Louis Greenier, II, Grand Master of Masons of Maine.

Acting Grand Marshal, R.W. Alan R. Heath formed a procession of the Grand Lodge officers and officers of Dresden Lodge No. 103 and conducted them to the North East corner of the Fire Barn. Wor. Leslie M. Gray, Assistant Grand Chaplain, delivered the Invocation. The Grand Master called on the Deputy Grand Master, Senior Grand Warden and Junior Grand Warden to inspect the corner stone with the jewel of their office and make report.

R.W. A. James Ross, Deputy Grand Master, inspected the stone and reported that it was square and the Craftsmen had done their duty.

GRAND LODGE OF MAINE, A.F. & A.M.
SPECIAL COMMUNICATION

A Special Communication of the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M. was held on Saturday, March 12, 2011 at Anah Shrine Center in Bangor, for the purpose of voting on the future location of the Grand Lodge Office, Library and Museum.

Most Worshipful W. Louis Greenier, II, Grand Master, opened Grand Lodge at 10:08 a. m, in Ample form. The following Past Grand Masters were conducted into the hall and introduced by the Grand Marshal:

M.W. Robert R. Landry; M.W. Walter MacDougal; M.W. Gerald S. Leighton; M.W. Harland S. Hitchings and M.W. George P. Pulkkinen. They were accorded the Private Grand Honors by the Brethren.

The Grand Master led the Brethren in reciting the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of our Country.

The Grand Master explained that he had called for this Special Communication of Grand Lodge for the purpose of voting on the recommendation of his Site Selection Committee that the Grand Lodge Office should be located in the Bangor area. He read the original motion that was made at the 191st Annual Session of the Grand Lodge in May, 2010:

"I move that the Grand Master appoint a Committee to request proposals from Masonic bodies interested in locating the Grand Lodge offices, Library and Museum in their Masonic buildings or in non-Masonic buildings and to assess lease proposals with respect to the satisfaction of required and optional space criteria, one-time and on-going costs, personnel staffing and any other criteria specified in the request for proposals.

Furthermore, that said Committee shall make its report to the Grand Master within 180 days from this date, and that a vote to decide on the location of said Grand Lodge facilities shall take place at the Annual Communication in 2011, unless a Special Communication is sooner called by the Grand Master for this purpose, which shall be deemed sufficient to decide on the future location of Grand Lodge facilities."

The Grand Master called on Brother Robert Kahn, Chairman of the Trustees of the Masonic Temple in Portland, who had asked to be allowed to speak.

Brother Kahn gave the Brethren an overview of the problems that had developed over the years, resulting in the high rental costs required of the several Masonic bodies that rent space in the Masonic Temple. He then told of the progress that the Trustees are making by working in conjunction with the various committees of the City of Portland and the City's Fire Department.

R.W. Hollis G. Dixon, Grand Secretary, spoke in opposition to the recommendation of the Grand Master's Site Selection Committee. He explained that his objection to the recommendation was based on the fact that it would result in the elimination of the entire staff of the Grand Lodge Office. He stated that the office staff represented a total of thirty years of experience and dedicated service to the lodges and Brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction. He expressed his concern that an entirely new staff would take years to gain that level of experience and that fact would result in serious problems for Masonry in Maine.

R.W. Thomas Pulkkinen spoke in opposition to the Site Selection Committee's recommendation. Having made the original motion to start the process of relocating the Grand Lodge office, he did not feel that the process, which he laid out in his motion, had been followed. He felt that a proposal made by the Bath Masonic Building Association had not been acknowledged or considered.

R.W. Royce Wheeler spoke about the history of the Masonic Temple in Portland and the mistakes that had been made at various times during that history, resulting in the situation which calls for the relocation of the Grand Lodge offices. He presented a slide presentation to illustrate his belief that the office should be relocated in the Bangor area.

M.W. George Pulkkinen spoke in opposition to the Site Selection Committee's recommendation.

The Grand Master called on R.W. Alan R. Heath for the Report of the Credential Committee. R.W. Brother Heath reported that all but forty (40) Maine lodges were represented. He named each of the lodges that were not represented.

The Deputy Grand Master, R.W. A. James Ross, spoke about the circumstances which had led to the concern for the relocation of the Grand Lodge office.

The Grand Master read the language which appears on the ballot slips:

The Grand Master's Site Selection Committee met in November and unanimously voted to recommend that the Grand Lodge office be located in the Bangor area, the actual site to be chosen at a later date.

Do you wish to approve that recommendation?	Yes	No
--	------------	-----------

The Grand Master declared the Ballot open and called for the Brethren to cast their ballots. After the Grand Master declared the ballot closed, the Tellers proceeded to collect the ballots. The ballots were then counted by the Tellers.

Wor. Brother James Dufresne, the Grand Librarian, read the results of the balloting:

There were 180 Ballots cast in favor of the recommendation.

There were 339 Ballots cast in opposition to the recommendation

There were 3 Ballots that were declared invalid.

The Grand Master announced that the Motion had failed.

The Grand Master closed the Special Communication of Grand Lodge in Ample form at 11:35 A.M.

Goldsberry, State Senior Grand Councilor for Maine DeMolay and Wor. Gordon L. Kimball, Jr., State Executive Officer for Maine DeMolay.

This distinguished group of representatives was greeted with a Standing Ovation by the Brethren. The Grand Master asked Caitlin if she would like to say a few words.

Ms Caitlin Walton: Thank you Most Worshipful Grand Master, Distinguished East, my Masonic Dads and friends. Good morning!

I am honored to bring greetings on behalf of myself and all of your Rainbow daughters. For those of you who may not know me, my name is Caitlin Walton, Grand Worthy Advisor of Maine. This year, Maine Rainbow has been busy promoting membership, supporting our Troops overseas and getting ourselves into the Community. Throughout the course of the year, we've been able to bring in almost forty new members. We are a small but mighty group of about two hundred girls here in Maine and we have certainly exceeded my goals for membership this year. With Grand Assembly approaching we expect that number to continue to grow. Alongside our membership gain, our girls have been collecting have been collecting various items for Troop Care packages. At the start of my year, I set a goal of one hundred packages and I am happy to report that we have exceeded that goal. The Troop Care package program is one that is close to my heart because I have had four fallen friends in the last six years and three more currently still serving overseas. In selecting this project, my goal was to reach out to American Soldiers and all the Maine families by supporting their loved ones. We, as Rainbow Girls, have an undying love of Patriotism and I am proud to say that our girls have truly given back to our Country.

In addition to this, we have spent a lot of time participating in the Reading Program, the Walk for Dyslexia and raising money and awareness for our Charities: The Mabel J. DeShon Scholarship Fund, the American Diabetes Association and the Merrill Rainbow Campground. At our Annual Charity Ball this year, we raised over $4,500.00 to go toward these Charities. However small, we are proud of our efforts and we would like to thank you again for your generous donation towards our Campground. This is an important project to us because it will allow all members of our fraternal family to use this facility. However, due to its construction, resting solely on donations, your organization has made a huge impact on its progress and I am happy to report that now the exterior is complete and we have started the inside with a sprinkler system and rough electric and plumbing have been installed. This Campground was originally started or founded in the mid 1980's and Polar Star Lodge held the first ever outside meeting there and had built a rock Alter, which currently still stands on that Campground. We are proud of the advancements that have been made since then and we wish to thank you again because our thanks are truly endless for all that you have helped us accomplish at our Campground. I would like to recognize the Most Worshipful Grand Master at this time. I have a little story to tell.

Your Grand Master attended the Grand Commandery this past weekend and during his speech he mentioned that he wished he had supported our Youth Groups more and regretted not being able to attend all of our functions due to his busy schedule. However, I thought about this a lot and I realized and I am here to tell you that you support us much more than you ever expected you have. In your speech Saturday night you promoted Rainbow and DeMolay by encouraging others to get out and support us. I would like to remind you that the majority of our guests at State events are, in fact, Masons. Speaking on our behalf wherever you go is enough support to last a lifetime and we are very honored that you speak on our behalf. I've learned in my time as Grand Worthy Advisor that we work as a team and you represent us as much we represent you. It has been an honor working with you this year and I wish you continued success for you, your officers and Maine Masonry in the next year. Please join us on May 27th through the 29th at Husson University in Bangor, Maine for our Grand Assembly Session. We look forward to welcoming many of you and I extend my personal thanks to Maine Masonry for their support during my year. Thank you for all courtesies.

Ms. Caitlin Walton was accorded a standing ovation by the Brethren.

Grand Master: That's our future.

Samuel J. Goldsberry: Most Worshipful Grand Master, Distinguished East, members of the Masonic Fraternity and Guests, Good morning.

My name is Samuel Goldsberry and I am the current State Senior Councilor for the Maine DeMolay Association and also State Master Councilor Elect. I am honored to be here today on behalf of the Maine DeMolay Association and our State Master Councilor, Andrew Potterly, who unfortunately cannot be here today.

DeMolay is an organization dedicated to preparing young men for successful, happy and productive lives. Basing its approach on timeless principles and practical hands-on experiences, DeMolay opens doors for young men between the ages of 12 and 21 by developing a civic awareness, personal responsibility and leadership skills so vitally needed in society today. DeMolay combines a serious mission with a fun approach that builds important bonds of friendship among members.

Here in the State of Maine, we have four strong solid Chapters located in Auburn, Windham, Buxton and Bangor. Currently we are looking to institute a brand new Chapter in Brunswick. We have several potential candidates in the area and we have been working with some local Masons in the area, who have expressed their interest in supporting this undertaking. For that, we thank you. With the help of various Masonic Fraternities, Maine DeMolay was able to send a placera of members and advisors to attend a tremendously valuable week long leadership training camp at Lion's Camp Pride in Durham, New Hampshire.

Additionally, Maine DeMolay has been busily and happily working alongside our Rainbow sisters having put on double joint degrees throughout the state. To greatly aid in the expansion of membership, Maine DeMolay has recently started a brand new Squire program; this branch of DeMolay is for young boys between the ages of nine and twelve and it serves as a sort of introduction to DeMolay. It inculcates the same purposes as a pledge for Rainbow and it helps us to get our foot in the door for youth before they are swept up by the numerous other activities that are today available to them. Our Squire program presently benefits about eight members and that number has been rapidly growing. With that, I would like to extend a hearty invitation to all of you to attend our Annual Conclave, which will be held on the last weekend in June at Colby College in Waterville. Our Banquet and Installation of Officers will be on the Saturday evening beginning at 5:00 p.m. Most Worshipful Grand Master, I have one more thing that I'd like to have cleared.

At the beginning of this year, I turned eighteen, the age at which one can apply to become a Mason, and I was wondering if you could help me out with this one thing. You see I have this application here but it's missing the signature of a sponsor. I'd be honored if you would be willing to sign it for me.

Grand Master: My pleasure.

Samuel J. Goldsberry was accorded a standing ovation by the Brethren.

Debbie Redmond: Most Worshipful Grand Master, Very Distinguished Guests and members of the Masonic Family.

It is my honor to bring you the greetings of Mrs. Linda Lee Little, our Supreme Worthy Advisor and my own personal greetings.

It has been wonderful seeing some familiar faces as I travel the Banquet circuit with our Grand Worthy Advisor, Caitlin. My name is Debbie Redmond, some of you may know me as Debbie Beauholt and I am Supreme Deputy in Maine for the International Order of Rainbow for Girls. Many of you may know but some of you may not that this is a new appointment for me. As I have held this position for less than a year. Maine has been in the very capable hands of Mrs. Cora Ellen Moody, Supreme Charity, for the past nineteen years. As we travelled to Omaha for our Supreme Session this past year, with the knowledge that Mom will be advancing through the Supreme line to serve as our Supreme Worthy Advisor in the coming years, the decision was made that, as she needs to concentrate on the International Order, it was time to appoint someone to concentrate on Maine Rainbow.

That being said, you are stuck with me. So please be nice to the new kid on the block. While I am the new kid on the block, Maine Rainbow and the Maine Masonic family are certainly not new to me. I have been a very proud member of the Maine Masonic family since I was twelve years old. As I travelled back from the Grand Commandery Banquet, where I was asked to speak but did not, as I was not prepared, I reflected on what I should have said. For my whole life I have taught about the Masonic family because I am from a Masonic family. We are taught about the very many famous Maine Masons throughout history. In our Rainbow initiatory degree, we are taught about the Presidents who have been proud Masons from George Washington to Gerald Ford. We know there are famous Masons from every walk of life; Politicians, great Musicians, Sports figures, Entrepreneurs and the list goes on and on.

I have my own list of famous Masons who have touched my life. It starts with my Grandfather, Hents S. Beauholt, who was a first generation U.S. Citizen, he travelled from Denmark through Ellis Island and was a member of Deering Lodge. My Dad, A. Bruce Beauholt, who is a Past Master of Deering Lodge., a Craftsman and a member of the Telephone Company Degree Team, where he served with Leighton Perkins, now a past Grand Patron. The list extended as I became a Rainbow Girl and Gordon L. Evans and Gordon Huntoon, members of Cornerstone Lodge and longtime Dad Advisors of Portland Assembly. Robert T. Brown, a 33rd degree mason and Past Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of Maine, but more importantly to me, one of my many Rainbow Dads.

As I became more involved on the state level for Rainbow, then my list extended to Dad Ray Naugher, Past General Chairman of Grand Assembly and 33rd degree Mason and distinguished Master that I served with as Grand Worthy Advisor. G. Ross Buzzell and Peter Schmidt, to those Grand Masters, who as an adult I greeted in the West at Grand Assembly. Those many Masons who currently serve on the Advisory Board of both Rainbow and DeMolay and, of course all of you, the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine, you are my famous Masons.

My point is not to rehash my Rainbow history but to let you all know that in the life of a Rainbow girl or a DeMolay you may be that famous Mason. They may not have a Father or Grandfather but come from a Masonic family of their own. Yes they are the future of your order but only if you are there to lead by example and teach them why our Masonic family is so important and why they should be as proud as I am to be a part of this amazing family. I would like to leave you with this quick thought; It is a excerpt from the Installation of our Grand Executive Committee.

You may never know when someone may catch a dream for you. You may never know when a little word or something you may do may open up the windows of a mind that seeks the light. The way you live might not matter at all but you never know, it might. And just in case it could be that another's life through you might possibly change for the better with a broader and brighter view. It seems that it might be worth a try at pointing the way to the right. Of course it may not matter at all but then again it might.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, thank you for the privilege of addressing this Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine.

Ms. Debbie Redmond was accorded a standing ovation by the Brethren.

Gordon Kimball, Jr.: Most Worshipful Grand Master, Distinguished Guests and Brethren all. Good morning. It is a pleasure for me to stand here and bring you the greetings this morning of Wesley Thornton, our Grand Master of DeMolay International and the entire Supreme Council of DeMolay and to wish you a most successful session this week, Most Worshipful.

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for Brethren to dwell together in Unity. Those are fifteen words; fifteen words that we have all heard. The lesson that we in DeMolay try to teach our young men and Rainbow girls also. I mention this this morning Brethren because we have a very exciting time coming in the fall. This is in the very early planning stages but on October 8th Maine Rainbow and Maine DeMolay are going to hold the first Annual Maine Masonic Youth Day up in Auburn, Maine. This will commence in the morning with the Rainbow doing their Initiatory Degree, we'll have lunch and the girls will go over to Kora Shrine and set up for their ball that night. In the afternoon, the DeMolay will do their degree and we'll have dinner.

You might take fifteen minutes out of your lives and introduce a young person to Rainbow or DeMolay. Young people are all looking for something to do, a good place to go and we offer this. I have talked with the Most Worshipful Grand Master and he is on board and supporting this. The incoming Worthy Grand Matron is on board and supporting this and we plan to have representation from all Masonic bodies and show these young people that we are a united group. Last night, if any of you were at the banquet, you heard the speech on mentoring. What a great opportunity; to be a mentor to a young person; to introduce them to the Youth fraternal organizations of Rainbow and DeMolay. I get phone calls all the time so I know there's interest out there and we'll work with you and we'll try to do anything we can to start a DeMolay Club or DeMolay Chapter in your area. We'll do whatever it takes.

The only thing we need is applications made out a month in advance. I would hope that you might go back to your lodges and talk about this amongst your Brethren and hopefully drum up some interest and be an inspiration to a young person and make a difference in that young person's life. I have been so fortunate over the past several years since becoming an Executive Officer that I've always enjoyed the great sport of the Grand Masters and of the Grand Lodge. And I just want to say that this past Spring I had the honor of hosting the DeMolay Executive Officers Conference here in Portland and I had invited the Grand Master, as is customary and proper to do; to stop by and address the group and say whatever he'd like and whatever his schedule would allow.

I was very happy Brethren that the Most Worshipful Grand Master came on Friday afternoon and stayed until Sunday morning. The rest of the people from across the country were very impressed that our Grand Master would come and spend that much time and show his dedication to our Youth Groups. So I really hope that somewhere this will be an inspiration to you and you will go back and be an inspiration to the young people and let's bring them into our Masonic family.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, I thank you for this opportunity to say a few words. It's always a pleasure.

Grand Master: I would say that we are in good hands here in the State of Maine. It takes a lot of dedication not only from the young people but when the older people take care of the Advisors of both orders, we thank you. It is always easy to say I'm going to do it but when you step forward and do it that is quite a thing.

The Grand Master directed the Grand Marshal to present the Color Guard.

The Grand Commandery Honor Guard marched into the Lodge Hall and posted the colors in the East.

The Brethren sang the Star Spangled Banner; O' Canada and Two Countries by the Sea. The craft saluted the Flag of our Country and recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Grand Master called on R.E. John Baggett to introduce the members of the Grand Commandery Honor Guard as follows:

The Grand Commandery Honor Guard was accorded a standing ovation as they marched out of the Lodge Hall.

Grand Master: Brother Grand Marshal, you will escort our Guests from the Lodge Hall. Our Guests were escorted out of the lodge while being accorded a standing ovation by the Brethren.

The Grand Master called Grand Lodge from Refreshment to Labor.

The Grand Master turned the Gavel over to the Deputy Grand Master and proceeded to deliver his address to the Brethren.

GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS TO THE CRAFT
192ND ANNUAL COMMUNICATION

Good morning Brethren. Before I start I just want you to know that we're here on Brotherly Love, remember your tenants of our profession. I think all too often we get caught up in our everyday lives and we don't remember what we were taught when we were going through our lodges. Don't forget it.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, of the State of Maine. It is my privilege and honor to welcome you, the members of this Grand Lodge to our 192nd Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Maine.

Distinguished Guests. I am extremely pleased to welcome our distinguished guests from our sister jurisdictions. We are sure you will enjoy our Maine hospitality during your stay with us and hope that you will return often. I want to thank you for being here. Also, to our own in-state distinguished guests, we enjoy having you here also.

This year we lost six hundred and fourteen (614) of our members to the Celestial Lodge above. Grand Lodge has suffered the loss of one Past Grand Master.

Most Worshipful John E. Anagnostis served as Grand Master from May 4, 1988 to May 2, 1990. He passed to the Celestial Lodge above on October 24, 2010, where the Grand Architect of the Universe resides.

We also lost two past Senior Grand Wardens. Brothers Emery L. Scribner, Jr. who served Grand Lodge from May 3, 1967 to May 8, 1968. He passed on December 6, 2010.

Also, John B. Greenleaf, who served Grand Lodge from May 7, 1997 to May 5, 1998. He passed on November 13, 2010 to that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. These permanent members along with our regular members will be greatly missed. They were great workers in the quarries of Freemasonry.

The loss of six hundred and fourteen members in the past year gives us a net loss of three hundred thirty-four (334). Membership in our Grand Lodge is twenty thousand nine hundred and fifty-six (20,956). Most of our lodges are seeing an increase in Membership Applications that are being presented. One great thing is that we are receiving younger men. With the increase of men joining our fraternity, we should be on the plus side in the very near future. What this requires is a lot of hard work from you Brethren to find good men to join.

The Advisory Council. The Grand Lodge of Maine Advisory Council was established in 1970 to assist the Grand Master and his elected officers. This Council is required to hold two regular meetings each year; the first to be held within one month following the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge and the second to be held within one month preceding the Annual Communications of Grand Lodge.

Our meetings this year were held on June 16, 2010, November 18, 2010 and April 14, 2011, all at the Bangor Masonic Center.

Background checks is one of the topics that we discussed and find there is going to be a recommendation to the lodges. We are checking in on the guidelines to adopt this procedure.

One might ask why we are suggesting that this procedure be adopted by our lodges. To give you an example, a lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction received an application from a man that was a felon. He did not state the same as such. It so happened that a member of that lodge had access to check on backgrounds and found this information in his investigation. This will be discussed in my report on the Northeast Conference of Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Master and Grand Secretaries.

Fifty Year Medals are being sent out for presentation but they are not being delivered in a timely manner. Changes are to be made in this procedure for presenting the medals. These medals have been earned by Brothers by faithfully paying their dues for fifty years; not an easy feat.

Most Worshipful Walter Macdougall noted that we need to develop a program that emphasizes the importance of our ritual. Mentoring has to be a way of life in a Masonic Fraternity. All too often we are not mentoring our new Brethren and not continuing this throughout a Mason's life.

Remember to mentor; mentor; mentor.

District Deputies. Appointment of the twenty-four District Deputies is one of the most important decisions that a Grand Master has to make. These officers are, or should be, some of the hardest working Masons in the Grand Lodge. Masons that have taken on this responsibility of leadership; have commanded the respect of the Brethren in their respective districts. It is their duty to see to it that the workings of the District are carried out with as much confidence and leadership as possible. These District Deputies are the best at their job. The planning of District Meetings, Inspections, Installations, Schools of Instruction and Visitations take a lot of time and dedication, along with all of the rest of the work they have to do.

