine
1983

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master, C. Ross Buzzell, of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.:

We have examined the statements of assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M. at March 31, 1983, and the related statements of operating receipts, disbursements and changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As is more fully described in Note 1 to these statements, the Grand Lodge's policy is to prepare the aforementioned statements on the basis of cash revenue and cash expenditures. Accordingly, these statements are not intended to and do not present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly the assets and liabilities of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M. at March 31, 1983, arising from cash transactions, and the operating receipts, disbursements and changes in fund balances for the year then ended on a consistent basis.

FINANCE

M. W. M. Donald Gardner, for the Committee on Finance, presented the following report, which was accepted and the recommendations were adopted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 1983

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Your Committee on Finance submits the following report:

The report of the Grand Treasurer as to receipts and disbursements of the several Grand Lodge Funds has been checked and we find the same in accord with the auditor's report.

We have examined the reports of the Grand Secretary and find the same properly kept. We commend the Grand Secretary for his accomplishments in his first year in the office. He has made a complete inventory of the office, the first ever. For the first time an index and catalogue of all forms and documents has been prepared. All incoming correspondence has been recorded and all outgoing mail has been serialized. The office is extremely well organized.

The bank books and securities in the hands of R. W. Brother Bruce S. Tornquist, the Grand Treasurer, have been examined and checked by M. W. M. Donald Gardner, member of the Finance Committee; Brother Charles Munson, of the Auditing Firm of Berry, Fowles & Co.; and R. W. Brother Bruce S. Tornquist, Grand Treasurer, and report the same properly accounted for.

We recommend that the report of the Grand Treasurer and the Auditor be accepted and spread in full upon the records of this Annual Communication.

GRAND SECRETARY

The Grand Secretary's report was presented, accepted and referred to the Committee on Doings of Grand Officers.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 1983

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

As a neophyte in this world of Grand Lodge Masonic communication, a framed paragraph adorning a wall of the Grand Lodge Office clearly delineates a philosophy that is difficult to refute. It defines the prime requisite of a Grand Secretary and as such, merits attention.

The information hidden in paperwork becomes the memory of an organization and it is from this memory that summaries in the form of plans get formulated and that execution of the plans get documented.

The larger the organization the greater the need for a flow of information, outside in, laterally from within, downward, upward, inside out.

"Each increase in the control gap between Grand Lodge and individual lodges aggravates the need for communicating information."

This philosophy, or whatever it may be entitled, encouraged several recommended office changes. Thus at this point, I acknowledge the patience, dedication, acquiescence, fortitude, etc. of our two Assistant Secretaries and Grand Treasurer. To them I am indebted. The inconvenience, the "yard sale" appearance and condition of our renovations and the need of educating this 'new' Grand Secretary, who had been unceremoniously thrust upon them must have prompted some anxious moments. However our muttered phrase, "We'll get 'em" has become an enthusiastic good-natured password. So mote it be!

Buoyed by the confidence and cooperation of the Finance Committee, the Grand Lodge Office was blessed by the purchase of two electronic typewriters and an up-to-date copier.

Office procedural and physical changes (the latter authorized by the trustees and completed) are well under way. Supplies, forms, correspondence, etc. have been inventoried; storage allocated, and locator lists prepared for ready reference and restocking. Hanging folders have been installed in all file cases. Historical data is being removed, stored, and will be microfilmed for rapid retrieval. Incoming correspondence is logged, while outgoing is serialized for permanent accountability and microfilming (each year). Forms are being reviewed for possible elimination, necessary revision, standardization, etc. It should be noted that our monthly Newsletter to Lodge Secretaries has prompted many constructive suggestions. Comparable forms utilized by other Jurisdictions have been timely and helpful.

Procedures and equipments are being analyzed and evaluated prior to a computer installation purchase. Specifically, the design of software that will encompass all selected data required for the daily and annual administration of Grand Lodge functions and Lodge services. Elements deemed essential for inclusion, at this point in time, remain; continual, expeditious updating of the Maine Mason computer tapes; Special Ladies, Care & Share, Grand Lodge Service pins and medals, etc. The potential is great.

However, it behooves us to proceed slowly, the M.S.A. and several Grand Jurisdictions have alerted us to "pit-falls" that they have experienced and to the ever changing and cost reduction of the present computer "State of the Art".

The enthusiasm, cooperation at all levels is encouraging, deeply appreciated by our staff, and again "We'll get 'em".

Sincerely and fraternally submitted,

E. V. GEORGE
Grand Secretary

GRAND LECTURER

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 1983

To the M. W. Grand Master, Officers and Brethren of the M. W. Grand Lodge of Maine:

We hear much these days about leadership. Certainly any able leader will make plans, set goals and objectives, implement the plan, provide an evaluation period and modify the strategy where necessary. This annual report is an appropriate place to review and relate to you, Most Worshipful, and to the members of this Grand Lodge, some of the efforts made to transmit a more nearly correct knowledge of the ritual among the 202 lodges of this Grand Jurisdiction during the past Masonic year.

In accordance with the Constitution and your desires, seventy-five ritualistic schools of instruction were conducted, three in each of the twenty-five districts by the Grand Lecturer and six assistants: V. W. John E. Gray, R. W. Brothers Winfield L. Libby, William A. Oliver, S. Clyde Ross, Arno N. Day, and Reginald W. Wing. R. W. Bro. Arno Day and Winfield Libby were new to the Assistant Grand Lecturers staff this year, having been appointed May 5, 1982. This Grand Lodge is fortunate to have the benefit of the dedication these brethren bring to their office. Each has traveled many miles and given much to the Craft.

C. H. Claudy wrote this regarding the Masonic ritual: "Truth may be taught without ritual, but truth by ritual is always taught as the original teachers desired, and makes a lasting impression on the mind of the learner." If we are to make a deep, lasting impression on the minds of our candidates, it is important - yes, essential, that the ritual be learned accurately, and that we as officers of our lodges, develop an expertise with its rendition.

To be a Mason in the fullest and most complete sense requires that we teach by our dealings with mankind those virtues of charity, of kindness, of tolerance which the ritual "so forcefully inculcates by precept and by symbol". This brings to our attention still another great objective that can and will be attained through the study and use of our Masonic Ritual.

Under the direction and in accordance with the wishes of the Most Worshipful Grand Master, three ritualistic schools of instruction, one in each of the three degrees, were scheduled and held in each of the Districts of this Grand Jurisdiction.

Tabulation of Schools

Following is the tabulation of the registrations at the various District Schools of Instruction: The numbers in parentheses indicate the number of lodges from the district in attendance at the particular school. The right most % column indicates the percentage of officer attendance at the three ritualistic schools from that district.

General Summary

Total registration	2954
Total number of officers in attendance	2252
Percentage of officer attendance at schools	37.2
Total numbers of members present (non-officers)	702
Number of lodges represented at schools of instruction	193
Number of lodges at E.A.° schools	168
Number of lodges at F.C.° schools	170
Number of lodges at M.M.° schools	179
Number of lodges not represented by officers at any school of instruction	9

Last year three lodges failed to be represented at schools by a single officer; the previous year six were not represented. I must report that this year nine lodges failed to send a single officer to any of the three ritualistic schools of instruction held in this Grand Jurisdiction. When a brother is elected or appointed to an office of his lodge, he assumes special responsibilities, one being to learn the ritual of three degrees of Ancient Craft Masonry accurately, to learn it well, and to learn the methods of effectively presenting these degrees to the candidates of their lodges. A tabulation of those lodges is as follows:

District	Lodge	No.
1	Fort Kent	209
8	Liberty	111
9	Moses Webster	145

16	Mt. Tir'em	132
18	Freedom	42
18	Arion	162
20	Oriental Star	21
21	Winter Harbor	192
23	Rabboni	150

The percentage of officer attendance at all schools ranges from 22.8 in District 21 to 56 percent in District 6. Far better than average attendance was recorded by Districts: 6, 10, 14, 17A and 17B and we commend the officers in those districts for dedication and their fine record. Both Districts 17A and 17B have perfect records, having been represented by all their lodges at each school of instruction.

The success of these schools depends on the work, interest, and effort of many brethren. We express special thanks to the Deputies for sending the cards notifying officers of the schools, and to all those who help in any way to make them successful.

District Educational Meetings

In addition to three ritual schools in each district, the Grand Lecturer and Assistants have planned a fourth school of Masonic Education. These non-ritualistic schools provide the opportunity to discuss a wide range of topics, directed not only to officers, but the brethren in general and devoted to topics of general interest and information. The agenda for this year's program was prepared and outlines were provided by your Grand Lecturer. Each Assistant Grand Lecturer had some latitude with the topics and was assisted by the District Representative to the Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service, and other brethren from the various Districts which they arranged. This year the topics were as follows:

- A. Service to the Lodge
 - 1. You Recommended Him - Know Your Responsibilities
 - 2. The Committee of Inquiry - Its Duties and Responsibilities
- B. Masonic Protocol - Balloting and the Ballot Procedure
- C. Reception of Masonic Visitors
 - 1. The Grand Master and His Suite
 - 2. The District Deputy at Official Inspection
- D. Master Mason and New Candidate Instruction
- E. A Masonic Short Talk - History, Philosophy or Symbolism

These District Educational Meetings were well received by the brethren and generated many questions and much discussion. Hopefully they were of interest and provided, as M. W. Brother Conrad Hahn would have said, "good and wholesome instruction".

Table Lodges

Dispensations have been granted to twelve (12) lodges during the year for holding Table Lodges. In compliance with my duties, I have appointed a Grand Lodge Representative to attend each. This year I have also sent a letter to each lodge informing them of the Grand Lodge Representative, encouraging them to include him on their printed programs, and provide appropriate time for him to bring official greetings from the Grand Master and M. W. Grand Lodge of Maine. Reports from these Grand Lodge Representatives indicate that the Table Lodges are being conducted according to the Ritual and the brethren enjoy the festive fellowship.

"Degree Teams"

There were ten (10) authorized Degree Teams functioning within the state the past year. Following the policy established in 1960 that any and all "Team-Degrees" must have the approval of the Grand Lecturer, and further such approval must be renewed each year, the permits have been granted for May, 1982 to May 4, 1983. A few requests have come from groups apparently unwilling to attend a school of instruction for the degrees, or demonstrate the rendition at a full rehearsal, or groups having only a very few members present at a school of instruction; these I have not authorized to work. The degree teams which were granted approval have done excellent work and have provided a model of excellence for many lodges. The teams promote the spirit and benefit of visitation. We offer sincere appreciation and thanks. A list of the approved Teams is as follows:

Maine State Police Degree Team
Anah Temple Highlanders
Maine Air National Guard
Kora Kraftsmen Club
York County Shrine Club Degree Team
Brothers In Work (B.I.W.)
Boise Cascade Degree Team
New England Telephone Degree Team
Maine Department of Transportation (Bangor)
Maine Forest Service Degree Team

Assistant Grand Lecturers

Your Grand Lecturer has met with the Assistants in three (3) work sessions during the year. These have proved helpful and insure that our presentation is consistent and that uniformity of the ritual is preserved. To the Assistant Grand Lecturers, my sincere appreciation and thanks for their excellent work, dedication to the Craft, and total cooperation and helpfulness to me.

Conclusion

It is a distinct pleasure to express my sincere appreciation to all who have contributed to the success of our schools of instruction. I sincerely hope the schools have been helpful in promoting the spirit of Masonry as well as in the improvement of ritual rendition. Ritual proficiency is indeed important, but sincerity and decorum are equally so, and the officer who combines all three has a real contribution to make to the fraternity.

We offer our appreciation and thanks to the District Deputies for promoting the schools and the constant encouragement they have given the lodges. Without their dedication and effort we would not have been nearly as successful.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master - my deep thanks for faith and trust you have placed in me. I sincerely appreciate the opportunity to work within the Craft. It has been my pleasure and privilege to serve my brethren and The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine.

N. JAMES COOLONG

DOINGS OF GRAND OFFICERS

M. W. Roger I. White, for the Committee on Doings of Grand Officers, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 1983

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Your Committee on Doings of Grand Officers have given careful consideration to the address of the Grand Master and to all other reports of officers which have been presented to them.

Our Grand Master has had a very busy and successful year and we congratulate him on the performance of his duties. He has been very just and firm in his convictions, having the welfare of the Craft always foremost in his mind in making decisions.

The opportunity for the elected Grand Officers to participate and have a part in the programs at the twenty-four District Meetings has afforded them the privilege of meeting and making many new Masonic friends.

We recommend that the portion of the report of the Grand Master dealing with the Condition of the Fraternity and the reports of the Deputy Grand Master, Grand Wardens, District Deputy Grand Masters and the Grand Lecturer, be referred to the Committee on Condition of the Fraternity.

We recommend that the portion of the Grand Master's address dealing with dispensations be referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence.

We commend our new Grand Secretary for his careful attention and dedication to the duties of his office for his first full year of service.

The successful conduct of the business of Grand Lodge is very dependent on the careful management of our funds by our Grand Treasurer and the proper recording of all events by our Grand Secretary and his assistants in the Grand Lodge office.

DeMOLAY

M. W. Brother Harold L. Chute read the following report from Brother Melvin W. Morgan, Executive Officer in Maine for DeMolay, which was accepted.

April 29, 1983

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

During calendar year 1982 the Order of DeMolay in Maine continued to do well membershipwise. We won easily over Connecticut in our Jurisdictional Membership pairing contest. A new chapter has been started in Buxton through the efforts of the brothers of Buxton Lodge No. 115 A.F. & A.M. Also Springvale Lodge No. 190 A.F. & A.M. has requested Letters Temporary to start a new chapter in Springvale. The Master of Mechanic Lodge No. 66 A.F. & A.M. has been working hard to reactivate the Orono Chapter.

Two important changes in my state staff have been made. In June R. W. Robert G. W. Lobley was appointed Northern Governor replacing William Shaw and Raymond F. Naugler was appointed State Treasurer replacing Robert Drinkwater.

The annual DeMolay Conclave was held on June 25, 26 and 27 in Lewiston on the campus of Bates College. State officers for 1982-1983 were elected as follows: State Master Councilor, Steven K. Ferris; Deputy State Master Councilor, Wayne A. Lobley; State Senior Councilor, Mark E. Ryder; and State Junior Councilor, Richard Kaprise.

October 9 the 11th Annual Honors and Awards Night was held in Freeport. Lendon C. Jackson and George F. Peabody received the Legion of Honor with the work performed by T. Nelson Harmon and his team. The Chevalier Degree was conferred on Stephen C. Spencer and two advisors, Ernest W. Ryder and Gerald A. Spencer, were invested with the Cross of Honor.

A state membership class was held in honor of M. W. C. Ross Buzzell on February 26 to recognize his strong support of DeMolay.

Other state events that took place during the year were a softball tournament, Shrine field day, congress, sweetheart pageant, and basketball tournament.

This has been a difficult year for me personally but through the tremendous help I have received from DeMolay workers, DeMolay in Maine continues to move forward. My special thanks to M. W. Harold L. Chute, Clyde L. Ferris and Robert Lobley for their effort in behalf of DeMolay in Maine.

MASONIC EDUCATION AND LODGE SERVICE

R. W. Walter M. Macdougall, for the Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service, presented the following report which was accepted.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The scope of endeavors in behalf of the Craft entrusted to the Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service has continued to enlarge. In order to accomplish the task, the development of each phase of the committee's program has been entrusted to a committee member or to several members with the exception of the revised program for candidate and new master mason education. In this latter endeavor, all committee members have participated.

A resume of the activities for the year under each endeavor of the committee is given below:

A. Instructional Program for Candidates and New Master Masons

The goal of this endeavor is to extend the scope of our excellent Pollard Plan and to develop a program of individualized instruction which will assure that all candidates and new master masons have an opportunity to discover the meaning of Freemasonry in their own lives.

An extensive pilot program has been initiated during the past two years which includes the draft preparation of an Instructor's Manual, formulation of a format for delivery, the creation of supportive materials, the establishment of pilot lodges, and the development of training sessions for District Representatives and lodge instructors.

Approximately seventy-five copies of the drafted Instructor's Manuals have been distributed to Grand Lodge Officers and those taking part in the program. Through the efforts of the District Representatives, twenty pilot lodges have been established to field-test the program and to provide feed-back for revisions. These pilot lodges are either functioning as independent units or in cooperation with other pilot lodges within their district. In the fifth district the officers association is sponsoring a team effort in performing a modified "Fourth Night Program." Similar cooperation of officer associations with pilot programs is being evidenced in other districts.

The committee has conducted a series of seminars beginning with the general session for District Representatives held as part of Grand Lodge Officers School. This session was followed by six area seminars conducted by members of the committee for introduction of the candidate and new master mason educational program to District Representatives and District Deputy Grand Masters. This spring two area seminars were held for the benefit of Lodge coordinators and instructors. The seminar held at Polar Star Lodge in Bath was attended by fifty-five masonic educators. Particularly noteworthy was the number of educators led by District Representative Stephen Kemp whose delegation of nineteen matched the number of their district. The seminar held at Star in the East Lodge in Old Town had an attendance of forty-five.

Support materials designed and distributed by the committee include supplementary sheets for use by instructors, hand-out sheets for candidates, the "Fourth Night Program", suggestions for the formation of pilot lodges and the choice of instructors, outline for explanatory talk on our revised educational program, and "The Point Within The Circle" - a focus on masonic educational methods and goals.

The committee has been greatly assisted in all its efforts to improve educational opportunities for candidates and new master masons by Most Worshipful C. Ross Buzzell who has attended all our committee functions and who has dedicated a part of his district meetings to the dissemination of the program's purpose and format.

In all these endeavors and through the united effort of the committee members, the Grand Master, the District Representatives, the District Deputy Grand Masters, and the lodge instructors we have made a good start. The future of the educational endeavor lies in the continued development of pilot lodges, the support given these lodges, and the utilization of data and experience gained through our preliminary efforts.

B. Advanced Masonic Education

The need for a program of advanced masonic studies has been realized by the committee for several years. The development of this phase of our endeavors has been delegated to R. W. Brother Ernest Curtis, and certainly no man on the committee is more qualified to bring this project to fruition. R. W. Brother Ernest has developed a program consisting of seminars and discussion groups which will focus on such topics as masonic philosophy, masonic history, lodge leadership, and masonic jurisprudence. Participation in this program might well lead to the granting of a Certificate in Masonic Studies. We are looking forward to seeing this program in action during the coming year.

C. Lodge Service

R. W. Brothers Edwin George and Peter Schmidt have undertaken the leadership in this important function of the Committee.

As a part of this endeavor, R. W. Brother Edwin has developed a manual entitled "Masonry In Action - a team concept." This manual provides a systematic format for dividing duties and for establishing an organization within a lodge which assures that the lodge will be vitally alive and active. A draft of this manual is now available to the District Representatives, and, through them, copies will be made available to the masters of lodges. The long term impact of this plan will be of fundamental importance in the task of putting masons to labor for the good of society and the Craft.

Of major importance are the Outreach Programs (Care and Share along with the Widows Program) have continued to grow under the direction of R. W. Brothers Edwin and Peter.

Our Special Ladies program continues to expand and the "Special Nights" prepared for this honored segment of our "Masonic Family" continue to flourish throughout the State. From no record whatsoever, we now have the names, addresses and many birthdays of nearly 8,000 of our Special Ladies. We have presented nearly 4,000 of our Broken Column lapel pins and certificates. Lodges still scan and search for sojourning "Special Ladies" within or without our State. Several of our sister jurisdictions forward the names of their brethren now living within ours. The rapport between Grand Secretaries is unbelievable and much respected.

A.T.T. take note our masonic communication network is improving rapidly: Connecticut, Florida, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, etc. have actively participated in our recent assistance program.

Organizationally our Deputy Grand Master and Grand Wardens provide continued support as chairman and regional assistants. Letters still arrive thanking lodges for the many appreciative tasks and errands. How about the Lodge that purchased smoke alarms for their Ladies, then had the fire department install them—"and the beat goes on".

The Care and Share program, specifically our shut-ins, are still being identified and located. The letters alerting our Grand Lodge Office of the situations of many of our own and sojourning members are heartwarming indeed, and a visible sign of increased concern. Our dedicated brethren doing yeoman work in visiting are providing the public image of what masonry stands for. The ranks of these unsung masons are beginning to increase. That Sleeping Giant is beginning to stir. So mote it be.

D. Youth Support

The program for direct support of DeMolay and the indirect support of Rainbow Assemblies has been ably led by R. W. Brother Wilbur Loveitt. The report of R. W. Brother Wilbur is given below:

The District Representatives are to be commended for the time and effort they have expended in the DeMolay and Rainbow support program. It has been a most successful and rewarding year.

As far as can be determined every DeMolay Chapter and Rainbow Assembly has been invited to perform some part of their ritualistic work in a masonic lodge. Every chapter and assembly has also been visited by a group of masonic brethren.

One highlight of the DeMolay year was the chartering of a new DeMolay Chapter, the first in many years. Buxton Chapter is now off to an excellent start with thirty active members.

During the year, Capitol City Chapter was reactivated with the Eleventh District Master and Wardens Association as new sponsors. This chapter has moved from Augusta to Hallowell.

Renewed interest in several other areas should produce results in the coming year. These areas include Springvale, Ellsworth, Wiscasset, and Rockland.

The Supreme Inspector of Rainbow in Maine, Mrs. Dorothy M. Higgins has expressed her grateful appreciation to all masonic brethren for the valuable support they are giving the Order of Rainbow for Girls.

E. Liaison With Grand Lecturer's Program

We are fortunate to have R. W. Brother James Coolong as a member of our committee. R. W. Brother James has not only been very active in the endeavors of the committee but has coordinated the efforts of the office of the Grand Lecturer with the overall aims of masonic education. The educational schools held in each district were planned around a survey of needs conducted at the Grand Officer's School and as discussed by the committee.