District Meetings. Each District Deputy Grand Master planned an annual meeting in each of the districts to the enjoyment and information of those that attended. These programs vary from district to district. Elected and appointed officers attended most all of the meetings and elected officers spoke on different topics. Thank you all for the good attendance at these meetings. Thank you to all of my officers. All of these meetings were semi-public and were well attended by family and friends.

Schools of Instruction. The Lecture Staff is charged with the teaching of the ritual in the three degrees, Entered Apprentice; Fellow Craft and Master Mason; along with a Non-Ritualistic School. This year, with the help of the Ritual Committee they have come out with a new Cipher. Our Right Worshipful Grand Lecturer has a copy of that new Cipher. We had hoped that it was going to be ready today; however, the printer didn't furnish it. We have a new Grand Lecturer for this year, Rt. Worshipful Christian Ratliff, who has been doing a great job along with the rest of his staff.

I want to thank you, thank you, and thank you. It is a great staff; a great job; the best job in Grand Lodge. I've said this for years. I know that all too often the guys say, "I heard this last year." Yes, you probably did but there are new Brethren that are coming up in these chairs and they have to hear it again. So, give them a chance.

Grand Lodge Night. The Lecturing Staff selected Deering Lodge No. 183 to exemplify the Master Mason degree for Grand Lodge on April 8, 2011. After a dinner served by the Order of Eastern Star, the officers of Deering Lodge performed an excellent degree. As this was the lodge of the Grand Lecturer, the pressure was on them to perform the degree to the best that it could possibly be done. Great work was done by the Deering Officers and I want to thank you. It was a great night and a good time was had by all. Thank you.

Council of Deliberation. I had the honor of addressing the Maine Council of Deliberation at their Annual Meeting in Portland on Friday, May 4, 2010. What a great time it is to be a Mason. With all the interest in our Fraternity, we can now take advantage of this interest. We as Masons should never let these opportunities slip away. That is what I spoke about that night. You know, we have time right now when the Masonic name is being brought up to all the world. Not all the facts; not all the correct facts I should say but at least they are talking. Don't let it slip through our fingers.

Northeast Conference of Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Masters and Grand Secretaries. This conference was held in Trenton, New Jersey on July 23, 24 and 25th. Some of the hottest days on record. At their Grand Lodge, George Washington spoke at the banquet. He told us how he crossed the Delaware River on Christmas Eve and captured "Tren" Town. It was great program. I learned a lot about history. We're awful fortunate that we aren't still under England. Things happened just the right way. Up to that point, we were losing.

I mentioned earlier in my report that Background checks was appoint of discussion as this has been a problem for some of the jurisdictions. During the Trenton Conference, a breakout session was held by the Grand Secretaries with eighteen jurisdictions represented. During that session, it was reported the four out of the eighteen jurisdictions do now require their lodges to conduct background checks on all applications for the Masonic degrees.

This is an area that will require much discussion in the near future. This isn't something that we are going to ram down your throat Brethren but I think it is something that we've got to do a lot of thinking about, a lot of soul searching and we'll go from there.

The North American Conference of Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Masters and Grand Secretaries. Denver, Colorado hosted the conference on February 20, 21 and 22, 2011. The theme of the conference was, "Facing today's challenges." Attending this conference enlightened me to the fact that the problems we have here in Maine are not unique. One of the presenters that was at the breakout sessions was the very same Most Worshipful Thomas L. Velvin, Jr. who was our keynote speaker that spoke at our banquet last evening. How fortunate we are that Tom and Carol were able to make the trip all the way from Maryland to be with us. Thank you so very much.

Membership. Right Worshipful Brother Ronald "Pete" Forrest and Bernie Gaines have been working very hard to see an increase in membership in our Grand Lodge. Brethren, we have the programs that work and we must start using them. This year we had a net loss of three hundred and thirty-four (334). If we work real hard to raise new men to the sublime degree of Master Mason and save demits for non-payment of dues we should be able to increase our membership in the very near future.

Youth. This is an area where we as Masons need to spend more time, as these young ladies and young men are our future. We give a lot of lip service but fall short when it comes to work. I want to thank all of you that do work with these groups. You are special people. Thank you.

DeMolay International 2011 Conference of Executive Officers was held in Portland on March 3 to 6, 2011. It was a pleasure for me to attend as an invited guest and I was very warmly received. The host of the conference was our own Gordon Kimball, Jr. These Brethren worked until 10:00 o'clock both evenings. It wasn't a pleasure conference Brethren. They worked hard. DeMolay is in good hands in these United States.

Recommendations. I recommend that the Grand Lodge office go back to five days a week, eight hour days. I think that is something we need; see if we can get some work caught up in the Grand Lodge office. It is something that was started years ago to conserve energy during the winter. I think we had better make some changes.

Conclusion. A major piece of unfinished business concerns the future location of the Grand Lodge business office, Library and Museum. At the 191st Annual Grand Lodge Communication, a motion was made and adopted to have the Grand Master form a Site Recommendation Committee. In an attempt to answer this question, although the motion was found by the committee from the beginning to be flawed and unworkable to the fact that it dealt more with the size and space required or with a present building in mind rather than a basic question that truly needed to be answered such as the exact location to be considered. Rent, purchase price, could the Grand Lodge purchase property? If so would it be prudent to do so? Method of funding a purchase if that was recommended to be funded?

And certainly, last but not least, should we move at all? When they mentioned handicaps, the committee moved on and could only make the recommendation that the Bangor area be chosen as the future area of the move. With no other information available to the Craft, this recommendation was defeated at a Special Grand Lodge Communication on March 12, 2011. During the course of the past year, the Craft has been witness to a host of newsletters, emails, Grand Lodge publications, handout bills, documents and comments from a number of sources containing accurate information, questionable information and totally false information foreboding either in area, location, or building.

As your Grand Master, I am committed to finding a solution to this complicated issue, which will be a benefit to the entire Craft for many years to come and not just to those with a special interest. As a result, they have taken the first steps to a workable solution. At the last Maine Masonic Charitable Foundation meeting, I received a commitment from the committee that they would be agreeable to invest in the purchase of property possibly to be leased to the Grand Lodge. I will be forming a committee to include two of our talented legal minds charged with the task of answering the questions, "How, what, where when and why?" So that the next time you, my Brethren, vote on this matter, you will have all the required information that you deserve.

I want to thank all the Past Grand Masters, and the Elected and Appointed Grand Lodge Officers for their dedication this past year. We've learned how to do things and the next year should be a great one. I would like to thank all the Brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction for the privilege and honor of serving you as your Grand Master this past year. May God Bless You now and forever. May you live your Freemasonry each and every day. God Bless. Thank you Brethren.

The Grand Master was accorded a Standing Ovation by the Brethren.

Grand Secretary: Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master, I move that the Grand Master's Address be referred to the Committee on Doings of Grand Lodge Officers. Also that the reports of the Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Wardens and the Grand Lecturer be referred to the same committee without reading.

The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Craft.

Grand Master: Agreeable to Section 44 of the Constitution of this Grand Lodge, Rule No. 5, any motions to change the Constitution or Standing Regulations of the Grand Lodge shall be submitted in writing to the Grand Secretary. These proposed changes will be taken up after the report of the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, which will be held later this morning. Again, any proposed changes to the Constitution or Standing Regulations must be submitted in writing to the Grand Secretary.

The Deputy Grand Master returned the Gavel to the Grand Master and the business of Grand Lodge continued.

M.W. Walter M. Macdougall delivered the Report of the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence:

COMMITTEE ON MASONIC JURISPRUDENCE

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine.

In March of this year, this committee received a copy from the Grand Secretary of an undated decision issued by our Grand Master. On April 23rd, the chairman of this committee received copies of sixty-four dispensations which had been issued by the Grand Master during the current Masonic year.

Decision

The decision was made in response to a question as to whether the clause in section 71 of the Maine Masonic Constitution which states that membership in a lodge under dispensation suspends membership in all other lodges was applicable to the brethren who were in the process of forming and joining Seminary Hill Daylight Lodge in Bangor, Maine.

The Grand Master's decision was that the last sentence of Section 71 "...has no meaning or purpose and is of no further force or effect." Preceding this statement, the Grand Master reviews the following facts. When the constitution was amended to permit statewide jurisdiction, the intent was to remove the last sentence of Section 71 along with several other sections of the Constitution which were no longer relevant. The intended deletion of the sentence in Section 71 was not carried out.

It has long been established that decisions of Grand Masters "...are made for the purpose of interpreting written laws, where uncertainty exists and determining their application to particular situations which may develop from time to time..." (Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence Report 1955). Under these circumstances, this committee feels that this decision does clear up an unfortunate situation and that it does preserve the right of multiple memberships for the brethren concerned. We recommend the approval of this decision. However, we do stress that this decision should not be considered a precedent for Grand Masters in the future who may be inclined to contravene a clearly written provision of our Masonic Constitution or of the Standing Regulations.

Dispensations

It is obvious that nine days is far too short a time for this committee to properly consider the number of dispensations submitted. We do not know the extenuating circumstances leading to the delay in delivering these dispensations to the committee, but we feel sure that this situation will be remedied. We recognize that decisions and dispensations may be rendered up to the date of the Grand Lodge session, but this committee should be provided with copies of decisions and dispensations at the earliest possible date - preferably at the time they are made.

In addition, the deliberations of this committee were often hampered by the lack of supporting data. A copy of the application for dispensation should be supplied to this committee along with each dispensation. Any additional information which might be helpful in understanding situations in question should also be included.

Having registered the working needs of this committee, we should remind ourselves of the essential role of the Committee of Jurisprudence within the life and development of our Fraternity. This committee serves as a check and balance in the administration of Masonic law within this jurisdiction. In this role, a certain judicial distance must be maintained. However those of us who have been long associated with this Grand Lodge have witnessed occasions of confrontation when constructive and responsible dialogue should have prevailed. The Committee on Jurisprudence, as the term jurisprudence implies, is an important partner in the serious and fascinating business of constitutional governance and the orderly, procedural development of Masonic law.

We found the dispensations placed before us to be within the stated and accepted powers of a grand master, and we recommend their approval.

In considering the dispensations, we did find the opportunity for productive dialogue. We also found evidence of an unfortunate trend which should be watched carefully in the future.

We end this report by sharing with you some of those decisions which gave us pause:

A lodge asks for a dispensation to change the date of its annual meeting which had not been held due to "inclement weather." The date of this lodge's annual meeting is stipulated in its by-laws. Since 1918, a well supported decision has been in force that a by-law of a lodge “cannot be suspended by a Grand Master”. However, Section 14 of the Maine Masonic Constitution states that a Grand Master may: “... in the event of any civil emergency or disaster, grant dispensation permitting a change of time or date for Stated Communication”. Does the latter provide a basis for granting a dispensation covering annual meeting, and if so, at what point does “inclement weather” constitute a civil emergency or a disaster?

A lodge through proper action, in the year 2000, amends its by-laws to allow, by vote of the lodge, suspending regular meetings during the month of June, July and August. It then seeks a dispensation to “go dark” during the months of December, January and February. We were not informed whether this change was intended in perpetuity. If so, the issue is whether this is the place for a dispensation rather than a change in the lodge's by-laws.

A lodge seeks a dispensation to initiate three candidates on the same night in which a vote will be taken for their acceptance thus doing away with the fourteen day stipulation found in Section 130 of our Masonic Constitution. This section also gives the Grand Master the right to issue a dispensation to change this time requirement should he be “... satisfied of the necessity of doing so”. Evidently our Grand Master was so satisfied. What is of interest is whether this application for dispensation was made in the interest of the candidate, the lodge or both.

We commend our Grand Master in not issuing two dispensations in cases where the convenience of the lodge and its officers was the obvious concern. The tendency to seek dispensation either to circumvent time consuming but sound legal practice or simply to accommodate lodges and the needs of their officers should be guarded against. We would reiterate the following statement made in the report of this committee in 2008: “The general rule, supported by long standing custom, is that dispensations allowing slight deviations can be made to accommodate a candidate only, but not for the convenience of the Lodge.”

Looking forward to a growing dialogue and an increasingly wise practice, we respectfully submit this report and move the adoption of its recommendation regarding the decision and the dispensations placed before this committee.

Respectfully Submitted,

M.W. Walter M. Macdougall, Chairman
R.W. N. James Coolong
R.W. Robert W. Ferguson

On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to accept the report of the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence.

Wor. W. Daniel Hill delivered the Report of the Committee on Memorials:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Grand Wardens and distinguished Brethren here assembled;

It is with a profound sense of loss that we again note the passing of M.W. John Efstratios Anagnostis who departed this life on October 24, 2010. We have taken the liberty of incorporating into this report the memorial notice distributed over the signatures of M.W. W. Louis Greenier II, our current Grand Master and R.W. Hollis G. Dixon, Grand Secretary as it is a most complete and fitting document.

We also note the passing of R.W. John B. Greenleaf, Senior Grand Warden during the 1997/1998 Masonic year. R.W. Brother Greenleaf passed on November 13, 2010. A recapitulation of his life and contributions to Masonry, especially to the York Rite bodies follows the memorial pages dedicated to M.W. Brother Anagnostis.

With the permission of M.W. Brother Greenier, we ask that after the reading of the memorials the Brothers here assembled rise without the sound of the gavel for a short prayer and moment of silence.

Respectfully submitted,

Martin L. Perfit
Dwynal R. Grass

M.W. JOHN EFSTRATIOS ANAGNOSTIS

M.W. GRAND MASTER 1988 - 1990

GRAND LODGE OF MAINE

Most Worshipful Brother John Anagnostis was born at Biddeford, Maine on November 19, 1929, the son of Efstratios (Sam) J. and Katherine Kermegis Anagnostis. A first generation American, for the first six years of his life John spoke only Greek, the language spoken in his parent's home on Storer Street. He received his primary education at the old Moody School on Spring Street, in Saco, where he began to learn English under the tutorage of Mrs. Proctor, his first grade teacher; this course of study would become his life's vocation. He graduated from Thornton Academy, June 1948, and the following fall was enrolled at the Brunswick Annex of the University of Maine. After his freshman year, he transferred to Gorham State Teachers College (now USM), completing his studies there in June 1952. A month after graduation John was drafted into the United States Army and served as a clerk at Fort Eustis, Virginia, during the Korean Conflict, and was afterwards transferred (as an instructor) to the Instructional Methods Branch. Honorably discharged in 1954, he remained in Virginia to work on a master's degree in education at the College of William and Mary, at Williamsburg. During this period John also gained his first experience teaching when he took a part-time position, at a one-room school house, where he provided music education to children in grades one through eight. His first full-time position was teaching English, speech and history at York High School in Yorktown, Virginia, spending his vacations and summer breaks working as a guide at both Jamestown and Williamsburg.

In 1957 John moved to Massachusetts where he taught English at Peters High School in Southborough, but owing to the death of his father returned to Maine the following year and joined the English Department at Kennebunk High School. In 1959 John completed his masters and married Jean Ann MacKinnon, whom he had met while residing in Massachusetts. To them were born three children; a daughter Katherine (Kate), and twin sons Efstratios John and John Efstratios II. John remained at Kennebunk High School for 28 years, was president of the Kennebunk-Kennebunkport Teachers Association in 1975 and 76, was chief negotiator for teachers for eight years, and served as president of the Maine Council of English and Language Arts. He retired from teaching in 1986, after the death of his first wife.

In 1987 John married Dorothy (Dolly) Aldrich Howe, her children Lara and Chris becoming part of this extended family. To Dolly goes the credit for the insightful introductions which preface each of the chapters in 49 Storer Street, a volume of selected writings from John's weekly Journal Tribune column, 'Anagnosticisms'.

R.W. FRANKLIN RODDEN ‘BUCK’ BARCLAY

R.W. Franklin Rodden ‘Buck’ Barclay, Past Junior Grand Warden of Masons in Maine, died unexpectedly on Saturday, Oct. 30, 2010, at his residence in Leeds, Maine.

Buck was born Feb. 8, 1936, in Lyndonville, Vt., the eldest of seven children born to John Hammond and Elizabeth Eaton Barclay. When he was several months old the family moved to the Moose Hill section of Livermore Falls. He graduated from Livermore Falls High School in 1954.

On Aug. 8, 1954, he married his high school sweetheart, Jeanne Constance Brown, of Wayne, Maine; they had five children who survive. Jeanne predeceased him in October, 1986, and in December, 1989, he married Sandra Wight Strom, who likewise predeceased him in September, 1999.

In September 1954, Buck enlisted in the U.S. Air Force, his eight years on active duty spanning the latter months of the Korean Conflict and the early years of the Vietnam War. During this period he and Jeanne were stationed in Pasadena, Texas, Brooklyn, N.Y., Sculthrope, England, and finally four years at Dow Air Force Base in Bangor. He then served in the Maine Air National Guard and the U.S. Naval Reserve.

While at Dow Buck took college courses two nights a week plus Saturday mornings, and following active service used his GI Bill to finish his college education at Husson College, graduating cum laude in 1964, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. He then completed the Sears, Roebuck and Company Executive Training Program, and worked for that company in Philadelphia, Pa., Orange, Conn., and Nashua, N.H., before returning to Maine in 1967, where he was employed by several Maine hospitals as a personnel administrator. He was a charter member, past president and life member of the Maine Society of Hospital Personnel Directors (now the Maine Association of Healthcare Human Resources Administrators) and he was their first member to have held all their elective offices. He retired from the Department of Health and Human Services, where he served as a Labor Relations Officer. He was later re-employed by DHHS as a part time personnel officer.

Buck developed sports officiating as an avocation while in the service. He umpired baseball and softball for many years, and was a football official for more than 40 years. He was proud to have been selected to officiate in many state playoff and championship games, and was particularly proud of his selection as the Referee of the Maine Shriners' Lobster Bowl III. In May 2004 The State of Maine Chapter of National Football Foundation and the College Hall of Fame presented Buck their prestigious Football Official Recognition Award. This award is presented to a football official 'who has given noteworthy service to the game of football throughout his career.'

Buck was a life member of Fitzgerald-Cummings Post 2, The American Legion, where he served as commander 1986-1989, and as adjutant 1989-2000. He was an associate member of the Augusta Area Military Association. He also held membership in the Augusta Lodge of Elks No. 964, and was a member of the Moose Hill Free Will Baptist Church in Livermore Falls.

Brother Franklin Barclay enjoyed an extensive Masonic career. As a young man he was a member of the Auburn Chapter, Order of DeMolay and, while stationed in Houston, Texas area, joined Anson Jones Priory, Order of Knighthood. In 1960 he petitioned Mechanics Lodge No. 66 in Orono, and was initiated there on February 10th, passed on February 24th, and raised on March 16th. He affiliated with Asylum Lodge in Wayne in 1967, and served them as Master in 1970 and 1972. At the time of his death he was their secretary and had served in that position since 1975. Buck recently received his 50 year Masonic Veterans' Medal. He is also a member of the York Rite bodies, of the Scottish Valley of Augusta where he served as Thrice Potent Master in 1983-85, and of Portland Consistory. He joined Anah Shriners in Bangor in 1961, was affiliated with Kora Shriners in Lewiston where he was a Shrine Clown for about 20 years, and was a charter member of the Maine High Twelve Club No. 730.

Buck served as a District Deputy Grand Master of the 11th Masonic District from May 2, 1973 to May 6, 1975, and was Junior Grand Warden of Masons in Maine from May 4, 1977 to May 3, 1978.

A funeral service with full military and Masonic honors was held on Friday, Nov. 5, 2010.

REPORT OF THE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

At Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

Brethren, first let me note that one goal was to have meetings during the year to assist with Deputies and officers on ways to grow our membership. This did not happen and the fault lies with the Membership Committee Chair.

Our Membership contest for this past year did not yield a growth from last year. Last year we had 464 newly raised Master Masons from April 2009 to March 31, 2010. This year that number was 451, a net reduction of 13 new members from the previous year. Although a small loss, it is still a little uncomfortable.

In addition there are some noticeable areas of interest from the previous year.

1. Every district this year had a minimum of 5 new members, a growth of 3.
 2. There were 53 lodges with no new members, vs over 49 last year.
- The winners this year in the groups were interesting. The largest number of new members this year was from a lodge in the small group – Orchard Lodge with 25 and this is the largest number we have ever had. It is great to see a smaller lodge grow like this.

Our large group still has the major growth as it should.

Our Districts all performed well with the large ones generally producing the most new members as would be expected.