F. Speakers Bureau and Dissemination of Masonic Materials

The task of making known to the brethren and lodge officers the wealth of available masonic materials is under the direction of R. W. Brother John Anagnostis. Right Worshipful Brother John has commenced a series of informational presentations in the Maine Mason to aid in the accomplishment of this mission.

In addition R. W. Brother John is in charge of our Speakers Bureau. He reports:

Upon the shoulders of the District Representatives rests the success of our endeavors in masonic education and lodge service. The role of the District Representatives in the life of the Craft has greatly increased during the past few years. Besides being the field representatives of the committee in all the programs outlined above, the Representatives have continued to assist the masters of lodges in providing informational and entertaining programs for lodge meetings. They have often taken part in the actual presentations of these programs.

In order to achieve better communications between the committee and the Representatives, the chairman has issued a series of newsletters. An attempt has been made to design reporting forms which would make easier the task of returning data to the committee. In addition we have endeavored to answer all requests for support with dispatch.

The success of the seminars conducted for District Representatives by the committee has demonstrated the benefit of such sessions and the need to enlarge this practice. In the future such seminars will provide the means for gathering the data from pilot programs so essential for future program revision. We are pleased to report, in reference to the collection of data, that there is a growing and lively discussion in several districts concerning masonic education. This dialogue shared with the committee is our best assurance of future success in our endeavors.

There has been an increase in the mutual support between the District Representatives and the District Deputy Grand Masters. The increase in the involvement of District Representatives and the importance of their work has led to the need to clarify the respective roles of those representing Grand Lodge programs within the districts. This clarification will be one of the committee's concerns during the coming year.

The response to the challenge on the part of the District Representatives has been tremendous. Their assistance in the endeavors of the committee along with their judgment and patience during this period of rapid development has been most commendable. To all the Representatives we extend our thanks.

We would like to recognize for service beyond the specified duties Brothers Bruce Heywood, Stephen Kemp, and Charles Plummer—District Representatives of the 14th, 19th and 23rd Districts respectively.*

*We would also express our gratitude and regret that R. W. Brother Royce Wheeler has found it necessary to resign his position upon this committee after many years of outstanding service. We shall greatly miss his wisdom and his leadership.

Finally the chairman would like to express his own appreciation to the members of the committee for their many labors done in the love of Freemasonry.

$11,534 to Masonically related organizations raised the total assistance given by Grand Lodge Charity Fund to $139,701.

Of the $128,167 relief which was given for the year, $87,852 or 70% went to assist 32 members and their families. There were more requests for first-time assistance than ever before. The ages of recipients ranged from 24 to 85 years with the largest percentage in the 60-80 year group.

For many years our Charity Fund has been pleased to contribute to the Masonic Service Association Hospital Visitation Program which has been doing a great service for our Veterans in some 120 hospitals. To this volunteer program we again gave $6,450 including $200 for the commendable Sunday services rendered by The Masters and Wardens Associations located in the area nearest to the Togus Hospital. Also the Charity Fund expressed its interest in Youth through a gift of $5,000 to the DeMolay and Pine Tree Youth Foundation which, among other activities, gives 18 scholarships open to any graduating senior who plans to continue their education.

In addition to the relief given by Grand Lodge, 65 lodges reported having given $44,197 from their lodge funds, thus raising the total relief given by Maine Masons to $183,898.

The real meaning of Masonic relief cannot be measured in dollars or figures which help to accomplish the purpose of our program. It is personal visitations, evidence that we are truly interested in and desire to assist our fellow members and their families. To that end we earnestly solicit the help of all members to be alert to, and be quick to assist those who need and merit our relief. Let's pledge anew our desire and determination to show Masons and Mankind that we truly care.

LIBRARY AND MUSEUM

R. W. John E. Anagnostis, for the Committee on Library and Museum, presented the following report, which was accepted.

Portland, Maine
May 3, 1983

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

"It has been stated that an informational system is to the user what the axe is to the woodsman - a tool. Regardless of the record store (or in this instance, the Grand Lodge Library), the effectiveness of that tool is measurable in relation to how well it enables him to reduce the mass to a usable minimum."

From this, one can abstract several conclusions about library contents:

1. The tougher it is to get to, the less inclination the user has to go after it.
2. Information is no more valuable than it is accessible.
3. Its accessibility is to be measured in terms of time, cost, distance, inconvenience, complexity and knowledge of its existence.

Thus the usefulness of library data then exists in direct proportion to its accessibility.

Addressing the above quoted assumptions, the Library Committee has initiated a phased program of alleviating, if not eliminating, the aforementioned problems. Specifically:

1. Prepared a preliminary index of descriptive terms/topics, with its accompanying card file.

2. Scanned and deleted all superfluous information from a 3-year accumulation of monthly periodicals from Grand Lodges throughout the world. This material is now serialized and available for the Lodges, Speakers Bureau and Masonic Education Scholars.
3. With the guidance of M. W. Harold L. Chute, the assistance offered by Wor. Wallace Gage and the Maine Lodge of Research, our next thrust will be the review serialization and indexing of the many volumes in our library. Targeted for this phase are: Masonic Education & Library Conference, Reports, Grand Masters' & Grand Secretaries' Conference Reports (all states); Grand Lodge proceedings; Research Lodge Papers, etc. - the potential is great.

In view of the advance planning for a potential Grand Lodge computer program, this data, compiled now, could readily be adapted and utilized in the complete system noted in the Grand Secretary's Report. The major advantages of the proposed data collecting function is that the cost for supplies and equipment are extremely low, simple and easy to maintain and use, easy to handle and store, does not require specially trained personnel, special equipment or special procedures and techniques.

For the average scholar and book enthusiast - an easy method to expeditiously identify and retrieve the information within your own library be it large or small.

At this time, the library and museum would be happy to receive Masonic artifacts and Masonic books. These will be marked as to the donor and recorded as such.

We have the guideline, the team and the volunteers - We're on our Way!

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN E. ANAGNOSTIS

CONDITION OF THE FRATERNITY

R. W. Lewis E. Newell, for the Committee on Condition of the Fraternity, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 1983

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Your standing committee on the "Condition of the Fraternity" has reviewed the reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters, as provided in Sec. 36, Par. 9 of the Grand Lodge Constitution.

District Deputies:

We have received all of the inspection reports of the individual lodges and the annual reports of the District Deputy in each of the twenty-five Districts with the exception of the eighteenth district. No reports were received from this district by this committee.

Nineteen of the annual reports were very informative and were very well prepared. The report from the fourteenth District was exceptional in this regard. Four reports lacked overall district information and one report was very brief as the Deputy has only served since February 1983.

The District Deputies do make recommendations and are as follows:

1. That the Deputies have access to the Official work during ritual Inspections.

2. That Standing Regulation #25 be reworded so as to provide for lodge recesses (Winter or Summer).
3. That guidelines for the reporting of Lodge Histories be made available to Lodge Historians.
4. That the fines on late histories be eliminated.
5. That some method be provided so that Lodges would be notified of sojourners residing within their jurisdiction.
6. That a Junior Warden's Kit be assembled that would contain information on duties of a Master, planning Lodge programs, leadership responsibility, Lodge protocol, conducting meetings, etc.
7. One Deputy feels that fees for degrees and dues are not enough.
8. That the matter of a Masonic Home for some of our elderly Brethren be addressed.
9. That the Master Mason School of Instruction be scheduled as the first school in the fall.
10. That a rule change be considered so that a District Deputy from another district could inspect the home Lodge of the District Deputy.
11. To find some way of correlating all of the reports of the Grand Lodge Proceedings into the same time frame.
12. That a special school be set up for instruction of Masters and Wardens in protocol, conducting business meetings, leadership responsibilities, etc.
13. Delete the requirement that Secretaries and Treasurers attend Schools of Instruction of regular Officers.
14. That each Lodge have a Charity Committee to handle applications for assistance and maintain strict confidence with applicants for assistance.
15. That material be developed for information to Ministers on why we observe Saint John's Day.
16. That all Masons be more alert to those in distress and report same to their Lodges.

Financial Conditions:

Thirty-four lodges report outstanding dues of less than $150.00; thirteen of these have less than $50.00 and three have no outstanding dues. The three lodge mentioned have 204, 227 and 390 members.

Several lodges have outstanding dues for two years in the amounts of $1,000.00 or more. One of these lodges has a membership of 200.

DeMolay and Rainbow:

The eleventh District reports a re-organized DeMolay Chapter sponsored by the Masters and Wardens Association.

Several Deputies report activities of DeMolay and Rainbow in their areas.

Masonic Instruction and Educational Programs:

It appears from reviewing the reports that better attendance to Schools of Instruction and Educational Programs resulted through the efforts of the District Deputies and the Masonic Education Representatives.

Several Districts reported outstanding meetings, those reported by Districts 17A and 23 were particularly interesting.

Five Table Lodges were reported and were handled very well according to the District Deputies.

Also reported was the use of the "Wayfarer" in the degree work and was done exceptionally well.

One interesting highlight in District twenty-three was when twin brothers were initiated as Entered Apprentices by their father, a past master, who presided in the East at Tyrian Lodge.

Master's and Warden's or Officer's Association:

Twelve Districts reported active Master's and Warden's Association.

Ritual:

Seven lodges were given "Fair" ratings in their rendition of the ritual. None received a "Poor" rating. One lodge did not present a ritual work for inspection. A high percentage of the ratings were in the "Very Good" to "Excellent" group.

Masonic Widows and Caring and Sharing Programs:

Considerable activity with these programs was reported.

General Conditions:

Two lodges had degree work suspended by the Grand Master during the last year. Both were restored to work after remedial action had been taken.

Two lodges have or are in the process of losing their existing quarters due to landlord decisions. It is expected that both lodges will cope with the situation.

Many lodge improvements were reported, including new heating plants, inside and outside renovations.

Summary:

One District Deputy was concerned about the condition of Masonry in his District with the exception of one lodge.

Other District Deputies report pending problems with individual lodges in their districts.

Overall, the Condition of the Fraternity continues to be good and should improve as a result of new programs and the numerous Masons that are volunteering their time to make them work.

Recommendations:

- A. The recommendations of the District Deputies should be reviewed by the appropriate Grand Lodge Committees.
- B. Our Grand Master should be alerted to those areas where potential problems have been reported.
- C. The District Deputies should be commended for their work and the excellent reports presented this year.

Fraternally submitted,

HAROLD L. CHUTE
MALCOLM R. HOLTS
LEWIS E. NEWELL, Chairman

Brother Newell added a verbal report which he wished added on to his written report; that several District Deputies reported that a traveling gavel program has been adopted in their districts and is creating considerable interest and more attendance at meetings.

BYLAWS

R. W. Bro. Walter E. Webber, for the Committee on Bylaws, presented a verbal report that no business has been referred to it this year. The report was accepted.

HISTORY

R. W. Bro. Edwin V. George, Grand Secretary, for the Committee on History, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
May 4, 1983

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M.:

In accordance with the Grand Lodge vote of May 1982 requiring all lodges to submit their Histories up to and including the year 1982, letters were sent to each of the subordinate Lodges apprizing them of their standing and advising them of the $10.00 fine for each year in arrears.

During the past year several Lodge Histories have been submitted. Many are excellent, but we regret to say that many have been hastily prepared, listing only the officers and annual meetings in some cases, apparently in an effort to avoid fines. Such a History is of little value and contains information that is listed in the Annual Returns.

We regret that of the 202 Lodges, the following seventy (70) are delinquent from one to twenty-two years:

M. W. M. Donald Gardner spoke to the Brethren about the preparation of histories and the fines imposed this year on those who had not brought their histories up to date. Some of the histories received in the Grand Secretary's office are nothing more than statistics rather than an interesting account of what had happened during the year. He felt that the Committee should prepare a form of history and circulate it among all lodges and say "this is what we are looking for." He recommended that the Committee prepare an outline as a guide to all lodges telling specifically what they expect in those histories. He also moved that the fines imposed this year be remitted. The motion was carried.

DISPENSATIONS AND CHARTERS

M. W. Roger I. White, for the Committee on Dispensations and Charters, verbally reported that no matters had been referred to the Committee, and the report was accepted.

WIDOWS' PROGRAM

M. W. Aubrey L. Burbank, speaking in behalf of the Wor. Grand Chaplains, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 1983

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

With the "Widows' Program" still in its infancy, it has yet grown beyond our greatest hopes. The Grand Chaplains have, collectively, written 497 letters of hope, comfort and condolence to those widows of our deceased brethren. Through this medium we trust that these ladies may realize that the concerns and joys of this great fraternity which they shared with their husband continues to be reflected in our concern for THEIR remaining years.

As in the early days of this program's inception, the reward of our efforts is reflected in the letters of acknowledgment and appreciation.

Speaking for the Grand Chaplains, we are consciously aware that our part of the program could well be near the point of frustration and futility were it not for the faithful and painstaking efforts of Mrs. Tupper ("Clipper II") and staff of the Grand Secretary's office in keeping us advised weekly of all deceased brethren as reported to that office and through newspaper obituaries.

More and more Lodge Secretaries are writing us of their losses, and we are grateful for their attention to this additional duty.

Once again, I call attention to the availability of our Grand Chaplains for speaking engagements insofar as their busy schedules permit.

Further, I, once again, wish to express my personal and sincere gratitude to my fellow Grand Chaplains for their oft-time sacrificial use of valuable time in keeping this labor of love a meaningful contribution to Maine Masonry.

Respectfully submitted for the Grand Chaplains,
AUBREY L. BURBANK, P.G.M.
Grand Chaplain

GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS

M. W. Charles R. Glassmire, for the Committee on Grievances and Appeals and the Commissioners of Trials, gave the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 1983

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

RICHARD DENNIS GREENWOOD, on or about July 21, 1981 was found guilty in Superior Court of Unlawful Trafficking in Scheduled Drugs. He was sentenced to six months in jail.

He was tried in Ocean Lodge #142 and on October 7, 1981 was expelled from that lodge.

On May 22, 1982 a hearing was held by the Trial Commission at the Masonic Temple in Augusta, Maine. The defendant was not present, nor was he represented by counsel. He was found guilty of Gross Unmasonic Conduct, and a one year suspension was recommended.

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals has met and reviewed the proceedings and find all in order. We unanimously recommend that he be indefinitely suspended from Freemasonry.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, I move that Richard Dennis Greenwood be indefinitely suspended from all the rights and privileges of Freemasonry.

JAMES EDWARD KENNARD on or about July 21, 1981 was found guilty in Superior Court of Unlawful Trafficking in Scheduled Drugs. A second charge of Possession of a Firearm by a Felon was Not Prossed. He was sentenced to six months in jail.

He was tried in Ocean Lodge #142 and was expelled from that lodge on October 7, 1981.

On May 22, 1982 a hearing was held by the Trial Commission at the Masonic Temple in Augusta, Maine. The defendant was not present, nor was he represented by counsel.

He was found guilty of Gross Unmasonic Conduct, and a one year suspension was recommended.

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals has met and reviewed the evidence. We unanimously recommend indefinite suspension.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, I move that James Edward Kennard be indefinitely suspended from all the rights and privileges of Freemasonry.

DONALD K. TURNER, on or about July 2, 1982 was found guilty in Cumberland County Superior Court of Theft and sentenced to six years in the State Prison.

On April 23, 1983 a hearing was held by the Trial Commission in the Masonic Temple in Auburn, Maine. The defendant did not appear in person, nor was he represented by counsel.

The Trial Commission after hearing the evidence found him guilty of Gross Unmasonic Conduct and recommended that he be expelled from Freemasonry.

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals has examined the matter and concur in the verdict and recommend punishment.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, I move that Donald K. Turner be expelled from all the rights and privileges of Freemasonry.

PHILIP KING, JR., on or about June 7, 1982 was found guilty in Superior Court of Unlawful Sexual Conduct Upon a Minor Girl. He was sentenced to fourteen months at the Maine Correctional Center.

On April 23, 1982 a hearing was held by the Trial Commission in the Masonic Temple in Auburn, Maine. The defendant did not appear in person, nor was he represented by counsel.

The defendant was found guilty of Gross Unmasonic Conduct, and it was recommended that he be expelled from Freemasonry.

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals has reviewed this matter, find the proceedings correct, and concur in the verdict.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, I move that Philip King, Jr. be expelled from all the rights and privileges of Freemasonry.

LAWRENCE E. DARLING, on or about August 24, 1982 was found guilty in Kennebec County Superior Court of the charge of Theft by Deception. He was sentenced to serve four years in the State Prison.

Complaint was made by Ashlar Lodge #105 requesting that Lawrence E. Darling be charged with Gross Unmasonic Conduct.

The Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother C. Ross Buzzell, ordered the same Lawrence E. Darling suspended from the rights and privileges of Freemasonry until the next communication of Grand Lodge on May 3, 1983.

It was ordered that a hearing be held before the Commissioners of Trials.

Brother Fred E. Hanscom, chairman of the Commissioners sent two certified letters to the defendant at his last known address, but no return receipt was ever obtained. It was therefore determined by the Trial Commission that proper service of the charges and notice of hearing had not been made upon the said Lawrence E. Darling, and therefore refused to act on the matter.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, I move that the suspension of Lawrence E. Darling be extended by one year until the date of the next annual meeting of Grand Lodge, and that the matter be referred back to the Trial Commission for definitive action.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, I move the adoption of this report as a whole.

Deficit $ 2,520.00

Last year your Committee projected a potential deficit of $2,320 in the appropriation for the conduct of the affairs of Grand Lodge. You have heard the Grand Treasurer's report that the operating deficit was some $4,800. If it weren't for the cooperation of the several Committees, Grand Lodge Officers and the receipts from the travel program, we would have suffered an even greater deficit.

This year we again project a deficit even though we have reduced the reserve for Lodge Services by $5,000. The Grand Master requested travel expense for District Representatives in the educational program. Regretfully, we could not provide the funds. The dollars are not there.

With the loss in membership, the income from the per capita tax was reduced and we expect a further reduction this year.

The inevitable reduction of operating revenue dictates reduced appropriations and a curtailment of the programs of Grand Lodge. The present rate of income will not support the desired budget for present operation of the Grand Lodge affairs. We must have increased revenue or decrease services.

For this reason the Committee on Finance urges support of a proposed amendment which would increase the per capita tax by 50c for the support of Grand Lodge. The assessment for the support of the Charity Fund of Grand Lodge would be reduced by a like amount if the proposed amendments are adopted, so that there would be no net increase of tax to the Lodges.

Your Committee on Finance sees no other alternative except to curtail and in some instances discontinue important programs of the Grand Lodge.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION—PROPOSED

M. W. Donald S. Smith, for the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
May 4, 1983

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, at the request of the Finance Committee, has prepared a proposed amendment to the Constitution. Although the proposal would affect three separate sections of the Constitution, its intent is to accomplish a single unified result and is therefore presented as a single proposal which should be entertained and considered in its entirety.

Proposed that Sec. 61 of the Constitution be amended by placing a period after the word "it" and by deleting the remainder of the sentence so that said section as amended shall read:

"SEC. 61. The Charity Fund of the Grand Lodge shall from time to time be increased by adding thereto such moneys as may be voted into it."

And further proposed that Sec. 90. subsection 1. be amended by deleting therefrom the words and figures "three dollars ($3.00)" and inserting in place therefore the words and figures "three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50)" so that said section as amended shall read:

"SEC. 90. 1. Each lodge shall pay annually towards the support of the Grand Lodge three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) each for all its members, including honorary and life members and those absent from the state, and two dollars for every candidate initiated. Provided, that annual dues shall not be paid to the Grand Lodge by a lodge for any honorary member who at the time such honorary membership was conferred was an active member of another lodge."

And further proposed that Sec. 90. subsection 2. be amended by deleting therefrom the words and figures "One Dollar ($1.00)" and inserting in place thereof the words and figures "Fifty cents ($.50)" so that said section as amended shall read:

"2. Fifty Cents ($.50) per year shall be levied on each member of the constituted lodges of this Grand Lodge to be administered by The Trustees of The Masonic Charitable Foundation of the Grand Lodge of Maine."

Your Committee wishes to emphasize that the foregoing proposal, adopted as a whole, will neither increase nor decrease the so-called per capita tax but will merely shift fifty cents of the present assessments from the Charity Fund to the General Fund, thereby avoiding the necessity, at this time, of any increase to support Grand Lodge.

Moved that the foregoing proposition be entertained, referred to a committee, entered upon the records, published with the other Proceedings of the Grand Lodge, and sent to the several subordinate lodges for their consideration.

No other proposals have been referred to your committee for presentation at this Annual Communication and no proposals were entertained at the last Annual Communication which would require action at this Communication.

Moved that this report be accepted.

Faternally submitted,

ROBERT G. W. LOBLEY
MILLARD A. WHITNEY
DONALD S. SMITH, Chairman

Before proceeding with the installation, M. W. Burbank called upon the Grand Marshal to escort M. W. Charles E. Crossland to the East.

"M. W. & Bro. Charles, I'm sure that I speak for all the Brethren present when I point out the fact that for 14 years you have installed the officers of this Grand Lodge and you can appreciate my humility in taking over that duty this year. We are certainly most grateful for the service you have rendered the Grand Lodge in many capacities, most especially the final hour of our Grand Lodge Session for these many years. You have done it so beautifully, and with so much sincerity that it makes me feel a little bit humble to take over at this point. We are most grateful."

The Brethren responded with a standing ovation.

Committee on Fraternal Relations

1983

To the Most Worshipful, the Grand Lodge of Maine, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons:

We submit, herewith, our Annual Report on Fraternal Relations, consisting of a FOREWORD, Special Reports, Recommendations, and Reviews.