The following Membership Contest Plaques were presented:

LARGE PLAQUES (8X10)

- LARGE DISTRICT GROUP- 1ST PLACE IS DISTRICT 18 WITH 59 NEW MEMBERS
- SMALL DISTRICT GROUP- 1ST PLACE IS DISTRICT 13 WITH 21 NEW MEMBERS
- LARGE DISTRICT GROUP- 2ND PLACE IS DISTRICT 6 WITH 52 NEW MEMBERS
- SMALL DISTRICT GROUP- 2ND PLACE IS DISTRICT 10 WITH 17 NEW MEMBERS
- LARGE LODGE GROUP- 1ST PLACE IS LYGONIA LODGE # 40 WITH 20 NEW MEMBERS
- MEDIUM LODGE GROUP- 1ST PLACE IS WEBSTER LODGE #164 WITH 9 NEW MEMBERS

- SMALL LODGE GROUP- 1ST PLACE IS OLD ORCHARD LODGE # 215 WITH 25 NEW MEMBERS

MEDIUM PLAQUES (7X9)

- LARGE LODGE GROUP- 2ND PLACE IS SACO LODGE #9 WITH 11 NEW MEMBERS
- LARGE LODGE GROUP-2ND PLACE IS PRESUMPCOT LODGE # 70 WITH 11 NEW MEMBERS
- MEDIUM LODGE GROUP- 2ND PLACE IS GREENLEAF LODGE # 117 WITH 6 NEW MEMBERS
- SMALL LODGE GROUP- 2ND PLACE IS EUCLID LODGE # 194 WITH 7 NEW MEMBERS

SMALL PLAQUES (5X7)

- LARGE LODGE GROUP- 3RD PLACE IS TRIANGLE LODGE #1 WITH 10 NEW MEMBERS
- MEDIUM LODGE GROUP- 3RD PLACE IS BENEVOLENT LODGE # 87 WITH 5 NEW MEMBERS
- SMALL LODGE GROUP- 3RD PLACE IS DRUMMOND LODGE # 118 WITH 5 NEW MEMBERS
- SMALL LODGE GROUP 3RD PLACE IS BAY VIEW LODGE # 196 WITH 5 NEW MEMBERS

I will attach some charts of comparison for the districts and the lodges which can show what has happened in the 3 years we have had our contest.

If we can get some meetings in the districts with all lodges from the district present or put in the annual district meeting a segment about membership growth and how to do it, I believe we can really start to move in the right direction.

It will take a major push from our top elected officers and the DDGM's to really get this effort to grow.

Thank you,

R.G. "Pete" Forrest, Chair

On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to accept the report of the Membership Committee.

The Grand Master directed the Grand Marshal to escort R.W. Robert G. W. Lobley to the East. The Grand Master then read the following:

R.W. ROBERT GORDON WILBUR LOBLEY

R.W. Robert Gordon Wilbur Lobley was born in Orrington, Maine on April 15, 1933. He still resides in Orrington with his wife of 54 years, Julia Mable (Jordan) Lobley. Bob and Julia have two children; a son, Wayne, and a daughter, Victoria.

Brother Lobley has been a Mason for over 52 years and has been an exemplary member of the Grand Lodge of Maine in every way. He served as his Lodge Secretary for 18 years and served as Treasurer of the Pine Tree DeMolay Youth Foundation for 30 years.

We thank you, Bob, for all your contributions to Freemasonry in Maine. At this time, it is a true honor and pleasure for me to name you as recipient of this Simon Greenleaf Medal.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DISPENSATIONS AND CHARTERS

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 03, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Masons in Maine:

There were no matters concerning suspension or revocation of charters referred to this committee this past year for consideration.

Seminary Hill Daylight Lodge U. D., located in Bangor Maine has been operating as a Lodge under dispensation since that being granted in March of 2010 and therefore subject to examination of the work and records of lodges working under dispensation and to make recommendations on the petition of a lodge working under such a dispensation for a charter as appears to be in the best interests of the craft and the petitioners.

Our Most Worshipful Grand Master W. Louis Greenier performed that examination on March 24, 2011 and did refer his report to us for consideration and our recommendation on the petition for a charter for said lodge. Due to some previous negative publicity we feel that his report should be included as a part of our report that all who will be considering their petition for a charter will have a more clear view and we therefore quote that report in it's entirety;

"On Thursday, March 24, 2011 I had the pleasure of visiting Seminary Hill Daylight Lodge Under Dispensation at their meeting location in the Bangor Masonic Center. It was (a) pleasurable visit indeed. My purpose was to assure myself that this Lodge was worthy and well qualified to receive its Charter at the upcoming Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

It is – and this lodge is truly a wonderful addition to our Craft.

From the moment my Lady and I arrived, we were treated with the friendly courtesies that this lodge extends to ALL who visit it. Each of their meetings since inception has been preceded by a luncheon and this was no exception. From comments made by those within earshot, this superb meal of lobster bisque and fish chowder was nothing out of the ordinary for them. All their meals are prepared by their own members and quite often, it is done as a donation to assist the lodge in getting on its feet financially in these early days of their existence. The standard charge to members at each meeting is a mere $6 per person and I can assure you, this was a meal worth more than that!

From the very first meeting of this lodge in March, 2010, they have welcomed their ladies to join them at luncheon. Moreover, they have made it their special mission to welcome Masonic Widows and to share the friendship and fraternity that many of our "special Ladies" might not otherwise receive. This was not a one-time event, done to impress me. It is part of their mission and they have sent individual letters to the Master and Secretary of 23 nearby lodges inviting them to let their Widows know about these twice monthly luncheons. Even more unique is that no Masonic Widow is ever allowed to pay for their lunch. This is something that the lodge has decided as inappropriate in light of our obligation to aid and assist. It is something they do freely and willingly. Even though there were no widows from this lodge, there were five Masonic Widows present, thoroughly enjoying themselves. We were pleased to meet and greet them. Because the lodge has both a stated meeting every month of the year as well as a planned special meeting except in the holiday season and dead of winter, it gives some 20 opportunities annually for our Widows to enjoy Masonic friendship. Their clear attention to our Widows is a credit to their dedication as Masons.

Following Lunch, as is their custom, a luncheon speaker provided a talk on local history. Having a presentation of interest to both Masons, their guests and ladies, is a standard for Seminary Hill Daylight Lodge and it is impressive to see this ongoing program which makes the luncheon time together a learning and fun experience as well.

As the luncheon ended, we were encouraged to be a part of a reception line which we gladly did. It was a great chance to greet each of the members, ladies and widows, all of whom were wearing nametags on lanyards showing their hometown. It was easy to see that they were not just from Bangor: a great many local towns were represented. The lodge, though, was very specific about candidates: they do NOT intend to encourage membership in Seminary Hill Daylight directly but rather, will refer these men to their local lodge. They seek membership by affiliation only so the lodge is not a threat to the work of any other nearby lodge. Only in the case of working men, unable to attend lodge at night, will they consider a petition. I think this is an admirable position for them to have taken.

The Masons then retired to the lodge room and received me promptly at 1:00 PM. I was joined by our Grand Marshal and the District Deputy for the Sixth Masonic District, R.W. E. Fritz Day.

Prior to the start of the meeting, I had the opportunity to review the records and finances of the lodge. It was impressive to see how they paid particular attention to these matters and yet did so in a comfortable and easy-going manner. Lodge minutes contained photos and commentary from the Secretary sure to make anyone smile yet always in good taste. The lodge at the outset had adopted a motto of "Conviviality and Caring" and as you can see from these remarks, they take that very seriously! The financial records were impeccable and they use both the recommendations and the forms of the Grand Lodge to account for their funds.

Even before their first meeting, a charity fund had been established. During meals, a small box is left unobtrusively on the table where the Secretary collects for the day's meal. I observed many members dropping money there without encouragement or comment. I later learned of the charitable endeavors from this generosity and it was certainly pleasing to see.

After being received in due form with the officers all wearing not only the usual Masonic regalia but also their distinctive sashes as provided for in our Constitution, appropriate honors were given. The Master then declared the Lodge to be at ease and invited the ladies to come in. We then heard about the ladies of Seminary Hill Daylight Lodge and what they've been doing while the men are in their tiled meeting. I was told later that at the outset there was concern from the Masons that the Ladies might be bored just waiting around for them. Quite the contrary, it seems, as the ladies are involved in a half-dozen different charitable projects, designed solely by them and encompassing both in Bangor and the surrounding communities. Our Grand Junior Deacon Bro. Randy Elliot – also the Junior Deacon for the lodge – each year hand-makes dozens (this year, a hundred) doll cradles for needy young girls. The ladies of Seminary Hill, Daylight Lodge have committed to making blankets for each of these doll cradles while the lodge and its members both from their pockets and their charity fund to make this effort even larger. This is but ONE of the several things they are doing. I was pleased to commend the ladies in their endeavors: they are inspiring indeed. Even though a couple of the widows were physically hampered, they were clearly pleased to be a part of this work.

Following the departure of the ladies, the lodge was returned to labor and the Master read “a Compendium of Events” explaining what the Lodge had done since receiving its dispensation. I have attached a copy of this for you to peruse. As you can see, they have been an active bunch indeed, persevering through unnecessary adversity and always keeping before them the ancient usages and landmarks of the Craft. These are indeed devoted brethren, committed to having a lodge filled with ‘Conviviality and Caring’.

My District Deputy Grand Master had inspected this Lodge in November at my request. He issued his report giving them a “Very Good” (the highest mark) in all categories. I concur with that assessment wholeheartedly. Not long thereafter, I reviewed and approved their proposed By-Laws. They have met all of the requirements to becoming a Chartered Lodge on our rolls.

I know this lodge will be a credit to our fraternity and feel most comfortable in issuing a charter to them at our next Grand Lodge Communication.”

After due consideration of this report and as well as the Compendium of Events of 2010-2011 also furnished us, we unanimously concur with the findings of our Grand Master, M.W. W. Louis Greenier, and along with him feel most comfortable in the issuance of a charter empowering them to work as a duly constituted Lodge within this Grand Jurisdiction.

It is our unanimous recommendation that their petition be approved and a charter be issued to Seminary Hill Daylight Lodge.

Respectfully submitted,

R.W. Raymond G. Locke

R.W. Randall S. Burleigh

R.W. Roger O. Easley Sr. Chairman

On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to accept the report and ratify the recommendation contained therein.

COMMITTEE ON AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

To the Officers, Members and Brethren of this Jurisdiction:

We have several matters of the Constitution to consider at this Annual Communication, brethren, and I thank you in advance for your time, your patience, and your perseverance as we move to accomplish these things.

Last year you, the members of the Grand Lodge, voted to entertain several amendments to the Constitution, lay them over for one year and decide their individual fates at this Grand Lodge Session. We will consider them in order.

Bringing these proposals to a vote is a two-step process, brethren. First we must vote to remove each proposal from the table, then, once that is accomplished, we must vote on the actual disposition of the proposal.

Amend Section 35 which outlines the duties and responsibilities of the Finance Committee, by adding the following sentence at the end of Section 35. No member of the Finance Committee may serve at the same time as a trustee of the Masonic Charitable Foundation or as the head of any appendant or concordant Masonic body in the State of Maine.

Section 44 of the Constitution outlines Rules for Government of Grand Lodge. In order that there be no areas of ambiguity or confusion regarding the report of the Committee on Jurisprudence, there is a motion on the table to amend Section 44 by adding, as Rule 21, the following: The report of the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence shall be presented immediately following the address of the Grand Master.

I would entertain a motion to remove this proposed amendment to Section 44 from the table. On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted so to do.

Also concerning Section 44, Rules for Government of Grand Lodge, last May you brethren voted to entertain and lay over for a vote at this Annual Communication, the following motion to be added as: Rule 22: Drafts of all committee reports containing recommendations requiring approval of Grand lodge shall be made available to the craft no later than March 15th of each year.

I would entertain a motion to remove from the table this proposal to add Rule 22 to Section 44 of the Constitution. On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted so to do.

The Committee on Amendments recommends adoption of this proposal and I would entertain a motion to that end. On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to add Rule 22 to Section 44.

Amend Section 71. As it is now written, Sec. 71 reads: Lodges under dispensation have all the rights and powers of chartered lodges except the election and installation of officers and the rights growing out of election and installation; and the membership in other lodges, of their members is suspended during the continuance of the dispensation.

Last May you brethren voted to lay on the table a proposal to strike off the part of Section 71 that deals with the suspension of members from their mother lodges during the continuance of the dispensation. In other words you brethren accepted, at least for the purpose of consideration and review, the proposition that a brother would not have to forfeit membership in his mother lodge while he worked to form a new lodge.

I would first entertain a motion to remove the proposed amendment from the table. On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted so to do.

We will now attend to the business of amending Section 71 to read as follows: Lodges under dispensation have all the rights and powers of chartered lodges, except the election and installation of officers and the rights growing out of election and installation.

The Committee on Amendments recommends adoption of this proposal and I would entertain a motion to that end. On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to amend Section 71.

Add Section 71a. Last May the brethren at Grand Lodge also voted to accept for consideration and to lay upon the table the following proposal: "Lodges under dispensation also have the right and power to set and collect an affiliation fee for those who wish to hold membership therein. In no event shall said fees be more than three times the amount of the sum of the fees established for a new candidate."

I would entertain a motion to remove this proposal from the table and proceed to consideration of it. On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted so to do.

We will now consider the motion, as follows, which would become Section 71a, if affirmed.

Lodges under dispensation also have the right and power to set and collect an affiliation fee for those who wish to hold membership therein. In no event shall said fee be more than three times the amount of the sum of the fees established for a new candidate.

The Committee on Amendments recommends adoption of this proposal and I would entertain a motion to that end. On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to ratify Section 71a.

Now Brethren, in order that Section 71a not be at odds with Section 131, I would propose the following amendment be entertained, referred to the appropriate committee, entered upon the records, published with other proceedings of the Grand Lodge and sent to the several subordinate lodges for their consideration. And be deemed in order to take up the subject and act definitely on it at our next Annual Communication.

The second paragraph of Section 131 now reads: “No fee shall be charged in any subordinate lodge under this jurisdiction for membership through affiliation.”

As amended, the second paragraph of Section 131 would read: Any subordinate lodge under this jurisdiction, on submitting proper by-laws changes to the Grand Lodge, and on approval by the Grand Master, may charge a fee for membership through affiliation.

The Committee on Amendments recommends this action and I so move. On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to entertain the amendment and that it be laid over.

In the meantime, Brethren, by that I mean for the ensuing year, if it be your wish, we can bring Section 71a and Section 131 into agreement by adopting Standing Regulation 76, which would say; S.R. 76 Resolved. That lodges may charge a fee for membership through affiliation, on submitting proper by-law changes to the Grand Lodge, and on approval by the Grand Master. This standing regulation is intended to be in effect only until the Annual Communication in 2012, at which time Sections 71a and Section 131 can be brought into agreement by regular Constitutional process.

The Committee on Amendments recommends adoption of S.R. 76 Resolved and I so move.

The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Craft to become effective immediately.

S.R. 16 defines the aprons and jewels of the Grand Lodge officers. The following proposal would add a seventh paragraph to that Standing Regulation so that the aprons and jewels of District Education Representatives would also be properly described there.

The said paragraph would be as follows: The aprons of the District Education Officers shall be white lambskin, lined with purple, with purple edging. The jewel shall be a point within a circle bordered by two perpendicular parallel lines with an open book atop the circle. On the apron flap there shall be, properly illustrated, the flame of knowledge.

The Committee on Amendments recommends adoption of this addition to S.R. 16 and I so move. The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Craft.

We also have a proposal to amend Sec. 2 (which defines Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge) by adding SEC. 2A which would read: SEC. 2A. Any permanent member of this Grand Lodge, when representing his lodge as Master or Warden at a Grand Lodge communication, shall relinquish his permanent member ballot at said communication, it being listed as a duplicate vote.

I would propose this amendment be entertained, referred to the appropriate committee, entered upon the records, published with other proceedings of the Grand Lodge and sent to the several subordinate Lodges for their consideration. And be deemed in order to take up the subject and act definitely on it at the next Annual Communication. And I so move.

The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Craft.

We also have a proposal to amend Section 133.1 Membership of Lodges.

As written, Section 133.1 is as follows: Every candidate who shall receive the third degree in any lodge in this jurisdiction and sign the by-laws shall become a member of said lodge and the secretary shall record his name upon the roll of membership; provided that this section shall not be construed to prohibit any lodge in this jurisdiction from conferring any degree upon a candidate lawfully elected thereto in a lodge in any other jurisdiction with which this Grand Lodge holds fraternal relations, on the request under the seal from the electing lodge, the identity and standing of the candidate being fully established, in which case the membership of the brother shall remain in the electing lodge and the fees shall belong thereto.

The proposed amendment would add the following language to the first sentence of Section 131.1...shall be required to demonstrate satisfactory proficiency in that degree before signing the lodge by-laws and becoming a member of said lodge...

So that, as amended, Section 133.1 would read: Every candidate who shall receive the third degree in any lodge in this jurisdiction shall be required to demonstrate satisfactory proficiency in that degree before signing the lodge by-laws and becoming a member of said lodge and the secretary shall record his name upon the roll of membership; provided that this section shall not be construed to prohibit any lodge in this jurisdiction from conferring any degree upon a candidate lawfully elected thereto by a lodge in any other jurisdiction with which this Grand Lodge holds fraternal relations, on the request under the seal from the electing lodge, the identity and standing of the candidate being fully established, in which case the membership of the brother shall remain in the electing lodge and the fees shall belong thereto.

Do I hear a motion to entertain this proposal? After considerable discussion, the motion was defeated.

Thank you, brethren.

Fraternally and respectfully submitted,

George P. Pulkkinen, Chairman
Lester F. Smith

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL RELATIONS

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine

We would like to express our respect and esteem for the senior member of this committee, M.W. John E. Anagnostis, PGM. Most Worshipful Brother Anagnostis provided counsel and support with kindness and consideration. We are sure he is dealing with fraternal relations in that Supreme Lodge above.

We have had two requests for recognition this year that meet the criteria for recognition: Azerbaijan and Monaco.

The National Grand Lodge of Azerbaijan was chartered and constituted on December 8, 2008 by the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia and the Grand Lodge of Russia.

Azerbaijan is a former member of the U.S.S.R. and is in the far east of Europe. We feel it is important for us to support the Masonic brotherhood in that area.

The National Regular Grand Lodge of the Principality of Monaco was consecrated on February 19, 2011, by the United Grand Lodge of England in association with the United Grand Lodge of Germany and the Grande Loge Nationale Francaise. Although this Grand Lodge has only existed a few weeks, we feel confident that with the backing of the three sponsoring Grand Lodges it will be able to follow the criteria for recognition.

M.W. Claire V. Tusch
R.W. C. Herbert Annis

On a motion duly made and seconded, it was voted to accept the report and the recommendations contained therein.

The Grand Master called on Barry Gates.

Barry Gates: Thank you Most Worshipful for letting me make this announcement.

On May 21st, at Kora Shrine Center, we're having a Leadership Conference and we've got three terrific speakers coming and we hope that we will get a big turnout, not only from Shriners but from Masons and all of the affiliated bodies. It starts at 9 o'clock in the morning and will go until about 2:30 in the afternoon. We will provide lunch at no charge and, as I said, we've got three really good speakers coming. So, if you would like to come, you can register on the website: Korashriners.org or you can call Kora office in Lewiston or you can touch base with me.

Thank you Most Worshipful.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RITUAL

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine,

Contained in the report of the committee on Ritual at the last annual communication is a brief history of our Ritual. The process used in our work and a detailed discussion with examples of the various items that needed to be corrected. Also integrated into the CIPHER are those portions of the several lectures contained within the Maine Masonic Textbook in plain text and at their proper position.

Hopefully this will provide convenience for the user. This process has involved six plus complete drafts of the CIPHER, carefully read; and I might say, word by word by the committee as well as others; in particular, R.W. Donald Macdougall and R.W. Robert Gillahan, both Assistant Grand Lecturers. Questions at the meeting and corrections both at the meeting and through email were provided to R.W. Christian Ratliff, Grand Lecturer, who would make the corrections as needed in the master draft. Without Brother Ratliff's expertise, I'm afraid we might still be in the quarries pounding rocks. Just an example, he would go word for word, punctuation, read over and over. I don't think there are too many Masons that could have accomplished what he did. We are encouraged to have among us young members like this with the talent and dedication to the craft. The committee extends its warmest fraternal thank you to R.W. Brother Christian Ratliff.

Our work is done. You Brethren may decide if it has earned the accolade, good work. Brethren, last year you voted us an extension of time and permission to go to print with the 2010 edition of the Maine Ritual. We recommend, as a committee on the ritual, this Grand Lodge, by its vote, ratify the 2010 edition of the Maine Ritual.

Respectfully submitted,

Alan R. Heath
John T. Irovando
Dwynal R. Grass
Christian A. Ratliff
N. James Coolong, Chairman

John Irovando: Most Worshipful, I move the acceptance of this report and that the recommendation made be adopted. The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Craft.

MASONIC EDUCATION & LODGE SERVICE ANNUAL REPORT

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The Masonic Education & Lodge Service (M.E.A.L.S.) Committee has been extremely busy meeting monthly all year in Augusta. We accomplished the following:

Offered and provided training in April to the DER's prior to their installation. Unfortunately, some of the DER's who did not attend the training for various reasons, encountered problems with their DER duties and complained that they needed more training. This issue seems to arise every year. Perhaps we need to offer the DER training at more than one location and on more than one date. That being said, there isn't very much time between DER selection and their installation in May.

The MEALS Committee is and has always been committed to providing every DER with the training and resources to succeed in his Grand Lodge assignment. I hereby make this offer to all DER's.

If you believe that you need additional training and/or training resources, call me at (H) 729-1433 or (C) 751-6892 or send me an email at timbev70@comcast.net as soon as possible and I will do my best to see that you receive what you need. Please don't wait until the end of the year to contact me about a problem, do it as soon as you recognize that there is one. I promise to do my best to leap tall buildings in order to help anyone who is trying to become a better DER.

The Grand Master appointed quite a few Past District Deputy Grand Masters as DER's this year and the results are encouraging. Unlike previous years, we received annual reports from nearly every DER.

Distributed the new Instructor's Manuals to the DER's and or DDGM's for their constituent lodges and every lodge in the state should have their own copy by now.