FOREWORD

Over the years since its inception as a Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1820, the Grand Lodge of Maine has taken great pride in its preservation of those tenets and teachings inherited from our (American) Mother Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, and having been a part of that Grand Lodge prior to that date, we rejoice with them in observance of their 250th Anniversary as cited by our Grand Master as one of his most rewarding visitations.

Without meaning to depict a dismal picture of Masonry's future, we must acknowledge that "Reviews," (including our own) indicate, with few exceptions, a continued loss in membership. There could be a variety of reasons for this, including economy, different social standards, etc., but what appears to be uppermost is "apathy." Lodges in Maine, both large and small, are struggling to stay alive - to maintain Temples that are old and costly - and to attract members to their meetings. In this fast-moving, ever-changing world, with its new attractions, notably television, we cannot sit back complacently and await a return to the "good ol' days." We must provide programs, improve our ritualistic image, and engage in more and better public relations if we are to survive the challenge of this "new age." This is not peculiar to Maine or the country as a whole. Political struggle in many parts of the world has brought about the downfall and persecution of Masonry to a point wherein it can no longer exist as a Grand Lodge or as a body of constituent Lodges. As on the local scene wherein consolidations appear to be the only alternative, so too, on the global scene, Grand Lodges have found it advantageous to merge. While these Grand Lodge mergers are more of a political consequence, they are nevertheless necessary for survival and continuance of Masonic principle.

When mankind recognizes his need for unity and brotherhood, then the light of Freemasonry will be rekindled and it will once again take its place in the life and betterment of men and nations.

Aubrey L. Burbank, P.G.M.
Chairman

Special ReportsSPECIAL REPORTS(a) BRAZIL

Conditions having been resolved between the Grand Lodges of the State of Rio de Janeiro and the State of Guanabara by reason of the annexation of Guanabara to the State of Rio de Janeiro when the capital was moved to Brasilia, we are now advised that they have merged, thus becoming the United Grand Lodge of the State of Rio de Janeiro. Both of the former Grand Lodges having been regularly constituted and meeting all the requirements of our formula for recognition, and after careful study of their credentials, this committee now recommends such recognition and exchange of Representatives with said United Grand Lodge of the State of Rio de Janeiro.

(b) SPAIN

Ten constituent Lodges chartered by the French National Grand Lodge, desiring greater unification as a Sovereign body, was consecrated and its officers installed by the said French National Grand Lodge (recognized by all the regular Grand Lodges in the world) at Madrid on November 6, 1982.

Said Grand Lodge of Spain, having requested recognition by this Grand Lodge, and having submitted all necessary information conforming to our formula, and further, having been recommended by the "Commission on Information" of the Grand Master's Conference, this committee recommends that, dispensing with the usual "wait and see" time period, this Grand Lodge extend recognition and exchange of Representatives to the Grand Lodge of Spain.

We take this opportunity in expressing our gratitude to R. W. Bro. Robert L. Dillard, Jr., Sec'y-Treas. of the Commission, for his invaluable assistance regarding the above-mentioned and other concerns, and his prompt response to questions submitted at various times by this committee.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

CHARLES R. GLASSMIRE
AUBREY L. BURBANK

I move acceptance of this report and adoption of its recommendations.

162nd Annual Communication

Nov. 16-17, 1982

M. W. Hermon W. Taylor, Grand Master

Lodges, 410 Members, 64,537 Loss, 1,155

The Grand Lodge being opened in Ample Form with 18 of the 22 living Past Grand Masters in attendance, plus 17 Distinguished Guests from 8 sister jurisdictions, the A.A.S.R. and Order of DeMolay. Our own Representative, M. W. Bro. Paul E. Bradford was in attendance.

The Grand Master's Address cited his deep appreciation for the kindness and support extended him during his tenure in office, with special thanks to his own Lodge, Houston, No. 888, for the gift of a new Oldsmobile. He listed his visitations, his gratitude for the response to the MH20 endowment fund (Masonic Home), his appointments, decisions and recommendations.

Ten Special Communications were held - two for funerals, the remainder for Dedications, Cornerstone Laying ceremonies. Ten Lodges were consolidated, thus reducing the roll by five. Among other Dispensations granted by the Grand Master were 18 permitting degree work on 'maimed' candidates. It is interesting to note that prior to 1946, the Grand Masters served for two years, now one.

The Grand Orator, in his Address, expressed the same concern for the Grand Lodge of Alabama as did this writer in the Foreword of this report, viz: "Apathy". The Grand Lodge of Alabama reports a loss in excess of 1700 members for N.P.D.

The Committee on Jurisprudence approved the Decisions, Dispensations and Recommendations of the Grand Master. They did, however, while approving in principle one ruling, disagree with reference to the source. The Grand Master reasserted the prohibition of solicitation for membership, referring to it as an Ancient Landmark. It was this latter reference with which the Committee disagreed.

Several Resolutions were introduced, most of which dealt with corrective words or phrases intended to clarify and bring up to date the existing code.

Bro. Charles L. Nicholson was elected and installed as M. W. G. M. for 1983, and Bro. Robert M. Savage was continued as Grand Secretary.

R. W. John C. Ingram, Deputy and Acting Grand Master

Lodges, 12 Members, 1,844 Loss, 58

On this, only the Second Annual Communication, the Deputy Grand Master, John C. Ingram, Acting Grand Master, addressed the Grand Lodge and its Guests with words of dedication to M. W. Bro. Buckley C. Hazen, who, on June 24, 1982, "laid down his Work-ing Tools of a very busy life" [thus the elevation of R. W. Bro. Ingram].

The Acting Grand Master and the Grand Secretary attended the 1982 Conference of Grand Masters in Washington, D. C., in addition to some 60-odd visitations within and without the jurisdiction.

Public Schools Week was observed in April.

The Grand Secretary reported a substantial financial gain in 1982.

We congratulate this newest Grand Lodge in the U.S., and wish them a most rewarding future.

Tucson

100th Annual Communication

May 17-18

M. W. Richard A. Kidwell, Grand Master

Lodges, 69

Members, 16,302

Gain, 108

(It should be noted that 370 of the above numbered members are affiliated Foreign members, and 47 Dual.)

The Grand Lodge having been opened in Ample Form, the Grand Master extended a warm welcome to this Centennial Communication all brethren present, including 17 of the 23 living Past Grand Masters, plus 36 Distinguished Guests, consisting of 14 presiding Grand Masters, 6 Past Grand Masters and 16 others, past and present officers of other jurisdictions.

The Grand Master's Address noted the Condition of the Craft as "alive and flourishing," listing his general activities, together with 7 Special Communications for Cornerstone Laying and Centennial observances. Fifteen dispensations of the usual nature were granted, plus a number of By-law changes. It is interesting to note that two such dispensations were for out-of-door work and four were for participation in public parades. Seventeen Recommendations were offered in his Address, several dealing with financial concerns relative to Grand Lodge operation. The last contained a proposed revision in the procedures to be followed in Cornerstone Laying ceremonies. [The Comm. on General Policy failed to concur, and the Recommendation was NOT APPROVED.]

The Centennial of the Grand Lodge was observed in various ways, times, and places throughout the year past, the most notable of which was perhaps the special "Masonic Float" in the Tucson Fiesta parade. It included the Grand Master standing before the Altar of Freemasonry, a brother attired as a Mason of the 1880 period, and another brother attired as Brother George Washington representing the colonial period, plus representatives of the youth organizations. It deservedly received a special citation. However, the Grand Master's Recommendation for like participation in the Fiesta next year, requiring an appropriation of $5,000 to $8,000 was NOT APPROVED.

Throughout this 100th Communication, several references were made to the furtherance and betterment of Masonic Public Relations, the Grand Master granting permission for appropriate highway signs to be erected indicating time and place, etc.

The Masonic Widow's Program was reported as being most encouraging, and a thoughtful recommendation was made by the committee that these widows be contacted periodically (every three months) to assure them that they are being thought of and to make sure that favourable circumstances exist.

The Jurisprudence Committee approved the edicts, dispensations and decisions of the Grand Master. The Committee on General Policy concurred with most of the 17 Recommendations with the exceptions cited above.

Bro. C. Nash Willis was elected and installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master. Bro. James M. King continued as V. W. Grand Secretary.

77th Annual Communication

June 11-12, 1982

M. W. Murdo N. MacIver, Grand Master

Lodges, 163

Members, 14,731

Loss, 307

This Annual Communication was preceded by the Annual Banquet with 416 brethren in attendance. The Rev. and M. W. Bro. T. C. Miller Nixon, P.G.M. of the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan, was the speaker.

Immediately thereafter, the Grand Lodge was convened in an adjoining room. Seven Distinguished Guests from other Jurisdictions, three of whom were from the U.S. were introduced and honored appropriately. Thirteen of their own Past Grand Masters were in attendance.

Following the usual Presentation of Colours, a solemn Service of Thanksgiving and Remembrance was held in tribute to Fraternal Dead. This, in turn was followed by their traditional Pledge of Loyalty to her Majesty, the Queen.

The Report of the Jurisprudence Committee on amendments to be introduced found them to be in proper form, and further expressed their opinion on interpretation of a Section of their Constitution on the rights of a suspended member (NPD), together with a petitioner's rights. Their report having been accepted, the Grand Master proceeded with his Address, listing therein his visitations, his tribute to various committees, and actions taken, lifting up general comments. It became necessary for the Grand Master to pick up the charter of one Lodge in that there were only four resident members left and no meeting held for some time. This does not, however, reflect on the condition of the Craft, as illustrated in the Grand Master's itinerary which numbers 100 visitations within and without the Jurisdiction.

It is interesting to note that some Lodges operate under the Canadian Rite, and others under the Ancient York Rite, both being authorized by the Grand Lodge (having minor differences in ritual and practice).

R. W. Bro. Stanley Harbin was elevated to the office of Grand Master. R. W. Bro. Melvin P. Dunford continues as Grand Secretary. It would appear that line officers automatically elevate from Junior Grand Warden to Senior Grand Warden, thence to Deputy Grand Master and thus to Most Worshipful Grand Master.

Feb. 4-5, 1982

M. W. Buford W. Vest, Grand Master

Lodges, 358

Members, 46,369

Loss, 559

Following the traditional opening ceremonies, the Distinguished Guests, including 7 Grand Masters from neighboring jurisdictions, were received with appropriate honors.

The Grand Master's message reflected a "thirst of many members for Masonic Knowledge in the area of Officer's Training, more Masonic-oriented Family-type Programs and . . . support of Youth programs." Basically, he emphasized need for "Wisdom."

Seven Emergent Communications were held, including 4 Dedications, 2 Commemorative Stones or Plaques and 1 Funeral (PGM). The Grand Master made some 60 visitations, including the Grand Master's Conference and Southwest Conference. Dispensations and Decisions of the usual nature were issued in compliance with their Masonic Code. One merger took place, one Charter was surrendered, one Charter arrested, creating a loss of 3 Lodges from the Roll.

For the second consecutive year, a Masonic Information Booth was presented at the State Fair. Forty students are presently receiving scholarship assistance. These, added to Orphan sons and daughters scholarships, all of which amounts to an expenditure of $16,671.00.

Recognition of the Grand Lodge of Alaska was approved.

Bro. M. Monroe Robinson was elected and installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and Bro. Jack B. Donham (PGM), was installed as Grand Secretary for the 13th year.

The 133rd Annual Communication

Oct. 11-13, 1982

M. W. Robert O. West, Grand Master

Lodges, 635

Members, 188,537

Loss, 4,597

This 133rd Annual Communication reveals the accomplishments of several objectives of an extremely conscientious and dedicated Grand Master. It was the first 3-day session, being shortened by one day as a result of a resolution introduced by M. W. Brother West while Deputy Grand Master at the 1981 Communication. Among the many Distinguished Guests present were 16 of their own Past Grand Masters, 13 Grand Masters and 14 other Guests, including the State Deputy of the Knights of Columbus.

Undoubtedly, the proudest moment for the Grand Master, being the first such while in office, occurred in July, when he raised two of his sons to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason. Other goals accomplished included the newspaper insert on Masonry on the occasion of George Washington's 250th Birthday. It appeared in 23 newspapers in California and Hawaii (over which they have jurisdiction) with a total distribution of over 4,000,000 copies. Other achievements realized were the Rhine River Tour in which 1700 masons and families participated, pre-paid reservations on deposit netting the Grand Lodge $11,473.00; the visitation to the Lodges in Hawaii, 14 Cornerstone Laying ceremonies, dedicating of 3 new Temples, plus one re-dedication and the Constitution of one new Research Lodge in Paradise (totaling 5 such Research Lodges). Many other observances and programs were highlighted.

In addition to other suggestions, the Grand Master suggested a study of the "declaration" of our Mother Grand Lodge, the United Grand Lodge of England as of November, 1981 regarding "solicitation", viz: "There is no objection to a neutrally worded approach being made to a man who is considered a suitable candidate for Freemasonry (once). . . ." The suggestions of the Grand Master were given due attention, but no action taken. A Decision regarding advancement of an E.A. after his having been stopped was approved. A Recommendation to form a committee to study the feasibility of establishing a 'District Grand Lodge of Hawaii' under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of California was adopted. A Recommendation to make PUBLIC the Institution and Constitution ceremonies was adopted. A third Recommendation relating to number and name of Consolidated Lodges was held over to 1983.

The Grand Secretary's Report reflected 12 Consolidations, 2 new Lodges, losses by N.P.D. 1,675, withdrawals, 4,918. These losses were nearly offset by affiliations and restorations.

Time and space do not permit the actions by the 20 Standing Committees, 18 Special Committees, and 5 Constitutional Boards, each of which carried out their duties in an exemplary manner to the betterment of Freemasonry in California and the fraternity in general.

Brother Harry L. Maynard was installed as Grand Master, and Brother Robert A. Klinger continues as Grand Secretary.

127th Annual Communication

Toronto, Ontario

M. W. Howard O. Polk, Grand Master

Lodges, 647

Members, 105,397

Loss, 1,838

The Annual Communication, as usual, attracted about 2,000 Brethren. Distinguished Guests numbered 17 Grand Masters, including our own M. W. Bro. C. Ross Buzzell, 3 Past Grand Masters, and 3 Grand Officers, representing 19 Grand Jurisdictions, plus 8 representatives from 5 Concordant Bodies. Ten of their own Past Grand Masters were in attendance.

The Grand Master welcomed all present, continuing with his Address by paying tribute to the memory of Deceased Brethren, and then proceeded in warm tribute to the officers and committees for their unselfish service to the Craft. He then reported upon Conferences attended and other matters of concern to the brethren, challenging the brethren in his closing remarks, to an adherence to the attributes which Freemasons have cherished over the ages.

Shortly thereafter, a moving Memorial Service was presented under the direction of R. W. Bro. Isbister, Chairman of Committee on Deceased Brethren.

The Grand Treasurer's Report indicated a substantial surplus in operational funds, but warned of the effects of inflation. The Report reflected a guarded optimism.

The Report of the Grand Secretary notes the awarding of nine 70 yr., 233 60 yr., and four hundred and five 50 yr. Buttons.

Further records reveal the expulsion of two brethren for unmasonic conduct, one being a Past Master.

Several amendments were proposed by the Committee on Constitution and Jurisprudence in reference to trial procedures, appeals, etc., together with restoration, all of which were subsequently adopted.

Concurrent Jurisdiction is recognized within Districts, and cross-overs on occasion, by reason of regional municipality or metropolitan areas by dispensation.

The many and varied committees established for the proper operational needs of the Grand Lodge each reported and such reports were accepted.

M. W. Bro. Howard C. Polk continues as Grand Master, as does M. W. Bro. Davies as Grand Secretary.

FURTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST

CONNECTICUT - 1982

Christopher T. Wyld, M. W. Grand Master

Three new Masonic Temples were dedicated, together with one Lodge Hall. Two Lodges consolidated, taking the names of both (Cornerstone-Quinebaug, No. 122).

Statistics indicate a loss of 694 members among 133 Lodges, leaving a total membership of 33,026.

Two distinguished Past Grand Masters died during the year, viz: M. W. Bros. Irving E. Partridge and William Campbell.

The Brotherhood in Action Program instituted by M. W. Bro. Campbell, consisting of the Grand Lodge, B'nai B'rith, Knights of Columbus, and subsequently Prince Hall Masons, while originated with high aspirations to foster, jointly, community efforts, failed to accomplish any notable results and is now gasping for the breath of survival, and is making one last effort to stay alive on the local level.

Plans are in process to celebrate the Bicentennial of Grand Lodge in 1989.

A Resolution to amend the Constitution to make retirement of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer mandatory at the age of 70 years was defeated.

ENGLAND -1982

At the Quarterly Communication of Mar. 10, 1982, H.R.H. the Duke of Kent was elected as M. W. Grand Master. Having held that office for nearly 15 years, he continues to lead the Craft with distinction. His many achievements over the years speak for themselves.

The Board has approved the loan to the Grand Lodge of Austria of items from the Grand Lodge Library for a major exhibition in the Austrian Masonic Museum, to be entitled "Freemasonry in England."

As of 1981, 8,115 Lodges were on the Register. In the past year 51 new Warrants were issued, while in the same period, at least two erasures were deemed necessary as a result of severe depletion in candidates.

Also in 1981, a total of £285,211 was spent on relief. In addition, £800 was granted to the victims of the Penlee Lifeboat Disaster, plus £2000 to the Royal National Lifeboat Institution's general pension fund.

It was most interesting to note that one of our Most Distinguished American brethren, M. W. Bro. Robert L. Dillard, Jr., of Texas, was in attendance at one of their meetings.

GEORGIA - 1982

M. W. Horace L. Whitlock, Grand Master

A commendable act on the part of those who prepared the Proceedings of this Grand Lodge was the insertion of the history of the Foundation of the Grand Lodge as found in the opening pages thereof.

Six Emergent Communications were held during the year; four for Cornerstone Layings, one for replacement and dedication of a particular stone marker and one for a grave marker.

A "History making" event was held on Feb. 13, '82 by the visitation of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania to a Symbolic Lodge in another jurisdiction (Georgia), commemorating the organization of Solomon's Lodge, No. 1, as chartered by the Grand Lodge of England, and Hiram Lodge, No. 2 having been chartered by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

Thomas L. Scott Lodge was issued dispensation to operate U.D.

In the case of embezzlement of $350,000.00 by the P.G.M. and Treasurer as discovered at the 1981 session of Grand Lodge, the Grand Master announced the recovery of the full amount through assets seized and sold from properties of the former Grand Treasurer, plus the bonding company's reimbursement.

A most unusual number of brethren were expelled, for reasons unstated.

With appropriations anticipated through 1985, it is the belief of the Committee that $200,000.00 would be realized for the Bicentennial Celebration in 1986.

IDAHO - 1982

M. W. Lynn E. Cannon, Grand Master

The Grand Master, in his Address, noted that a concordant body initiated a candidate who had received his M.M. degree on the previous night. In so doing, both the candidate and the concordant body violated the Grand Lodge Regulations, albeit the candidate acted innocently. While the Grand Master made the violation clear, I find no reference to any penalty being inflicted.

Several Resolutions which would have permitted the use of alcoholic beverages in Lodge buildings or Lodge apartments were introduced, all of which were defeated.

INDIANA - 1982

M. W. William L. Hufford, Grand Master

Dual Membership in not more than 2 Lodges in the Jurisdiction, or one within and one without the Jurisdiction (which likewise permits) provided that he has resided for at least one year within the Jurisdiction granting such membership, and being in good standing in his original Lodge. ADOPTED.

A Resolution presented in 1981, providing for a (so-called) "GUEST NIGHT", was denied on the grounds that it borders on 'Solicitation' and was, therefore, in conflict with the General Regulations.

The Grand Master's recommendation that the Grand Lodge sponsor Travel Tours, and that the revenue therefrom be used for various Grand Lodge functions now being supported by per capita tax received unfavorable reaction from the Jurisprudence Committee. They, therefore, recommended that the entire subject be dropped, and their recommendation was approved, their reasons being matters of liability, IRS investigation, and the penal code of circularizing Masons (requesting donations in terms of soliciting funds) for other than approved legitimate Masonic purposes.

Recognition of the Grand Lodges of Cuba and Alaska were approved.

Four new Temples were dedicated.

IOWA - 1982

M. W. Keith L. Muntz, Grand Master

Among the usual dispensations issued were 6 permitting those particular Lodges to enter floats in parades, obviously observing Masonic decorum and disallowing the wearing of aprons or the selling of alcoholic beverages at a food stand.

Six brethren were expelled for unmasonic conduct. Two appeals were received, both of which were reaffirmed as originally determined and the expulsion upheld. Another request for reinstatement after having been expelled in 1962 was approved.

$24,000 was given in 48 scholarships, and $24,900.00 was made available through Educational loans.

Nine consolidations were consummated involving 18 Lodges.

By action of this Communication, the Code was amended permitting a qualified petitioner to petition any lodge within the State; provided, however, that he must have resided within the State at least 6 months prior to petitioning.

Courtesy work between lodges within the state is permissible by mutual agreement. Perpetual jurisdiction over rejected petitioners is not recognized. An initiate must be 18 years of age at the time petition is received.

Most interesting membership statistics covering all Grand Lodges in the United States and Canada are included in the Proceedings, listing number of lodges, total membership, losses or gains. This most commendable effort will be mentioned in the concluding remarks.

IRELAND - Dec. 1982Dermot R. C. Chichester, The Most Hon. the 7th
Marquess of Donegall, Grand Master

The Grand Lodge of Ireland was deeply saddened by the sudden death of their Grand Master, the Earl of Donoughmore. Highest tributes came from the Provincial Grand Lodges, adding to the expressions of sorrow on the part of the Grand Lodge itself. The funeral was private, but a Service of Thanksgiving was held at St. Patrick's Cathedral in Dublin, attended by many Masonic Dignitaries, including the past and present Grand Secretaries of the United Grand Lodge of England and the Grand Secretary of New York.

The Marquess of Donegall, who had been named by the Earl of Donoughmore to be his successor, was installed on Nov. 12 as Grand Master.

He expressed his faith in the future of Masonry in Ireland.

The Proceedings contained reports from the several Provincial Grand Lodges as well as the overseas Irish Lodges. A review of the charitable work of the Grand Lodge is also contained therein. Like the Grand Lodge of England, they contributed to the Penlee Life Boat Disaster Fund.

R. W. Bro. Harte retired as General Secretary, and was replaced by R. W. Bro. Michael W. Walker.

Two new Warrants were issued during the year, while two others were returned.

Initiation fees and per capita were both increased.

JAPAN - 1982

M. W. Kiyoshi Takano, Grand Master

The 25th Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge was held at the new Masonic Center, the cornerstone of which was laid in May of 1981, and dedicated in November.

The Grand Master made note, in his address, of his favor of longer refreshments periods and round table discussion, and shorter degree conferrals. He recommended a shortening of the ceremony of the M.M. degree so that the three degrees might be conferred within the same time frame with no degree exceeding 2½ hours. It is now permissible to confer the degrees collectively by dispensation.

Bro. Hayao Onishi was elected Grand Master; Bro. Frederick S. Kashiwagi, PGM, as Grand Secretary.

LOUISIANA - 1982

M. W. Calvin B. Folds, M. D., Grand Master

The Grand Master's Address reflected 2 Lodges Constituted, 4 Lodge Halls Dedicated, and the consolidation of 2 Lodges.

Resolutions presented, and action taken thereon:

Change in manner of voting at Grand Lodge. FAILED to get required ⅔ vote. NOT ADOPTED.

Requirement of minimum attendance at 3 meetings a year in mother Lodge or face expulsion. DISAPPROVED.

If Lodge remits dues and assessments of Brother in impoverished circumstances, not to be required to pay Grand Lodge dues and/or assessments of said brother. DISAPPROVED.

Resolution pertaining to formation of joint Trust Fund to alleviate burdensome insurance expenses. WITHDRAWN.

Resolution pertaining to S.G.W.'s procedures in planning place, program, etc., in the event of his future attainment of the office of M.W.G.M. WITHDRAWN.

The Grand Lodge is to be commended for their action pertaining to their Masonic Cemetery.

Voted that the Board of Directors be empowered to accept bid of T. D. Bickham Corporation to purchase the Masonic Temple Building, as voted by legal (707) vote of Grand Lodge at this 1982 Communication, but as reported in the "Advance Reports" for the 1983 Communication, this action opened up a veritable "Pandora's Box" which had to be dealt with by the Grand Master, 1982-83, resulting in an Injunction against such sale, Court action, and much legal entanglement, including suspension of two P.G.M.'s who, in turn, sued the Grand Lodge and Grand Master for slander and libel. If I understand the latest action reported correctly, the original decision of the Grand Lodge to sell said property still stands. This writer will be most interested in the Proceedings of 1983. In any event, the M.W.G.M. Bro. Elkins is to be commended for his astute handling of the situation, regrettable though it may be.

Peter Carl Schmidt

PETER CARL SCHMIDT

Born in Stamford, Conn., Nov. 22, 1909. Attended public schools in Stamford and Middletown, Conn., and Springfield, Mass. Was graduated from Mount Hermon (Mass.) School in 1927 and entered New York University the same year to study Aeronautical Engineering, but later changed to Mechanical Engineering. Also attended Cooper Union in New York City and later studied Accounting from LaSalle Extension University in Chicago. While at NYU he met Olive Burkett, whom he married in 1939. They have two girls, Paula Mansur, an M.D. specializing in Public Health in Rochester New York and Claudia Sullivan, a Special Education Teacher in the Republic of Singapore. Paula presented them with two Granddaughters a few years ago.

Brother Schmidt began his working career during the Summer vacation months as a bindery assistant in Springfield, Mass., worked for the New York Central Railroad as a Relay Inspector for two years and then moved to Richland, N.Y. where he became Office Manager and Accountant for Wm. P. Curtiss & Son for six years. From there he went to Bridgeport, Conn. as Credit Manager and Cashier for the Sherwin-Williams Company. He left this position to spend a year in Northeast Carry, Maine with his brother, Frank. This year eventually brought him back to Maine with his family. Following this year in the Maine woods he came back to New York City where he worked first for the Seamen's House Y.M.C.A. and then for Combustion Engineering Company as a Materials Expediter for six years.

In 1946 they moved to Maine and have lived in the same house ever since. Since coming here he has owned and operated a country store, worked in Summer Camps, was Production Manager for a Paint Brush Handle Factory, went back to Richland New York to run a furniture factory, but found he couldn't stay away from Maine. When he came back to Maine a year later he spent six years at Dielectric Engineering Company at Raymond as Process Engineer and three years at Aetna Electric Company in Kezar Falls as Production Manager and Purchasing Agent. Then, for four and a half years he was Administrative Assistant for M.S.A.D. No. 72. His career in the Business World ended when he was elected Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Maine in 1975.

Brother Schmidt was raised in Mount Moriah Lodge #56 in Denmark, Maine, on July 14, 1948 and became Master in 1954, again in 1972 and finally in 1974. He served Mount Moriah Lodge as Chaplain for eight years. He was appointed D.D.G.M. of the 16th Masonic District from 1964-66 by the late M.W. Wallace H. Campbell. He was appointed Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of Turkey near the Grand Lodge of Maine in 1972 and in 1984 was appointed Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of Rhode Island (and Providence Plantation) near the Grand Lodge of Maine. He served on the Committee on Masonic Education for many years and has presented several papers at the Northeast Conference of Masonic Education and Libraries. He is a Past President of the Maine District Deputies Association.

Peter was exalted in Oriental Royal Arch Chapter #30 at Bridgton on June 21, 1956, became High Priest in 1964 and in the same year was consecrated a Companion of the Holy Order of High Priesthood and several years later served as President of that Order. He was appointed D.D.G.H.P. in 1971, served three years as such and in 1974 was elected Grand King. In 1975 he was appointed Grand Representative of the Grand Chapter of Queensland near the Grand Chapter of Maine. A few years later he relinquished that appointment to become the Grand Representative of the newly-formed Grand Chapter of Hawaii near the Grand Chapter of Maine.

Brother Schmidt received the Degree of S.E. Master in Oxford Council #14 at Norway in 1957 and became Illustrious Master in 1968 and during that year he was annointed in the Order of the Silver Trowel.

ANNUAL ADDRESS

GRAND MASTER, C. ROSS BUZZELL

My Brethren of Grand Lodge:

It has been two years since you elected me the eighty-first Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Maine and how it reminds me of the hour glass of which we are all familiar. Behold, how swiftly the sands run, and how rapidly our lives are drawing to a close! Yes, how swiftly the months have passed and how rapidly the end of two years has drawn to a close. I cannot, without astonishment, behold the Brethren who have touched me and my life, the change that comes over one who experiences the personal contacts with the Brethren from all corners of our Grand Jurisdiction. You have done me much honor and I can only hope your confidence has not been betrayed. I guess I did not realize the size of our State nor the miles one would clock in the course of covering the entire State twice. I do not know the miles, nor do I care to, as they have all been a source of pleasure to me.

Distinguished Guests

It has been my privilege to attend Annual Communications in every Jurisdiction within our visiting range, with the exception of New York, which unfortunately meets the same date as we do. To these distinguished host Jurisdictions, I am indebted for many kind courtesies and friendships which will exist for many years. We, the Grand Lodge of Maine, welcome you to our One Hundred Sixty-fifth Annual Communication and pray our hospitality will not be less than that which you have so generously displayed. May you return to your own Grand Jurisdictions taking with you the sincere best wishes of the Brethren of the Grand Lodge of Maine.

Fellowship Night

The third Annual Fellowship Night of New England Grand Lodge Officers met March 17th in Connecticut minus the representatives of Maine which had scheduled a reception for their Grand Master.

Necrology

We have been saddened by the loss of 1,041 members of our Great Fraternity who have departed to join that Eternal Lodge, that House not made with human hands and governed by the Supreme Architect of the Universe. Among that number are several Past Grand Lodge Officers, namely:

Ralph M. Wentworth	Grand Organist
Wallace H. Campbell	Past Grand Master
Elmer G. Hayward	Past Senior Grand Warden
Clifford H. M. Perry	Past Junior Grand Warden

Let us give thanks for the privilege of the years of association we have enjoyed with our departed Brethren and the many contributions they have left for future generations.

District Meetings

District Meetings have been enjoyed this year in each of the twenty-four Districts and attended by most of the Grand Lodge Officers. The Grand Marshal has been charged with all processions as well as the responsibility of attendance sheets and filling in for any officer not present, which is in reality no small task. The Junior Grand Warden's duty has been to bring to the Brethren's attention the importance of the Widow's and Care and Share Programs. The Senior Grand Warden has been charged with reinstating the Maine Blood Bank System, and with the Two Hundred Lodges to convince of this worthwhile project, he has done a commendable job. The Grand Secretary has prepared a list of Team Concept ideas for the involvement of more members to assist in Lodge programs which will give the officers more time to concentrate on Ritual. He has presented these ideas at all District Meetings, hoping to take away the excuses that many Lodge Officers are overworked. The Deputy Grand Master has been given no special program to speak on, allowing him to be a good will ambassador to the Grand Master who climaxes the evening with his address. We believe these meetings are educational to the Brethren and certainly have been on a very friendly and down to earth nature. We do not sit at head tables nor are two Grand Lodge Officers allowed to sit together at the banquets. This has been in conjunction with my observance of groups segregating and not getting acquainted with all the Brethren. Too many times I have seen these small groups forming, and always the same ones which tends to defeat our whole Masonic purpose. That is definitely not Masonry.

Masonic Education

Masonic Education has been the key to any success this Grand Lodge may have enjoyed the past two years. We have one of the most active educational systems in progress of any Grand Jurisdiction and I predict it will be the cause of renewed interest with Brethren returning to their Lodges. Lack of Education and Communication have contributed to Apathy and loss of attendance. R. W. Walter Macdougall has made great strides in this field and his entire staff of representatives are to be commended. It is my hope, this very necessary program does not fall ill with apathy but continues to give all our good Brethren the Light they deserve.

Togus Visitation

The Grand Lodge Officers made their annual visitation to Togus September 18, 1983 with most of the Grand Lodge Suite in attendance. The dedication of the Grand Lodge Officers is something to behold. It was necessary for the Grand Lecturer, R. W. James Coolong from Houlton, and D.D.G.M. R.W. Ellsworth Morris from Limestone to travel to Augusta September 17 and stay overnight in order to be at the 9:00 A.M. services. Many of the officers, with their wives, attended the Catholic Mass and in return many of the Knights of Columbus and wives attended Methodist services which followed. After the services, thirteen Grand Lodge Officers accompanied Brother Rodney Pearl, Togus Masonic Representative, on a visit about the hospital to see the Brethren who were unable to attend the services. A very rewarding experience to see first hand the humanitarian work exemplified by Brother Pearl, also to shake hands with and talk with these Masons, many of whom had never seen a Grand Lodge Officer and did not realize we are just everyday Brother Master Masons. The Masons, their wives, Knights and wives, then traveled to the Knights of Columbus Home on Riverside Drive, Augusta, where the Grand Lodge of Maine hosted the Knights to a bountiful dinner. Brief addresses were delivered by the Grand Master and the Grand Knight. If this could be an annual event in conjunction with the Togus Visitation, I would highly endorse it as a tremendous stride in public relations between two great Fraternities.

Dispensations and Bylaws

Many dispensations and bylaw changes have been granted the past year, all of which will be printed in the Annual Proceedings and need not now be read.

Decisions

1. A member belonging to a Lodge in another state who continues to reside in that state cannot affiliate with a Lodge in this state as a dual member. A dual membership can be gained in this state by legal residency only and providing that the state to which the member belongs recognizes dual membership with Maine.

2. A candidate was accepted and initiated by Penobscot Lodge No. 39 without a waiver from or knowledge of Cambridge Lodge No. 157 and this candidate resides about two miles closer to Cambridge Lodge.

My decision: In reviewing the jurisdictional controversy between Penobscot Lodge and Cambridge Lodge, I am issuing this warning to Penobscot Lodge. Should this same violation occur again during my tenure as Grand Master, I can assure you it will constitute the loss of Charter. The same warning is being issued to Cambridge Lodge. I am granting Penobscot Lodge the right to continue the degrees on Bro. Roger Daniel Wakefield as their own, cancelling any questions propounded to the Grand Secretary. The question as to an oversight on the part of the Committee of Inquiry has prompted me to the leniency of this decision.

3. A brother from a sister jurisdiction applied for dual membership in a Maine Lodge in 1970. In 1974 he was suspended in his home lodge and jurisdiction for non-payment of dues. However, he was still carried as a Maine member to the present time.

According to the Grand Lodge Rules and Regulations of that Sister Jurisdiction, the Brother lost all rights and privileges to Masonry the same as a concordant body member in our jurisdiction would.

I rule that the Brother is not a legal member in the State of Maine and cannot be until he has reinstated himself in his home jurisdiction. He may then demit and affiliate in Maine.

A dual member cannot legally drop his sister jurisdictional membership and become a Maine Mason without the benefit of a demit or withdrawal as referred to in at least one Grand Jurisdiction.

Decision: Due to some confusion each year when Grand Lodge returns are being prepared, I find no purpose of the question "Deprived of Membership." As a Lodge may suspend a Brother from membership for non-payment of dues and the Grand Lodge suspend him from Masonry, I make the following Decision:

"The question on Lodge returns "Deprived of Membership" be stricken from the returns."

I believe this is in the best interests for old and new Lodge Secretaries alike.

4. An inquiry was made could a brother who was to be cremated wear his Masonic apron.

Decision: Yes, a brother may wear his apron if he is to be cremated. I see no difference in wearing his apron for cremation or burial.

5. A question was presented by the secretary of St. Andrew's Lodge No. 83 in Bangor concerning the jurisdiction of Bangor Lodges on the east side of the Penobscot River and as defined in section "h" of the Constitution on page 40, prompts me to make the following decision:

"Ralph J. Pollard Lodge No. 217, St. Andrew's Lodge No. 83 and Rising Virtue Lodge No. 10, having concurrent jurisdiction on the east side of the Penobscot River over which the Bangor Lodges have present jurisdiction, extends to boundary lines of other constituent lodges. Meaning the system of measuring the distance to the nearest lodge not named shall prevail. Any territory south or east of Ralph J. Pollard Lodge is not considered Bangor territory."

6. Due to the continual controversy and the lack of support of the Members of the Mount Moriah Lodge No. 56, in regards to the disposition of the Bequest in the Will of Raymond B. Staples of Merrimack, New Hampshire, and

Whereas the Bylaws of Mount Moriah Lodge, at the time of Bequest, did state: "all monies given or bequeathed to this Lodge, not otherwise appropriated by the donor, together with all monies received from initiates over and above the dues to the Grand Lodge and the expense account, shall be paid over to the Treasurer to constitute a permanent Charity Fund" and

Whereas: the interpretation of said Bequest has been received from prominent Masonic attorneys all stating that the funds of the residual bequest must go to the Permanent Charity Fund, and dealt with as the Charity Fund would properly permit.

As recommended by one Past Grand Master, I make the following decision:

"That the monies received from the Will and Estate of Raymond B. Staples, in the name of Mount Moriah Lodge No. 56, be properly invested in a Permanent Charity Fund, with income only to be used for Charity. All previous voting on the disposition of these funds to be illegal and void. Any violation of this decision will constitute disciplinary Masonic Action."

Northeast Conference of Grand Masters

The Northeast Conference of Grand Masters met July 10, 1983 at West Point, New York with the Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Masters and Grand Secretaries attending. Your Grand Master was appointed on a committee to arrange a meeting with the Imperial Potentate of the Imperial Shrine of North America at Seattle, Washington in February to discuss existing problems between the Shrine and some Grand Blue Lodge Jurisdictions. I am certainly happy that Maine does not happen to be one of those jurisdictions and also happy to report the good relations of all existing bodies that make up the Maine Masonic Family.

Grand Masters Conference of North America

The Grand Masters Conference of North America was held February 21-22-23, 1984 at Seattle, Washington, with the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Secretary, M. W. Charles Glassmire, P.G.M. and R. W. B. Glen McGee, P.S.G.W. attending from Maine. M. W. Raymond Backman, P.G.M. of Illinois was elected the new Conference Executive Secretary succeeding M. W. William Stansbury, P.G.M. of Maryland who had held this position for many years. The discussion groups found the Deputy Grand Master attending the discussion on Lodge services while the Grand Master wished to participate in the Educational Group. We agreed the discussions were not of the higher nature one would expect from these distinguished Masons. We can take pride in our own Educational Program and certainly need not emulate or copy any other Grand Jurisdiction in this field. It was voted to hold the 1985 Conference at Myrtle Beach, N.C.; 1986 at Arlington, Va.; 1987 at Calgary, Alberta, Canada and 1988 at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. At the George Washington Memorial Meeting our own M. W. Charles R. Glassmire, P.G.M. was elected President succeeding M. W. Stanley F. Maxwell, P.G.M. of Massachusetts. Shortly after arriving at Seattle, I received an urgent request to meet with Lawrence Hunt, Grand Master of the Supreme Council International Order of DeMolay. I invited R. W. Peter C. Schmidt, D.G.M. to accompany me and we were welcomed by Grand Master Hunt, Don W. Wright, D.G.M. and two Line Officers, who informed us of serious internal problems with Maine DeMolay and discussed possible solutions.

Grand Lodge Tours

Though it has been questioned by some as to the value of the Grand Lodge Tours, they have indeed, brought much needed revenue into the Grand Lodge Treasury. I fear without a travel program this year our Grand Lodge would be operating at better than three thousand dollars in the red. September was the Historic Tour to England and Scotland with sixty-one Masons and their ladies. Through our respective Grand Secretaries, arrangements were made to visit Freemasons Hall in London which was enjoyed by twenty Masons. We were requested to divide into groups of two with one group attending the Entered Apprentice Degree in one room and the other group attending a Master Mason Degree. The cordiality and fellowship were fully as well extended as any jurisdiction of our own, and all our Brethren appreciated the opportunity this visit afforded. March was the spring tour which took one hundred and ten to Acapulco, Mexico and though we did not attend any Lodge of Mexico, a week of relaxation was certainly enjoyed by all. Many thanks to our Tour Agent, Brother Toby Andersen who has a personal interest in all travelers. He has traveled with us on each and every tour scheduled by Grand Lodge and it will be my pleasure to travel with him on his tours in the future.

Grand Lodge Charity

At the writing of this report, $95,000 had been expended for the relief of our Brethren and their families with at least one more know application on its way. This is a decrease of $35,000 from last year and we wonder, do we have Masonic Brethren who are in better financial situations or are we just not getting applications from those deserving of our assistance? Many thanks are in order to our Chairman, M. W. Charles E. Crossland, P.G.M. for the compassionate manner in which he handles all applications. It has been a sincere joy and an education to learn from this distinguished Mason the mechanics of Grand Lodge Charity Finances.

Schools of Instruction

Under the leadership of R. W. James Coolong, Grand Lecturer, the Schools of Instruction have shown a marked increase in interest and will be read and printed in the proceedings. Our Assistant Grand Lecturers are dedicated to their duties and are a credit to our Grand Lodge.

Youth Groups

I have attended several DeMolay Meetings the past year as well as meetings with the advisors. I dislike reporting anything but harmony among the ranks but I must relate it as I see it. The Grand Master of the Supreme Council of International Order of DeMolay has been in communication with me giving me instructions for the welfare of this organization in Maine. I have high hopes this problem may be solved before May or Grand Lodge. I regret I have not attended as many Rainbow Assemblies as I had planned this year as they deserve our attention fully as much as any other part of our Masonic Family. I was the recipient of the DeMolay Legion of Honor this past year, an honor that I respect and highly covet.

Grand Lodge Team

I do not remember any Grand Master ever having all the Elected Grand Officers and most of the appointed Officers attend District Meetings from one end of this large State to the other. They have all contributed in some way in taking our Grand Lodge to every District and bringing honor to our Fraternity. I am so proud to have had the privilege of serving with this dedicated team. Three of our team whom we have not hitherto made mention are diligently performing in the Grand Lodge Office. R. W. Bruce S. Tornquist, Grand Treasurer who certainly knows how to stretch and make a dollar; Mrs. Grace Field, Mrs. Elizabeth Tupper, the two Ladies that I fear know more about our Grand Lodge than the rest of us all put together. These ladies have been just super and I could not begin to heap the praise they so richly deserve. To the District Deputies, District Representatives and all other appointed Grand Lodge Officers, Thanks for your assistance and mostly for your friendship.

Recommendation

Due to the number of reported special meetings of Constituent Lodges at 4:00 p.m. and Stated Meetings at 7:30 p.m., the same day for the sole reason of meeting once a month, I find the practice illegal and have ruled against its continuation. As Grand Master I signed dispensations which would allow special meetings on the same date as regular meetings for the conserving of fuel and heat in the months of January, February and March, but many Lodges have interpreted that all Lodges are allowed this practice as an excuse to group meetings and split the Master Mason Degree.

I recommend it be declared illegal to hold special communications for the purpose of Degree Work on a Stated Meeting.