Revised and simplified the DDDGM's Annual Visitation Report Form.

Revised and simplified the DER Annual Report.

Developed and promulgated a new Speaker's Bureau.

Assigned MEALS Committee points of contact to each DER (POC) and every DER received correspondence that shares the POC information.

Created a location on the Grand Lodge website called, "DER Corner" as a place where the DER's can share lessons learned regarding Masonic Education, etc. with their counterparts and anyone interested in Masonic Education.

Conducted a full day of Lodge Officer Training for the 14th District. Approximately 20 Masons attended this training and it was very well received. The 14th District has requested that the MEALS Committee make this an annual event for their district. We have agreed to do so. We have an open invitation to conduct Lodge Officer Training in any district that wants it.

The MEALS Committee and members of the Masonic College Board of Regents are teaming to develop Pollard Plan videos in DVD format from scratch. Work has already begun and we hope to start filming this summer. We plan to have multiple Masonic speakers from a variety of age groups. When completed, copies of these videos will be distributed to all lodges and Masonic educators as soon as possible.

Raymond Rideout Award

There were nine submissions for the Raymond Rideout Award this year and three lodges stood out from the rest, i.e. Deering Lodge #183, United Lodge #8 and Rising Virtue Lodge #10. After an extensive review and evaluation by the MEALS Committee, the Raymond Rideout award is hereby awarded to Deering Lodge #183 of Portland and the Runner-Up is United Lodge #8 of Brunswick.

R.W. Tim Martel, with the assistance of the D.E.R.'s presented Certificates to the following lodges: United Lodge No. 8, Rising Virtue Lodge No. 10, Orchard Lodge No. 215, Aurora Lodge No. 50, Lewy's Island Lodge No. 138, Mt. Bigelow Lodge No. 202, Tyrian Lodge No.73 and Deering Lodge No. 183.

Submitted by: V.W. Thomas G. Atwell, 17th District Education Representative

Deering Lodge # 183 in Portland, Maine; 17th Masonic District.

Candidate Education

Candidate education begins as soon as the candidate expresses an interest in becoming a Mason. Deering Lodge encourages potential candidates to come to the lodge on meeting nights, have dinner with the brethren, tour the lodge hall and meet as many brothers as possible. The education continues when the committee of inquiry meets with the candidate.

Once the petition is approved, the Master turns his information over to the Chairman of the Lodge Education/Mentoring Committee for assignment of a Mentor (this was a newly minted committee in February of 2010 charged to enhance the education experience for both candidates and elder brothers). This Mentor or group of Mentors in many cases works with the candidate on his proficiency, ensures he has ample opportunities to visit other Lodges, see degree work he is eligible to see and get out to meet new brothers. When possible, the Mentor is someone who knew the candidate before he petitioned, and if that is not possible, it is a Brother whom the Master and the committee believe has enough in common with the Candidate that they will facilitate the development of a good personal relationship.

In addition, Deering Lodge has a candidate-education committee that will assist the Brother who is assigned to mentor the candidate and fill in if the Elder Brother is unavailable. The combination of the Mentor and the Committee has proven successful in-so-much as candidates are once again demonstrating their proficiency (through the Obligation with little prompting) in open Lodge, something that had not been done in many years at Deering Lodge.

The Lodge has a DVD player in the dining room, and the candidates view the appropriate videos for the Accepted Candidate, Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft and Master Mason. They also receive the Pollard Plan booklets following each degree and these are discussed with the candidates. In addition, Deering tries hard – and usually succeeds – in getting the new brothers to attend a degree in another lodge shortly after they have gone through that degree at Deering.

The Elder Brother's relationship with the candidate will continue at least until after the new brother has come back to lodge after his raising so as to educate him on protocol and the inner workings.

Education of Brothers

Master Christopher DiSotto arranged three programs to be given at Stated Meetings during his term (no programs had been presented in the past few years).

At the first Stated, a Past Master gave a program on lodge protocol – proper address, not breaking the plane between altar and Master, why we don't discuss religion and politics in the Lodge and why Masons in the 17th District give the sign of fidelity during prayers and obligations while most other lodges are not.

On another occasion Brother Dwayne Rembert gave a program on book binding, a hobby of his that arose from his love of writing poetry. He presented a half hour program taking nearly 15 brothers through the process of starting a journal, counting pages, sewing the pages together, the glue used to bind the covers and gave away a finished product at the end of the evening. Everyone there was impressed.

On January 10, 2011, Most Worshipful Brother Claire Tusch gave a program on the George Washington Masonic Memorial in Alexandria, Va. Many of the brethren have heard of the Memorial and Museum, but few had known much about it. This was a very inspirational program for the dozen or so brothers there.

In addition, Brother Jerry DeWitt presented a Music Appreciation program sponsored by the Maine Masonic College at Deering Lodge. This program was not greatly attended but that was in no part because of the efforts on behalf of Deering Lodge.

Other Factors

During his term as Master, Worshipful Brother DiSotto initiated the Beehive, an email publication that goes beyond the Trestleboard in that it has several educational articles each month. Topics include Masonic art, what to do if you want to come back to the lodge after being away for a while, brother submitted articles, a monthly Constitutional excerpt (all Lodges should be presenting the Constitution), how to do background checks on candidates and what has been going on in Lodge.

Overall, it has been a productive year in terms of getting the Education/Mentoring Committee off the ground and achieving great success, reaching out to the brethren through the Beehive and bringing worthwhile programs to Deering Lodge. All of these achievements are items necessary to running a successful Lodge but had gone by the wayside until Worshipful Brother DiSotto and his Officers made them a priority.

Deering also benefits from having several active Grand Lodge officers among its membership. Right Worshipful Brother Christian Ratliff, Grand Lecturer, regularly offers insight and instruction. Worshipful Brother DiSotto is District Ritual Instructor. The District Education Representative is also a member of the Deering lodge and pitches in to help out whenever he can.

In closing, I would like to thank all of the DER's who submitted nominations for the Raymond Rideout Award and congratulate all of the lodges that were nominated for this prestigious award. Not long ago, some of the candidate lodges were close to turning in their charters but as a result of the hard work and dedication of their brethren, some of these lodges have become very active and some have raised an extraordinary number of candidates. For example, Orchard Lodge #215 reported that they have had approximately 50 petitions for membership this year and many of the new members have become active in various aspects of lodge activities, including taking line officer chairs. Lewy's Island Lodge #138 is another lodge that has turned a corner and has demonstrated marked improvement thanks to the extraordinary efforts and dedication by their officers and brethren. Way to go Orchard Lodge and Lewy's Island Lodge, we are expecting great things from you in the future. I hope that you will share your secrets of success with the rest of us. I would also like to thank the members of the M.E.A.L.S. Committee for their extraordinary dedication to Masonic Excellence and for their untiring support. We also wish to thank the Grand Master for his guidance and support of Masonic Education.

COMMITTEE ON THE CONDITION OF THE FRATERNITY

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

The Committee on the Condition of the Fraternity has once again gone over the reports of the District Deputies covering the many Districts in this great state. We find that Masonry, as in the past, has made an improvement. Many lodges show an increase in applications. Again this shows Masonry is indeed on the right track. Although membership is still a large concern, we must continue in a positive direction. Our hope is with a positive outlook, in spite of the present economy; we will have a turnaround in our membership.

CONDITION: Much praise to all of the lodges that have continued to hold open houses, fellowship nights, and widows programs, along with semi-public programs and Chips programs. These all contribute to bring a public awareness to our fraternity. The more that we reach out to the general public, the more benefit can be realized. We also should be more involved in our communities as well.

RITUAL: After reviewing the D.D.G.M.'s reports we are pleased that there is a continuing effort by all the lodges to continue to improve on the presentation of the ritual. We must, however, continue to report the importance of Schools of Instruction. From the reports at the committees disposal, there is, as in the past a noticeable lack of attendance at the schools. As this committee has reported in the past, maybe a new format should be considered. We praise the efforts of the Lecturers for their hard work.

LODGE RATINGS: Having read the reports that we had there is an improvement in lodge ratings. This is a good sign that most lodges are working hard in this area. We still must report that many lodges are having others do the lectures and charges and not the line officers. We continue to believe that the line officers should be doing their own work.

DISTRICT DEPUTY REPORTS: We repeat again the importance of these reports and that they are sent to us in a timely manner. Thank you to those who sent them in. It is from these reports that the Condition of the Fraternity makes its report. For those who failed to get their reports in, we can only say this is unfortunate for their districts. We certainly hope this will improve in the future. Most of the District Deputy reports were done in a fine manner. Outstanding reports were submitted by the 1st, 6th, 11th, and the 16th Districts.

RECOMMENDATIONS: We believe more semi-public meetings, open houses, and masters and wardens associations are being utilized as recommended last year. Also more utilization of the mentor program and more widows' programs should be planned. We also recommend more charity work should be done in the Lodges and on the outside. The more that we can do for public meetings the more exposure we will realize.

CONCLUSION: We find for the most part that Masonry is alive and well. The largest tasks are membership and the economy. Gasoline prices are also a major factor. We can only say, keep up the good work. We can and will overcome. The Grand Lodge web page is being utilized by the Deputies to communicate with the Grand Lodge.

Again and as always, we are reminded that, "Time, Patience and Perseverance, will accomplish all things."

The Condition of the Fraternity proposes that the recommendations contained in any of the District Deputy reports be sent to the proper committees by the Grand Secretary's office.

Respectfully submitted,

John K. Caldwell, Chairman

REPORT OF THE GRAND LECTURER

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine,

The past year has been dominated by the creation of the 2010 plain text ritual and accompanying cipher. The Committee on the Ritual, the Lecturing Staff and myself have spent thousands of man hours focused on the production of an accurate, current version of the Maine working using original sources in every case. Although this effort took slightly longer than expected, and missing a delivery by ten days after eighteen months of effort is enormously depressing, we are still very pleased with the results.

The Schools of Instruction remain as they have been for decades: highly variable. The Lecturers have allowed the Districts to structure and organize their schools in any manner in the hopes of improving attendance. The styles of instruction are varied: instruction in the round, single day all degree sessions, informal dress, coincident with lodge stated communications and so on. In the final analysis, the primary predictor of a solidly attended School is a dynamic and organized District Deputy Grand Master.

On the topic of Schools of Instruction, I have made it my personal mission to travel to each lecturing super-district to see the work of the Assistant Grand Lecturers. Although I was only able to make four visits last year, I plan to restart in the Fall when the Schools resume and reach all six of the regions before the next Grand Lodge session. Hopefully, this will provide a more rounded view on the situation of the Schools state-wide.

The Lecturing Staff is one of the last groups within the Grand Lodge to modernize its function. During the coming year, we will be meeting regularly to create electronic forms to replace the paper photocopies we are using extensively today. We will also be creating a calendar of notifications for the District Deputy Grand Masters and Lodges to ensure that they know when schools should be scheduled and when the ritual lodge of the year submission should be provided.

Finally, I am pleased to announce that this year marks the start of a renewal for this award. As many of you have noticed, the award bears many names: Ritual Lodge of the Year, Outstanding Lodge, or Lodge of the Year. This year, the award has been renamed for the first Grand Lecturer of the Grand Lodge of Maine, R.W. Bro. Benjamin Gleason. He served this region from 1805 to 1842 and taught the ritual all over Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts. With the award this year, we will be adding a perpetual trophy which goes from winning lodge to winning lodge on the night of their exemplification of the Master Mason Degree. I look forward to this year's winner handing off the trophy in eleven months.

Respectfully submitted,

Christian A. Ratliff, Grand Lecturer

Christian Ratliff: I move the acceptance of this report and that it be spread upon the record. The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Craft.

R.W. Brother Ratliff was joined by his lecturing staff in presenting the Benjamin Gleason Award for Outstanding Ritual Performance to Deering Lodge No. 183 in Portland. The lodge received a Plaque to hang in their lodge building and a Trophy that shall be engraved each year with the name of the lodge that was designated the winner for that year.

Deering Lodge No. 183 was accorded a standing ovation by the Brethren.

R.W. Guy F. Chapman delivered the

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Masons in Maine:

Brethren, your Committee of Finance submits the following report for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2011.

There were a total of seven meetings held by your Finance Committee during the fiscal year. Monthly statements were received from the Grand Treasurer and reviewed at these meetings. The Grand Secretary's minutes from the previous meeting were reviewed and approved at each of the meetings with or without corrections.

It is the Finance Committee's usual practice to review the records of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer each year at one of our meetings. On December 1, 2010, your Finance Committee met in Portland at the Grand Lodge offices for this purpose. R.W. Thomas E. Pulkkinen and R.W. Robert J. Landry reviewed the reconciliations of the various accounts and found that some accounts had not been properly reconciled to the general ledger by the Grand Treasurer. This affirmed the correctness of the prior recommendation by the accountants (Macdonald Page) that a second person, who is not signing checks or disbursing funds, be selected to reconcile the bank statements to the ledger accounts. While a second person had for several months been checking to see that reconciliations were done, no member of the office staff had the expertise or time to independently reconcile the accounts on a monthly basis.

Need to Go Beyond the Usual Finance Committee Role

The Finance Committee held both open and executive meetings with the external auditors to discuss the concerns and recommendations emanating from the Macdonald Page's audit of the records of Grand Lodge and the Charitable Foundation for fiscal year 2010.

As a result of the discussions with Macdonald Page, as well as the out-of-proof conditions noted during the December 1, 2010, review, and other concerns raised during the year, the Finance Committee decided that further audit and analysis were necessary. The committee approved an independent account reconciliation and the extensive review of the financial activities and records of the Grand Lodge and Charitable Foundation, with the approval of the Foundation Trustees, for the year ending March 31, 2011.

The Finance Committee's actions over the past year necessarily went beyond its historical and customary role, yet these actions were in accordance with its responsibilities and powers under the Grand Constitutions.

Independent Review Findings

The external accountant's review and the Finance Committee initiated reconciliation raised several questions as to the processing and transfer of funds between Grand Lodge and Foundation accounts. It appeared that funds were being transferred between and within the two entities in error and without proper approval, documentation and validation.

There were several instances found, throughout the year, where budget accounts were overdrawn without notice being given to or approval obtained from the Finance Committee, in violation of the operating motions of Grand Lodge. While this is not a new practice, nor one that this committee can claim to have been ignorant of, it is a practice that must be stopped, and it must be stopped Now. It is quite simply put, unacceptable. Funds cannot be expended and budgets cannot be exceeded without proper, prior approval from the Finance Committee.

In addition, the review disclosed that: month-end account reconciliations were not properly prepared; substantial funds were held in essentially non-interest bearing accounts; invoices were paid twice or to the wrong party; funds were disbursed without prior approval; accounting practices for transactions were inconsistently and inaccurately applied; and some transactions were recorded multiple times or applied to the wrong accounts.

The preliminary report on the Finance Committee initiated review was reviewed by our auditing firm to determine any differences in opinions and none were offered by Macdonald Page.

In summary, the independent review did not disclose any devaluations of funds but it is the opinion of the Finance Committee that the financial operations of Grand Lodge, including the duties of the Grand Treasurer, the Grand Secretary, the Finance Committee and your Charitable Foundation are not being effectively managed or controlled, and that effective, timely attention to these matters by Grand Lodge leadership is required to strengthen the staffing, policies, practices, operations and controls relative to the financial accounts, records and reports of both Grand Lodge and the Charitable Foundation.

Finance Committee Recommendations

As a result of the Macdonald Page's annual report, and the findings and recommendations of the thorough, committee-approved audit that were reviewed by the Finance Committee on February 1, 2011, several changes are being recommended to the Grand Master and the Charitable Foundation Trustees that will provide better controls of receipts and disbursements.

Because of the sensitive legal relationship between the Grand Lodge and the Foundation, the two corporations must act as separate entities. Your Finance Committee recommends to this Grand Lodge that there be no more “transfers” of funds between the two entities. When one of the two corporations owes money to the other, for rent, parking, office sharing etc., a proper billing method should be employed and invoices paid to the other by check, with proper entries made in the general ledger and with supporting documentation. It is also recommended that the Foundation consider having its own bookkeeper or treasurer as further controls, although having a separate treasurer would require changes to sections 20 and 63 of the Grand Constitutions.

The Finance Committee recommends that to improve operations, this Grand Lodge vote to take the several steps enumerated in the report on the independent reconciliation and review its several account relationships to increase investment earnings, reduce fees and eliminate unneeded accounts.

Grand Lodge Self Insurance Program

The Self Insurance Fund for the bonding of lodge secretaries and treasurers was initiated because commercial bonding was unavailable. Initial funding was provided by transferring $50,000 from the Moody Fund, which has been supplemented over the past two years – with Grand Lodge approval – with monies initially designated for the Maine Mason. The start-up funds were recently returned to the Moody Fund.

At the December 1, 2010, meeting, the Finance Committee discussed the Self Insurance program and agreed that in case an insurance claim is made: the first $10,000 would be absorbed by the individual Lodge; the maximum allowable Self Insurance Fund payout would be $40,000; and coverage would be provisional on the lodge filing its 990N form with IRS in a timely manner, and there having been annual financial reviews of the entity’s financial records by a qualified individual or firm.

Grand Lodge Budget for 2011-2012

The Finance Committee has initiated steps to strengthen Grand Lodge finances going forward; by closely projecting revenue streams, reserving income on permanent and other non-operating funds for future emergencies and extraordinary conditions, reducing spending requests in several areas – none affecting services to lodges and the Craft, and increasing budget provisions for the essential areas of membership and leadership development, as well as for Grand Secretary and Treasurer compensation that hasn’t increased in several years.

The Finance Committee approved a budget, which was distributed to all lodges in February, with total income of $366,489.00 and total expenditures of $355,979.92, with a budget surplus of $10,509.08. The Finance Committee approved an increase of the per capita tax by 10% to $14.10. It should be noted that the next lowest per capita tax assessment in the United States is $25, with some jurisdictions charging $100 or more.

Policies Effecting Fiscal Year 2012

Your Finance Committee has established policies effecting the 2012 fiscal year budget with respect to which Grand Lodge positions will be reimbursed up to the budget limits for attending the Grand Master's North American and Northeast Conferences, and for in-state and other travel by Grand Lodge officers and committee members. If a traveler is to represent the Grand Master out-of-state, funding will be provided upon the approval of the Finance Committee.

The mileage rate has been set at $0.40 per mile for 2011-2012.

Expenses are limited by the Grand Lodge budget, unless otherwise adjusted by the Finance Committee.

Salary increases in this budget shall take effect upon approval by the Grand Lodge.

Your Finance Committee will initiate investment strategies for Grand Lodge funds including the Permanent Fund, Moody Fund, Self Insurance Fund, and other monies not needed to meet the near-term financial responsibilities of Grand Lodge. These strategies will be based upon the assessment of funds flow requirements, and the consideration of investment growth and earning opportunities within defined risk parameters.

Respectively submitted,

R.W. Frank A. Theriault, Jr.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, I would like to make two motions. The first is to move the acceptance of this report and that it be spread upon the record. The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Craft.

M.W. George Pulkkinen objected to the inclusion of pay raises for the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary as included in the budget. R.W. Christian Ratliff moved that under Rule 13 the previous motion be reconsidered. The motion was tabled.

The second motion is the adoption of the recommendations herein contained which includes the following:

1. The actions of the Finance Committee be ratified and confirmed.
2. The reports of the Grand Treasurer and Auditor be accepted and incorporated into the records of this annual communication.
3. The coverage limits and payout criteria for the self-insurance fund be ratified.
4. The Budget for fiscal year of 2011-2012 be adopted and funded.
5. The per capita tax be increased by 10% to $14.10.

Item 1. Motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Craft.

Item 2. Motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Craft.

Item 3. Motion was seconded. Self-Insurance Fund was discussed. A motion was made to amend the amount that a lodge would have to pay on a claim (the deductible) to $ 5,000 instead of $ 10,000. That motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Craft. The amended motion was then seconded and carried by vote of the Craft.

Item 5. Guy Chapman made a motion that the Per Capita Tax be increased by ten percent to $ 14.10. He added that there is also a $ 3.00 fee for the Maine Mason magazine and fourteen cents ($.14) per member for insurance.

Royce Wheeler offered an amendment that the budget, as proposed, at $ 355,979.92 for the coming year be reduced by $ 29,000.00. Subtract $ 29,000 from $ 366,000 and that would come out $ 326,979. I would take out the increases for the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer and reduce the amount budgeted for the Conferences outside of the State of Maine and I would depend on some of that income that was listed under last year's budget of investment income that was zero this year coming in to fill the rest.

The Grand Master tabled the motion to amend until after the election of officers.

At 3:00 p.m., M.W. George Pulkkinen called for the final report of the Credentials Committee.

R.W. Alan Heath presented the:

REPORT OF THE GRAND HISTORIAN
The Grand Lodge of Maine, 2007 through 2010

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

‘WHO ARE WE AS A FRATERNAL ORGANIZATION IN THE 21ST CENTURY?’

Most Worshipful Grand Lodge, Most Worshipful Grand Master:

At Grand Lodge last year, following his installation as Grand Master, M.W. Brother W. Louis Greenier, II, advised that next year he wanted an updated History of Grand Lodge.

What I’m going to give to you now is a partial report to keep it as short as possible but it will all be in the Proceedings and I believe it will be worth reading when it comes out next year.

When the office of Grand Historian was established in 1987, his specific charge was to “keep and maintain an up-to-date narrative history of the Grand Lodge of Maine and at the request of the Grand Master, to present the same to all the Grand Lodge at regular intervals.” A narrative history is defined as usually written and at some length, characterized by a tracing of causes and efforts, and by an attempt to estimate, evaluate and interpret facts.