Recommendation

After seeing books and artifacts of Grand Lodge loosely scattered about the Masonic Temple in Portland, I recommend this Grand Lodge form an established Grand Lodge Library and Museum in an apartment of Triangle Lodge Temple as the Board of Trustees see fit to rent for such purpose and with M. W. Harold Chute, P.G.M. as Chairman of fund raising for the perpetual care of such Library and Museum. I would also recommend W. Bro. Wallace Gage as M. W. Bro. Chute's assistant.

I have learned of many possible books and artifacts that might be presented to the Grand Lodge of Maine if the assurance were available that they would be catalogued and remained in and as Grand Lodge property.

Recommendation

Whereas: the body known as the Shrine is composed of Masons, and

Whereas: the Shrine Potentates of Kora and Anah Temples have pledged themselves to the Grand Lodge Constitutions, Regulations and Decisions and

Whereas: many of our Past Grand Masters are Past Potentates of Kora and Anah Temples and

Whereas: the present Imperial Potentate of North America is a dedicated Mason, and

Whereas: this Grand Master was appointed to serve on a committee to meet with the Imperial Potentate at Seattle, Washington, to discuss existing differences and

Whereas: thirteen states now recognize the Shrine of North America and

Whereas: the Shrine of North America contributes to Benevolent Foundations more than all our Collateral Bodies together, it is my recommendation that the Grand Lodge of Maine should recognize the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, as a Member of the Collateral Bodies of Maine.

Conclusion

Any Grand Master that feels he is capable of making all decisions while in office is only fooling himself. When I assumed office as Grand Master, our Past Grand Masters said, "Ross, we will not attempt to tell you what to do nor how to run your Grand Lodge, but should you desire our assistance, you have only to ask." Ask I have and I have received. I shall deem it a great honor should they accept me into their ranks as Past Grand Master.

Usually a Grand Master has one family member who has faithfully backed him through his two years, but I have been blessed with two; Ruth, who drove for me the first year when I was not able to and has assisted me the remaining year where needed; and Leslie, the Grand Marshal, whom I sometimes refer to as my Father. Never could a Grand Master want for a better Grand Marshal or traveling companion.

Fraternally submitted,
C. ROSS BUZZELL
Grand Master

BRAZIL-RIO DE JANEIRO	Valdemiro Liberato Pinto
NORWAY	Manager Sverre Sørbye, Oslo

VIRGINIA	Garland N. Rollins

The reading of the Annual Address was followed by applause, the Communication standing.

At the conclusion of the reading of the Address, the Deputy Grand Master assumed the East and the Grand Secretary moved that the Address of the Grand Master be referred to the Committee on Doings of Grand Officers, and it was so voted. It was also voted that the reports of the Deputy Grand Master, Grand Wardens and Grand Lecturer be referred to the same Committee without reading.

GREENLEAF MEDAL

The Grand Marshal was asked to present Brother Florian L. Clark to the East where the Grand Master presented him with a Simon Greenleaf Medal. Brother Clark responded with appropriate remarks, thanking Grand Master Buzzell for the Honor conferred upon him.

FLORIAN L. CLARK

Florian L. Clark was born July 28, 1903. He graduated from a one-room school in Detroit, Maine and has taken courses in Modern Sales Management at Lasalle Ext. University; School of Chain Store Management; Davis School of Advertising and Maine Business Institute. In 1930 he was married to Frances Hassner and they had two daughters. After being a widower for several years he married Dorothy Allen in 1976.

Bro. Clark spent four years in the Army as a Musician. His music career began in the potato fields where he worked in order to obtain the necessary funds to purchase his first musical instrument. After this acquisition it was necessary for him to walk five miles each day for instructions.

Following his Army services he found employment with the Paragon Factory Band in Waldoboro. It was at this time that he sought light in Masonry, later receiving the Master Mason Degree on November 5, 1925 in King Solomon's Lodge No. 61 in Waldoboro, Maine. He was presented his Fifty-year Veteran's Medal by M. W. Roger P. Snelling on March 25, 1976 and has since added a 5-year star to it. In later years he left Waldoboro coming to Portland where he obtained employment and at the same time became a soloist for the First Radio Parish Church.

After several years he terminated his employment and returned to Rockland, there establishing his own business. Now retired, Bro. Clark's retirement days are dedicated to assisting disabled children through the Disabled Children's Fund which he established. It might be mentioned that this fund assists those disabled children who fail to meet local and state guidelines for assistance or who are unable to obtain treatment at the Shriners' Hospital. Items produced in his workshop and offered in appreciation for each donation allowed the first $100.00 raised to benefit a little cancer victim who has now returned to school. He uses his workshop in appreciation of financial assistance for his Children's Fund. So he makes napkin holders and has fun doing it. Each napkin holder is given in exchange for financial assistance for the Fund for Disabled Children. When asked "Who is the head of the program?" Clark answers "God is the conductor and I am his brakeman." "My retirement years used in the service of God's children gives me great pleasure and adds joy to the children—greater than silver or gold."

For his outstanding humanitarian work, Bro. Clark received the Volunteer Action Award from President Reagan and was nominated for the Jefferson Award. Also his efforts were nationally recognized by Rev. Norman Vincent Peale.

This brother, who has suffered many tragedies in his personal life has a philosophy which many of us might emulate. "Time is not measured by years we live, but by the deeds we do, the assistance we render and what we give." "Presenting Faith for the day, Hope for a brighter tomorrow, Love and Understanding that these children know someone cares. Make yesterday's dreams become dreams of Happiness, tomorrow's vision a vision of Hope, as we assist God to fulfill his plans to turn each little Rough Ashlar into Perfect Corner Stones."

Time goes on and, luckily, so do the efforts of Masons like Florian Clark.

REPORT OF ACCOUNTANTS AND AUDITORS

April Twenty-Seven
1984

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master, C. Ross Buzzell, of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.:

We have examined the statements of assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M. at March 31, 1984, and the related statements of operating receipts, disbursements and changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As is more fully described in Note 1 to these statements, the grand Lodge's policy is to prepare the aforementioned statements on the basis of cash revenue and cash expenditures. Accordingly, these statements are not intended to and do not present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly the assets and liabilities of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M. at March 31, 1984, arising from cash transactions, and the operating receipts, disbursements and changes in fund balances for the year then ended on a consistent basis.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 1, 1984

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

This year has been one of enlightenment and fulfillment. Things are beginning to progress, slower than anticipated, but inevitably forward. The following areas of development and implementation are worthy of note.

1. Membership validity

Selecting a new computer service source, originally for the mailing list of the Maine Mason, proved to be an opportune move. We were enabled to utilize our four-year membership input to update our mailing list as well as our lodge membership file. Over 3500 changes were made with a possible 3000 more in the next few weeks. The existing 3" x 5" card file consisting of approximately 38,000 cards has been eliminated. Computer run-offs now provide current status and rapid retrieval. The present 36 drawer file cabinet has been retired and replaced with a versatile desk-high mobile data storage unit. Marked up run-offs have been returned to lodges for use as a basic record.

2. Inventory

The correspondence and subject files have been purged. Data prior to 1982 have been removed and stored in the historical area. Locator lists are available to the staff as well as for emergency use. (Grand Master & Deputy Grand Master)

The Special Ladies file, updated daily by information from Lodge Secretaries who have provided the input for this valuable record of our Masonic Families. An attempt is being made to solicit a subscriber from every newspaper in the State to forward every masonic obituary weekly to this office. Our concern is for information on sojourning Special Ladies and relations.

Care and Share data is received spasmodically, however the request for names of Masons being admitted to our Portland Hospitals is improving. Our main thrust is still geared to the creation of a viable, assigned, rotatable pool of visitors from the area Lodges.

3. The South-East Corner Newsletter provides to Lodge Secretaries, Masters and Dist. Deputies a general reference store house of information. This result is directly attributed to the input from Lodge Secretaries (terrific). A refreshing and enlightening "one on one" relationship. A sincere expression of gratitude to our Secretaries and is herewith expressed. This brings to mind a philosophy "you write em, we'll read 'em."

4. Microfilming. Our Grand Lodge Finance Committee concerned with the potential fire and security hazard of our basic data file has authorized the microfilming of the complete, alphabetically arranged record card file of every mason raised in or affiliated in the State of Maine, deceased or living. This assignment is scheduled for mid-June, 1984. With proper targeting it will become an effective retrieval method of securing data for storage in an off-site vault.

5. This office has seen a decided increase in the communication between individuals in need of assistance, local lodges, Grand Lodge Office and the Grand Lodge Assistance Committee. A most gratifying revelation to this office is the evidence of cooperative and timeliness between other Grand Jurisdictions. One word or two tells it all—heart-warming and grateful.

6. A comprehensive file of brief 15-20 minute talks on specific subjects has been established. Material is requested on specific subjects, items are researched, the talk prepared, master retained and copy forwarded to requester. The potential is unlimited.
7. The Grand Lodge Office has assumed responsibility for the preparation, custody, maintenance, update and distribution of the following manuals: Masonry-in-Action, Special Ladies, Care & Share, District Deputies and Forms Control. In addition to which is The Southeast Corner Newsletter and the Lodge History Guidelines. Further, it has assumed custody, maintenance update and distribution of the Masonic Education Instructors Manual, District Representatives Manual, Newsletter and Secretaries handbook.
8. Computer Financial restraints or rather availability is the prime deterrent in our procurement of a system, guaranteed to provide the many facets of Grand Lodge administration and operation. The data base items, selectivity and availability of all recognized items, and printouts, financial and other related needs have been identified. The method, the type and size of equipment, procurement, implementation and operation have also been resolved. The above listed membership file, for example, is a vital step in the selectivity, cost and accuracy of the data entered into the terminal.
9. Operation Beehive. This program presented to an interested group of brethren was well received and well attended. It was one of the finest masonic presentations I have ever seen of a positive approach to Masonry-in-Action. Congratulations to the brethren of the 17th District. Well done.
10. My repetitive use of the term Staff is in reference to our dedicated and knowledgeable individuals of the office, notably Mrs. Field, Mrs. Tupper and Bruce Tornquist. Masonry is blessed with this terrific trio and May God Bless and guide them always.

GRAND LECTURER

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 1, 1984

To the M. W. Grand Master, Officers and Brethren of the M. W. Grand Lodge of Maine:

We have arrived at a time for reviewing our work of the past year—a time to examine those areas in which we need to be more successful, and yes, a time to set higher goals and objectives for the future.

It is often heard that our ritual cannot fail to impress the candidate. Yet there are times when we must suspect that this is not the case. Does not every lodge have some members who have not returned to their lodge since their raising? Why has the same man who petitioned for membership, paid his fees, and submitted to our forms and ceremonies suddenly lost interest in the fraternity? It should be eminently clear that we have failed to deliver what we have promised, and that which the candidate has every right to expect. It is our Masonic duty to see that our candidates are properly educated, but before we can presume to provide that education through our degrees, we must be certain that we, ourselves, understand what we are trying to teach. We cannot expect a new brother to feel any obligation to our fraternity if we do not fulfill our duties to him. It is up to us to see that the degree work is as meaningful to him as possible, and it is up to us to bring him to understand, at least partially, the depth and beauty of Masonic symbolism as taught by the ritual.

Attention to detail, careful to study, a willingness to work hard, and perform good work are among the qualities of a Freemason; let us therefore use these to perform the work of the Craft with the spirit of the Craftsman.

In accordance with the Constitution and under the direction of the Most Worshipful Grand Master, three ritualistic Schools of Instruction in each of the twenty-four (24) districts within this Grand Jurisdiction were conducted by your Grand Lecturer, and the six Assistant Grand Lecturers.

Tabulation of Schools

Following is the tabulation of the registration at the various District Schools of Instruction. The numbers in parenthesis indicate the number of lodges from the district in attendance at the particular School of Instruction. General Summary

Total registration	3001
Total number of officers in attendance	2036
Percentage of officer attendance at schools	32.5
Total numbers of members present (non-officers)	965
Number of lodges represented at schools of instruction	197
Number of lodges at E.A.° schools	161
Number of lodges at F.C.° schools	159
Number of lodges at M.M.° schools	174
Number of lodges not represented by officers at a single school of instruction	4

The records indicate this year the greatest total registration ever in the history of the Grand Lodge of Maine. This was achieved by attendance of Degree Team members present at these schools, pushing our total registration to just over 3000. We remain concerned that a higher percentage of the regularly installed officers of the constituent lodges are not in attendance. We had a decline from 37.2 a year ago to 32.5 percentage this year. Our goal will be to improve on this another year.

Last year it was necessary for me to report that nine (9) lodges failed to be represented at any of the three (3) schools of instruction by a single officer of those lodges. I am pleased to report that number is down to four (4). One of those lodges, Moses Webster No. 145, located on the island of Vinalhaven, makes it necessary for those brethren to come to the mainland and remain overnight. This is a real hardship for those officers, and we understand the reason for their absence. Our plan is to arrange a special lodge of instruction to go to Vinalhaven to assist those officers and brethren.

When a brother is elected or appointed to an office of his lodge, he assumes special responsibilities, one being to learn the ritual of Ancient Craft Masonry accurately, to learn it well, and to learn the methods of effectively presenting these degrees to the candidates of their lodge. Attendance at the Schools of Instruction is therefore most important.

Those lodges not represented by any of its officers at any of the three (3) ritualistic Schools of Instruction are as follows:

District	Lodge	No.
7	Island	89
9	Moses Webster	145
18	Freedom	42
18	Day Spring	107

The percentage of office attendance ranges from 20 percent in District 18 to 50.6 percent in District 6. Far better than average attendance was achieved in Districts 4, 5, 6, 14, 15, 17, and 20. Among these, District 6 had a perfect record, having been represented by all eleven (11) lodges at each School of Instruction. We commend the officers of each of these Districts for their fine record and dedication to their lodges.

The success of these schools depends on the work, interest, and effort of many brethren. We express special thanks to the Deputies for sending cards notifying officers of the schools, and those who help in any way to make them successful.

District Educational Meetings

In addition to the three (3) ritualistic schools in each district, your Grand Lecturer and the Assistants have conducted an Educational Meeting in each District. The District Representatives to the Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service were asked to submit suggested topics to be included in this years program. These non-ritualistic schools provide the opportunity to discuss a wide range of topics, directed not only to officers, but the brethren in general and are devoted to general interest and information.

The agenda for the District Meetings was prepared and outlined by your Grand Lecturer and the staff. Each Assistant Grand Lecturer had latitude with the topics and was assisted by the District Representative and other brethren from various Districts which they arranged.

This year the program included the following topics:

A. Masonic Protocol

1. Masonic titles—to whom, when, and how
2. Grand Honors—Public and Private
When and how to give them

3. Official Visitations

Reception of the Grand Master and his Suite

4. The District Deputy at Official Inspection

B. Masonic Discipline

1. Masonic Offense—How do we deal with it.

C. Masonic Evening Memorial Services—How to conduct them

D. A Masonic Short Talk—History, Philosophy, Symbolism

These District Educational Meetings were well received and they are fun to conduct. They generate much discussion and hopefully provide good instruction to the brethren.

Table Lodges

The Grand Master has granted nine (9) dispensations during 1983 for holding Table Lodges. In compliance with my duties, I have appointed a Grand Lodge Representative to attend each of these. I have continued to send a letter to each Lodge informing them of the Grand Lodge Representative, asking them to include him on the printed program, and provide appropriate time for him to bring official greetings from the Grand Master and the M. W. Grand Lodge of Maine. Reports received from Grand Lodge Representatives indicate that the Table Lodges are being conducted according to the Ritual and the brethren enjoy the fellowship.

"Degree Teams"

There have been fourteen (14) authorized Degree Teams performing ritualistic work within this Grand Jurisdiction the past year. I have authorized these Teams to perform Ritualistic Degree work in accordance with the policy established by Grand Lodge in 1960, and their permission is valid until May 1, 1984. The approved Teams have done excellent work and always promote a good attendance. They do much to foster visitation in our lodges. Our sincere thanks to those who so freely give to the Craft their time, energy, and talent. A list of approved Teams is as follows:

- Academicians of Anah Temple
- Anah Temple Highlanders
- Brothers In Work (B.I.W.)
- Central Maine Power Co. - D.T.
- City of Augusta, Dept. of Public Safety - D.T.
- Kora Legion of Honor
- Kora Kraftsmen Club
- Maine Air National Guard
- Maine Department of Transportation
- Maine Forest Service
- Maine State Police
- New England Telephone
- York County Shrine Club
- Boise Cascade Degree Team

Assistant Grand Lecturers

This Grand Lodge is fortunate to have the benefit of the dedication which each Assistant Grand Lecturer brings to his office. I consider it a great privilege to have had the opportunity to work with such great Masons. To each I offer my sincerest thanks for excellent work, dedication and complete cooperation. One could not hope for better Assistants. Three (3) members of the staff will be completing their tenures at AGL's: V.W. John E. Gray has accepted an appointment as District Deputy Grand Master in the 17th District, R.W. Winfield L. Libby, and R.W. S. Clyde Ross who is completing six years as AGL. These brethren have given much and I am very sorry to lose them from the staff. Simple thanks seems inadequate; I am deeply appreciative for all they have done.

The staff met twice during the year for full day work sessions. The meetings proved very helpful and insure that our presentation is consistent and uniformity of the ritual is preserved.

Recommendation

I recommend that the official inspection report form be amended to provide space to record attendance of officers at Schools of Instruction, and that this be considered as a [refor in the total evaluation of the rating given the Lodge. It is difficult to imagine a lodge which has not had a single officer present at any School of Instruction for two or more years, receiving a rating of excellent.

Conclusion

I would be remiss if I did not express my sincere appreciation to all who have contributed to the success of our Schools of Instruction. I trust they will be helpful in improving the rendition of the ritual.

We offer appreciation and thanks to the District Deputies for promoting the schools and the encouragement they give to the lodges of their Districts. Without this effort we would not have been nearly as successful.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master—my deep thanks for faith and trust you have placed with me. I sincerely appreciate the opportunity to work within the Craft. It has been my pleasure and privilege to serve my brethren and the Grand Lodge of Maine.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Your Committee on Doings of Grand Officers have given careful consideration to the address of the Grand Master and to all other reports of officers which have been presented to them.

We congratulate our Grand Master upon the completion of two years service to the Craft. He has travelled extensively throughout our Grand Jurisdiction and has been very dedicated to the office.

Masonic education continues to be recognized as one of our major objectives and it must be so recognized if the strength of the fraternity is to continue.

Our Maine Masonic Education program is being very well accepted within the lodges and proving very beneficial, not only to line officers, but to the membership at large.

We recommend that the dispensations granted by the Grand Master, his ruling and decisions and the matter of invasion of Jurisdiction, be referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence.

We recommend that any proposed amendments to the constitution, be referred to the Committee on Amendments.

The Deputy Grand Master and the Grand Wardens have been very supportive to our Grand Master at the District meetings and have contributed much to the programs.

Our Grand Lecturer has submitted a very comprehensive report showing the attendance in the schools and efforts being put forth by his assistants in promoting Masonic Education, and the correct rendition of the ritual.

Again we commend our Grand Secretary for the faithful discharge of his duties and, the organization in the Grand Lodge Office, as well as the filing and recording of all data for future use.

He received the Order of High Priesthood May 5, 1954. He was a member of the Maine District Deputies Association and was a Past Patron of Good Will Chapter No. 85, O.E.S.

On October 21, 1936 he was united in marriage with Madeline Celia Whittaker, and their son, Richard Wallace, was born on August 12, 1947.

W. Brother Ralph Marshall Wentworth died August 8, 1983 in Portland, Maine, where he was born on March 13, 1898, the son of John Gilford and Abby F. Wentworth. He attended public schools in Gorham, Maine, and graduated from Gorham High School in 1917.

He served in various departments with the Telephone Company, his last assignment being that of investigation of noise and the design of cable for the Telephone Plant.

He retired in 1962, having had 44 years of service with the Telephone Company. Upon retirement he became an active member of the Telephone Pioneers Life Member Club and was their President in 1968.

On September 1, 1920, he married Ruth Hazel Robinson who died in 1961. They had one daughter, Margaret. He married Lucy A. Trask April 6, 1962. They are members of the Woodfords Congregational Church of Portland, Maine.

Brother Wentworth was raised in Harmony Lodge No. 38 at Gorham, Maine, March 23, 1921. He transferred to Portland Lodge No. 1 at Portland, Maine, in 1942, became its Master in 1949, and was their organist from 1950 to 1972. He has belonged to the Masonic Order for 62 years, having received his Veteran's Medal in 1971.

In 1949 he was Exalted in Mount Vernon No. 1, Royal Arch Chapter at Portland, Maine, and became High Priest in 1954. He was Knighted in Portland Commandery No. 2, in 1948, and became their Commander in 1966.

In 1949 he was greeted in Portland Council No. 4, Royal and Select Masters and became Illustrious Master in 1965. In 1965 he joined the Thrice Illustrious Master's Council of New Hampshire, transferred to Maine Council in 1966, and became its Thrice Illustrious Master in 1970.

During the years 1943-1944 he became a member of the Scottish Rite Bodies at Portland and took several parts in the degree. He became a life member.

In June of 1968 he became a member of the Knight of the York Cross of Honour of Eastern Canada Priory No. 19, a member of New Hampshire Priory No. 58, in 1972, a charter member of Pine Tree Priory No. 65 of Maine and Prior in 1975.

Wor. Brother Wentworth was a member of the Past Officers Association; Kora Temple Shrine of Lewiston; High Priesthood Maine Council; Maine Conclave Knights of the Red Cross of Constantine; a Past Patron of Iona Chapter No. 21, Portland O.E.S.; a member of Madonna Shrine No. 1, White Shrine of Jerusalem of Portland, Maine.

He served as Grand Organist of the Grand Lodge of Maine from 1976 until his death.

Records such as these are very important for the preservation of the Masonic activities of our Grand Lodge Brethren. However, they can never really show the influence their lives have had upon others.

We know that the Great Light of Masonry has been made even brighter through the lives of these departed Brethren and we are so grateful that we have had the privilege of sharing life with them.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD L. FENDERSON,
Chairman
Committee on Memorials

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION - PROPOSED

R. W. Alfred E. Neff presented the following proposed amendment to the Constitution from the floor.

In Grand Lodge
May 1, 1984

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Brethren:

Five years have passed since the amendments I am about to propose were last presented to this Grand Lodge. Since that time, there has been much discussion across the State in the favor, and many Brethren feel that the subject of statewide concurrent jurisdiction should be again presented for discussion. Therefore:

I hereby propose the following amendments to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Maine:

Strike out section 114 in its entirety and insert in place thereof the following:

Sec. 114. The jurisdiction of each lodge in the State shall extend over all territory of Maine and all lodges shall have concurrent jurisdiction therein.

Also, amend Section 112 by striking out the word "nor" in the third line, place a period after the parenthesis in line four and strike out the rest of the words after the period in lines four, five and six of that sentence. Place a period after the word "year" on the next to the last line of the second sentence and strike out the rest of the words after the period in that line and the last line of that sentence, so that section 112 shall read as follows:

Sec. 112. No lodge, without the permission of the Grand Master, shall receive a petition of a candidate for the degrees until he has resided in this State one year. (exception. seafaring men absent only on a voyage to sea.) Lodges shall have the right to receive petitions from candidates in the military or naval service who are stationed and have their domicile in this State one year.

Also, Section 115 to be amended by striking out the first paragraph.

Also, Section 123, paragraph two to be amended by removing the comma after the word "year" in the third line and striking out the words "and in the jurisdiction of the lodge the six months" so that paragraph two shall read as follows:

"Each application must be made in writing under the signature of the applicant, stating his age, residence, and that he has resided in the State one year next preceding the date of his application (except in the cases above mentioned) and whether he has made application to and been rejected by any other lodge."

M. W. Sir, I move that these amendments be received, referred to the Committee on Amendments, laid on the table until the next Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge in 1985.

Respectfully submitted,

ALFRED E. NEFF

Moved that the proposal be received, referred to the Committee on Amendments and laid over to the next Annual Communication in 1985. The report was accepted.

JURISPRUDENCE

M. W. M. Donald Gardner, for the Jurisprudence Committee, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
Mary 1, 1984

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge:

The Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence herewith reports on the decisions made and dispensations granted by the Grand Master as have been referred to it for consideration.

Dispensations

The authority to dispense with established and prescribed procedures should always be exercised with great restraint. The discretion vested in the Grand Master in connection with conferral of degrees is to "be governed strictly by conditions of extreme necessity or extraordinary emergency." (Const. Sec. 130) It is the opinion of the Committee that the Grand Master, in at least one instance, placed rather a strained interpretation upon this provision of the Constitution.

Nevertheless, it appears that the dispensations reported appear to be within the power and authority of the Grand Master, and the Committee recommends their approval.

Decisions

There are several decisions of the Grand Master referred to this Committee for consideration.

Decisions numbered one and three are considered in harmony with the principles of Masonic law as recognized and observed in this jurisdiction and approval is recommended.

Decision numbered two is more in the nature of a dispensation or the granting of permission pursuant to Section 112 of the Constitution, and the Committee recommends approval thereof.

In the unnumbered decision relative to the question on Grand Lodge returns "Deprived of Membership," the Grand Master has decided the same should be stricken from the returns.

In considering this decision the Committee is guided by Section 51 of the Constitution. It is therein provided that a lodge may suspend a brother for nonpayment of dues by due process set forth in this Section. Such a brother has the right to be restored automatically by the payment or remission of the amount due, within three years from the date of suspension. After three years he is deprived of membership and may be restored only after payment or remission of the amount due, and upon application, which shall take the same course as an application for initiation.

In the event the Lodge, after due process, votes deprivation of membership for nonpayment of dues, only upon first paying his arrearage may he petition for restoration and his petition takes the usual course. See Maine Masonic Text Book, Page 214.

For the foregoing reasons, it is the opinion of the Committee that "Deprived of Membership" has a purpose on the returns and reluctantly recommends disapproval of this decision.

Decisions numbered four and five are in conformity to our Masonic law and their approval is recommended.

It is the opinion of this Committee that the decision numbered six is inconsistent with Standing Regulation 29, but may be considered as a recommendation made by the Grand Master, and we recommend the same be referred to the Committee on Amendments for consideration.

The decision numbered seven is based upon long established law of this jurisdiction. That a lodge has no authority to appropriate its charity fund for any other purpose than that for which it was designated has been restated many times. Any purported action of the lodge to suspend the properly adopted and approved by-law is a violation of Section 108 of the Constitution and is illegal and void. Accordingly, the Committee recommends the approval of this decision.

The last decision by the Grand Master relates to the practice of some lodges of calling a special communication of the lodge in the afternoon of the same day as the stated communication for the purpose of dividing the work of the Master Mason's degree. As such practice is in violation of Sections 92 and 127 of the Constitution, the Grand Master's decision is in conformity thereto and the Committee recommends its approval.

DeMOLAY

Bro. Clyde L. Ferris, Executive Officer in Maine for DeMolay, read the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
May 1, 1984

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Due to the resignation of brother Melvin W. Morgan as Executive Officer in Maine, I was appointed as his replacement by Grand Master of DeMolay G. Lawrence Hunt, on the recommendation of Most Worshipful Grand Master Buzzell.

I accepted this appointment with great enthusiasm and on a very positive and optimistic attitude. I pledge myself to the future growth of Maine DeMolay and with the help and assistance of many great advisors, I am very confident that Maine DeMolay will prosper.

I have nearly completed appointing members of my staff and have a total of 16 Master Masons who have accepted my invitation to work for Maine DeMolay as members of my staff.

They are as follows:

Director of Chapter Development	Stephen A. Marsden 174 Gamage Avenue Auburn, Maine 04210
Director of Senior Programs	Theodore D. Stanton R.F.D. #1, Box 190 Sebago Lake, Maine 04075
Director of Masonic Relations	Stanley R. Zeboski 15 Glen Avenue Cape Elizabeth, Maine 04107
Director of Honors & Awards	John P. Mosley 415 Congress Street Portland, Maine 04101
Director of Public Relations	To be announced later
Director of State Events	To be announced later
Director of Finance & Treasurer	Floyd A Beckwith Maine National Bank 15 Hinckley Drive South Portland, Maine 04106
Director of Legal Affairs	Carl R. Trynor 615 Congress Street Portland, Maine 04101

I have appointed the following District Deputies:

DeMolay District	Masonic District	DeMolay District Deputy
1	1, 24	To be appointed later
2	2, 3, 4, 21	To be appointed later
3	5, 6, 8, 22	David Mosley 211 Main Street Dexter, Maine 04930
4	12, 13	Philip Kneeland 33 Second Avenue Augusta, Maine 04330

5	7, 9, 11	Philip Kneeland 33 Second Avenue Augusta, Maine 04330
6	10, 14, 17	Daniel Cookson History Road Hollis, Maine 04042
7	15, 16, 20, 23	Charles Masselli 69 East Avenue Lewiston, Maine 04240
8	18, 19	John Basinger P.O. Box 142 Springvale, Maine 04083

In addition to my staff, I will have a State Executive Advisory Council consisting of 1 Advisor from each active chapter in the State, plus a representative DeMolay from each chapter. I have also appointed a special committee of 8 on "The Future of Maine DeMolay." The purpose of this committee is to present recommendations for the future direction of Maine DeMolay. They will make recommendations to the Executive Officer as to where DeMolay is, or should be headed and how we may better reach and attain those objectives.

My main two priorities are membership and chapter development which includes Advisor Training. A very close third priority is to improve Masonic Relations and educate Masons about the Order of DeMolay while educating DeMolays about the Masonic Fraternity. This is the reason I wanted past Masonic District Deputy Stan Zeboski as my Director of Masonic Relations. I am confident this goal will be reached with Brother Stan directing this operation. The Director of Senior Programs has already been working hard in the direction of re-activating the Pine Tree Priory which is the older DeMolays between the ages of 17 through 21. This will keep these boys actively involved in DeMolay until they reach the age of 21 and most likely will seek petitions to join the Masonic Fraternity.

State Master Councilor Steven Ferris presided over Conclave "84" which was held on the campus of Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine. State Councilors elected and installed for 1983-84 were as follows: State Master Councilor, Wayne A. Lobley; Deputy State Master Councilor, Mark E. Ryder; State Senior Councilor, Richard Kapise; and State Junior Councilor, Ernest Kneeland.

The State Softball Tournament was held in July and the newest chapter, Valley Chapter in West Buxton was the winner. The DeMolay Field Day sponsored by Kora Temple and put on by Lake Region Shrine Club was held on a Sunday following the State Softball Tournament and was very successful with about 300 persons attending. The Rainbow/DeMolay Evening was held at Kora Temple in Lewiston with a public ceremony and dance.

The State Basketball Tournament was held at the University of Maine, Orono.

The Social highlight of the year was the State DeMolay Sweetheart Pageant held this year on April 7th in the Scottish Rite Auditorium in the Grand Lodge Building. Miss Wendi Sue Ham was crowned State DeMolay Sweetheart.

I feel there is nothing more rewarding than to work with our young men of DeMolay and the young ladies of Rainbow. I have a plaque in my office that my son presented to me last June when he stepped down from being State Master Councilor which I am very proud of. It says, "A hundred years from now it will not matter what my bank account was, the sort of house I lived in, or the kind of car I drove. But the world may be different, because I was important in the life of a boy." This really says it all and I certainly hope that I have been and will always be important in the lives of our young men of DeMolay. And you Master Masons are also important in the lives of the young men of DeMolay as you make it all possible by sponsoring the Order of DeMolay in Maine. We sincerely thank you for that. If you would like to be even more important in the lives of our young men, become an Advisor. Also, visit a DeMolay meeting, and see the type of ritual work these young men do. You will never forget it.

In closing, I want to ask every one of you to say a prayer for the wife of our former Executive Officer, Lorraine Morgan who is fighting a courageous fight against a terrible illness. May all our prayers be with her.

Again, our sincere thanks for your continued interest and support to Maine DeMolay.

Respectfully submitted,

CLYDE L. FERRIS

Executive Officer in Maine

MAINE MASONIC BLOOD PROGRAM

R. W. Edward I. Emery, Chairman of the Maine Masonic Blood Program, presented the following report, which was accepted.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

I was appointed State Chairman for the Maine Masonic Blood Program in May 1983. My duty was to reorganize the system, stimulate interest among Lodges and provide a working program with the American Red Cross.

One of the first things that had to be done was to appoint a Blood Chairman in every District and he would try to have a Chairman named in each of his lodges. At the present time we have 16 regular District Blood Bank Chairmen with the District Deputies filling in the other 8 Districts.

The Blood Program Booklet that Rt. Wor. Bro. Oscar Hartford wrote in 1972 has been rewritten due to changing times and has been distributed to all lodges and districts. The manual contains all of the information that is necessary for each lodge and district to carry on a successful program.

I have had the opportunity to attend and speak at all the district meetings and have met some very devoted Masons throughout this Grand State.

The American Red Cross issued an I.D. number for every lodge in the state and I recommend that your lodge I.D. number be put on your dues card and your Red Cross donor card. When you or your family give blood don't forget to use your lodge I.D. number.

I would like to Congratulate Columbia-Doric #149 as the lodge that donated the most blood from any lodge last year—51 units, and to the 14th District the most blood donated from any district—117 units.

Last year we know that you donated 492 pints of blood but I wonder what the total would have been if every pint had been reported.

Brethren, on behalf of all the people you have helped by donating blood to save their lives. I take this opportunity to extend a special thanks for your support, and I ask you to please continue to donate blood in the future. A special thanks also to the District Chairmen, Lodge Chairmen and District Deputies who have made this year a success. My sincere and fraternal Thanks to Wor. Bro. Maurice Hutchins who has assisted and helped me during the past year.

Remember—We shall pass through this life but once, therefore any good deed we wish to do unto others, must be done now, for we shall not pass this way again.

Fraternally,

EDWARD I. EMERY

Maine Masonic Blood Program
Chairman

The Grand Marshal presented Wor. Bro. David Morrill, Past Master and Blood Bank Chairman of Columbia Doric Lodge No. 149 and Wor. Bro. Charles Blodgett, District Chairman of the 14th District, in the East and they were presented with Certificates for their assistance in the Blood Program by Bro. Emery who thanked them for their assistance and good work for this program.

The Grand Marshal was asked to present Brothers Maurice Hutchins, Earle Welch, Albert Moore, Kenneth Averill and Wallace Gage in the East where the Grand Master presented them with the Grand Master's Certificates of Meritorious Service Awards for their contribution to Masonry in Maine.

MASONIC EDUCATION AND LODGE SERVICE

R. W. Walter M. Macdougall, for the Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service, presented the following report which was accepted.

May 2, 1984

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

With a feeling of joy, we report that there appears to be an awakening of masonic spirit across this Grand Jurisdiction.

The District Representatives who have both participated and greatly contributed to this renewal of energy within the Craft deserve much credit, and to them this committee expresses its deep appreciation. These masons have guided those lodges (now over forty in number) which have agreed to pilot test our revised program of candidate education. They have fostered the "Lodges in Action Program," stimulated support of youth organizations, urged the expansion of the "Care and Share Program," and developed programs for the support of lodge programs and of officer preparation which may well serve the entire jurisdiction. Their reports of mileage traveled in the performance of these services to the Craft exceed the average of 500 miles per Representative.

The chairman would like to express his own appreciation of the labors and support of each member of the committee. In the words of an old Gaelic saying, each of these men has "a pure heart of light in the bosom of his shirt." There is no finer group of men dedicated to the purpose of Freemasonry anywhere around this globe.

R. W. Brother John Anagnostis, despite physical affliction—now happily passed—has continued to head our Speaker's Bureau and to disseminate information through a column in the Maine Mason.

R. W. Brother N. James Coolong has coordinated the work of this committee with the Grand Lecturer's Program. Under his guidance, the district representatives have participated in the district educational schools. R. W. Brother Jim is also heading this committee's efforts to build a program to assure the continuation of programs within subordinate lodges and to help improve the effectiveness of lodge officers.

Under the direction of R. W. Brother Ernest Curtis, our program of advanced masonic education is now underway. Already the program has received enthusiastic response from participants. Under R. W. Brother Ernie's guidance, this program will become a pillar of support and strength within the Craft of this jurisdiction. We wish to express our appreciation to the Past District Deputies for their assistance in this program.

R. W. Brother Edwin George, to whom we all owe so much for his work in developing the Care and Share Program and the Lodges In Action Program, has continued to build these projects. Both these Programs are described in detail within the District Representative's Manual which has been completely revised this year through the combined efforts of R. W. Brother Ed and the chairman of this committee.

R. W. Brother Wilbur Loveitt's dedication to the support and the building of DeMolay and Rainbow organizations is well known. What is truly amazing is that his energy and enthusiasm never ebb. R. W. Brother Wilbur in his report to this committee makes special mention of the tremendous stimulation the increased presence of brethren at the meetings of our youth has had. He also expressed his appreciation for the support of the district representatives and other Grand Lodge representatives.

R. W. Brother Charles Plummer, in addition to his exemplary service as a representative, has undertaken the collection of data upon the success and worth of our revised educational program for use in making a formal presentation to this Grand Lodge.

R. W. Brother S. Clyde Ross, assisted by W. Brother Charles Plummer and the chairman of this committee, is revising the Instructor's Manual which constitutes the source book for our revised educational program.

Last fall this committee presented two area seminars for masonic educators. They were, in all respects, professional presentations. Representatives Kenneth Mitchell, Stephen Kemp, and Charles Plummer along with W. Brother Lloyd Treworgy deserve our special thanks for their presentations at these seminars.

The committee has continued with the publication of a bi-monthly newsletter for district representatives. Recently the mailing list for this newsletter has been expanded to include a wider range of Grand Lodge officers.

Service in this committee has continued to be a learning experience—especially for its chairman. Next year, we shall endeavor to improve our communications, our support of the district representatives, and, with greater wisdom, to push forward our programs in behalf of the Craft. In the near future we are hoping to introduce spring seminars for lodge educational coordinators and instructors while next winter a series of seminars are planned for lodge officers.

In closing this report, the Committee on Masonic Education and Lodge Service would like to thank the Grand Secretary and his office staff for their patient assistance. The committee also expresses its gratitude to Most Worshipful C. Ross Buzzell for his invaluable support and encouragement and to both M. W. Brother Ross and his wife for opening their home as a meeting place for this committee.

RAYMOND M. RIDEOUT AWARD

The Grand Marshal escorted R. W. Ernest H. Curtis, Wor. Arthur F. Bennett, Master of Deering Lodge and Bro. David A. Walker, Senior Warden of Monmouth Lodge No. 110, to the East where Bro. Curtis presented them with Certificates for the great work they have done in the area of Masonic Education. The Raymond M. Rideout Trophy was awarded for the third time to Deering Lodge where it was retired. The Master of Deering Lodge asked that last year's Master, Wor. John Lefebvre accept this trophy because of the work which was done during his year.

DRUMMOND MEDAL

The Grand Master presented R. W. Walter M. Macdougall with the Josiah Hayden Drummond Distinguished Service Award. Brother Macdougall responded with appropriate remarks and thanked Grand Master Buzzell for the honor conferred upon him.

WALTER M. MACDOUGALL

Walter M. Macdougall was born at Waterville, Maine, November 4, 1933, the son of the late Reverend and Mrs. Arthur Macdougall. He is married to the former Judith Dale. They have three sons, Arthur in the U.S. Army; Malcolm at Harvard University; George at the University of Maine at Orono.

He came to Milo in 1957 as a member of the faculty of what was then Milo High School. He is now a highly valued member of the staff of Penquis Valley High School at Milo, his current work as director or administrator of special grants and educational programs.

He has a wide range of interests, including historical research along several lines, and is frequently in demand as a speaker at organizational meetings in the area. He has been a contributor to Down East magazine as well as the Maine Mason and Short Talks Bulletin.

He is a Past Master of Piscataquis Lodge No. 44; Past High Priest of Rabboni Chapter #62; member of St. John's Commandery #3; Past District Deputy Grand Master of District #5; present Chairman of the Maine Masonic Educational Committee; a member of the Advisory Committee of the Maine Mason among other activities. He also holds the Simon Greenleaf Medal from the Grand Lodge of Maine.

He is also a member of Tamerlane Conclave #3, Knights of the Red Cross of Constantine, and is presently a line officer of the Conclave. He is a member of Maine College Societas Rosicruciana in Civitatibus Foederatis.

He has truly been a Masonic student from the moment he was raised in Piscataquis Lodge and whenever he has a free moment (which is seldom in his busy schedule) he may be found in search of Further Light in Masonry.

PAYROLL

R. W. Merrill Kittredge, for the Committee on Payroll, reported verbally that a schedule had been prepared, the money was in his hands and they would be paying those who had to leave at the end of this day's session and the rest after the close of the session tomorrow.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE CHARITY FUND

M. W. Charles E. Crossland, for the Committee on Distribution of the Charity Fund, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 2, 1954

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The Committee on Distribution of Grand Lodge Charity is pleased to report that amounting to $104,800 was granted to 56 Masons or their families holding membership in 47 lodges. While this is somewhat less than the assistance given the preceding year, it is gratifying to report such substantial assistance. Approximately 70% of the total was given to members of lodges with the balance to widows of Masons who needed relief.

In addition to the assistance to members and others, the Grand Lodge Charity Fund also gave $6,450 to the Masonic Service Association Hospital Visitation Program which includes the Veterans' Hospital at Togus. Their agent at that facility renders invaluable services to members and others in the hospital. Also a gift of $2,000 was given to the Pine Tree Youth and DeMolay Foundation for use in assisting the DeMolay program in Maine.

Our Charitable Foundation could assist many more if applications were received. The only test applied to each application is the extent of actual need the data show exists in each case. Our Fund maintains an Income Stabilization Fund of about $40,000 as a reserve for use if applications exceed the current income. We would welcome the opportunity to draw upon this Fund. Although our Committee takes pleasure in assisting needy cases we do not overlook the fact that the word, Charity, means Love. Surely we can give expression to our fraternal affection for members and their families by personal calls and other expressions of our interest. This is Charity at its best.

LIBRARY AND MUSEUM

R. W. Edwin V. George, for the Committee on Library and Museum, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 2, 1984

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.:

The Grand Lodge Library has been continually downgraded. Various reasons have been offered. The location of the library, no one is interested, no one uses the library or reads masonic books, etc., etc.

Thus the comments continue on and on. At this point should we close our eyes, we would at once seem to hear the purveyors of doom speaking of masonry itself.

Let's be realistic. For a library to be utilized and of value to the user, it must be: accessible at all times to the general public and at a walk-in level, staffed by a professional librarian and functional assistants, utilizing a standard masonic related classification system for accountability and readily availability and filing purposes.

Our Grand Master, C. Ross Buzzell, authorized M. W. Harold L. Chute to recognize these requirements, appoint a statewide representative committee that will prepare a corrective course of action. That action has been completed partially. A set of comprehensive by-laws has been prepared for an I.R.S. approved corporation. Position descriptions are available, funding has been discussed, floor space requirements determined, organization chart from University of New Hampshire, recommended floor space data from University of Maine, consultant discussions with professional librarians. A standard masonic classification system, utilized by professionals has been received and adopted.

The purpose of this non-profit corporation, incorporated under the laws of the State of Maine, is to organize, support, maintain and operate a museum and library with related facilities, open to the general public and dedicated to the purpose and history of Masonic Fraternal Organizations throughout the State of Maine, the United States of America and the World.