The last four years the Grand Historian’s report has centered exclusively around M.W. Bro. Gerald S. Leighton’s charge, which was subsequently extended by M.W. Robert R. Landry, to resolve the issue of delinquent lodge histories. This has been done.

Before going into the details of this report of the last four years, there is one fact which I think may be of interest to the Brethren. Allow me just a slight digression. The following is offered as a historical point relative to the current discussion of where to locate the Grand Lodge’s Administrative offices.

At the annual meeting of Grand Lodge in Portland on January 1830, with twenty lodges out of fifty-eight lodges then being present, a motion was accepted to move meetings of Grand Lodge to either Augusta or Hallowell. It was to be moved because of the severe effect of the Morgan Affair in the Portland area and about the State. It was believed that a more central location would better serve the craft.

On December 19, 1831, at a Special Communication of Grand Lodge in Portland, with Lodge No. 1, 3, 17, 23 and 28 being present, it was voted unanimously to move Grand Lodge meetings to Augusta.

By 1841, Portland Lodge No. 1, now forming part of Triangle Lodge No. 1, and Ancient Landmark Lodge No. 17, also now forming part of Triangle Lodge No. 1 began advocating for the return of Grand Lodge to Portland. This was ultimately accomplished by a vote of Grand Lodge in 1843.

I just share this with you Brethren as a factoid, which may be of some interest while we are discussing the moving of Grand Lodge offices at this time.

The remainder of this history will consider how the State of Maine Masonry during the leadership of Most Worshipful Gerald S. Leighton and Robert R. Landry from 2007 to 2010.

While history does not just begin to happen, a look back to the years of Most Worshipful Brother Claire Tusch's leadership will serve as a starting point. His was a time when public awareness about Masonry was being heightened by movies such as National Treasure and The DaVinci Code and talk about Dan Brown's new book which just came out about a year ago, called The Lost Symbol. Also at that time, the Conference of Grand Masters had asked the Masonic Information Center to report on Masonic awareness on how to promote on Masonic public identity. This report was presented in December, 2005.

Predating this national report, the Grand Lodge of Maine struck out on a ground breaking program with the chartering on May 6, 2005 of the Maine Masonic College.

It was created to provide an educational environment for the purpose of inspiring members of the craft and others to explore the nature and purposes of Masonry. Through the leadership of the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the Scottish Rite, at that time, Maine adopted a Masonic Ambassadors Program to help provide a cadre of enthusiastic knowledgeable and respected Masons to be able to give a consistent, informal and positive message on Freemasonry to Masons, their families and the general public.

The initial step was taken to plan the development of a family activities committee to be charged 1. to inspire Masonic families to be active with other Masonic families and 2. to encourage Non-Masonic men to see Masonry as complimentary to their lives and values and, finally, to show the relevancy of Masonry in today's society and family structure.

Outreach into the community was found in proposing to the State Commissioner of Education the Masonic Model Student Assistance Program, continuation of the Child Identification Program (CHIPS) and Community Betterment Grants to sustain a worthwhile community project.

At this time, administratively there are chronic issues of the cost of running Grand Lodge, of raising Per Capita Taxes at each session of Grand Lodge, a proposed amendment to Standing Regulation No. 2, would have abolished fines for delinquent Lodge Histories and at that time six past Grand Masters were proposing a trial period for allowing one-day conferral of all three degrees under very specific conditions.

Finally, as a sign of the times, forced consideration of what had once been Freemasonry's future that of Religious toleration when Masonry was founded in 1717, the issue then before the Grand Master was how the Koran would be used when obligating a Muslim to join a lodge here in Maine. But all of these things and others, some of which I have passed over, buoyed up Brother Tusch's belief "that across the jurisdiction and across the Nation, there is a growing interest and a renewed excitement in Masonry."

At that time a long simmering problem arose to the forefront in regards to the cost of maintaining the Grand Lodge's administrative offices in the Masonic Temple in Portland. The fixed costs of maintaining this Masonic treasure appeared to lie unproportionately on Grand Lodge and thus on all Maine Masons. The Temple Trustees are diligently addressing this issue which promises to be a difficult one requiring good will and creative thought. It is an issue which cannot go unresolved.

Back at that time a significant change had taken place regarding Schools of Instruction. While our ritual is what sets us apart from other organizations, it is also what draws us together. Following a recommendation from the Committee on the Condition of the Fraternity, more time is spent on explaining the meaning of the ritual and the symbolism contained within the degrees rather than on the words. This represented a considerable change from how schools have been conducted.

In his 2009 address to Grand Lodge, M.W. Robert R. Landry stressed that "Masonry is a family affair. We need to have more family outings. We need to be more visible as a family oriented organization".

The overriding concern the last two years under M.W. Bro. Robert Landry was membership. With this came a seismic change as to how one may come to Masonry. Throughout the 20th century one might tell a non-mason that he believed that he would enjoy Masonry; that he would get something positive from it; that he would in turn make the organization a better one; and that he would not be asked to join but rather had to do that of his own choice. It would be hard to be much more solicitous without outright asking the person to join. Yet it was believed and strongly felt that the person should actually ask himself after the ground rules, so to speak, were laid out to him. It was believed that the person would take more of an ownership interest in his action in coming into Masonry.

While never stated by the Grand Master in his annual report to Grand Lodge, the Membership Committee reported in 2009 that:

“The Grand Master and the committee agreed that the long established protocol of requiring a man to ask to be a Mason would be reversed and the Craft would be able to. “Ask One To Be 1.”

I have deleted some of my report following up on that but this raises a question, for us today as it did back then. When a lodge is raising 10 to 18 or 20 odd members per year as to what is going on in that lodge besides doing degree work? Is it providing beneficial programs and involvement within the lodge to improve the lodge experience of its new members? Is their Masonry having the opportunity to become lodge oriented and lodge centered? Or are we being driven by the quest for numbers with no follow up for new members?

The coming and goings of members over the past four years provide grounds for consideration of those questions. There is encouragement and grounds for concern. We need to consider not only the number of new members raised but also the loss of members who have demitted, been suspended for non-payment of dues or have died.

Our real decline in gross membership has come in three areas. The first we have no control over, it is the death rate of members who joined during World War II through 1959. But it is important that we realize that these Brethren kept their identity with Masonry and they were proud to retain their membership even if they seldom attended lodge. Deaths have averaged 673 the last four years while the four years prior to that it was 745.

The second area of significant decline in membership is found in those suspended for non-payment of dues. These are Brethren who lost their identity with Masonry or we failed to maintain an identification which kept their interest and commitment. Suspension for non-payment of dues has averaged 338.

The final area of significant loss is found with those demitting from membership which has averaged 170. A good number of these are from members moving out of state but by far the greater number is from those who wish to exit Masonry in good standing. While their reasons are varied, it still remains a fact that their identification with Masonry was not strong enough to keep them in the fraternity.

Comparing these averages with those of the four prior years of 2002-2005, we find loss due to death to have declined by an average of 72 per year. This may, hopefully, indicate the beginning of a decline in lost membership because of age.

Yearly membership increased by 23 per year over the past 4 years. This too is an encouraging sign.

The discouraging news is that demits are up an average of 42 per year and suspensions for non-payment of dues are up an average of 22 per year over the previous 4 years.

Looking at just the numbers for the past four years, demits equal 40% of our new members and suspensions are 78% of our new members. Combined they are 18% more than the increase from new members. Simply put we are having more people leaving Masonry alive than those who are joining!!

We may increase our new membership numbers but if we do not maintain a meaningful identification for them within Blue Lodge Freemasonry, we very likely will see no significant decrease in our suspension rate.

The Ambassador and the Family Activities Programs were begun under M.W. Tusch with the hope of reaching out to non-Masons who would want to join our fraternity. The ambassador program has a solid foundation and mission but it has not yet gained significant forward motion. It has trained many members who have received a medallion but they do not seem to be actively involved. They are reactive, not proactive. Their founding charge has been changed from one of being a public advocate and speaker on behalf of the fraternity. Many Ambassadors "are not comfortable with public speaking or with actively promoting Masonry to non-Masons. They prefer to promote Masonry informally in their own way."

The Family Activities program has struggled with its open ended charges relative to Masonic activities. Its most directed program to partner with family oriented business did not receive its desired results. This program centered around allowing advertising in the Maine Mason and on the Grand Lodge website in exchange for family discounts.

Over the past four years, Maine Masonry has become, as one Past Grand Master has said, a "Masonic-Elks Club." It has become more involved in doing civic projects and giving money to help projects. It has strayed from its identity of making good men better.

Maine Masonry has forsaken its call for self-improvement and replaced it with community involvement. We have sought to put on more of a public face in the community to enhance our reputation with the belief it would bring new members. It may be working to some degree but it appears that more actual members are losing their identity with masonry and are leaving it behind as they move on.

In response to the opening inquiry, "Who are we as a Fraternal Organization in the 21st Century?" At this point in time we are another fraternity at another crossroad as we seek our Masonic identity. The opening of our lodge doors will do more to put on a sustaining public face on Masonry than any of the community betterment programs we can pursue. Returning to our identity of making good men better by a lodge oriented membership we can also bring in the general public, including wives and children. By looking within, we can return to our roots of our heritage to our public identity of being leaders in our community and truly making good men better.

Most Worshipful, I would move the acceptance of this report. Motion accepted and carried by vote of the Craft. Applause!

George Pulkkinen: Do we have any results for the office of Senior Grand Warden?

Pete Forrest: For Senior Grand Warden; total votes cast 449. Needed to win 225. Richard Rhoda received 227 and Ronald Murphy 222. Mr. Rhoda is the winner. Brother Rhoda accepted. Applause!

Pete Forrest: For the office of Grand Treasurer, there were 418 Votes cast. Harold McKenney had 315 votes and Robert Hains had 103. Brother McKenney is the winner. Brother McKenney accepted. Applause!

George Pulkkinen: We will now vote for Directors of the Maine Masonic Charitable Foundation; No 7 on your ballot with all of the names. Team No. 1 will collect the ballots. I declare the ballot open.

George Pulkkinen: I declare the ballot closed. We will now vote for the Finance Committee; a three year term; vote for two the highest vote getter will have a three year term and the next highest will have the two year term. I declare the ballot open.

Thomas Pulkkinen: As was mentioned in the report of the Finance Committee, we tried to really scrub the budget this year. More than we have in the past. The budget for the year we are now in has already been cut by $ 22,000 from last year's budget and $ 26,000 from the budget requested by the Grand Master and the Grand Treasurer. So, we've already cut $ 22,000 to $ 26,000 depending on the base point. We have cut funding from the Conference of Grand Masters and the Northeast Conference by about 45% from where it was last year. We have voted that only the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and Grand Secretary go to the Conference of Grand Masters because we were concerned with spending there. So we've already taken action on those items.

We have also set aside the investment income that R.W. Royce Wheeler mentioned; not to put it in the operating budget. We did that because our Grand Lodge is operating on a shoestring literally. We have about 6.2 months of expenditures in our Treasury in funds other than the Permanent Fund and things like that. We have very little money available. So we have cut a lot of money. We have tried to reserve the investment income for an emergency whether that emergency is to move to a new home or buy furniture for a new home or just let it grow to offset the tremendous inflation that we are all experiencing.

So, we've cut the budget; we've made rational projections of revenues and we've said, "What can we do?" There was a proposal early on to go to a $ 25.00 Per Capita Tax and we said, "No, we can't do that especially in this economy." But we've made prudent cuts given that some of this budget was put together before the report came out on the Audit. Certainly there could be a motion to reduce the six thousand dollars in the budget for those two salary increases for the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer. But I think that a $ 29,000 cut in the revenues and expenditures of Grand Lodge would be devastating to our efforts to build the craft and I would certainly hope that we would vote against the second motion.

Grand Master: What is the motion?

Royce Wheeler: Most Worshipful Grand Master it is my understanding that, during an election, no meaningful business can be voted upon. I think the budget is very meaningful; you can have a discussion but I would tell this assembly that no vote can be taken until the balloting is completed.

Grand Master: So taken!

Robert Hains: Grand Master, I'm not sure if Brother Wheeler's suggestion of the place to cut was part of his motion or not because if it was, it's not a valid motion. He suggested $ 22,000 in cuts and said take the rest out of revenue. Well you can't cut expenditures by $ 29,000 if you're taking part of it out of revenues. It just can't be done. Either we need some clarification or we have to defeat the motion.

The Grand Master called on M.W. Owen F. Walton, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia to speak on behalf of our Distinguished Guests.

M.W. Brother Owen Walton:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Distinguished Guests, Brethren all,

On behalf of the representatives of other jurisdictions, I would like to express our thanks for your hospitality here at your Grand Lodge and tell you that it is very enjoyable but at the same time I'm glad I'm not your Grand Master right now.
Laughter.

Brethren, I would like to tell you that I thought I came from a pretty good part of the world until last summer. My lady Shirley and I were travelling toward Vermont for the Grand Lodge of Vermont and we were travelling through a little hamlet in New Hampshire and that's when I came to realize that New Englanders really know how to live. Traffic was slow going through this little village and, all of a sudden, I said to my wife, "Look that guy has it made." There right next to the street was a guy sitting in his lawn chair with his guitar singing up a storm while his wife was mowing the lawn. Laughter.

So I think you people know how to live. Now whether I would tell that if my wife was here or not, I don't know.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, once again we thank you for your hospitality and thank you Brethren.

M.W. W. Louis Greenier: Our pleasure.

M.W. Brother Walton was accorded a standing ovation by the Brethren.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF TRIALS

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

During the past year, the Grand Master suspended only one Mason for unMasonic conduct.

On September 30, 2010, Most Worshipful W. Louis Greenier, II, suspended Brother William R. Fulton from all the rights and privileges of Masonry based upon charges filed by Dunlap Lodge No. 47.

The specific allegations set forth in the charges state that William R. Fulton was convicted by the Maine Superior Court in Alfred, Maine of two charges of Unlawful Sexual Contact, Docket Number CR 91-1417, under Title 17-A MRSA, Subsection 255, (Class D) on May 11, 1992. The charges presented by the Junior Warden indicate that Brother Fulton was originally indicted on twenty counts of unlawful sexual contact, he pleaded guilty to two charges and eighteen charges were dismissed. He was sentenced to serve 364 days on each charge consecutively. The sentences were suspended and he was placed on probation for one year on each count.

Due notice was sent by certified mail to the defendant and he was directed to respond within fourteen days of receipt of said notice whether he wished to have a hearing on the charges or upon the disposition to be recommended if the charges were admitted.

William R. Fulton did not request a hearing within the fourteen day time limit and was, thereby, found to be in default. In so far as the charges on which he was convicted were misdemeanors, the Commissioners of Trials hereby recommend that: Brother William R. Fulton be suspended from all the rights and privileges of Masonry.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE GRAND TREASURER

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The accounting records for the Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M. and the Masonic Charitable Foundation of the Grand Lodge of Maine for the year ending March 31, 2010 have been audited by the Accounting Firm, Macdonald Page and Company, LLC and the results thereof have been printed in the proceedings for the year then ended.

Both organizations, the Grand Lodge and the Charitable Foundation financial statements are prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting. The only modification to the cash basis is that unrealized gain and losses are included in revenues and investments are reported at fair market value. Under that basis of accounting the only assets recognized are cash and investments. All other assets and liabilities are not capitalized, accordingly, assets purchases are expense in the year of acquisition and repayments of borrowings, should there be any, are expense when paid. Filings for the 990 Tax Returns have been submitted as required by the Internal Revenue Service. Whereas the current fiscal year has just ended the records are ready for audit and as soon as that is completed will be reported in the upcoming procedures.

This is the eleventh straight year that the reports have been certified on all basis and I expect the coming year to be the same.

Respectfully submitted,

Harold E. McKenney, Jr.
Grand Treasurer

Most Worshipful Sir, I would request that these be spread upon the record.
The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Brethren.

The Grand Secretary presented the:

REPORT OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine, A.F. & A.M.

The 2010 - 2011 Masonic year was a year of significant change for the office of the Grand Secretary based on the changes that took place in personnel. On September 30, 2010, Julie Irving retired after almost twenty-five years of dedicated service to the Masons of Maine. Julie had been a key person on the Grand Secretary's staff based on the fact that she handled many of the most important assignments over the years.

A reception was held for Julie at the Deering Masonic Hall in Portland. Our Grand Master, M.W. W. Louis Greenier, II, and his wife Judi joined with many of Julie's friends and former co-workers for a celebration of her years of dedicated service.

As a result of Julie's retirement, another significant change took place. Julie's full time position was replaced with a part time position. The net effect of this change in staffing meant that we have gone from a Staff of three fulltime employees to a Staff consisting of one full time employee and two part time employees. Fortunately, Corey Center had taken over most of the major duties and responsibilities that Julie had previously handled.

We were particularly fortunate in that we were able to fill the part time position which was created by Julie's retirement by hiring R.W. Alan R. Heath, former Senior Grand Warden. Brother Heath brings with him a very special and valuable knowledge of the technology which enables our fraternity to keep its massive records and ability to communicate with our Brethren throughout the world. Brother Heath's son, R.W. Thomas A. Heath, the present Senior Grand Warden, designed and programmed the computer software which contains our membership database and enables our lodge Secretaries to maintain their records directly on the Grand Lodge Server via the Internet.

The past year has been a rather stressful year because of the uncertainty of just where the Grand Lodge office would be located in the future. When the Grand Master's Site Selection Committee met in November and voted to recommend that the Grand Lodge office be located in the Bangor area, it sent the message that the entire staff would be replaced. There was genuine concern that the operation of the Grand Secretary's office would be taken over by a new staff that would not be familiar with the operation. A Special Communication of the Grand Lodge was held in Bangor on March 12, 2011 for the purpose of voting on that recommendation. As a result, that recommendation was rejected by the Craft. While this was somewhat comforting to the staff of the Grand Secretary's office, it still left unanswered the question of where the Grand Lodge office would be located.

As it now stands, the process of determining where the Grand Lodge office will be located in the future will be started over again after the Annual Session of Grand Lodge in May. A new committee, appointed by the Grand Master will consider available facilities that are adequate for our needs and less expensive to lease, rent or own, while taking into consideration the projected cost of maintaining the site in the future.

In closing, I want to congratulate Julie Irving on her well earned retirement. She was a valuable employee and I especially want to thank her for coming back into the office (after her retirement) to help us prepare for the annual session. I also want to thank Corey Center, Pat McBride and Alan Heath for their hard work and dedication during the past year. I want to thank Harold (Mac) McKenney for his valuable cooperation during the year.

In addition to changes in the office, we have also had some changes in personnel, which have taken place in the custodial staff. We now have a new Supervisor of the custodial staff named John Garrison. John is a very hard working, well organized supervisor. He is constantly finding ways to cut the costs of maintaining the Masonic Temple and personally working on projects that will result in lower costs. Additionally, Charles "Fuzzy" Barron and Thomas Heald fill in on a part time basis to compliment John's work. Together they make a great team and we appreciate everything they do.

Those of us that make up the Grand Lodge office staff are looking forward to the new Masonic year while hoping that a new office will be found close enough to enable us to continue serving the Masons of Maine.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

Hollis G. Dixon
Grand Secretary

Grand Secretary: I move the acceptance of this report and that it be spread upon the record. The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Brethren.

M.W. George Pulkkinen declared Brother Tom Pulkkinen and Brother David Billings the winners and each accepted their election to serve on the Finance Committee.

M. W. Brother Greenier called for the:

INSURANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The present Blanket Liability Insurance Policy required by Standing Regulation No. 48 of the Grand Lodge of Maine was approved by vote of the craft at the May 1, 2007 Grand Lodge Annual communication. The Blanket Liability Insurance is a Grand Lodge insurance, written by Hanover Insurance Company, covering members of all bodies in our Masonic family in all activities both inside our lodges as well as Masonic activities outside the confines of our Lodge buildings. Our previous policy was a very limited supplemental insurance assuming Lodges carried primary coverage for its members. The policy approved by vote of the craft in 2007 provides coverage of $ 1,000,000 per occurrence with a $ 2,000,000 total aggregate. A vote approved at the 2009 Grand Lodge Annual Communication increased the coverage with an additional $ 1,000,000 umbrella insurance. This report will address an option for additional umbrella coverage.

The vote approved in 2007 also included an option for lodges to participate in Group Insurance by Hanover Insurance Company through Grand Lodge for premises liability and property coverage for their buildings. Approximately one third of our constituent Lodges have taken advantage of this option designed to maximize coverage at the lowest possible cost. A total of 43 Lodges opted for this coverage during 2007 - 2008, 17 joined in 2008 – 2009, 4 joined in 2009 – 2010 and thus far 2 have joined in 2010 – 2011. Our insurance agent at Northeast Bank Insurance Group has received 9 additional questionnaires this year of which 6 quotes have been returned to the Lodges for consideration. The Insurance Committee sent a letter to all Lodges on March 1, 2011 as a reminder to new incoming Lodge officers of the opportunity for optional Group premises liability and property coverage.