Interest and enthusiasm at various levels is increasingly evident. We have the talents and their willingness to establish such a corporation. What better time than now to improve our public image by making our history and accomplishments readily available for one and all researchers, students, historians, etc. As to timeliness, the following is relevant "Whether it is the best of times or the worst of times, it is the only time we've got."

CONDITION OF THE FRATERNITY

R. W. Lewis E. Newell, for the Committee on Condition of the Fraternity, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge

Portland, Maine

May 2, 1984

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Your standing committee on the "Condition of the Fraternity" has reviewed the reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters, as provided in Sec. 36, Par. 9 of the Grand Lodge Constitution.

District Deputies:

We have reviewed the inspection reports of the individual lodges, with the exception of nine in the 18th District and one in the 21st District, which we did not receive. We also reviewed the District Deputies' reports from all Districts except the 18th and 24th, which we did not receive.

Eighteen of the annual reports were exceptionally well prepared. Five of these reports from the 5th, 11th, 12th, 14th and 17th were outstanding. All of the above reports were comprehensive and gave an excellent overview of the various conditions and activities in their respective districts.

Four reports were quite brief and did not fully cover the areas that this committee needs to properly report on the condition of the fraternity.

The District Deputies have been very active and many report improving conditions in their districts. They reported many of their ideas and suggestions as well as making several recommendations. They are as follows:

1. One Deputy recommended suspension of degree work in one of his lodges until the lodge shows evidence that the degrees will be properly exemplified.
2. Another recommends that the Area Schools for Lodge Secretaries be resumed.
3. Another reports on a pending consolidation.
4. That the District Representatives be reimbursed for expenses incurred while attending functions under the direction of Grand Lodge.
5. That it should not be necessary to inspect the original charter every year.
6. That the Official Cipher should include "taking your cue from the East" following "the Sign Brethren."
7. That the District Deputies School should include guidelines for examination of the Secretary's and Treasurer's Books.
8. That if a district has an "Island Lodge," one School of Instruction should be held at a time and place convenient for them.
9. That a guide be prepared for new incoming District Deputies.
10. That lodges consider awarding a traveling pocket diploma to those who comply with S.R. No. 25.
11. That an appropriate card be printed to award those who receive the Past Masters Degree.
12. One Deputy suggests compulsory attendance by all Officers at Schools of Instruction, also all participants in the second section of the Master Mason's Degree.
13. That a change be made in the 1921 ruling concerning assessments and Charity Funds.
14. That the Masters and Wardens Association be re-activated in the 22nd District and could promote one or more pilot lodges for the district.

Financial Conditions

Forty-five lodges reported outstanding dues of less than $200.00, five of these had less than $60.00, and three had no outstanding dues. Several lodges have no outstanding dues for more than one year. The above reflects an excellent job done by these lodges.

Most lodges appear to have their outstanding dues under control. One lodge with 257 members had $3,840.00 in outstanding dues when the lodge inspection was made.

DeMolay and Rainbow

Several districts report support of DeMolay and Rainbow Chapters and joint activities with them.

Masonic Instruction and Educational Programs

All reporting districts report exceptionally well presented Schools of Instruction. The deputies report that in many cases, those that need to attend the schools do not.

Considerable activity by the District Representatives was reported. Several pilot lodges have been set up and 4th Night programs have been held.

Many outstanding meetings were held. Some of these are as follows:

An International Past Masters Night at St. Croix Lodge in Calais, fifteen lodges from the U.S. and Canada were represented, including the Grand Master of New Brunswick and our Junior Grand Warden.

Another meeting in eastern Maine to honor a 73-year veteran, Waldo Berry, who presented his two sons with 40-year pins. Bro. Berry was 98 years plus on the date of the meeting.

Degree work by the Maine State Police and Kora Kraftsmen teams in the 10th district was reported to be a model of excellence.

Degree work by C.M.P. and the Air National Guard degree team was reported in 11th district and reported to be outstanding.

Several exceptional Widow's Night programs and one in particular at Bingham #199 were noted.

A School for new Secretaries was held in the 6th District conducted by R. W. Linwood Littlefield, a veteran Secretary.

Several Table Lodges were held and all had very favorable reports.

Our Grand Master was the recipient of the Legion of Honor Award at the annual Order of DeMolay Awards and Ceremonies Night.

Another outstanding Master Mason Degree when Wor. Bro. Keith Bennett, past master of Tyrian Lodge raised his twin sons with our Grand Master in attendance. Masters, Wardens or Officers Associations

Nine Districts reported very active associations, two reported inactive and one being re-organized. One Association is establishing a new Training Program for Line Officers and prospective line officers. Other associations contribute considerably to masonry in their districts.

Ritual

Two lodges were given "Poor" rating, 6 - Fair, 61 - Good, and all others reviewed were rated Very Good or Excellent. One Lodge was not rated on the inspection report.

Masonic Widows and Caring and Sharing Programs

Nearly all Districts report several Widow's Nights and some activity in the Caring and Sharing Program.

Charity Funds

Fifteen Lodge Reports indicated that they did not have Charity Funds. All other reports that were reviewed had at least a small fund.

Morning Star Lodge #41 practiced Charity in the old fashioned way. They assisted a member by cutting, splitting, and stacking firewood in the member's woodshed.

General Conditions

Amity Lodge #6 of Camden is meeting at St. Paul's Lodge in Rockport. The District Deputy reports that they are actively pursuing facilities of their own.

Euclid Lodge #194 of Madison is now meeting at the Fraternity Hall in North Anson.

Richmond Lodge and Village Lodge were consolidated into Village Lodge #26 this year.

Oxford Lodge #18 has plans for a new temple.

Many energy saving improvements are being made and a number of general improvement projects were reported.

Summary

It was reported that one lodge was in need of remedial action and the District Deputy has made appropriate recommendations.

The District Deputies' Reports reflect that they expect a continued improvement due to the new programs that are being implemented and by the tireless efforts of Education Representatives, the Assistant Grand Lecturers and many other dedicated masons.

Recommendations

1. The District Deputies recommendations should be reviewed by the appropriate Grand Lodge Committees.
2. The District Deputies should be commended for the comprehensive reports that were prepared this year. This committee wishes to extend its appreciation for the outstanding work.

RETURNS

R. W. Edwin V. George, for the Committee on Returns, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 2, 1984

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

This year's numerical loss of 686 is higher than last year, the percentage of loss being 1.8. However we still initiated, raised, affiliated and reinstated more Masons than last year.

At the close of the calendar year the total membership was 37,339. Thirty-seven lodges reported a gain in membership, 146 a loss and 17 remained the same.

Hiram Lodge No. 180, which remains the largest with a membership of 840, also suffered the greatest loss (32). Naskeag No. 171 remains the smallest with 40 members. King Hiram No. 57 shows the largest gain (8). Average membership is 186.7 and 46 lodges report fewer than 100 members.

There were 619 raised, 151 affiliated, 124 reinstated, 207 demitted, 328 suspended N.P.D. and 1,041 deceased.

The following table shows comparisons for the past five years:

	1979	1980	1981	1982	1983
Initiated	710	778	708	606	666
Raised	672	733	656	578	619
Affiliated	179	169	143	120	151
Reinstated	98	73	82	80	124
Demitted	206	204	209	186	207
Suspended	2	2	0	1	3
Suspended, N.P.D.	301	357	384	345	328
Deprived of Membership ..	0	0	1	4	0
Net gain (loss)	(565)	(564)	(664)	(655)	(686)
Number of Members	39,908	39,344	38,680	38,025	37,339

It should be noted at this point that a concentrated effort, at all levels, to reduce if not eliminate the number of suspended and demitting each year, would turn an annual loss to a gain.

HISTORY

Wor. Edwin E. Cummings, for the Committee on History, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
May 2, 1984

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.:

At our Annual Communication on May 4, 1983, M. W. M. Donald Gardner spoke to the brethren about the preparation of histories and the fines imposed on those who had not brought their histories up to date. As the majority of those received were merely statistics, he recommended that the committee prepare an outline as a guide to all Lodges. Thus the committee was charged to prepare one.

The preliminary draft of that document is now available for review and discussion. The results of which will be incorporated and distributed to all Lodges in September or sooner.

Basically it will contain a Foreword, Background, Purpose, Scope, Responsibilities, Instructions and a Preparation check-list. It is admittedly all encompassing but it is an attempt to provide the preparers with every conceivable bit of information that will facilitate the desired result. "Words that will defy the ravages of time when committed to the printed page."

DISPENSATIONS AND CHARTERS

M. W. Roger I. White, for the Committee on Dispensations and Charters, verbally reported that no matters had been referred to the Committee, and the report was accepted.

INSURANCE

R. W. Bruce S. Tornquist, for the Committee on Insurance, verbally reported that no matters had come before it and the report was accepted.

WIDOWS' PROGRAM

M. W. Aubrey L. Burbank, speaking in behalf of the Wor. Grand Chaplains, presented the following report, which was accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 2, 1984

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

Once again, the Worshipful Grand Chaplains have had a very busy year in their diligent effort to keep pace with their responsibility in writing letters of condolence, comfort and assurance to our widows of recently departed brethren. While it is quite possible that we might miss one on occasion, it would be a rare instance indeed, due to the fine response of our Lodge Secretaries, plus the equally diligent and painstaking efforts of Mrs. Tupper ("Clipper II") and staff of the Grand Secretary's office in keeping us informed weekly.

The Grand Chaplains have, collectively, written 462 such letters, plus numerous appearances and participation in Lodge programs. We, obviously, regret the losses which prompt this labor of love, but receive our reward in the responses of so many thoughtful ladies.

A large number of our Lodges set apart a special day or evening to honor these ladies and present them with their Widow's Pin, all of which is most appreciated. If our efforts reflect the genuine concern of this Grand Lodge, it is a just reward.

My personal appreciation is tendered to each of my fellow Grand Chaplains for their sacrificial labor on behalf of this Grand Lodge.

Grand Chaplains,

AUBREY L. BURBANK, P.G.M.
Grand Chaplain

GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS

M. W. Charles R. Glassmire, for the Committee on Grievances and Appeals and the Commissioners of Trials gave the following reports, which were accepted.

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 2, 1984

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

James W. Clifford on or about September 8, 1981 was found guilty in Kennebec County Superior Court of unlawful sexual contact with a minor on three counts. He was sentenced to one year in the State Penitentiary.

On March 31, 1984, a hearing was held by the Trial Commissioners at the Masonic Temple in Auburn, Maine. The defendant was not present nor was he represented by counsel.

He was found guilty of gross un-Masonic conduct and it was recommended that he be expelled from all the rights and privileges of Freemasonry.

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals has met and reviewed the proceedings and find everything in order. We unanimously recommend that he be expelled from Freemasonry.

M. W. Grand Master, I move that James W. Clifford be expelled from all the rights and privileges of Freemasonry.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

One year ago the Trial Commission reported that they had attempted to serve Lawrence E. Darling of Ashlar Lodge No. 105 for a hearing on the lodge's complaint against Brother Darling for "Theft by Deception."

Brother Darling had been found guilty in Kennebec County Superior Court of the charge of "Theft by Deception."

The Chairman of the Trial Commissioners reported that no decision had been rendered because of the lack of service. During this past year service has again been attempted unsuccessfully. The suspension which was imposed by the Grand Master and continued for one year by Grand Lodge at its last session, is still in effect but expires today.

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals believes that adequate attempts were made to serve Bro. Darling. We therefore believe action should be taken at this time.

M. W. Grand Master, I move that Lawrence E. Darling be indefinitely suspended from all the rights and privileges of Freemasonry.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

William S. Stubbart was found guilty in Kennebec County Superior Court on the charge of "Theft by unauthorized taking or transfer." He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a one hundred dollar ($100.) fine.

Prior to Bro. Stubbart's admission to Rural Lodge No. 53 of Sidney, Maine, he had previously been convicted at the Maine District Court in Waterville on a charge of shoplifting. At the time the said William S. Stubbart filed his application for membership to Rural Lodge No. 53 he falsely failed and neglected to reveal the said conviction on his application for membership.

On February 15, 1984, the M. W. Grand Master, C. Ross Buzzell, suspended him from the rights and privileges of Freemasonry. The Trial Commission attempted to serve the said William S. Stubbart but despite numerous attempts were unable so to do.

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals feels that adequate attempts were made.

M. W. Grand Master, I move that William S. Stubbart be indefinitely suspended from all the rights and privileges of Freemasonry.

Fraternally submitted,

BRUCE S. TORNQUIST
Grand Treasurer

Voted—That the report of the Grand Treasurer be accepted, subject to the report of the Auditor.

Voted—To accept the gifts to the Charity Fund of $486.00.

Voted—To authorize the Grand Treasurer to sign Proxies of Securities owned by the Foundation, to sign Stock Certificates, Resolutions and other documents pertaining to the sale of securities.

(3) Charles Crossland, Chairman of the Committee on Investments, submitted an excellent report (copies distributed and analyzed.) The following items were noted:

a. The market value of securities as of February 29, 1984 was $1,913,181.00 which is a slight decrease from the figure of one year ago. Both the stock and bond markets were off considerably from an earlier period. Our fund had shrunk less than the S & P rating as of that date. The annual income is now $165,000.00 or more. This does not include the income from the Income Stabilization Fund.

b. Investment Policy—The policy of your Committee is to place first emphasis upon the safety of principal with income and appreciation as secondary factors.

c. Type of Security—Based upon the securities owned February 29, 1984, the distribution of types of securities was as follows:

	Cost	Market Value	Percent	1984
Bonds	$ 724,808	$ 685,772	36	37
Stocks	790,490	1,227,409	64	63

d. Name Funds—Income was added to principal for the following funds (Allen, Furbish, Gould and Thayer).

e. Income Stabilization Reserve Fund—Established in 1981 at approximately $40,000.00 and by discreet management by our Grand Treasurer it has increased to over $67,000.00. As income consistently exceeds demand it behooves us to transfer $25,000.00 from this fund to the Charity Fund for permanent investment.

Voted—To accept the report.

Voted—To confirm and ratify all actions of the Investment Committee for the year ended March 31, 1984.

(4) Charles Crossland, Chairman of the Committee on Distribution gave a detailed account of the individual line item assistance grants for the year and was again commended for the statistical format, etc. His judgement, compassion and performance has been outstanding.

Voted to accept the report with appreciation.

(5) Voted to pay expenses incident to the work of the Committee on Distribution, including compensation of $3,000.00 for the Chairman for the year ended March 31, 1984.

(6) Voted to authorize percentage payments to the Grand Lodge for services rendered as follows:

- a. Salary of the Grand Secretary 10% ($1,200.00)
- b. Salary of the Grand Treasurer 75% ($5,250.00)
- c. Salaries of the Office Staff ($1,000.00)
- d. Office supplies ($300.00)
- e. Auditors fee (75%)
- f. Calculator ($100.00)

(7). Voted—Donations to the Masonic Service Association Hospital Program and related activities:

- a. Masonic Service Association $5,500.00
- b. M.S.A. Agent at Togus $650.00
- c. Maine Veterans Home at Augusta $100.00
- d. Master/Wardens' Assoc. (11th & 14th Districts) - up to $500.00
- e. Annual Togus Hospital visit - up to $750.00
- f. Grand Lodge Masonic Blood Bank Program $1,000.00

(8) Voted—To donate to the DeMolay & Pine Tree Youth Foundation, $2,000.00.

(9) Voted—That the Investment Committee be authorized to transfer up to $50,000.00 from the Relief Account to the Grand Lodge Charity Fund.

(10) The Committee on Investment was elected as follows:

Chairman - Harold L. Chute
Charles E. Crossland
Millard A. Whitney
Grand Master (Ex-officio)

(11) The Committee on Distribution was appointed as follows:

Chairman - Charles E. Crossland
Grand Master
Grand Secretary

(12) Voted—Policy with investment counsel. Standish, Ayer & Wood new agreement states that the counsel will serve as consultant on bonds and they will be authorized to purchase and sell stocks at their discretion. A plan which could conceivably save about $3,000.00 per year in consultant's fees.

(13) Investment of Lodge Funds—The vast majority of responses to the letter to constituent Lodges, concerning their interest in utilizing Grand Lodge investment sources and expertise, were emphatically negative. With this obvious lack of interest this Committee has ceased all action on this subject.

(14) The next meeting was scheduled for Wednesday, May 2, at 12:00 noon.

(15) No other business appearing, the meeting was adjourned at 5:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

E. V. GEORGE
Grand Secretary

Committee on Fraternal Relations

1984

To the Most Worshipful, the Grand Lodge of Maine, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons:

We submit, herewith, our Annual Report on Fraternal Relations, consisting of a FOREWORD, Special Reports, Recommendations, and Reviews.

FOREWORD

Despite the revolutions, turmoil and terrorism rampant in the world today, Freemasonry LIVES! To be sure, it has suffered serious set-backs, persecution, and even the jailing and even death of some of our brethren in war-torn countries, yet many of these persecuted Grand Lodges have continued to keep the light of Masonry alive tho driven underground, refusing to allow the tenets of Freemasonry to be surrendered. We extend our prayers and good wishes to these, our tenacious brethren.

Losses in membership continue to plague nearly every Grand Jurisdiction, and in most cases as a result of N.P.D. Reflection drawn from reviews would indicate that personal contact could alleviate this condition in many instances. In some jurisdictions, the Grand Master has taken it upon himself to write a personal letter to these delinquents, resulting in some success in thus reviving an otherwise lost interest. Personal circumstances have likewise been discovered through this personal concern.

Let this not, however, cast a shadow over the future of this, the oldest of such fraternal bodies in the history of the world. We still have the tools of survival and recovery. We must accept the challenge with fortitude and determination by cultivating greater interest and usefulness among our young and newly-raised brethren - by precept and example - by greater consideration of potential leadership and dedication - by even greater emphasis on education and programming and by discreet public relations. To attract and to retain members by our public demeanor and image within and without the Lodge room is of vital importance.

Do not despair, Freemasonry LIVES!

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,
For the Committee,

Aubrey L. Burbank, P.G.M.
Chairman

SPECIAL REPORTS

Your Committee has received numerous requests for recognition of Foreign Jurisdictions, and after careful consideration report to this Grand Lodge as follows:

AFRICA

In a letter dated April 1, 1984, a request for recognition was received from the Grand Lodge of Gabon, a small nation on the west coast of French Equatorial Africa. This Grand Lodge was legitimately consecrated by the National Grand Lodge of France on November 12th, 1983, less than six months ago. Its brief existence has yet to be recognized by the Grand Lodges of England, Scotland, and Ireland, and, to the best of our knowledge, only one Grand Lodge in the United States has extended such recognition thus far (Conn.).

While there appears to be little doubt of their compliance with our long-established requirements, this Committee prefers to postpone such recognition at this early date.

BRAZIL(a) SAO PAULO

The Grand Lodge of the State of Sao Paulo, having been properly and legally organized and constituted in July of 1927, and having proven itself worthy, being the largest independent Grand Lodge among its 22 sister regular Grand Lodges in Brazil, holding undisputed territorial jurisdiction over its 198 Lodges, requests recognition and exchange of representatives with the Grand Lodge of Maine.

After due consideration, this committee hereby recommends such Recognition and exchange of representatives with the Grand Lodge of the State of Sao Paulo.

(b) RIO GRAND DO SUL

This Grand Lodge, having been properly instituted in 1928 according to our standards, and having adhered to those principles since that time, this committee, satisfied with their credentials, now recommend Recognition and the usual exchange of Representatives.

(c) SANTA CATARINA

The Grand Lodge of Santa Catarina, legitimately founded in April of 1956, and having exclusive jurisdiction, now petitions this Grand Lodge for Reciprocal Recognition and exchange of representatives. Your Committee having reviewed the voluminous statistics provided now recommend Recognition and exchange with the Grand Lodge of Santa Catarina in Brazil.

CUBA (Miami, Florida)

In a letter dated November 18, 1983, the "professed" Grand Lodge of Cuba, located in Miami, Florida, extended an invitation to all Grand Lodges in the U.S. to Inaugurational ceremonies to be held in January, 1984. Following receipt of said invitation, our Grand Lodge received communications from The Masonic Service Association and the Commission On Information For Recognition of The Conference of Grand Masters to the effect that said Grand Lodge is "totally irregular" and not in amity with any regular Grand Lodge in the U.S., thereby rendering it improper for members of this or any other regular Grand Lodge in America to engage in masonic relationship or attend meetings of the Lodges under the jurisdiction of this irregular Grand Lodge while visiting or residing in Florida. This is for your information only.

While we do not presently hold fraternal relationship with the Grand Lodge in Havana, we have no reason to question its regularity. However, under present circumstances, inter-relationship with members under the Grand Lodge of Maine should not prevail.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

The Grand Lodge of The Dominican Republic, in a letter dated July 27, 1983, requests Recognition by this Grand Lodge. Said Grand Lodge having been regularly established in October of 1858, it celebrated its 125th Anniversary in October of this past year. Your Committee, having reviewed the above-mentioned request, now recommends that said request be granted, and that recognition and exchange of Representatives be affirmed.

MEXICO

Our Most Worshipful Grand Master, while visiting the Grand Lodge of Michigan, had occasion to fraternize with the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Nuevo Leon in Monterrey, Mexico, resulting in a request for recognition and fraternal relations between the two Grand Jurisdictions. This Grand Lodge, regularly constituted in 1905, having received the perusal of your committee, we hereby acknowledge its regularity, and recommend recognition and fraternal relationship with mutual appointment of Representatives.