One area of insurance coverage not covered by Hanover Insurance Company is bonding insurance for Lodge Secretaries and Treasurers, the primary officers responsible for handling Lodge funds. Hanover Insurance Company is simply unwilling to take the risk of group coverage in this area due to lack of disciplined internal controls for preventing possible embezzlement. Standing Regulation No. 43 states: "That the Grand Lodge of Maine will maintain a dedicated fund for the purpose of providing a Self-Insurance Bond, which will cover all Lodge Secretaries and Treasurers." Grand Lodge has by necessity become the insurer for this insurance and tasked the Insurance Committee to prepare a Directive for Lodges to follow in handling Lodge Funds. This Directive will be provided to Lodges for the 2011 – 2012 fiscal year. The Directive is awaiting final approval and when approved will specify payment limits as well as required internal controls.

Travelers Insurance Company writes the bond for the employees of the Grand Lodge office and the Charitable Foundation. There is a possibility this company would consider providing bonding insurance for individual Lodges but it appears this coverage would be expensive and the insurance company would insist on strict adherence on defined internal controls for handling Lodge funds. The Insurance Committee will investigate this possibility and will provide information to Lodges interested in bonding insurance separate from the Grand Lodge coverage.

One area of liability vulnerability the insurance Committee considers worthy of note, is for our Lodge activities outside the confines of the Lodge facility. Many of our Lodges deal with the public to perform outreach activities such as; CHIPS, blood drives, circus trips, youth activities and public dinners. Assessing the probability of a liability issue occurring in these types of activities is difficult to ascertain but certainly it is higher than activities involving only Masonic family members. We are now covered for membership liability at the rate of $ 1,000,000 per occurrence plus a $ 1,000,000 umbrella and a $ 3,000,000 aggregate. The cost of premiums for umbrella insurance reduces considerably as layers are added on due to the reduced risk of reaching the higher levels. Our cost for the $ 1,000,000 umbrella has been approximately an additional $.14 per member. We could bring the total umbrella up to $ 2,000,000 for an approximate additional charge of $.07 per member. This would raise the liability coverage of an individual Lodge to $ 1,000,000 plus a $ 3,000,000 umbrella for a total of a $ 4,000,000 aggregate. The Insurance Committee encourages the craft to consider adding on an additional $ 1,000,000 umbrella coverage.

Grand Master, on behalf of the Grand Lodge Insurance Committee, I request that a motion be placed on the table for a vote for an additional $ 1,000,000 umbrella liability coverage at approximately $.07 per member and that this report be accepted and spread upon the records of this Grand Lodge session.

Respectfully submitted,

Van E. Sullivan

Walter C. Smythe
Walter E. Kyllonen, Chairman

The Teller announced that the ballots were in for the election of Trustees of the Charitable Foundation. The two winners are: Gerald S. Leighton 300 Votes and Ronald W. Fowle, II, 123 Votes.

The Grand Master indicated that the winners had accepted and the vote is final.

R.W. Guy Chapman announced that there was a motion on the table to increase the Per Capita Tax by 10% to $ 14.10. That is the motion and it has been seconded.

Brian Messing stated that a number of years ago we had voted to take the $ 3.00 from the Maine Mason account and put it into the self-insurance fund and that was to continue until the self-insurance fund was up to about $ 120,000. We heard earlier today that we're at that figure. We also heard that the Maine Mason is solvent enough to continue publishing the magazines for the next year. We also heard that the proposed budget has been reduced by $ 22,000. So, I am confused as to what is going to happen with the $ 3.00 that isn't needed and why we need to increase the Per Capita Tax by the maximum 10% like we have done for the past five years.

Guy Chapman: The $ 3.00 is for the Maine Mason; you voted to take that assessment for two years to create the self-insurance fund. That has been satisfied so we now must take that $ 3.00 assessment to fund the Maine Mason account again. You heard Tom Pulkkinen say that we are operating on a shoe string. For years we went with no increase in the Per Capita Tax and now we need to have those increases in order to maintain our programs. We are trying to offer you more programs; like the leadership program, which our lodges really need. That is the need for an increase in the Per Capita Tax. Additionally, our numbers have decreased and because of that we will need increases.

The Grand Master called for a vote to increase the Per Capita Tax by 10% to $14.10. The motion was defeated by vote of the craft.

Guy Chapman: Now we can go to the budget. He called on Tom Pulkkinen who explained that what we had done was to decrease next year's budget by $ 27,000.00; not this year's budget. Guy Chapman called for a motion to approve the 2011-2012 budget in the amount $ 366,489.00 with expenses of $ 355,979.92.

The motion was made and seconded and carried by vote of the Craft.

Grand Master: We will now vote to increase the umbrella on our liability insurance coverage. On a motion duly and seconded it was voted to increase the umbrella insurance coverage at a cost of $.07 per member.

At 4:53 p.m., the Grand Master declared Grand Lodge at Recess until Wednesday, May 4, 2011.

GRAND LODGE OF MAINE
DAY TWO – May 4, 2011

At 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, May 4, 2011, the Grand Master called Grand Lodge from Refreshment to Labor.

Invocation was delivered by R.W. Daniel Hill, Grand Chaplain.

Grand Master directed the Grand Marshal to escort R.W. Thomas Pulkkinen to the East.

The Grand Master presented R.W. Thomas Pulkkinen with the 2010 Mark Twain Award on behalf of Bay View Lodge No. 196, for Excellence in Masonic Awareness. The Masonic Information Center states that Bay View Lodge No. 196 claims national recognition for demonstrating excellence in 2010 Masonic activities.

Wor. Timber Brown, Master of the Lodge, reported that the Lodge had an exceptionally busy and rewarding year, with heightened member commitment and participation. Lodge members implemented initiatives to strengthen membership, Masonic education, and communications in 2010.

R.W. Thomas Pulkkinen, Senior Warden, stated, "We improved awareness and served our community with events like a community open house, a widow's program, a High School Senior Class cookout, and we awarded two college scholarships."

The Junior Warden, Arthur Reed, added that, "Maintaining effective communications with our members and the community has always been a challenge but this year, we successfully submitted stories and updates to our local newspaper, maintained regular member newsletters, and created a new webpage."

R.W. Brother Thomas E. Pulkkinen was accorded a standing ovation by the Brethren.

R.W. Richard Rhoda presented the:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON HISTORIES

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 2011

Brethren, last year your Grand Historian reported that "Next year, those who are responsible for submitting lodge histories can be part of history themselves if they will get their job done." Brethren, history has been made this year!

All lodges are current in the reporting of their required lodge histories. It has taken 151 years but for the first time in the history of the Grand Lodge of Maine it can be reported that you are at 100 percent.

Grand Lodge began to require lodge histories in 1860 when they had to be submitted every 10 years. In 1980 it was changed to every year and a fine of $10.00 was to be imposed for each year a history was delinquent. Collections of fines were not actively pursued until seven years ago and then consternation arose among the Craft.

Five years ago there was significant dissatisfaction throughout the state relative to about 425 years of delinquent histories and the annual assessment of the $10.00 fine for each year, every year that a history was delinquent. As an example, a lodge that was 4 years behind in its histories would not owe a fine of $40.00 but rather one of $100.00!! There were lodges owing as many as 20 years.

Some lodges were refusing to pay their fine and some were telling, barely under their breath, where the Grand Lodge could go!! There was a strong feeling in some parts of the state of "them vs. us".

Success has been reached at this time because of the broad base support and desire of the lodges to complete their requirements. Such a success and the laying to rest of this divisive issue should be recognized for several reasons.

First, a Grand Master took on the problem. His successor stayed actively committed to the continuance of the program. Finally, our present Grand Master gave the inspiration to ensure that it got finished this year. They were the Generals.

The District Deputies have been vital to the success of the program, especially last year and this year. They have worked diligently with their lodges to keep the histories coming in. They have been the Captains.

Finally, the 184 Brethren who have submitted histories this year have been the Privates in the trenches, whether as Masters, Secretaries, Historians or just a Mason wanting to help the lodge.

To celebrate this occurrence, a special pin has been designed which reads, around the Square and Compass, "Maine Histories, 1860-2011, Club 151." This has been done to celebrate what 185 lodges have accomplished this year. Now, as far as histories go, we are all "us".

Such is the nature of man and his organizations that many may do work yet all will not receive recognition. The past five years some 1355 years of histories have been caught up or submitted annually as required. Some writers have submitted 10 to 15 years but not the current history. Their satisfaction came from knowing that they had helped their lodge do what needed to be done.

The submitters of histories this year finished the job that others had started. Close to 20% did not sign their name to their report so it should not be said that they were seeking personal recognition by another lapel pin.

Recognition at this time is going to all the lodges through the recipients of these pins. They will show that the dragon has been slain and what we can accomplish across the state when we all work as a team towards a common goal.

The real recognition is that the goal set by M.W. Bro. Gerald Leighton, one which was for the good of the Craft, has been accomplished.

May the wearers of these pins remind all of us of our obligations to responsibilities we assume, of our obligations to Grand Lodge, and of what we can do as a team.

Let me add that this past year, to fulfill the request of many lodges, we sent out an example of a history to serve as a guide. It was only sent via email so some 50 lodges did not receive it. From the comments received, I believe many were received but not passed on to the appropriate people. In any event, a copy of that history is being attached to this report and will always be available in hard copy form in the Annual Grand Lodge Communication for 2011.

Last year I spoke of the Schlimmbesserung we had created, i.e. a bad improvement, by some histories becoming too long.

Another Schlimmbesserung has been found, although an agreeable one.

Fines assessed by Grand Lodge are not a popular thing. In fact, many lodges consider it unmasonic but that is not the issue here today. What has happened is that fine income to Grand Lodge has been reduced for $0.00 this year. Starting in 2003 to date, income collected from fines has ranged from $1,716.00 to $5,560.00. This past year it was only $1,317.00. The average over eight years has been $3,550.00/year.

Years	Fines collected
2003-2004	$1,716.00
2004-2005	$3,750.00
2005-2006	$5,368.00
2006-2007	$3,301.00
2007-2008	$5,356.00
2008-2009	$5,560.00
2009-2010	$2,022.00
2010-2011	$1,317.00

At this time I would ask if the following Brethren or someone on their behalf will please come forward.

M.W. Bros. W. Louis Greenier, II, Robert R. Landry and Gerald S. Leighton; R.W. Bro. Stephen Smith of the 3rd Masonic District and W. Bro. Edwin Joy of Warren Lodge No.2.

I present a pin to each of these Most Worshipful Brothers for the leadership they have afforded us in reaching our goal.

I present a pin to R.W. Bro. Smith and through him to all the District Deputies who have made this endeavor successful. R.W. Bro. Smith exemplifies the team effort made by the District Deputies. One lodge and historian in his district, how shall I say it, were being less than cooperative. They were not living up to their responsibilities and commitments.

To ensure that his district would be standing tall here today and that the team goal would be met, he went over to the lodge about a month ago and wrote up three histories on a Friday. Thank you Brother.

I have already given to the District Deputies the pins that should go to their lodges. They have all agreed to distribute them and have once again contributed to the success of this undertaking.

And finally we have W. Bro. Ed Joy of Warren Lodge. Without him none of this would be taking place today. His history was the last one to come in, shortly after 8 o'clock today! Without Bro. Ed's effort we would not be at 100%. He represents all of the Brethren who contributed histories on behalf of their lodges this past year.

"Thank You" Bro. Ed. "Thank you Brethren all."

Brethren, there is one final "Thank You". I would be most remiss if I did not extend at this time, after five years of phone calls and requesting names and telephone numbers. It has been an interesting and enjoyable experience working with her. So to Corey Center, here is my last "Thank You"!

M.W. Grand Master, there are no outstanding histories!!
I move the acceptance of this report.

Fraternally Submitted,

R.W. Richard L. Rhoda, Chairman

The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Brethren. R.W. Brother Rhoda was accorded a standing ovation by the Brethren.

R.W. Brother Rhoda: After serving as Grand Historian for five years and having talked many times with Lodge Masters, secretaries and historians, I believe that a review of Rule 2 requiring a lodge history be submitted every year should be reviewed.

For 120 years the requirement was that a lodge history had to be submitted every 10 years. In 1980, it was changed to every year. I believe that 10 years is too long a time period and every year is too short.

I move that a committee be appointed by the Grand Master to review and make a recommendation at the next annual session of Grand Lodge of an appropriate time period between the reports of lodge histories.

The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Craft.

(The following is a history example to serve as a guide)

MONUMENT LODGE NO. 96, A. F. & A. M.
HOULTON, MAINE
Feb. 10, 1988 to Feb. 8, 1989

In "A History of Monument Lodge No. 96, 1858-1939", compiled by Brothers Amos Putnam and Hazen Nevers, we read the following:

"In its more than seventy-five years of history, Monument Lodge has been presided over by fifty-one Masters. Of these Brother Henry F. Collins served seven years, Brother S.F. Berry four years, Brother James Archibald four years." Further examination of the records reveals that several others served multiple terms. In fact, from 1901 through 1920 each Master of the lodge served for two years. Since that time no Past Master was elected to again serve as Master until 1988 when Wor. John M. Galda, Master in 1986, was installed for the second time. This was not due to any great desire on his part but rather because of his willingness to help the lodge cope with the difficult situation which had resulted from the loss of several line officers within a relatively short period of time.

The installation of the officers for 1988-1989 was held on the evening of February 27 with our own Thomas Brown, D.D.G.M., the Installing Officer and Past District Deputies Roderick McKay and Earl Daniels as Marshal and Chaplain. Brother Gaida's father-in-law, R.W. Clovis Frame, Grand Chaplain, sang the Master's and Wardens' Odes, accompanied by Mrs. Marjorie Nelder. Mrs. Nelder and her daughter, Mrs. Patricia Flemington, entertained with piano and organ duets. Refreshments were served by the ladies of Fidelity Chapter No. 32, O.E.S.

The practice of mailing monthly Masonic Anniversary cards was continued for another year and five who were raised during the month of March accepted their special invitations to be present at the Stated Communication for that month. Letters were received from nine others. Many interesting letters have been received from brothers who, in many cases, have not been able to attend their own lodge in a great many years.

A somewhat disconcerting “sign of the times” came to light when it was announced that our annual Past Masters’ Night would have to be postponed indefinitely because there was no candidate available for whom these august gentlemen could demonstrate their considerable skills. One would have to go back over the records for many years to discover a like situation.

It was announced that our Junior Warden, James Bailey, had become the first in Monument Lodge to be awarded a certificate attesting to the fact that he had attended all of the Schools of Instruction as well as the District Meeting. The presentation was made by R.W. Thomas Brown.

The impressive Service of Rededication which Brother Galda introduced in his first term as Master was held with the brethren uniting in repeating a pledge admonishing them to remember their obligation.

The Stated Communication in April was conducted by Wor. James Vail as Brother Galda was unable to be present. At this meeting R.W. Earle Stoton, Chairman of the Trustees of Monument Lodge Association - better known as the “Building Committee” - informed the lodge that a donation had been received which was to be used to help defray the cost of carpeting the platform in the South to correspond with the work done in the East. He suggested that if the lodge voted to go ahead with this it might be wise to carpet the platform in the West at the same time. It was voted to have this done. It was hoped that Aroostook Royal Arch Chapter and St. Aldemar Commandery might be able to provide some assistance in funding the project.

A highlight of the evening was the presence of our oldest living Past Master, Hillus Ingraham. Wor. Brother Ingraham was raised in 1924 and was Master of the lodge in 1931. Although he is confined to a wheel chair his mind is keen and he obviously enjoyed his visit to the lodge.

Also worthy of note was the fact that three of the five oldest Past Masters were present on this occasion, the others being Wor. Brothers Wilder Carr and Millard Fairley.

The program for the evening was conducted by Junior Warden James Bailey who offered an interesting presentation on Masonic etiquette, usages and customs, concluding with a vocabulary quiz. Considerable discussion was generated as well as some differences of opinion. These were referred to our learned Brother N. James Coolong, Grand Lecturer, whose decisions were, for the most part, accepted.

On Friday morning, April 22, the brethren were called to hold a Committal Service for our late Brother Adolph Wiggin at the Hodgdon Cemetery. Brother Wiggin was raised in Monument Lodge in April of 1948 and would soon have become a 40-year member. As on so many previous occasions, Brothers Garald Wiggins and Henry White were acting Master and Chaplain.

A Special Communication was held on the evening of April 22 honoring our retiring District Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Thomas S. Brown. There were approximately seventy-five members and guests in attendance with eight different lodges being represented. Wor. John Galda was Master of Ceremonies and incidental music was provided by Mrs. Marjorie Nelder and Mrs. Patricia Flemington. R.W. James Coolong was the principal speaker and paid a highly deserved tribute to Brother Tom. Wor. Brother Galda presented a Past District Deputy's apron and embossed carrying case, the gift of the lodge. A very entertaining part of the program was the singing of Brother Torrey Sylvester and the members of his Barbershop Quartet, "The Main Event".

As Wor. Brother Galda's "necessary vocation" prevented his attendance at the Stated Communication held on May 11, R.W. Herschel McIntosh presided in the East. We were honored by a visit from our newly appointed District Deputy, R.W. Donald J. McAllister of Washburn Lodge #193 and the newly appointed District Representative, Wor. Richard L. Currier, also of Washburn Lodge.

R.W. Herschel reported that the committee appointed to consider the purchase of a computer for the use of the lodge recommended that this be done. After some discussion it was voted to accept the recommendation, again with the hope that the Chapter and Commandery might share in the venture.

At this Communication, Wor. George H. Beatham was presented a second bronze star to be attached to the ribbon of his Grand Lodge Veteran's Medal. Wor. George was Master in 1935 and was Treasurer for a period of thirty-six years.

Wor. Brother Gaida's report of the recently concluded Grand Lodge sessions was read by Brother McIntosh. Seven members of the lodge plus our Honorary member James Coolong were in attendance. There were several items of particular interest to our lodge. Brother McIntosh was reelected Trustee of the Grand Lodge Charity Fund and Clovis Frame and James Vail were reappointed Grand Chaplain and Grand Organist. After many years of outstanding service Brother Coolong retired from the office of Grand Lecturer. Already a holder of the Simon Greenleaf Medal, he was presented the Josiah Hayden Drummond Medal, an honor he most richly deserved. Also at this session the first annual Historian's award was given for what was chosen as the best lodge history for the year. This attractive medal was presented to Roger B. Lincoln.

Always of importance to the lodge is a change in its By-laws. At this meeting it was proposed that a change be made which would enable any officer to be elected by acclamation under prescribed conditions. This would be in accordance with the present practice in Grand Lodge. It was also proposed that the annual dues be raised from $15.00 to $20.00 and the cost of a life membership from $300.00 to $400.00.

There being five members of Trinity Lodge #130 in attendance and there not being that many visitors from any other lodge in the district the care of the Traveling Gavel was entrusted to Wor. Edgar Crockett, Past Master of that lodge, with the warning that it might be retrieved at any time by Monument Lodge. However, it is hoped that there might be competition from the other lodges in the district, Trinity and Monument having alternated possession for several years.

May 21 was the date chosen by Wor. Brother Galda for the entertaining of the widows of our departed brethren. As is so often the case, this conflicted with other activities in the area but twenty-two of our ladies were able to be with us.

Following the delicious roast beef dinner, prepared by our sterling chefs Henry White and Mahlon Byron, a varied program of light entertainment was enjoyed. Three of our DeMolay boys provided instrumental trios and solos. Brother Tom Brown played the piano and Clove Frame gave a heartrending reading of the Robert W. Service poem, "The Cremation of Sam McGee".

Mrs. Ralph Tingley spoke on behalf of the ladies present, thanking the lodge for a most enjoyable evening.

A Special Communication was held on June 15 to work the Fellowcraft Degree on Brother Michael A. Clark. Senior Warden Herschel McIntosh presided in the East during the conferring of the degree. He asked the brethren to bear with him as it had been forty years since he had done so. No apology was needed, however, as the work was excellent.

For our St. John's Day Observance Brother Galda chose to return to the format introduced by him two years earlier. Rather than have the members gather for breakfast and then attend a church in the area the ceremony was held at the lodge on Sunday evening. The brothers and their ladies shared in a "pot-luck" supper after which a short but excellent program was presented. A color guard of Sir Knights from St. Aldemar Commandery participated in a tribute to the American flag. Prayer was offered by our Grand Chaplain Clovis Frame, and Brother Tom Brown played "How Great Thou Art". Grand Organist Jim Vail played incidental music on the organ. Wor. Brother Galda gave an interesting and informative discourse on our patron saints, John the Baptist and John the Evangelist.

The fall and winter season got under way with our September Stated Communication. At this time the application for affiliation of Brother William F. Robinson, a member of Rising Virtue Lodge No. 10 in Bangor, was accepted by the lodge and Brother Robinson thus became the first member of Monument Lodge to hold plural membership in two Maine lodges. He was raised in this lodge but upon moving to Bangor demitted in order that he might hold an office in Rising Virtue Lodge.

The By-laws revisions as proposed at the May Stated Communication were brought before the lodge and it was voted that they be adopted.

On September 21 the Past Masters of the lodge were given the delayed opportunity to work the Master Mason degree. Brother Michael A. Clark was the candidate for the evening. Despite the fact that Market Square was closed off while awaiting resurfacing following the installation of new storm drains there was a good attendance. Included in the number were twenty-two Past Masters of Monument Lodge and five visiting Past Masters.

40-Year Lapel Buttons were presented by R.W. Herschel McIntosh to Brothers Mahlon Byron, Donald Dunphy, Roger Lincoln, Floyd Miller and Earle Stoton. Ten other members were eligible to receive them but were not present. None of the seven eligible to receive 25-Year buttons was present.

Wor. Garald E. Wiggins was Honorary Master for the evening and Wor. Darrell L. Malone was the acting Master.

A cake was presented to the lodge in honor of her husband by Mrs. Millard Fairley, it being his 85th birthday. Wor. Brother Fairley was the acting Junior Steward for the work of the evening.

On September 22 the brethren were called to perform a Memorial Service for our late Brother Irving H. Sanders. Brother Sanders was raised in Monument Lodge on March 19, 1955. Once again the service was conducted by Brothers Garald Wiggins and Henry White.

At the Stated Communication for October Junior Deacon Torrey Sylvester presented the Traveling Trowel which was wrested from the possession of Trinity Lodge on October 4. There were eight members of Monument Lodge present which was more than sufficient to return the gavel once more.

At this time there was discussion of the type of program to be presented at our annual Thanksgiving Observance. No firm plans were made and, unfortunately, for the first time in many years no observance was held. Several things combined to make it impractical to hold a special meeting for this purpose at this time but it is to be hoped that this longstanding tradition will not be abandoned.

Five members marked their November Masonic Anniversaries at the Stated Communication for that month. There was a rather remarkable spread, ranging from the first anniversary of Brother Dana Delano to the sixty-eighth of Brother Roy Thomas. Telephone calls were received from Brother William Cumming who was observing his sixty-ninth and Brother Jasper Lycette, his sixty-sixth.

Wor. Brother Galda thanked the brethren who had prepared and served a Roast Beef dinner at the special New Brunswick Night held by Fidelity Chapter #32. Once again Brothers Henry White and Mahlon Byron were largely responsible for the delicious meal. Their efforts were so much appreciated that they have already been booked for a return engagement next year.

C. Eugene Bartley was the candidate for work in the Entered Apprentice degree which was conducted by Junior Warden James Bailey.

The lodge started the new year right in its Stated Communication for January, which also was the official visitation of R.W. Donald McAllister, D.D.G.M. It has been many years since so many visitors have been present at a meeting of this nature. There were twelve from Woodstock (New Brunswick) Lodge #11 and four from Hartland Lodge #16 which holds its meetings in the Woodstock Masonic Hall. Their presence was due to the fact that fourteen members of Monument Lodge visited in Woodstock the previous week and urged their members to return their call. Obviously the invitation was accepted. There were also six other lodges represented. Of the total number of guests eighteen were first time visitors to our lodge.

Eleven of our own members responded to the call for those having Masonic birthdays in January with our 61-year member, Wor. George Beatham being the oldest.

As the candidate scheduled to receive the degree was unable to be present our most recently raised member, Brother Michael Clark, was the acting candidate for the exemplification of the work of the Master Mason degree.

It perhaps should be recorded that prior to the meeting the ladies of Fidelity Chapter served a delicious roast beef dinner. They had been asked to plan for about fifty but actually served seventy-two satisfied customers. These ladies have served suppers on many occasions during the year and without doubt have thereby helped to increase the attendance at these meetings.

Once again a Past Master of the lodge came to our aid. At the Stated and Annual Communication held on February 8 Wor. Richard L. Rhoda was elected Master for the second time. Wor. Brother Rhoda was Master in 1977. Since that time he served as Grand Junior Deacon and is at the present time Most Wise Master of the Bangor Chapter of Rose Croix. His willingness to again serve in the East made it possible for the other line officers to advance only one station. R.W. Herschel McIntosh had been Senior Warden during the past year as well as in much of the year previous to that but did not feel that he could go on as Master.

A fine Memorial Service was conducted by Wor. Brother Galda honoring those who had died during the year as well as our Past Grand Masters Leon M. Sanborn and Harlan F. Small.

Brother Galda spoke briefly expressing his appreciation for the cooperation he had received during his "second time around". He, himself, is to be highly commended for his efforts in behalf of the lodge. His work schedule made it difficult for him to accomplish all that he had hoped to but despite this he had another outstanding year as Master.

Once again the annual reports indicate that the lodge is in satisfactory financial condition but one must delve deeply into the records to find another year in which only one candidate was raised. It is to be hoped that this situation may soon be corrected.

The Grand Master read the Masonic Biography of R.W. Charles W. Plummer

CHARLES WILLIAM PLUMMER

R.W. Charles W. Plummer was born in Lisbon Falls, Maine on April 30, 1934. He graduated from Lisbon High School and served four years in the U.S. Navy. Following his honorable discharge from the U.S. Navy, he earned a B.S. Degree and began his career as an educator. After more than 30 years as a teacher and principal, he is now retired. Since his retirement twenty years ago, he has remained active and involved.

Brother Plummer has been a Mason for 37 years and can be proud of his very distinguished record of accomplishments.

We feel it's very important to emphasize here one of the many ways that Brother Charlie's talents have brought enjoyment and enrichment wherever he goes.

That is his very excellent performance as he brings history to life for us in the person of Joshua Lawrence Chamberlain, who was a Maine Mason. He is still teaching us, young and old; and we thank him for that.

R.W. Charles W. Plummer, in recognition for your inspiring service and dedication to our wonderful Craft, it is a pleasure for me to name you as the recipient of this Joshua Lawrence Chamberlain Medal. R.W. Brother Plummer was unable to attend the session due to illness. The award will be presented at a later time.

COMMITTEE ON THE CHILD IDENTIFICATION PROGRAM

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 2011

To the most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine and Most Worshipful Brother Greenier:

In order to continue with the reports of the Maine Masonic Child Identification Program in an orderly fashion since its inception, this report is submitted as such.

During the year 2010, I started to include in our distribution of educational materials that are given to the parents or guardians of children who participate in our program, material which is written and distributed by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. This material is free and the only condition required is that we partner with the Take 25 program and publish our programs on their web site as well as ours. So, being the prudent type, I agreed to that stipulation.

This was a step in the right direction as we not only received the material but also expanded our exposure to families not only in Maine but across the United States and Canada as well.

With the growing number of children participating in the program, the savings, as well as having a professional amount of material to distribute, can only add to our success and continuance as the most comprehensive Child Identification Program available.

Now for a tally of the past year, although we didn't make our goal which was 3500, we were able to come close with 3421. But, we did have over 100 successful programs. My thanks go out to all the Coordinators and brethren who unselfishly give of their time to this most worthwhile program. Would those brothers now stand so all can see? (The Brethren applauded the CHIPS coordinators)

Respectfully submitted,

Wendell T. Graham

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON YOUTH

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 4, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

We did not have any formal meetings this year; however the Chairman attended many District Meetings and spoke of the many youth programs available to the Lodges. A special emphasis was placed on the Books for Bikes program. This program is expanding to all areas of the state. Over five hundred bikes will be awarded this year. The Charitable Foundation continues to fund on a matching basis the Project Graduation as well as other youth activities. Community Betterments are available to the Lodges also.

Thanks to our Grand Master for his support.

Respectfully submitted,

Lester F. Smith, Chairman

Grand Secretary: I move the acceptance of this report and that it be spread upon the record. The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Brethren.

M.W. Wayne T. Adams: M.W. Grand Master, I move that we dispense with the reading of all informational reports and that we hear only those that require action by this Grand Lodge. The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Brethren.

M.W. George Pulkkinen: In regard to Section 44, Rule 13, I move that we reconsider the motion to reject the proposed Per Capita Tax increase which was voted on yesterday. The motion was seconded by Guy Chapman. The motion was carried by vote of the Brethren.

Guy Chapman called on R.W. Thomas Pulkkinen to explain. R.W. Brother Pulkkinen explained that the increase was actually for next year. It means $ 27,000 loss of income. It would mean a loss of funding for the Conference of Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Masters and Grand Secretaries, which is held each year and the Northeast Conference of Grand Masters. I would seriously urge you to reconsider the $ 1.13 or $ 1.14 per year increase. It would mainly affect our Leadership Program.

M.W. George Pulkkinen made a motion to increase the Per Capita Tax by 10%. The motion was seconded by R.W. Robert J. Landry.

R.W. Alan R. Heath spoke in opposition to the motion. He commented that the Brethren should look around the room and you will see only Gold Collars here today. The officers representing the various lodges have gone home; gone back to work. It is not proper to do this. We should not be voting to nullify a vote that was passed when the representatives of our lodges were here on a previous day.
Applause!

R.W. Robert Stratton said that several years ago we were upset because the Finance Committee has not asked for an increase over the years. Now we have a chance to correct that.

One past Master asked if we had waited until the Masters had left in order to act on what they voted on that we do not like.

Frank Theriault remarked, "If we don't raise the Per Capita we lose our travel and programs, both of which are important to us."

V.W. Christian Ratliff stated that the Finance Committee report had angered the Brethren. In a moment of anger we punished the next Grand Master for things that are happening right now. I will vote in support of this action; however, we will be blamed.

Wor. John Irovando called for a vote on the motion. The motion was seconded by Robert J. Landry. The motion was carried by vote of the Brethren.

Tom Pulkkinen repeated the motion: "To increase the Per Capita Tax by 10 % to $14.10." It was voted to increase the Per Capita Tax by 10 % to an amount set at $14.10.

R.W. Kenneth Richardson made a motion to: "Hold the 193rd Annual Session of the Grand Lodge of Maine in Bangor on May 1, 2012. Motion was seconded by M.W. Claire V. Tusch, P.G.M. The Motion was carried by vote of the craft.

Brother Christian Ratliff made a motion to Amend Section 35 by adding the following language:

Moved, that we amend Section 35 appending the following:

"Provided, however, that such draft budget must also be accompanied by supporting documentation explaining, justifying and analyzing its recommendations. Said documentation must disclose all motions, other than acceptance of the report itself, which will be presented by the Committee at the Grand Lodge Annual Communication. However, such documentation shall not be construed to prohibit the Committee from altering its report, budget or motions during the interval between January and May.”

This motion was approved by vote of Grand Lodge to be tabled, referred to the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution and scheduled for formal vote by Grand Lodge assembled in May of 2012.

R.W. Richard Rhoda made a motion that a Committee be appointed to review our Lodge Histories and recommend the appropriate time when Lodge Historians should be required to submit their histories to Grand Lodge [ie: every year; every two years or whatever]. The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the craft.

Grand Secretary: Most Worshipful Grand Master, I move that Wor. and Reverend Brother Ronald W. Smith be granted, “Emeritus,” status with the Title of, “Wor. Grand Chaplain Emeritus.” Wor. Brother Smith was granted emeritus status several years ago but later gave it up because it deprived him of the opportunity to vote at Grand Lodge. Wor. Brother Smith is now in rather poor health and will not likely be attending Grand Lodge very often in the future. Therefore, he would appreciate being granted the emeritus status once again.

The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the craft.

Brother Robert Ward presented the

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Finance Committee of the Grand Lodge of Maine Ancient
Free and Accepted Masons
Portland, Maine

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities, and net assets – cash basis, of Grand Lodge of Maine Ancient Free and Accepted Masons as of March 31, 2011 and 2010 and the related statements of revenue collected, expenses paid, and other changes in net assets – cash basis, for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and the significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1, these financial statements were prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, and net assets of Grand Lodge of Maine Ancient Free and Accepted Masons as of March 31, 2011 and 2010 and its revenue collected, expenses paid, and other changes in net assets for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
MARCH 31, 2011 AND 2010

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of the Organization

Grand Lodge of Maine Ancient Free and Accepted Masons (the Organization) is a nonprofit fraternal organization, incorporated in Maine, established for charitable, educational, and other specific purposes in accordance with Masonic principles and practices.

Method of Accounting

The Organization's financial statements have been prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Under that basis, the only assets recognized are cash and investments except as noted below. All other assets and liabilities are not recognized. Accordingly, revenues are recognized when received rather than when earned, and expenses and purchases of assets are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. The only modification to the cash basis of accounting is that unrealized gains and losses are included in revenues and expenses and investments are reported at fair market value, and the liability to other organizations for investments in custodial care is recognized.

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared in accordance with the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board. Net assets, revenues, expenses, gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Organization and changes therein are categorized and reported as follows:

Unrestricted Net Assets - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations. Board designated funds are included in this category.

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met, either by actions of the Organization and/or by the passage of time. When restrictions expire, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets.

Permanently Restricted Net Assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that do not lapse or expire. The Organization's use of the funds is limited to the income earned.

All of the Organization's net assets were unrestricted for the years ended March 31, 2011 and 2010.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of financial statement presentation, the Organization considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Investments

It is the Organization's policy to value investments at their fair value at the balance sheet date. Donated investments are recorded at fair value on the date of donation.

Retirement Plan

The Organization maintains a Simple IRA plan with a salary deferral option for all employees. The expense for matching contributions was $260 and $520 for each of the years ended 2011 and 2010, respectively.

Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. In determining fair value, the Organization uses various methods including market, income and cost approaches. Based on these approaches, the Organization often utilizes certain assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk and or risks inherent in the inputs to the valuation technique. These inputs can be readily observable, market corroborated, or generally unobservable inputs. The Organization utilizes valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. Based on the observability of the inputs used in the valuation techniques the Organization is required to provide the following information according to the fair value hierarchy. The fair value hierarchy ranks the quality and reliability of the information used to determine fair values. Financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value will be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

- Level 1 – Quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities traded in active exchange markets, such as the New York Stock Exchange.
- Level 2 – Observable inputs other than Level 1 including quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, quoted prices in less active markets, or other observable inputs that can be corroborated by observable market data.
- Level 3 – Unobservable inputs supported by little or no market activity for financial instruments whose value is determined using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, or similar techniques, as well as instruments for which the determination of fair value requires significant management judgment or estimation.

In determining the appropriate levels, the Organization performs a detailed analysis of the assets and liabilities. At each reporting period, if applicable, all assets and liabilities for which the fair value measurement is based on significant unobservable inputs are classified as Level 3.

For the fiscal years ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, the application of valuation techniques applied to similar assets and liabilities has been consistent. The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for instruments measured at fair value:

Investment Securities

The fair value of investment securities is the market value based on quoted market prices, when available, or market prices provided by recognized broker dealers. If listed prices or quotes are not available, fair value is based upon externally developed models that use unobservable inputs due to the limited market activity of the instrument.

Fair Value

On April 1, 2010, the Organization adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2010-06, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (Topic 820): Improving Disclosures about Fair Value Measurements. This ASU requires additional disclosures about fair market measurements, including (a) the amounts and reasons for certain significant transfers among the three hierarchy levels of inputs, (b) the gross, rather than the net, basis for certain Level 3 roll-forward information, (c) use of a “class” basis rather than a “major category” basis for assets and liabilities, and (d) valuation techniques and inputs used to estimate Level 2 and Level 3 fair value measurements. The adoption of this ASU did not have a significant impact on the Organization’s financial statements.

NOTE 2 – INVESTMENTS

NOTE 3 – RENT EXPENSE:

Facilities:

The Organization leases its office and library facilities from the Masonic Trustees of Portland, an unrelated entity, without benefit of a formal lease. For each of the fiscal years ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, annual rentals amounted to $24,200.

NOTE 4 – SHARED EXPENSES:

The Organization is headquartered in the same facility as The Masonic Charitable Foundation of the Grand Lodge of Maine (the Foundation), a non-profit organization tax exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3). Grand Lodge personnel, including the Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, and clerical employees, perform services for both organizations. In addition, various office and administrative expenses, including telephone, internet service, copier and computer use, insurance, and office supplies are also shared by both organizations.

As of April 1, 2003, the Grand Lodge assumed responsibility for payment of all shares expenses, except facilities rent. Allocations between organizations are in accordance with estimated usage.

The Foundation's share of these expenses amounted to $80,847 for the year ended 2011 and the Grand Lodge received this amount in equal monthly installments. The total of shared expenses for the year ended 2010 was $71,361.

The recovery of shared expenses for both years has been allocated to the various expense categories on the Statement and Schedule of Revenue Collected, Expenses Paid, and Other Changes in Net Assets – Cash Basis.

NOTE 5 – CLASSIFICATION OF EXPENSES

The statement of activities discloses expenses by natural classification. The classification of expenses by function is as follows as of March 31:

	2011	2010
Program services	$ 233,724	$ 233,646
Management and general	73,714	78,761
	$ 307,438	$ 312,407

NOTE 6 – INCOME TAXES:

The Organization qualifies as an organization exempt from income tax as a domestic fraternal association under Section 501(c)(10) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to the Organization may qualify as charitable deductions if restricted to charitable, religious, etc. purposes as defined in IRC Section 6113(b)(3). Management believes there were no activities subject to tax on unrelated business income for the years ended March 31, 2011 and 2010.

Management has evaluated the Organization's tax positions and concluded that as of March 31, 2011 and 2010, the Organization does not believe that it has taken any tax positions that would require the recording of any additional tax liability. In addition, the Organization had no accruals for interest and penalties at March 31, 2011 and 2010. The Organization is subject to federal and state examinations by taxing authorities for the years ending March 31, 2008 and through March 31, 2011.

NOTE 7 – CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK:

The Organization has cash deposits in various financial institutions including banks, investment and brokerage firms. Accounts at banking institutions (regular checking, interest-bearing checking, certificate of deposits and savings) are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000. These limits apply to aggregate deposits for each class of accounts stated above that the Organization has with each bank and may at times exceed $250,000. At March 31, 2011 and 2010, the Organization did not have cash balances in excess of insured amounts at banking institutions.

Cash at investment and brokerage institutions is in money market funds and is not insured by the FDIC. The institutions where these accounts are maintained are members of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) which insures cash funds up to $100,000. Balances in excess of $100,000 are insured by the institutions' excess SIPC insurance. At March 31, 2011, cash balances in money market funds did exceed insured limits. The Organization has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to significant credit risk.

NOTE 8 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS:

The Organization has evaluated subsequent events through the date of the opinion of these financial statements, which represents the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 9 – RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES:

The Organization invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statement of assets, liabilities, and net assets – cash basis.

We have audited the financial statements of the Grand Lodge of Maine Ancient Free and Accepted Masons as of and for the years ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, and have issued our report thereon dated August 11, 2011 which contained an unqualified opinion on those financial statements. Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information contained in the accompanying schedules is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. GRAND LODGE OF MAINE CHARITABLE FOUNDATION
ANNUAL MEETING

April 19, 2011
Ramada Conference Center
Lewiston, Maine

Members present: W. Louis Greenier, II, Grand Master; A. James Ross, Deputy Grand Master; Wayne T. Adams; Claire V. Tusch; Robert R. Landry; Robert G.W. Lobley, Ronald W. Fowle, II; Randall Elliott; Guy F. Chapman; Walter Macdougall; Stephen Nichols; John O. Bond; Walter Kyllonen; Harold E. McKenney, Jr. and Hollis G. Dixon.

The meeting was opened at 11:08 a.m. by the Grand Master. The Invocation was delivered by M.W. Walter Macdougall. The Brethren saluted the Flag of our Country and recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Wayne Adams made a motion to accept the minutes of the January meeting. Motion seconded by Robert G.W. Lobley. Motion carried by vote of the Trustees.

Wayne Adams called for the Annual Report of the Foundation. The Grand Treasurer stated that he has not received all of the financial statements necessary to complete the report. He added that he also has a problem with the Maine Masonic College in that he does not receive all of the necessary reports from them.

On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to authorize the Treasurer of the Foundation to sign proxies for securities owned by the Foundation and Stock Certificates, Resolutions and other Documents pertaining to the sale of securities.

The Grand Master called for the report of the Committee on Investments. Robert G.W. Lobley, Chairman, gave a verbal report. Robert Ferguson made a motion to accept the verbal report of the Investment Committee and that a copy of the report of H.M. Payson Co. be appended as a part of this proceeding. Motion seconded by Robert R. Landry. Motion carried by vote of the Trustees.

On a motion by Claire V. Tusch and seconded by Robert Ferguson, it was voted to ratify and confirm all actions of the Investment Committee for the year ended March 31, 2011.

On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to authorize the Committee on Investments to purchase and sell securities on behalf of the Foundation during the coming year, as it deem prudent.

On a motion duly made by Robert Lobley and seconded by Walter Kyllonen, it was voted to accept the verbal Report of the Committee on Distributions as presented by Wayne T. Adams. That report included a synopsis of the following: Relief for Per Capita for veterans and 50 year members; Matching Grants for Community Betterment projects and Youth Activities; Veteran's Homes Representatives, who are given five hundred dollars as working capital to help our veterans.

There was a discussion about the need for more education for our District Deputies and Masters of our lodges relative to these subjects.

On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to accept the report of the Committee on Gifts as presented by the Grand Treasurer.

The proposed 2011 – 2012 Foundation Budget was distributed by the Grand Treasurer. The Maine Masonic College has requested $15,000.00 as compared to $10,000.00 in last year's budget. Stephen Nichols spoke about the college programs. He noted that their second Convocation will be held in July.

James Ross asked the Grand Treasurer to explain what the Masonic College has done pursuant to complying with IRS requirements for financial information.

Harold McKenney said that he has received information for the last three months out of the last twelve months. They do show cumulative information for the entire year. He added that a few years ago, we met with three people involved with the College and was told, "It is none of your business." He closed their bank account and they said they would seek to be granted 501 C (3) status, which would make them independent from the foundation. Later, we met with a representative of our auditing firm to discuss that matter.

Steve Nichols said that he told M.W. Brother Leighton to give the Grand Treasurer what he needs. Mac said, "Since then I have received reports for only the last three months".

Wayne Adams stated that we should pass the budget but not release any funds for the College until we get what we need for records.

Walter Macdougall stated that he was impressed with the responsibility that the Trustees have pursuant to the Maine Masonic College. He stated that the college is responsible for two things:

Freemasonry is a rich deep experience that every Mason has. Every generation asks Freemasonry to take a stand for that period in history. We must have Freemasons that are extraordinarily well prepared with concern for what society needs for information.