101st Annual Communication

M. W. Charles A. Patterson, Grand Master

Lodges, 70

Members, 16,337

Gain, 35

Following the usual formal opening of the Grand Lodge, the Grand Master proceeded with his Address, citing the several visitations made within and without the Grand Jurisdiction, including 8 sister jurisdictions. He noted that once again a gain in membership was made this past year, indicating that such increase was "due in part to an influx of Masons from sister jurisdictions who have either affiliated with one of our lodges or has taken out dual memberships." This being the 101st Annual Communication, the beginning of a new Century was marked by the Constituting of J. Wayne Lodge, the first to be so constituted in their 2nd century of their existence. The Grand Master further listed appointments, dispensations, decisions, by-law changes and recommendations, closing with words of appreciation.

Fourteen Distinguished Guests from 12 sister jurisdictions were presented, including 8 presiding Grand Masters.

The General Policy Committee approved all acts of the Grand Master and Committees except one by the Grand Master and Committee on Charters and By-laws, dealing with certain Trust Funds of a Lodge. This report was adopted in toto. The Committee on Jurisprudence concurred on all such matters referred to them, and their report was likewise adopted. The reports of these two committees clears the way for the establishment of a Constituent York Rite Sovereign College of No. America in Arizona, said College declaring its fealty to the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Arizona.

Reports appear to suggest Life Membership as common practice in this jurisdiction.

Upon recommendation of the Committee on Fraternal Relations, the Grand Lodge of Spain was granted recognition.

Bro. Charles T. Mason, Jr., was elected and installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and Bro. James M. King was continued as V. W. Grand Secretary. A semi-public Installation Ceremony was held at 7:30 p.m. with a social gathering following.

154th Annual Communication

May 9-11, 1983

M. W. Harvey B. Eddy, Grand Master

Lodges, 327

Members, 83,158

Loss, 81

The Grand Lodge having been opened in Ample Form, 14 Distinguished brethren from Florida's allied and appendant bodies, plus 5 Distinguished Guests from other Grand Jurisdictions, were presented and appropriately greeted, followed by the presentation of 14 of the 23 living Past Grand Masters, likewise greeted with Grand Honors.

The Most Worshipful Grand Master proceeded with his Report, including Dispensations, Proclamations, By-laws approved, Executive Orders, Edicts, Rulings and Decisions, etc. In his opening remarks, the Grand Master stated as his Charity project outside the fraternity, the Shands Teaching Hospital in Gainesville. He also spoke of his pride and joy in the youth associated with the fraternity.

Word Processing Equipment was provided for the Grand Secretary's office.

Lodges must be represented in the Grand Lodge at least once in two years or their charters could be in jeopardy.

The usual dispensations were granted, including the receipt of petitions from maimed applicants, the working of out-of-door Degrees, participation in a Christmas parade in Regalia, etc. In the more than 50 Executive Orders, several of which included unmasonic conduct, the Grand Master suggests that "to avoid the unpleasantness of a Masonic Trial, the accused avail himself of the right to resign from . . . Lodge . . . etc." This procedure is not familiar to this writer inasmuch as most Grand Lodges do not permit members to sever their masonic membership in such fashion. However, it being lawful under Reg. 26.28 of their Digest of Masonic Law, I obviously make no further comment, and report this only as an observation.

The Jurisprudence Committee submitted 2 Special Reports taking up 22 pages of the Proceedings dealing with proposed legislation as to the corporate status of the Grand Lodge.

Among amended Regulations, one was passed which relaxes rules governing "Solicitation" in that a Mason may inform non-members of the broad nature of Freemasonry, offering assistance (if he shows interest), but not to the point of urging or pressuring such non-mason to accept such offer.

Bro. Robert Louis Goldsmith was elected and installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and Bro. William A. Whitcomb was continued as Right Worshipful Grand Secretary.

IOWA, 1983

Davenport

139th Annual Communication

Sept. 16-17, 1983

M. W. Norval P. Marks, Grand Master

Lodges, 569

Members, 59,618

Loss, 1,926

The Grand Lodge was opened in Ample Form, with 14 of the 18 living Past Grand Masters in attendance, plus Distinguished Guests from 9 Sister Jurisdictions and 8 Concor-dant Bodies.

In his Address, the Grand Master stated that while Iowa experiences and challenges are as Masonry throughout the world, yet it is "an exciting time for Freemasonry. Opportunity is knocking and it is up to us to open the door to the future," - that through good leadership - four new Temples have been constructed and several other lodges have spent time and money to improve their facilities. These brethren believe in the future and are determined that their Temples are not only a visible part of the community, but that they project the image that the dignity of Masonry deserves. (most commendable - ALB).

The Grand Master recommends that consideration be given to raising dues and fees, and that increased concern be given in choice of Lodge leadership.

A portion of his Address contains a report of his agenda, special events, Dispensations granted, Decisions and opinions expressed, all of which were approved by the Committee on Jurisprudence.

The largest Lodge [Acanthus #632] records, 1,154 members; the smallest three by same number of 17 members.

At the appointed time of the first day, Bro. C. Glenn Brown was elected as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and R. W. Bro. Tom Eggleston as Grand Secretary.

KENTUCKY, 1982

182nd Annual Communication

October 19-20, 1982

M. W. James B. Elliott, Grand Master

Lodges, 464

Members, 94,315

Loss, 830

Nineteen Past Grand Masters were present, together with 29 Distinguished Guests, representing 16 Sister Jurisdictions.

The Grand Master's Report reflects the efforts and accomplishments of the several Committees and associated groups. One of the uncommon, but commendable acts was the presentation of Certificates of Achievement to 53 boys who had earned the rank of Eagle Scout. This was part of a program to promote publicity.

A Decision was made and approved declaring an individual a non-mason, in that even having received the degrees, he had served time in the penitentiary for a felony, and was on probation.

A further decision was made correcting an insufficient process in the granting of a demit.

An increase of $1.00 in fees due the Grand Lodge over a 3 yr. period to cover the establishment and maintenance of the "Feltman Property" as a Masonic Museum and Library.

A Resolution providing for a return to a 3-day session of the Grand Lodge failed.

Among the Standing Committees, this Grand Lodge has one known as the Committee on Masonology, whose duty appears to encompass Public Relations, Publicity, plus various services to the Lodges, such as Special Programs, Speaker's Bureau, etc. Most commendable services are reported in the Proceedings.

Bro. Kenneth C. Morgan was elected and installed as Most Worshipful Grand Master for 1982-83.

Bro. Joe C. McClanahan, PGM, was reinstalled as Grand Secretary.

The Grand Master reports, in his Address, on the most rewarding trip to England on the part of 37 Michigan brethren and their wives.

His Report also contains the following information:

That the Michigan Masonic Home housing approximately 300 guests has been remodeled quite extensively through the support of Michigan brethren.

That the Annual Appeal resulted in an all-time record sum of $186,775.31.

That a 9-foot statue of George Washington in full Masonic regalia, provided by Mr. Donald Delue would be placed on the front lawn of the Lewis Cass Building in Lansing, M. W. Bro. Cass having been the first Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Michigan, the total cost of which amounts to $60,000., with the contributions already near $52,000.

That he found it necessary to issue a ruling prohibiting the use of alcoholic beverages in Masonic Temples, including Appendant Bodies as well as all meetings and events by Masons or Masonic Lodges, together with a further ruling that forbids District Deputy Instructors or members of the Board of General Purposes to be elective officers of their respective Lodges. This latter ruling was subsequently defeated.

Further reference was made to the functions of Grand Lodge and the visitations of the Grand Master, plus reports of Dispensations, Dedications and Consolidations.

It needs be noted that the report of the Grand Secretary reveals that while gains amounted to 1,850 brethren, and total losses of 5,532 brethren, with a net loss of 3,682 brethren; of this number, deaths accounted for 3,613 in total loss. I believe this to be significant in the total picture.

The several records, accounts, finances, etc., are a result of in-house Data Processing (Computerization). This equipment having been obtained during the year past.

Per Capita Tax was increased from $4.00 to $6.00 as of Jan. 1, '83.

Grand Officers were advanced by acclamation with Bro. Robert W. Sanborn being elevated as Most Worshipful Grand Master. Line officers (with the exception of Grand Marshal, Grand Lecturer, and Grand Chaplain, each of whom is individually elected) beginning with the incumbent Grand Marshal, thence elevate to Junior Deacon and up each year. The Grand Secretary (also elective) continues to be Bro. Roger Curlis, P.G.M.

Sixteen Distinguished Guests from sister jurisdictions were present at this Annual Communication.

The 124th Semi-annual Communication was held in Manchester on Nov. 20, 1982, at which time the several Committee Reports were heard, plus an amendment passed which would raise the per-capita tax from $5.00 to $6.00 per year.

A detailed and positive report was made of the Masonic Home.

This Communication was opened by the Deputy Grand Master in the absence of the Grand Master who was with the family of the Grand Lecturer who had died very unexpectedly.

Reports of District Lodges of Instruction were entered, together with the reports of the District Deputies.

The 194th Annual Communication was held in May with Distinguished Guests from 12 sister jurisdictions, including our own M.W.G.M. C. Ross Buzzell, accompanied by M.W. Bro. Snelling, P.G.M., together with 7 leaders from York and Scottish Rites, plus Wor. Bro. Pollard of the M.S.A.

Permission was granted to form a new Lodge for the sole purpose of assisting in the restoration of Wm. Pitt Tavern, the birthplace of the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire.

The Grand Master's agenda indicates a very busy year of visitation within and without the Grand Jurisdiction, including the usual Conferences.

M.W. Bro. Robert H. Danelson, R.W. Grand Secretary, having reached the mandatory age of retirement was recognized and made Grand Secretary Emeritus.

An amendment was presented and approved permitting the Grand Master to call the Annual and Semi-annual Communications at such location in the State as he may direct.

A Table-lodge Ritual as proposed was deferred until the next Semi-annual Communication.

M.W. Bro. John C. Marden was re-elected and installed as Grand Master.

R.W. Bro. Douglas L. Robertson was installed as Grand Lecturer, and Wor. Bro. Stanley A. Johnson, P.G.M., was elected and installed as Grand Secretary.

RHODE ISLAND and PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS, 1983

Cranston

192nd Annual Communication

May 16, 1983

M. W. Harvey K. Peet, Grand Master

Lodges, 45

Members, 11,230

Loss, 367

This report will cover portions of both the Semi-annual and Annual Communications.

Distinguished Guests at the Annual included a Past Provincial Grand Master of the United Grand Lodge of England, plus Grand Masters or their representatives from 11 Grand Jurisdictions and 7 Concordant Bodies. 17 Past Grand Masters were present.

The Grand Master's Report was, for the most part, of the usual nature, listing his appointments, Dispensations, Edicts, visitations, etc., but one reference stands out, Viz: his reference to membership losses, wherein he states that "there is only one way to (alleviate) that, and that is to 'RECOMMEND A MAN TO BE A MASON!'"

An "Occasional Grand Lodge" session was held in each District at which time an interesting Masonic program was provided.

In reading the Proceedings, one cannot help but be impressed by the concerns of this Grand Lodge above and beyond their 'in-house' responsibilities. In addition to their regular Relief Fund through which $75,000 was expended in 38 cases, their Charitable Gifts Committee granted in excess of $138,000 to such cases as United Way, Boys & Girls Clubs, Schools, Libraries, Hospitals, Senior Citizens, Churches, Scholarships, and numerous other worthy non-masonic causes.

A proposed Amendment which would lower the lawful age for petitioners from 21 to 18 was defeated upon recommendation of the Committee on Jurisprudence. Further action on Amendments include: the forbidding of anyone to hold more than one office above the rank of Steward in one or more lodges, when such office is a line office position (Approved); that every Subordinate Lodge shall work all three degrees during the Master's term of office, using a stand-in should no candidate be available (Approved). Other proposed Amendments were held over to the Semi-Annual Communication.

It would appear that a progressive 9-yr. line leads to elevation to the office of M.W.G.M.

Bro. Charles A. Calverly being so elected was invested as Most Worshipful Grand Master, after which he addressed the brethren eloquently and interestingly. Bro. Arthur R. Medley was continued as R.W. Grand Secretary.

April 28-19, 1983

Loss, 312

The Grand Lodge was opened in Ample Form with 8 Past Grand Master present and 13 Distinguished Guests including heads of 3 York Rite Bodies, all of whom were welcomed and honored in appropriate manner.

Like most Grand Lodges, this one was no exception in being plagued by losses through N.P.D. The Grand Master expressed great concern on this issue, suggesting personal contact with those dropped in the past 5 years, encouraging them to re-instate, plus a recommendation that the Grand Master write a personal letter to the more than 2,500 who had not paid for 1982. Certificates were presented to 88 Lodges having had no erasures N.P.D. during the past year and to all Lodges who have had 10 or more reinstatements. Five lodges showed gains of 20 or more. Despite these impressive figures, the overwhelming number on the other side of the ledger remains a major concern.

Four Lodges, U.D. were listed. Two Lodges were consecrated, dedicated, constituted, and installed in Church Sanctuaries. Three Temples were dedicated with Grand Lodge being opened upon the E.A. Degree. One Cornerstone laying ceremony was observed.

Among Proposed Amendments, one seeks an increase of $1.50 in per capita for the Relief Fund. Another would permit District Concurrent Jurisdiction.

Twenty-one Special Dispensations were granted for Dual Membership within and without the Grand Jurisdiction.

A proposed amendment which would change the manner of receiving and balloting on applicant [changing ballot on each degree to one ballot on all three] was NOT ADOPTED.

Thirty-five cases were brought before the Trial Commission resulting in seventeen expulsions.

A pension plan for non-elective full-time employees was adopted.

Three Past Grand Master Grave Markers were dedicated.

The budget provides for a $2000. car allowance for the Grand Master.

The Grand Master continues to write personal letters to newly-raised Master Masons.

Bro. T. Henry White was elected and installed [the Installation taking place in an E.A.'s Lodge].

Bro. H. Dwight McAllister was continued as Grand Secretary.

205th Annual Communication

February 7-9, 1983

M.W. Lloyd U. Jefferson, Grand Master

Lodges, 354

Members, 66,766

Loss, 624

In his Address, the Grand Master expressed his appreciation to the Officers, past and present, and several committees together with his many visitations and conferences attended, lifting up three significant events, viz: The "Awareness" and "Youth" Day held at the Masonic Home, bringing together about 3200 Masons, families and friends; the Commemorative Communication of the 230th Masonic Birthday of George Washington in Fredericksburg, in the 250th birth year of Ill. Bro. Washington; and the Corner-stone laying of a new 64-room construction at the Masonic Home.

Twelve Anniversaries were observed, ranging from 75 yrs. to 250 years (Norfolk #1). Twelve Special and one Emergent Grand Lodge Communications were called for Instituting, Dedications, and one Funeral for a Past Grand Master (M.W. Bro. C. E. Wallace).

Sadly, the Grand Master announced the suspension or expulsion of twelve brethren.

Decisions, Dispensations and recommendations were listed in the Address, together with 3 Executive Orders, and 5 Proclamations.

Under "The State of the Craft", the Grand Master emphasized "Brotherhood . . . as the bedrock of our Order." Citing the almost universal loss in membership over the country, he sounded the challenge thus; "Until the membership and the leadership challenge the problems on an individual basis, they will remain where they are - problems," . . . urging the brethren to "bring the absent brother back into Lodges - to emphasize caliber of men," and stated that "the unmeasured products of brotherly love, relief and truth are our sufficiency."

Eleven Resolutions referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence were acted upon as follows: Petitioner age limit to be dropped from 21 to 18 - REJECTED; Illegal lotteries, Gift enterprises, raffles, etc., not to be permitted by Lodges, associations of Masonry, or of Masons [except within the law and approved by the Grand Master] - REJECTED; Per Capita dues to be raised from $4.50 to $7.00 - REJECTED; Amending the Digest by adding explanatory phrase in reference to manner of submission of Resolutions, Motions, etc., -ADOPTED; to provide for 12-month interval for newly-raised M.M. before petitioning any Masonic Body - REJECTED; the presentation of the "Hillman Award" by D.D.G.M. when Lodge qualifies - ADOPTED; that text of Grand Master's decisions be incorporated in Methodical Digest - REJECTED; that $0.05 per member, per year, be contributed to the Virginia DeMolay Foundation, Inc. - ADOPTED; that election of lodge officers be held on anniversary of St. John the Evangelist, or last Stated Communication in December (except on a Sunday) - REJECTED; Regarding time of installation of Lodge officers - REJECTED; that the matter of Lotteries, Raffles, etc., as heretofore mentioned, omitting the word "illegal", be entered as an amendment to the Digest - ADOPTED.

Election of Grand Officers was, by custom, accomplished by elevation from Grand Junior Deacon. There must be at least two nominations for the office of the new Grand Junior Deacon. Bro. William M. Johnson was elected and installed as the 139th Grand Master, the open installation being held at the Hyatt House.

Eighteen Past Grand Masters were in attendance at this Annual Communication, in addition to representatives of 19 Grand Lodges and Concordant Bodies.

Twenty Resolutions were entered to be acted upon at the next Annual Communication.

Committee Reports are to be published in the Proceedings.

Bro. John P. Stokes, P.G.M., was re-elected and installed as Grand Secretary.

The Grand Lodge was opened with 20 Past Grand Masters in attendance, including 1 Honorary and 3 Affiliated. Twenty-one Distinguished Guests from other jurisdictions or Concordant Bodies were also received in traditional form.

In his Address, the Grand Master recommended an amendment which would, in effect, "permit" the Grand Secretary to appoint an Assistant Grand Secretary. This would constitute a change from the amendment adopted in 1966 which made such action "mandatory." This Grand Master's recommendation was rejected. He also recommended a reduction in the number of members on the Finance Committee from 5 to 3, indicating that 5 members makes the committee unwieldy. This recommendation offered as a Resolution was also rejected.

Six Corner-stone ceremonies and two Dedications were reported.

A Resolution permitting the erection of "Welcoming Signs" on the outskirts of towns was adopted.

A Resolution raising candidate's contribution to George Washington National Memorial from $2.00 to $5.00 was adopted.

A further Resolution providing for study and feasibility of erecting a Masonic Library and Museum was adopted.

Bro. Donald Brons was elected as Most Worshipful Grand Master.

Bro. Edward L. Bennett was continued as R.W. Grand Secretary.

WISCONSIN, 1983

139th Annual Communication

June 13-14, 1983

M.W. James J. Byrnes, Grand Master

Lodges, 265

Members, 38,084

Loss, 1,081

Immediately following the opening of the Grand Lodge, Grand Master Byrnes declared the Lodge informal in order to receive the Mayor of LaCrosse, the Honorable Patrick Zuelke, who addressed the Grand Lodge, welcoming them and offering every courtesy that the City of LaCrosse might extend. Following a resounding applause, the Mayor retired and the Grand Lodge was declared in order.

The Grand Master then received, welcomed and extended appropriate honors to 17 Past Grand Masters, Distinguished Wisconsin Masons, Distinguished Guests from Concordant Bodies, and representatives of 8 visiting Jurisdictions.

The Grand Master then proceeded with his Report, citing a new Daylight Lodge, U.D., six consolidations involving 12 Lodges, Cornerstone Layings for 2 Lodges, two Dedications, two expulsions, one charter arrested (later restored), By-Law revisions, dispensations and decisions. Ninety-one dispensations were granted, including 36 permitting the serving of Wine or Beer in Masonic Temples (most uncommon). All but two of the Dispensations and Decisions were approved by the Jurisprudence Committee.

Among several Resolutions proposed, one received considerable study and research, and was finally approved, providing for "Perpetual Membership" as a voluntary action permitted individual Lodges, said Lodges having qualified under extensive requirements laid down by the Grand Lodge.

Both the Grand Master and the Committee on Fraternal Relations related in great detail of their unsuccessful efforts in recent years to establish something in the nature of a merger with the Wisconsin Prince Hall Grand Lodge. While still unsuccessful, the possibilities appear optimistic. The Grand Lodge of So. Africa is "reported" as having chartered 2 Prince Hall Lodges.

Wisconsin's Scholarship Program is reported to have made grants totaling $99,100.

Bro. Kenneth W. Shannon was elected as M. W. Grand Master, 1983-84.

Bro. Carl Skoog continues as Grand Secretary.

WYOMING, 1983

Casper

109th Annual Communication

August 7-9, 1983

M. W. Frank M. Hartung, Grand Master

Lodges, 52 Members, 10,167 Loss, 127

Following the opening of Grand Lodge, 20 visiting Dignitaries from 13 sister Jurisdictions were presented and introduced, plus 13 of 21 living Past Grand Masters of Wyoming. Grand Lodge then being called to Recess, Officers of 3 non-masonic bodies, plus City Councilman, Bro. Robert Heiser, were presented and introduced, with Bro. Heiser bringing greetings from the city of Casper.

Grand Lodge being called from Recess to Labor, the usual preliminaries preceded the Grand Master's Address. He (the G.M.) reported 4 Special Communications for the purpose of dedicating cornerstones, visitations and Conferences attended. Seventeen dispensations of usual nature were granted, all but one of which were approved by the Committee on Jurisprudence, the exception being one having to do with examination of candidate being in conflict with the Code. Ten By-law Amendments were approved. Of five Decisions rendered, the Committee on Jurisprudence approved all but one. Recommendations were referred to proper committees. A Resolution providing for Voluntary "Masonic Widow's" programs was approved.

R. W. Bro. Ernest J. Gippert, Jr., having been elected Most Worshipful Grand Master for 1983-84, was installed, together with the remaining elective and appointive Grand Officers in a public Installation Ceremony. It would appear that officers elevate from Junior Grand Steward which indicates that the Grand Master appoints (in effect) future Grand Masters.

R. W. Bro. Ray A. Noah was installed as Grand Secretary for the 5th consecutive year.