Harold McKenney stated that the College has increased its income by $ 10,000.00.

Robert Ferguson made a motion to increase the Maine Masonic College Budget item for 04/01/11 to 03/31/12 from $ 10,000.00 to $ 15,000.00 but on condition that the President of the Foundation direct the Treasurer of the Maine Masonic College to submit monthly financial statements and if they are not submitted that the funding cease. The motion was seconded by Robert R. Landry.

Jim Ross made a motion to amend the original motion to read that the College be required to go back nine months with a requirement for them to submit the required records. Motion seconded by Walter Kyllonen. The motion was carried by vote of the Trustees.

The original motion, as amended, was approved by vote of the Trustees.

The Grand Master recessed the meeting for lunch.

The meeting was resumed at 1:15 p.m.

Wayne Adams made a motion to approve the proposed budget, as amended. Robert Ferguson seconded the motion.

Claire Tusch stated that in the past few years, prior to the Stock Market tanking, we donated $ 10,000 to the George Washington Masonic Memorial. This past year the Memorial has experienced some extensive and unexpected costs for a variety of problems that are more than the Memorial can stand. They have requested earlier funding for a number of things just to meet these extraordinary expenses. I wonder if we could consider returning that donation to the $ 10,000.00 level. I would propose that as an amendment. Motion seconded by Robert R. Landry. Motion carried by vote of the Trustees.

Robert R. Landry made a motion that the donation to each of the two Scottish Rite Learning Centers be increased to $ 10,000.00 for Bangor and $ 10,000.00 for Portland. Motion seconded by Hollis Dixon. The motion was carried by vote of the Trustees.

James Ross questioned why there was $ 1,500.00 in the budget for the Deputy Grand Master. He does not feel that it is necessary. No motion was offered.

The Grand Master called for a vote to approve the Foundation budget as amended. The motion was approved by vote of the Trustees.

Robert Ferguson made a motion to elect Robert G.W. Lobley, Wayne T. Adams and Claire V. Tusch to serve on the Committee on Investments. Motion seconded by Robert R. Landry. Motion carried by vote of the Trustees.

Claire V. Tusch made a motion to elect Wayne T. Adams, Hollis G. Dixon and W. Louis Greenier, II to serve on the Committee on Distribution. Motion seconded by Robert Ferguson. Motion carried by vote of the Trustees.

The Grand Master called for a motion to elect a Committee on Gifts. Wayne Adams made a motion to postpone that election until the next meeting. Motion seconded by Robert Ferguson. Motion carried by vote of the Trustees.

On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to postpone the election of a Finance Committee until the next meeting. Motion carried by vote of the Trustees.

The Grand Master announced that the new ciphers would cost $ 10.00 each when printed and it has been proposed that they be sold for $ 15.00 each with $ 5.00 of that amount being a donation to the Foundation. He recommends that the Foundation purchase them for $ 10.00 each and that they purchase 2,000 ciphers. A motion to that effect was made by Walter Kyllonen and seconded by Robert Ferguson. The motion was carried by vote of the Trustees.

The Grand Master stated that it was said, at one of our meetings, that the Foundation could buy property.

Robert Ferguson made the following motion: Move that the Charitable Foundation express a willingness to invest in a piece of real estate provided it would benefit the Foundation and the Trustees approve a set of proposals. Motion seconded by Robert R. Landry. Motion carried by vote of the Trustees.

Claire Tusch stated that we need a representative of the Foundation on the Site Selection committee. Walter Kyllonen added that we should have two representatives on that committee. Robert Ferguson made a motion to that effect. The following Trustees expressed a willingness to serve on the committee: Walter Kyllonen, Ronald Fowle, Robert R. Landry, Wayne T. Adams and Robert Ferguson. Also that James Ross and W. Louis Greenier, be Ex-Officio members.

Wayne Adams made a motion that the election of Foundation Treasurer be postponed until the June meeting and allow Mac to act as Treasurer until the June meeting. Motion seconded by Robert Ferguson. Motion carried by vote of the Trustees.

On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted to postpone the election of members of the Finance Committee until the June meeting.

James Ross made a motion that next year's annual meeting be held on April 17, 2012. Motion seconded by Robert Lobley. Motion carried by vote of the Trustees.

The next regular meeting will be held on Monday, June 6, 2011 at 10:00 a.m. in Bangor. The meeting was adjourned at 2:35 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Trustees
The Masonic Charitable Foundation
of the Grand Lodge of Maine

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets, liabilities, and net assets - cash basis of The Masonic Charitable Foundation of the Grand Lodge of Maine as of March 31, 2011 and 2010 and the related statements of revenue collected, expenses paid and other changes in net assets - cash basis, for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and the significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1, these financial statements were prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, and net assets - cash basis of The Masonic Charitable Foundation of the Grand Lodge of Maine as of March 31, 2011 and 2010 and its revenue collected, expenses paid, and other changes in net assets for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

THE MASONIC CHARITABLE FOUNDATION
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
March 31, 2011 and 2010

NOTE 1- NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SUMMARY OF AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Nature of the Organization

The Masonic Charitable Foundation of the Grand Lodge of Maine (the Foundation) is a nonprofit Maine corporation established for charitable, educational, and other specific purposes in accordance with Masonic principles and practices.

Method of Accounting

The Foundation's financial statements have been prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Under that basis, the only assets recognized are cash and investments. All other assets and liabilities are not recognized except as noted below. Accordingly, revenues are recognized when received rather than when earned, and expenses and purchases of assets are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. The only modification to the cash basis of accounting is that unrealized gains and losses are included in revenues and investments are reported at fair market value, and the liability to other organizations for investments in custodial care is recognized.

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements of the Foundation have been prepared in accordance with the recommendations of the Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 958-205, Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations ("ASC 958"). Net assets, revenues, expenses, gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Foundation and changes therein are categorized and reported as follows:

Unrestricted Net Assets- Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations. Board designated funds are included in this category.

Included in this category are the following funds:

- Charity
- C.H.I.P.S.
- Drug and Alcohol
- Scholarship
- Maine Masonic College
- Pension Reserve

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets- Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met, either by actions of the Foundation and/or by the passage of time. When restrictions expire, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets. Management has interpreted under Maine law that the net appreciation of endowment funds are considered temporarily restricted net assets until appropriated for use by the board. Temporarily restricted net assets consist primarily of appreciation on endowments.

Permanently Restricted Net Assets- Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that do not lapse or expire with time. The Foundation's use of the funds is limited to the income earned.

Included in this category are the following funds:

- MCF Lodge Accounts
- Foster Scholarship Fund
- Dana B. Cutter Memorial Fund
- George R. Rich Memorial Fund
- David L. Toothaker Memorial Fund

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of financial statement presentation, the Foundation considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of six months or less to be cash equivalents.

Investments

It is the Foundation's policy to value investments at their fair value at the balance sheet date. Donated investments are recorded at fair value on the date of donation. Investments include money market funds invested for the long term

Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. In determining fair value, the Foundation uses various methods including market, income and cost approaches. Based on these approaches, the Foundation often utilizes certain assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk and or risks inherent in the inputs to the valuation technique. These inputs can be readily observable, market corroborated, or generally unobservable inputs. The Foundation utilizes valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. Based on the observability of the inputs used in the valuation techniques, the Foundation is required to provide the following information according to the fair value hierarchy. The fair value hierarchy ranks the quality and reliability of the information used to determine fair values. Financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value will be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

- Level 1 – Quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities traded in active exchange markets, such as the New York Stock Exchange.
- Level 2 – Observable inputs other than Level 1 including quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, quoted prices in less active markets, or other observable inputs that can be corroborated by observable market data.
- Level 3 – Unobservable inputs supported by little or no market activity for financial instruments whose value is determined using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, or similar techniques, as well as instruments for which the determination of fair value requires significant management judgment or estimation.

In determining the appropriate levels, the Foundation performs a detailed analysis of the assets and liabilities. At each reporting period, if applicable, all assets and liabilities for which the fair value measurement is based on significant unobservable inputs are classified as Level 3.

For the years ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, the application of valuation techniques applied to similar assets and liabilities has been consistent. The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for instruments measured at fair value:

Investment Securities

The fair value of investment securities is the market value based on quoted market prices, when available, or market prices provided by recognized broker dealers. If listed prices or quotes are not available, fair value is based upon externally developed models that use unobservable inputs due to the limited market activity of the instrument.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Fair Value

On April 1, 2010, the Foundation adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2010-06, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (Topic 820): Improving Disclosures about Fair Value Measurements. This ASU requires additional disclosures about fair value measurements, including (a) the amounts and reasons for certain significant transfers among the three hierarchy levels of inputs, (b) the gross, rather than the net, basis for certain Level 3 roll-forward information, (c) use of a “class” basis rather than a “major category” basis for assets and liabilities, and (d) valuation techniques and inputs used to estimate Level 2 and level 3 fair value measurements. The adoption of ASU did not have a significant impact on the Foundation’s financial statements.

The Foundation's investment and spending policy for permanently designated endowment is as follows:

The principal investment objectives of the Grand Lodge portfolio fund are preservation of capital earning a reasonable current income which will cover operating and charitable expenses, and growth in income.

Quality is to be stressed at all times in the portfolio. Common stock investments should concentrate on seasoned companies with proven records, above-average prospects and sound financial positions. The bond portfolio will stress companies with investment grade ratings and strong credit quality.

Growth in income is expected to result from rising dividend payments of common stock investments and occasionally from rising interest rates. Income growth will be lessened during periods of declining interest rates and economic adversity.

The fund will pursue balanced investment programs utilizing both fixed income and equity investments although it is anticipated that a majority of the assets is to be committed to equity investments. While little attention will be paid to short-term market timing, the investment manager will endeavor to anticipate long-term fluctuation in prices and will vary the equity component of the endowment fund between a range of 60% and 75% of the total fund. The lower end of this range will be used when, in the opinion of the investment manager, stock prices fully reflect long-term value and the higher end will be used when stock prices are considered undervalued. It is anticipated that portfolio turnover will be relatively low, and it is hoped that the equity and fixed income components as well as the overall portfolio will compare favorably with leading capital market indices (S&P 500 and Salomon Brothers High Grade Bond Index, respectively) over long periods of time. These investment objectives are to be reviewed annually by the Investment Committee.

NOTE 3 – FUNDS HELD FOR OTHERS:

In 2003, the Foundation agreed to accept funds from the DeMolay and Pine Tree Youth Foundation for the purpose of managing the funds for the benefit of the transferor organizations.

Income derived from the investment of the funds is distributable to the DeMolay and Pine Tree Youth Foundation, which has also retained the right to request the return of the funds at its sole discretion.

Investment activity in the custodial accounts was as follows:

	2011	2010
Fair value - April	$ 910,296	$ 670,233
Investment income	61,507	245,981

Distributions	(167,206)	(21,689)
Fair value - March 31	$ 990,505	$ 910,296

NOTE 4 – RENT EXPENSE:

The Foundation leases its office facilities from the Masonic Trustees of Portland, an unrelated entity, without benefit of a formal lease. Annual rental for each of the fiscal years ending March 31, 2011 and 2010 was $24,200.

NOTE 5 – SHARED EXPENSES:

The Foundation is headquartered in the same facility as The Grand Lodge of Maine Ancient Free and Accepted Masons (Grand Lodge), a non-profit fraternal organization tax exempt under IRC Sec. 501(c)(10). Grand Lodge personnel, including the Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, and clerical employees, perform services for both organizations. In addition, various office and administrative expenses, including telephone, internet service, copier and computer use, insurance, and general office supplies are also shared by both organizations.

As of April 1, 2003, the Grand Lodge assumed responsibility for payment of all shared expenses, except facilities rent. Allocations between organizations were in accordance with estimated usage.

The Foundation's share of these expenses amounted to $80,047 for the year ended 2011 and was paid to the Grand Lodge in equal monthly installments. The total of shared expenses for the year ended 2010 was $71,361.

Shared expenses for the current year have been allocated to the various expense categories on the Statement and Schedule of Revenue Collected, Expenses Paid, and other changes in Net Assets - Cash Basis.

NOTE 6 – INCOME TAXES:

The Foundation qualifies as an organization exempt from income tax under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to the Foundation qualify as charitable deductions. Management believes there were no unrelated activities subject to tax on unrelated business income for the years ended March 31, 2011 and 2010.

Management has evaluated the Foundation's tax positions and concluded that as of March 31, 2011 and 2010, the Foundation does not believe that it has taken any tax positions that would require the recording of any additional tax liability nor does it believe that there are any unrealized tax benefits that would either increase or decrease within the next twelve months. When necessary, the Foundation recognizes interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in operation expenses. No such interest or penalties were recognized during the periods presented. In addition, the Foundation had no accruals for interest and penalties at March 31, 2011 and 2010. The Foundation is subject to federal and state examinations by taxing authorities for the years ending March 31, 2008 and through March 31, 2011.

NOTE 7 – CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Foundation has cash deposits in various financial institutions including banks, investment and brokerage firms. Accounts at banking institutions (regular checking, interest-bearing checking, certificate of deposits and savings) are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000. These limits apply to aggregate deposits for each class of accounts stated above that the Foundation has with each bank. At March 31, 2011 and 2010, the Foundation did not have cash balances in excess of insured amounts at banking institutions.

Cash at investment and brokerage institutions is in money market funds and is not insured by the FDIC. The institutions where these accounts are maintained are members of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) which insures cash funds up to $100,000. Balances in excess of $100,000 are insured by the institutions' excess SIPC insurance. At March 31, 2011 cash balances in all money market funds at various brokerage institutions totaled $356,853. In addition, $13,938 was in six-month certificates of deposit. The Foundation has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to significant credit risk.

NOTE 11 – RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Foundation invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. REPORT ON THE DOINGS OF GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine A.F. & A.M.:

As of April 27, 2011, six day prior to The Grand Lodge Convocation, The Committee on the Doings of Grand Lodge Officers had received only three of the approximately thirty three Grand Lodge reports required of its Grand Officers. This committee relies solely on the reports of the Grand Officers to make their determinations and recommendations. To base this report on insufficient information would be a disservice to the craft and its members. This situation has become increasingly worse in the succeeding years and needs to be addressed immediately.

We do hereby recommend that the Most Worshipful Grand Master take whatever action necessary to ensure that all Grand Lodge Officers submit these reports in a timely manner so that the information will be available when required by the respective committees.

Fraternally submitted,

Vernon G. Bean
Gerald C. Pickard
Randy L. Adams Chairman

REPORT OF THE MAINE MASONIC COLLEGE 2010-2011

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

The highlight of this year for the Maine Masonic College was unquestionably the Convocation hosted by the Maine Masonic College on July 16th and 17th, 2010. Inspired by M.W. Walter M. Macdougall, it brought together more than sixty Masons and guests to consider a deeper meaning of the Masonic fraternity. Presentations were made by Masons and non-Masons, some from Maine and others from Maryland, North Carolina, Oklahoma, and Virginia. Comments following the meeting were all positive and convinced the Board of Regents to begin immediately planning for a second such Convocation in July of 2011.

In addition to hosting the 2010 Convocation, the College presented classes in Houlton, Farmington, Union, Bangor, Portland, Kennebunkport, Newport, and Augusta. We also sponsored a presentation to the annual American-Canadian conference in Campobello. All this is consistent with our stated goal of reaching out to the Craft in all parts of the state of Maine. The possibility of offering classes online over the Internet has been discussed but is not yet a reality. The College's teaching staff has been strengthened by the participation of faculty members of the University of Maine at Orono.

A Curriculum Committee was formed which proposed a core curriculum of subjects that should be considered by all Masons seeking to understand the deeper meaning of Freemasonry and areas of specialization for those who wish to pursue certain well-defined courses of Masonic studies. Requirements were established for the award of a diploma to anyone who successfully completes the requisite courses. Other measures were adopted for the recognition of Masons and non-Masons who reach certain levels of attendance at classes.

We have attempted to establish a sense of continuity in Masonic studies in certain areas such as leadership, critical thinking, ethics, and the Seven Liberal Arts and Sciences so that our students will have a sense that they are progressing in the search for more light in Masonry and not simply being exposed to a scatter-shot availability of Masonic education.

As the year drew to a close, there were encouraging signs that we were meeting with greater success in gaining recognition and acceptance of the College's classes. The number of attendees showed an increase and their participation in class activities tended to be more engaged. We have also seen more non-Masons attending recent classes. The Board has deliberated over the many means available to publicize the classes being offered. We are becoming more adept at the use of newspaper radio, and television advertising. The Friends of the Maine Masonic College membership is also receiving more emphasis as a means of getting the word out to the Craft. In addition, items such as polo shirts, vests, caps, and tee-shirts are now available for purchase with the Maine Masonic College logo emblazoned on them. These items are surprisingly popular with the students. The College maintains a web site and a Facebook account in order to further facilitate our communication with the Craft.

The College continues to contribute a centerfold to the Maine Mason magazine in which we present thought-provoking articles about Masonry as well as book reviews and information about upcoming classes. This effort, too, is beginning to get a better response.

In order to ensure that the College is not ignoring other efforts to spread the knowledge of Masonic information, we try to maintain a continual exchange of views with other bodies such as the Masonic Education and Lodge Service Committee, the Grand Lecturers, the Maine Lodge of Research, and the Lodge Ambassadors.

The College is indebted to the Maine Masonic Charitable Foundation for its continued and essential financial support of our programs. We believe that it is an important investment not only in the improvement of Masonic education in this jurisdiction but also in the better understanding of Freemasonry in the population at large, as most of our classes are open to and attended by non-Masons.

We look forward to the expansion and improvement of the Maine Masonic College and to its increasing contribution to a better appreciation of what it means to acquire more light in Masonry.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC LODGE RENEWAL/REVITALIZATION

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

As in the past, this committee has been available to Maine's Blue Lodges for assistance. This comes in the form of ideas which the Lodges may use to develop community programs, lodge programs and a basic plan to encourage growth. This assistance will help lodges grow and become an important part of their community. The committee can also suggest ideas to get brethren back to lodge meetings.

This committee hopes to reach every lodge in Maine over the next couple of years. The push will be on to reach the District Meetings this year and give a brief look at Renewal. The committee also wishes to incorporate with other Grand Lodge committees to provide the greatest results to the Brethren of Maine.

The internet has become a major resource for this committee chairman. Communication with the committee and Maine masons has become a priority to this chairman. Communication can make or break a program, a committee and our Lodges. Please go and check out the Renewal.org website. This is set up by the Grand Master's Association of North America and has much to offer.

The committee for the future is being put together and some new go-getters are joining the team. An effort to have contacts within each district is in the works. If anyone is interested in helping with this, please contact your District Deputy or call me directly.

It is the Goal of this committee to help lodges as needed, to give suggestions which may help them to help themselves and to be advisers as this process goes on. I hope with the cooperation of the Grand Lodge Officers and this committee that Renewal & Revitalization in Maine Lodges will become common place.

Thank you to our Grand Master for allowing me to serve the brethren of Maine. To all of Maine's Masons, please feel free to call me for an R&R program or any assistance. Remember, if you don't try, you can't succeed!

Fraternally submitted,

Peter F. Morse, Chairman

REPORT OF THE GRAND LODGE SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

In Grand Lodge
Portland, Maine
May 3, 2011

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge Of Maine

The Grand Lodge Scholarship Committee has held one meeting this past year; the program seems to run itself. I went to the Grand Lodge office in Portland to meet with Julie Irving and Alan Heath on the way the scholarships work out of that office. Julie has retired from the Grand Lodge office and she worked a lot on the scholarship program so in order to make a smoother transition, I wanted to meet with her before her retirement. The scholarship committee would like to thank Julie for all that she has done on this program and wish her well in her retirement years.

In 2008 we started our new scholarship program and it seems to be working well. The larger dollar amounts (44 scholarships of $1500.00 each) seem to be making a significant difference in the students' tuition and loan commitments. We have now completed the three year rotation of all the schools in Maine and will start the rotation again in June of 2011. We received several telephone calls concerning the scholarship program and how it works. We encourage the brethren to promote and call the committee if there are any questions, concerns or new ideas.

With the state of Maine reorganizing several of their school districts and unions we have seen a few high schools changing their names and numbers of RSU's and AOS's, and a few high schools have even closed. We will make every effort to try and stay on course and be sure we don't leave any one out.

We will to encourage the Maine Masonic Lodges and the Charitable Foundation to continue to support this program. There has been some buzz about fund raising for the scholarship program through the Charitable Foundation. The Fund Raising Subcommittee has been working with the scholarship committee to see what we can do to increase the scholarships to one in every high school in Maine each year for $1500.00 each. The Maine Masonic Charitable Foundation funds the scholarship program and budgets about $70,000 each year. This would have to be increased to about $200,000.00 in order to give to each high school every year. Any lodge or brother that wishes to donate directly to the scholarship program may do so by stating that they want their donation to go towards the scholarship program. Send your donation to the Grand Secretary's office.

The 12 non-traditional scholarships that the Foundation supported did not happen again this year. The Charitable Foundation cut this from the budget in order to cut costs.

The scholarship committee is pleased to serve this Grand Lodge in helping maintaining a high degree of efficiency and community involvement with the Charitable Foundation. The committee also wishes to thank the Grand Treasurer, Harold McKenney and Julieanne Irving for all they have done this worth while program. Again Thank You Julie for all that you have done to keep us organized and on track with the scholarship program. Your work was greatly appreciated by the committee and best wishes.

Respectfully Submitted,
